KPMG Law, a new choice...

Our offering is underpinned by top quality lawyers and KPMG's global footprint.

Recognised Performers

Experience counts. While KPMG Law is young (and energised!), our experience is not. Our legal team has joined us from leading international and Australian firms with deep experience and credentials in their areas of practice.

Global Footprint

With 2,400+ multidisciplinary legal professionals across 77 jurisdictions globally, and supported by KPMG's global network of over 200,000 colleagues, we have the reach and depth to provide you with seamless coverage wherever you need it.

...because we deliver legal and business solutions as part of an integrated KPMG team, underpinned by commerciality, quality and technology.

Stronger and better solutions across KPMG

Clients come to KPMG Law for support with their most important business initiatives and challenges, not just to receive legal advice. By working in unison with our Strategy, Consulting, Advisory, Deals, Tax and Risk specialists, our team is stronger and better, providing blended end-to-end solutions.

Clients save time by working with one firm with one lead engagement partner, as we focus on delivering solutions and an outstanding client experience.

Our integrated model spans core legal services and diversified 'New Law' services driven by technology-enabled solutions. Our integrated model seeks to provide solutions for today and to anticipate the needs of tomorrow – the future of law.

Partnering with Plexus

KPMG Law has formed a strategic alliance with legal innovation leader, Plexus. Our joint vision for partnering with Plexus is to reimagine legal service delivery.

Plexus is a market leading Australian provider of “software as a service” legal technology with a growing international footprint. Plexus’ Legal Gateway product is a modular platform that automates routine legal tasks for in-house counsel. It includes self-service apps, contract automation, negotiation portals, e-signatures, document storage & management all with reporting and analytics.

For further information on what our unique alliance with Plexus can do for your business, please contact Kate Marshall.
