Tax Alert: Funding Considerations/Reviews

Dear All

The financial impact of COVID-19 has resulted in many companies relooking at their funding arrangements, and in instances, restructuring and waiving portions of their debt.

In a bid to differentiate KPMG and leveraging of the current market success as result of various tax alerts published over the last couple of weeks, we have developed a tax alert video that deals with the restructuring of debt funding arrangements.

Please find attached the tax alert video that will be circulated to clients (via a link to the KPMG Tax homepage) and launched on social media shortly.

Regards,
