

Legal Operations Impact Assessment

Your Partner For What's Next

Are you prepared for the new reality?

What is it?

Using KPMG's Legal Operations Impact Assessment, we will analyse your legal function against the six core pillars of a legal operating model - structure, process, resourcing, people, technology and performance. We can carry out a detailed assessment of your function's capability and operational effectiveness, providing you with actionable recommendations which will enable you to make the right management decisions.

Is your legal function operating efficiently?

Are you getting the most from your team?

Do you deliver strategic value to your organisation?

Conducting an impact assessment will give you answers to some of these key questions:

-  Are we structured to serve the business effectively? Do we have clear roles and responsibilities?
-  Do we have a sourcing strategy? What is the balance of in-house vs outside counsel? Are we optimising our spend?
-  Do we have a legal strategy? Is it aligned with the wider business? Can we measure performance?
-  Do we have clearly defined processes? Does the business understand them? Does this drive efficiency?
-  Do we recruit and retain the best people? Are they focused on the right tasks? Do they perform at the required level?
-  Do we have the right technology? Are we making best use of it? Can we make data-driven decisions?

What are the benefits of the Legal Operations Impact Assessment

-  An independent check conducted by experienced legal operations professionals
-  Identification of strengths and weaknesses across your existing legal operational framework and practices
-  Strategic impact analysis weighted around the importance of components within the layers of the legal operating model
-  Key recommendations on what you should do to address the challenges identified
-  Prioritisation of key areas of focus within the legal operating model
-  A re-useable tool that can be used to monitor the health of legal operations practices over time
-  A snapshot in time which prompts meaningful discussion and debate
