

Next Gen finance in the cloud

KPMG Powered Enterprise | Finance

January 2020

To disrupt you must transform

While the vast majority agree that automation will allow finance to focus more on higher value-added activities and less on transactional ones (78%), few have been able to adapt their skill bases to the realities of a more automated workplace. <sup>(1)</sup>

CFOs have important questions

- How does the finance function need to change to enable business agility?
- How do I help my people embrace the change?
- How do I get more value from my data?
- How do I provide the insight and control to oversee wider innovation and transformation?
