Foreword

Ind AS Accounting and Disclosure Guide (revised April 2020)

This guide has been put together by KPMG in India to assist entities in preparing financial statements in accordance with Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS). It identifies the potential and significant accounting, reporting and disclosure requirements that are applicable to preparers and users of Ind AS financial statements.

1.1 Standards covered

The guide is based on the standards notified by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA) upto 31 March 2020.

The guide covers key disclosure requirements prescribed by Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013¹, and relevant clarifications provided by the Ind AS Technical Facilitation Group (ITFG) upto 31 March 2020. It also includes the interpretations issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants in India (ICAI) in the form of Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs).

The guide specifies the scope of individual standards and their key recognition, measurement and disclosure requirements. However, this guide should not be used as a substitute for referring to the standards and interpretations themselves or for professional consultation where required.

1.2 Need for judgement

This guide has been prepared to assist entities in complying with the significant accounting, reporting and disclosure requirements of Ind AS. However, the preparation of an entity's financial statements entails the use of judgement in terms of the evaluation and selection of accounting policies and disclosure choices based on the standards, the entity's specific circumstances and the materiality of disclosures in the context of the organisation.

1.3 References and abbreviations

Each question includes a reference to the relevant guidance within the standard or to the Division II of the Schedule III¹ requirement. The checklist has been prepared for use by entities (other than banks and Non-Banking Financial Companies (NBFCs)). The specific requirements related to Division III of Schedule III which gives general instructions for preparation and presentation of financial statements of NBFCs in accordance with Ind AS have not been included in this guide.

Where ITFG has provided a clarification on a matter within the standard, a reference has also been made to the relevant ITFG clarification. Further, where a standard directs the preparer to another standard for certain types of transactions, a relevant cross-reference has been inserted. Abbreviations, where used, are defined within the text of the guide.

Using the Ind AS Accounting and Disclosure guide

The guide is designed to assist entities in preparing financial statements in accordance with Ind AS by identifying the potential accounting considerations and disclosure requirements that are applicable to them. The guide is organised by standards and covers key recognition, measurement and disclosure considerations for each standard along with additional considerations as follows:

1.4 Executive summary

This section provides an overview of the accounting and disclosure requirements and key considerations for each Ind AS. It is designed to summarise the significant guidance in each standard, including Exposure Drafts (EDs) issued by ICAI and other international updates.

1.5 Checklist

The 'checklist' will assist companies in determining whether the guidance in each Ind AS applies to them and also evaluate whether they have met the accounting and disclosure requirements. It is designed in a question-based format that will seek a response on whether a preparer has complied with each significant accounting consideration or disclosure requirement in the standard. Typically, a 'yes' response will indicate compliance, whereas a 'no' response will indicate non-compliance. An 'NA' response indicates that the transaction/financial statement item does not apply to the entity. This is intended to act as a comprehensive tool to assist in financial statements preparation under Ind AS and easily identify areas of non-compliance in a structured and comprehensive manner.

1. Reference to Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013 is with respect to Division II

1.6 Additional considerations

The Companies Act, 2013

This section will highlight any considerations under the Companies Act, 2013 (the 2013 Act) for each standard. Specifically, any areas of differences between the 2013 Act and the relevant standard or any additional guidance provided under the 2013 Act has to be carefully considered since the requirements under law take precedence over the guidance provided under Ind AS. This section has been updated to include the key amendments to the provisions of the 2013 Act notified by the Ministry of Company Affairs (MCA) upto 31 March 2020 relevant for each standard.

Significant carve-outs from IFRS

There are certain mandatory and optional carve-outs or deviations from the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) within Ind AS. As a result, financial statements prepared under Ind AS may not be in full compliance with IFRS. This section of the guide highlights key carve-outs for each standard, which may be an important consideration for companies that either seek to comply with IFRS or for better comparability with financial statements prepared under IFRS.

Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

On 29 September 2016, the Central Board of Direct Taxes (CBDT) through its notification No. 87/2016 issued revised ICDS and repealed its earlier Notification No. 32/2015, dated 31 March 2015. The revised ICDS are applicable to all assesseees other than an individual or a Hindu undivided family who is not required to get his/her accounts of the Previous Year (PY) audited in accordance with the provisions of Section 44AB of the Income Tax Act, 1961 (IT Act). Such assesseees need to follow the mercantile system of accounting, for the purposes of computation of income chargeable to income-tax under the head 'Profits and gains of business or profession' or 'Income from other sources'. This section has been updated to include interaction of the revised ICDS and clarifications issued thereon with the relevant standards.

ITFG clarifications

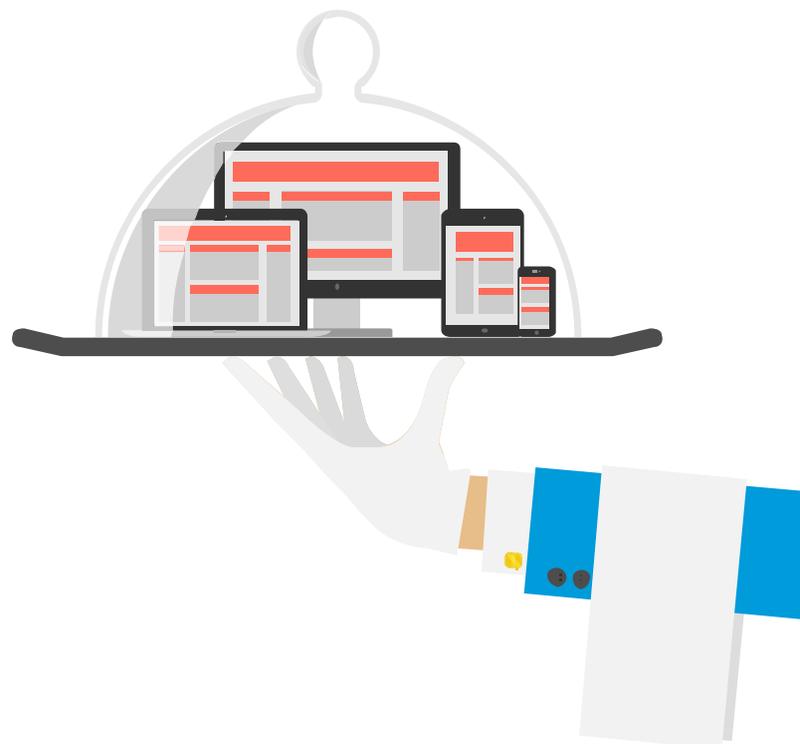

ITFG has issued 23 bulletins till 31 March 2020, which provide guidance on various aspects of Ind AS. This section of the guide lists the clarifications provided by ITFG for each standard, and where the clarification directs the preparer to another standard, a relevant cross-reference has been inserted.

SEBI updates

Relevant provisions of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, (Listing Regulations) have also been included for reference of entities where ever required in each checklist as additional considerations.

Legal and regulatory requirements

While this guide identifies significant areas of interaction between the guidance in the standards and the provisions of the 2013 Act, ICDS and ITFG interpretations, entities should also consider the applicable legal and regulatory requirements when referring to this guide. Further, entities should consider the impact of any changes that may occur in Ind AS and their interpretation, as well as the applicable legal and regulatory requirements.

Applicability of Ind AS

Applicability of Ind AS

The ITFG has dealt with a number of issues regarding applicability based on Ind AS road map. The Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA) laid down an implementation road map for corporate and financial services entities, as given hereunder:

I. Implementation road map for Ind AS by companies (corporate road map)

On 16 February 2015, MCA notified the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015, and laid down an Ind AS implementation road map for corporates as given below:

	Phase I	Phase II	Voluntary adoption
Year of adoption	FY 2016 - 17	FY 2017 – 18	FY 2015 – 16 or thereafter
Comparative year	FY 2015 - 16	FY 2016 - 17	FY 2014 – 15 or thereafter Covered companies
a) Listed ¹ companies	All companies with net worth \geq INR500 crore	All companies listed or in the process of being listed	Any company could voluntarily adopt Ind AS
b) Unlisted companies	All companies with net worth \geq INR500 crore	Companies having a net worth \geq INR250 crore
c) Group companies	Applicable to holding, subsidiaries, joint ventures, or associates of companies covered in (a) and (b) above. This will also impact fellow subsidiary companies while preparing Consolidated Financial Statements(CFS) of the holding company. (Refer bulletins- (ITFG 15 Issue 10) and (ITFG 19 Issue 6) clarifications)

II. Implementation road map for Ind AS by Non-Banking Financial Companies (NBFCs)²

In January 2016, MCA notified the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards)(Amendment) Rules, 2016, and laid down an implementation road map for NBFCs as given below:

	Phase I	Phase II	Voluntary adoption
Year of adoption	FY 2018 – 19	FY 2019 – 20	N.A.
Comparative year	FY 2017 - 18	FY 2018 - 19	N.A.
NBFCs covered in the Ind AS road map
a) Listed NBFCs	All NBFCs with net worth \geq INR500 crore	All NBFCs listed or in the process of being listed	Any company could voluntarily adopt Ind AS

¹ Companies whose equity or debt securities are listed or are in the process of being listed on any stock exchange in India or outside India.

² The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) (notification dated 13 March 2020) has framed regulatory guidance on Ind AS which will be applicable on Ind AS implementing NBFCs and Asset Reconstruction Companies (ARCs) for the preparation of their financial statements from financial year 2019-20 onwards.

	Phase I	Phase II	Voluntary adoption
b) Unlisted NBFCs	All NBFCs with net worth \geq INR500 crore	All NBFCs having a net worth \geq INR250 crore	Any company could voluntarily adopt Ind AS
c) Group companies	Applicable to holding, subsidiaries, joint ventures, or associates of NBFCs covered in (a) and (b) (other than companies already covered under the corporate road map in I above). This will also impact fellow subsidiary companies while preparing CFS of the holding company. (Refer bulletins- (ITFG 15 issue 10) and (ITFG 19 issue 6) clarifications)

III. Implementation road map for Ind AS by financial service entities (financial services road map - other than NBFCs)

In January 2016, MCA announced the Ind AS road map for scheduled commercial banks (excluding regional rural banks) and insurers/insurance companies³, making Ind AS applicable to the entities from 1 April 2018. However, due to certain reasons such as preparedness of the institutions, amendments to the relevant laws, and a high compliance cost, the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) and the Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority of India (IRDAI) deferred the implementation of Ind AS to banks and insurance companies, respectively, as below:

- The RBI has deferred the applicability of Ind AS to banks till further notice⁴.
- The IRDAI has deferred the applicability of Ind AS to insurance sector till further notice. Additionally, the insurance companies are no longer required to submit proforma Ind AS financial statements to IRDAI on a quarterly basis as was earlier required. (As per the circular issued by IRDAI dated 21 January 2020⁵). Voluntary adoption of Ind AS is not permitted.

⁵ IRDAI through its circular no. IRDA/F&A/CIR/ACTS/023/01/2020 dated 21 January 2020 deferred the implementation of Ind AS in the insurance sector in India till further notice. (Also refer First Notes released by KPMG in India on 24 January 2020).

Key clarifications of the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) guidelines for NBFCs/ARCs²

The RBI lays down regulatory provisions relating to various aspects of operation of NBFCs/ARCs such as provisioning of loan exposures, maintenance of regulatory capital, etc. Ind AS prescribes accounting treatment in the financial statements of NBFCs/ARCs, of which certain provisions vary with the regulatory stipulations. Accordingly, NBFCs/ARCs required clarifications on certain aspects. The RBI guidelines brings clarity to, and provides directions on many such matters.

The RBI spells out the importance of the involvement of the Board and the ACB in setting and approving policies in assessment of business model and various facts of computing ECL.

Some of the key clarifications provided by RBI guidelines are as follows:

- Board defined policies on business model assessment: NBFCs/ARCs should have clear documented policies, approved by the Board, that defines the business model within which each loan/advance (or group of loans/advances) is held.
- Expected Credit Loss(ECL) methodologies: It is essential that all NBFCs/ARCs recognise a significant increase in credit risk and impaired loans on a timely basis, since a delay would aggravate underlying weaknesses in credit quality and adversely affect capital adequacy. Thus RBI lays the responsibility of approving ECL methodologies/ECL models, and change in such models on the Board. Further, the audit committee is accountable for approving:
 - Accounts that are 90 days past due, but which are not considered as impaired, and
 - The classification of accounts that are overdue beyond 30 days, whose risk is not considered to have increased significantly since initial recognition.
- Creation of impairment reserve and disclosure of impairment provision: Prudential norms on Income Recognition, Asset Classification and Provisioning (IRACP) prescribes certain percentages to be applied while computing provision on advances. However, Ind AS 109, Financial Instruments requires entities to compute ECLs on a probability weighted basis. This led to a divergence in the impairment computed under the two norms, which was a matter of great contention.

The introduction of the requirement to maintain an impairment reserve, now provides clarity that NBFCs/ARCs are required to compare the impairment as per IRACP and Ind AS 109 and recognise the higher of the two. However, since this mandates the IRACP provision to be recorded (where higher), it would lead to a mandatory carve out from IFRS 9, Financial Instruments, which requires entities to record impairment allowance on financial assets based on the loss expected to occur on the asset over 12 months/life of the asset (where there is a significant increase in credit risk on initial recognition).

The RBI guidelines require the impairment allowance under IRACP and Ind AS 109 to be disclosed in the financial statements.

- Computation of regulatory capital: Ind AS prescribes various accounting adjustments that are recorded in equity on a one-time (on implementation of Ind AS) or a regular basis. This affects the computation of regulatory capital, including computation of net owned funds. The RBI guidelines now clarify, how the Ind AS adjustments should be dealt with while computing regulatory capital and net owned funds.
- Reference to Ind AS guidelines: The RBI guidelines do not provide any commentary or technical interpretation pertaining to the accounting standards. Thus for matters not dealt with by the RBI guidelines, NBFCs/ARCs should refer to notified accounting standards, application guidance, education material and other clarifications of the ICAI.

Some of the clarifications provided by the Ind AS Technical Facilitation Group (ITFG)

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided
Bulletin 3 (Issue 8)	Listing criteria for applicability of Ind AS A company could fall in the Ind AS road map when it meets the listing criteria. If a company ceased to meet the listing criteria of the Ind AS road map immediately before the mandatory Ind AS application date, then it would not be required to comply with Ind AS even if it met the criteria on a prior date.
Bulletin 6 (Issue 1)	Net worth criteria to be met at specified date Once a company meets the threshold criteria in relation to net worth, then it is required to comply with the Ind AS road map even if its net worth falls below the criteria specified at a later date. In a situation relating to a debt-listed company, where the company met the net worth criterion on 31 March 2014 (i.e. met the net worth criteria for phase I of road map). Later the net worth of the company fell below the specified threshold. However, as per the road map the net worth of the company should be calculated in accordance with the Separate Financial Statements (SFS) of the company as on 31 March 2014 (i.e. when the road map for phase I companies became applicable in the instant case).
Bulletin 6 (Issue 2)	Section 8 companies to prepare Ind AS financial statements if covered under the road map The companies covered under section 8 of the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act), would be required to prepare Ind AS financial statements unless and until any exemption is provided.
Bulletin 6 (Issue 4)	Capital reserve in the nature of promoter's contribution An entity may have received grant from government, in the nature of promoter's contribution which was included in capital reserve in accordance with the provisions of AS 12, Accounting for Government Grants. Such capital reserve (in the nature of promoter's contribution) should be included as a part of net worth only for the purpose of Ind AS applicability. In addition, definition of net worth for Ind AS applicability should not be applied by analogy for determining net worth under other provisions of the 2013 Act.
Bulletin 11 (Issue 1)	Employee Stock Option Plan (ESOP) reserve in computation of net worth In order to compute net worth for Ind AS applicability, ESOP reserve is required to be included. The ITFG considered the guidance in the Guidance Note on Accounting for Employee Share-based Payments which, inter alia, provided that an enterprise should recognise as an expense (except where service received qualifies to be included as a part of the cost of an asset) the services received in an equity-settled employee share-based payment plan when it receives the services, with a corresponding credit to an appropriate equity account, say, 'Stock Options Outstanding Account'. This account is transitional in nature as it gets ultimately transferred to another equity account such as share capital, securities premium account and/or general reserve as recommended in the subsequent paragraphs of this Guidance Note. In addition the definition of net worth for Ind AS applicability should not be applied by analogy for determining net worth under other provisions of the 2013 Act.

Bulletin 12 (Issue 6)	Applicability of Ind AS to a branch of a company incorporated outside India A company incorporated outside India with limited liability, may have established a branch office in India, with the permission of the Reserve Bank of India (RBI), to provide consultancy services in India. Ind AS road map is applicable to a company as defined in section 2(20) of the 2013 Act. According to the definition, a company means a company incorporated under the 2013 Act or under any previous company law. A branch office of a foreign company established in India does not meet the definition of a company under the 2013 Act. Hence, Ind AS road map is not applicable to a branch of a company not incorporated in India.
Bulletin 15 (Issue 4)	Applicability of Ind AS to entities that are listed or are in the process of listing The ITFG considered various scenarios relating to the applicability of Ind AS to a company having net worth less than INR250 crore as on 31 March 2017: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Company was in the process of listing at the beginning of the Financial Year (FY) 2017-18, and ultimately got listed at the end of the year: Since the company began the process of listing at the beginning of FY 2017-18, it falls within phase II of the corporate road map. • Company is listed at the beginning of FY 2017-18, and gets delisted during the year: Since the company is listed at the beginning of the year, it should comply with Ind AS from the same year irrespective of the fact that it gets delisted at the end of the year. • Process of listing began during FY 2017-18 (May' 17), and company is listed at the end of the year: Since the company began the process of listing during the year, and the company was listed at the end of the year, it should comply with Ind AS from FY 2017-18. Further, if the company was listed during the year (November 2017), it would be required to provide Ind AS financial statements for the relevant quarter(s) (quarter ended December 2017 and consequently March 2018). • Process of listing began during the year (May 2017) and company is listed post March 2018: Since the company was in the process of listing at the end of the year, it would still be required to comply with Ind AS and present Ind AS financial statements for the year ending 31 March 2018. • Company listed its debentures in May 2017, and they were delisted in January 2018: Since the company is not listed, or in the process of being listed either at the beginning or end of the year, it is not required to prepare Ind AS financial statements for FY 2017-18.

Bulletin 15 (Issue 10)	Ind AS applicability to entities in a group A listed entity (B), was covered under the second phase of the Ind AS corporate road map. ITFG evaluated the applicability of Ind AS to its group companies as below: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Company A (unlisted company with net worth less than INR250 crore), holding company of B: As per the Ind AS corporate road map, holding, subsidiaries, associate and joint venture companies of entities covered in the Ind AS corporate road map will be required to prepare Ind AS financial statements. Accordingly, company A will be required to prepare Ind AS financial statements. • Company C (unlisted company with net worth less than INR250 crore), fellow subsidiary of B (subsidiary of company A): ITFG noted that the requirement to adopt Ind AS does not extend to another subsidiary (i.e. fellow subsidiary) of a holding company which is required to adopt Ind AS because of its holding company relationship with a subsidiary meeting the net worth/listing criteria. However, company C will be required to furnish Ind AS financial statements for the purpose of A's consolidated Ind AS financial statements. Accordingly, company C may voluntarily opt to prepare Ind AS financial statements for the purpose of statutory reporting. • Company D (unlisted company with net worth less than INR250 crore), an investor that holds 25 per cent stake in B: An investor company does not qualify as a holding company of company B. Accordingly, company D is not required to comply with Ind AS by virtue of company B falling under the threshold of Ind AS applicability. However, for consolidation purposes, company B will be required to provide financial statement data prepared in accordance with Companies (Accounting Standards) Rules, 2006 for the purpose of preparation of consolidated financial statements of company D as per these rules.
Bulletin 19 (Issue 6)	In the context of application of Ind AS to a group, ITFG considered a situation where a parent (ABC Ltd) and its unlisted subsidiary PQR Ltd. (with net worth of INR50 crore) complied with Ind AS beginning 1 April 2017 considering the requirements of the road map. During financial year 2018-19, ABC Ltd. sold off substantially all of its investment in PQR Ltd. to an unrelated unlisted company, XYZ Ltd. The issue under consideration is after the sale of its shareholding in PQR Ltd. by ABC Ltd., would PQR Ltd. and XYZ Ltd. be required to apply Ind AS. ITFG clarified that PQR Ltd. is required to continue preparing financial statements as per Ind AS considering the requirements of Rule 9 of Ind AS Rules which provides that once a company adopts Ind AS either voluntarily or mandatorily, it would be required to continue preparing financial statements under the Ind AS for all the subsequent years. XYZ Ltd. is a holding company of PQR Ltd. XYZ Ltd. does not meet the specified criteria (either the net worth or the listing criteria) of the Ind AS road map. PQR Ltd. is required to comply with Ind AS only for the sole reason that it was earlier subsidiary of ABC Ltd. Ind AS does not apply to XYZ Ltd. simply by virtue of being PQR's parent. However, it may opt to apply Ind AS voluntarily.

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided
Bulletin 18 (Issue 5)	Applicability of Ind AS to a Limited Liability Partnership (LLP) When a company (which was preparing its financial statements as per Ind AS) gets converted to an LLP, the 2013 Act and the Rules framed thereunder cease to apply to it. Instead as an LLP, it is governed by the provisions of the Limited Liability Partnership Act, 2008 and the Rules framed thereunder. Accordingly, upon conversion into an LLP, Ind AS would cease to apply to it.
Applicability of Ind AS to NBFCs
Bulletin 13 (Issue 4)	Applicability of Ind AS road map to an NBFC performing such a role but not yet registered with the RBI A company, awaiting its registration as an NBFC with the RBI, may in the meanwhile, be performing the role of NBFC. The definition of an NBFC included in the Rule 4(1)(iii) of the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Amendments Rules, 2016, laying down the road map for the applicability of Ind AS to NBFCs is very wide. It covers a company which is carrying on the activity of NBFC. Accordingly, a company which is carrying on the activity of NBFC but not registered with RBI would also be subject to the road map for the applicability of Ind AS as applicable to any other NBFC. However, the requirements with regard to registration, eligibility of a company to operate an NBFC (pending registration) etc. are governed by the RBI Act, 1934, and the Rules laid down thereon and should be evaluated by the company based on its own facts and circumstances.
Bulletin 15 (Issue 5)	ITFG considered a company which is a registered stock-broker recognised by the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) (falling within the definition of NBFC). The net worth of the company as on 31 March 2015 was INR500 crore. The Company had applied for termination of its membership to SEBI in July 2016, and received clearance in August 2017, with respect to acceptance of the termination. The ITFG clarified that Ind AS would be applicable to the company depending upon its activities as given below: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If the company was carrying on the activities of an NBFC during the period it was awaiting approval from RBI, then it should comply with Ind AS as per the road map applicable to NBFCs. If it ceases to carry on the activities of an NBFC, then the corporate road map as applicable to non-NBFC companies should have been followed based on its net worth.

Ind AS-101 First - time Adoption of Indian Accounting Standards

1. Executive summary

- Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 101, First-time Adoption of Indian Accounting Standards is applied by the entity in its first Ind AS financial statements and each interim financial report, if any, that it presents in accordance with Ind AS 34, Interim Financial Reporting, for part of the period covered by its first Ind AS financial statements.
- The entity's first Ind AS financial statements are the first annual financial statements in which the entity adopts Ind AS notified under the Companies Act, 2013 and makes an explicit and unreserved statement in those financial statements of compliance with Ind AS.
- Ind AS 101 sets out specific transition requirements and exemptions available on the first-time adoption of Ind AS.
- An opening balance sheet is prepared at the date of transition, which is the starting point for accounting in accordance with Ind AS.
- The date of transition is the beginning of the earliest comparative period presented on the basis of Ind AS.
- At least one year of comparatives is presented on the basis of Ind AS, together with the opening balance sheet.
- The transition requirements and exemptions on the first-time adoption of Ind AS apply to both annual and interim financial statements.
- Accounting policies are chosen from Ind AS effective at the first annual Ind AS reporting date.
- Generally, those accounting policies are applied retrospectively in preparing the opening balance sheet and in all periods presented in the first Ind AS financial statements, unless there is an explicit exemption or option provided under the standard.
- Ind AS 101 requires the entity to do the following in the opening Ind AS statement of financial position that it prepares as a starting point for its accounting under Ind AS:
 - Recognise all assets and liabilities whose recognition is required by Ind AS
 - Not recognise items as assets or liabilities if Ind AS do not permit such recognition
 - Reclassify items that it recognised in accordance with previous GAAP (Indian GAAP) as one type of asset, liability or component of equity, but are a different type of asset, liability or component of equity in accordance with Ind AS and
 - Apply Ind AS in measuring all recognised assets and liabilities.
- This standard grants exemptions (either mandatory or as an option) from the Ind AS requirements in specified areas where the cost of complying with them would be likely to exceed the benefits to users of financial statements.
- This Ind AS prohibits retrospective application of some aspects of other Ind AS.
- Detailed disclosures on the first-time adoption of Ind AS including reconciliations of equity and profit or loss from previous GAAP (Indian GAAP) to Ind AS will be required in the entity's annual financial statements as well as some disclosures in its interim financial statements.

New developments

- First-time adoption of Appendix C, *Uncertainty over Income Tax Treatments*¹ to Ind AS 12, *Income Taxes
 - On 30 March 2019, MCA notified Appendix C to Ind AS 12, which provides clarification on the accounting for income taxes, when there is an uncertainty over a certain income tax treatment.

¹ This amendment has been incorporated in the checklist.

- The MCA also notified certain provisions which would be applicable to first - time adopters of Ind AS when they apply Appendix C, by making amendments to Ind AS 101. The amendment to Ind AS 101 clarifies that when the date of transition to Ind AS is before the date of notification of Appendix C, then a first-time adopter of Ind AS may elect not to reflect the application of Appendix C in the comparative information of the first Ind AS financial statements. Instead, it may recognise the cumulative effect of applying Appendix C as an adjustment to the opening balance of retained earnings at the beginning of the first Ind AS reporting period.
- Effective date: This would be applicable for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 April 2019.

3. Additional considerations

Some of the key requirements from the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act)

- Ind AS 101 provides an optional exemption to apply the Ind AS accounting policy for amortisation of intangible assets relating to toll road service concession arrangements on a prospective basis. Therefore, amortisation of such intangible assets that were recognised prior to the first Ind AS financial reporting period may continue on the basis of an entity's previous accounting policy, in accordance with Schedule II of the 2013 Act.
- An entity may be required to comply with the accounting, presentation and disclosure requirements prescribed in a court approved scheme relating to a merger or amalgamation transaction. The requirements of Ind AS 101 may stand modified to this extent.
- Section 2(43) of the 2013 Act defines 'free reserve' to mean such reserves which, as per the latest audited balance sheet of a company are available for distribution of dividend, except:
 - Any amount representing unrealised gains, notional gains or revaluation of assets, whether shown as a reserve or otherwise, or
 - Any change in carrying amount of an asset or of a liability recognised in equity, including surplus in profit and loss account on measurement of the asset or the liability at fair value.

Significant carve-outs from IFRS

- In connection with adjustments arising on business combinations, IFRS 1, First-time Adoption of International Financial Reporting Standards requires a first-time adopter to exclude from its opening balance sheet any item recognised in accordance with previous GAAP that does not qualify for recognition as an asset or liability under IFRS. Resulting change is effected in retained earnings except in certain specific instances where it requires adjustment in the goodwill.
- In specific instances where IFRS 1 allows adjustment in the goodwill, Ind AS 101 permits adjustment with capital reserve to the extent such adjustment amount does not exceed the balance available in capital reserve. This is consistent with the carve-out on business combinations accounting under Ind AS 103 as compared to IFRS 3, Business Combination.
- Ind AS 101 in addition to exemptions provided under IFRS 1, also provides certain optional exemptions relating to the long-term foreign currency monetary items. This is consistent with the exemptions provided in the past under AS 11, The Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates, to carry forward certain foreign currency adjustments in the balance sheet.
- Ind AS 101 provides an additional option exemption to apply the accounting policy under Ind AS for amortisation of intangible assets arising from service concession arrangements relating to toll roads on a prospective basis.
- IFRS 1 provides for various optional exemptions that an entity can seek while an entity transitions to IFRS from its previous GAAP. Similar provisions have been retained under Ind AS 101. However, there are few changes that have been made, which can be broadly categorised as follows:
 - Elimination of effective dates prior to transition date to Ind AS. IFRS 1 provides for various dates from which a standard could have been implemented.
 - Deletion of borrowing cost exemptions which are not relevant for India.

- Inclusion/modification of existing exemptions to make it relevant for India. For example in connection with PPE, Ind AS 101 provides for additional exemptions that previous GAAP costs can be carried forward as deemed cost to Ind AS.
- Exemptions provided under IFRS 9, Financial Instruments have been included in Ind AS 101 given the earlier transition dates for the respective standards in India.
- IFRS 1 defines previous GAAP as the basis of accounting that a first-time adopter used immediately before adopting IFRS. Ind AS 101 defines previous GAAP as the basis of accounting that a first-time adopter used for its reporting requirement in India immediately before adopting Ind AS. The change made it mandatory for Indian entities to consider the financial statements prepared in accordance with the notified Accounting Standards as was applicable to them as previous GAAP when they transition to Ind AS.
- Paragraph D7(a) of IFRS 1 provides an option between ‘fair value at the date of transition to Ind AS’ and ‘previous GAAP revalued amount’ as deemed cost for investment property. A first-time adopter may exercise either of the options for accounting its investment property. However, this option has not been provided under Ind AS 101, as Ind AS 40 permits only the cost model.

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

- ICDS are applicable to the specified assesseees from financial years beginning 1 April 2016 (AY 2017-18). ICDS will apply for computation of taxable income under the Income Tax Act, 1961 irrespective of the GAAP followed (AS or Ind AS) for preparation of financial statements.
- The Finance Act, 2017 notified on 31 March 2017 has prescribed guidelines for computation of book profit for entities that prepare financial statements under Ind AS. These also specifically relate to the treatment of adjustments made on first - time adoption of Ind AS.

	GAAP carrying amount would need to be adjusted only for consequential adjustments arising from the application of other Ind AS, such as adjustments on accounting for government grants and processing fees on financial instruments.
Bulletin 5 (Issue 3)	Applicability of deemed cost exemption The ITFG clarified that an entity cannot continue with the previous GAAP carrying value as deemed cost on a selective basis for some of the items of PPE and use fair value as deemed cost approach for the remaining items.	101.D7AA (Q 19(d))
Bulletin 5 (Issue 4)	Processing fees on loans paid A company that has taken loans prior to the date of transition to Ind AS may have capitalised the processing fees on the loan as part of the relevant PPE. It may have also availed of the deemed cost exemption in paragraph D7AA of Ind AS 101 i.e. to continue with the carrying value of PPE under previous GAAP as deemed cost on transition to Ind AS. In this scenario, on transition to Ind AS, the unamortised amount of the processing costs as on the date of transition should be adjusted from the carrying amount of the loan to arrive at the amortised cost of the loan. The corresponding effect of this adjustment should be given in the carrying amount of PPE (irrespective of the fact that the deemed cost exemption under paragraph D7AA of Ind AS 101 has been availed by the company for its PPE), which should be reduced by the amount of processing cost (net of cumulative depreciation). The difference between the adjustments to the carrying amount of the loan and to PPE, respectively, should be recognised in the retained earnings as at the date of transition.	101. D7AA (Q 19(d))
Bulletin 3 (Issue 9)	Capital spares A company that has availed the exemption under paragraph D7AA of Ind AS 101, i.e. to continue with the carrying value under previous GAAP as the deemed cost for all of its PPE on transition to Ind AS, may have capital spares that were recognised as inventory under previous GAAP but are eligible for capitalisation under Ind AS. On transition to Ind AS such capital spares should be recognised as a part of PPE if they meet the criteria for capitalisation under Ind AS 16. Ind AS 16 should be applied retrospectively to measure the amount that will be recognised for such spare parts on the date of transition to Ind AS. Depreciation on these spare parts should begin from the date when they are available for use. The exemption to continue with the carrying value of PPE under previous GAAP as the deemed cost would not apply to such capital spares since these were not recognised as PPE under previous GAAP.	101.10 101. D7AA (Q 3(a), Q 19(d))

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref. (Q ref.)
Bulletin 3 (Issue 11)	Capital work in progress Capital work in progress is considered to be in the nature of PPE under construction. Accordingly, the optional exemption under paragraph D7AA of Ind AS 101, to continue with the carrying value under previous GAAP as deemed cost under Ind AS, is also available with regards to capital work in progress.	101.D7AA (Q 19(d))
Bulletin 8 (Issue 4)	Capitalisation of an item of PPE not falling under the definition of an asset The ITFG clarified that the deemed cost exemption under paragraph D7AA of Ind AS 101 cannot be availed for an asset that did not meet the definition of a tangible asset under previous GAAP (or PPE under Ind AS) and was incorrectly capitalised under previous GAAP. Instead, the incorrect capitalisation would be considered as an error under paragraph 26 of Ind AS 101 and disclosed so in the reconciliation prepared as per paragraph 24.	101.D7AA 101.26 (Q 19(d), Q 45)
Bulletin 10 (Issue 4)	Applicability of deemed cost exemption on assets classified as held for sale Under previous GAAP, ‘assets held for sale’ in accordance with AS 10, Property, Plant and Equipment may be stated at lower of their net book value and net realisable value and presented separately from other fixed assets. On transition to Ind AS, if these assets are found not to fulfil the criteria for being classified as ‘held for sale’ in accordance with Ind AS 105, then such assets should be reclassified as PPE. However, the entity can avail the deemed cost exemption for such assets since the exemption applies to all PPE recognised in the financial statements at the date of transition to Ind AS, including those that were presented/disclosed separately.	101.D7AA (Q 19(d))
Bulletin 5 (Issue 5)	Government grants for purchase of a fixed asset A company that has received government grants to purchase a fixed asset prior to the date of transition to Ind AS, may have deducted it from the carrying amount of PPE. Even if the company has availed of the deemed cost exemption in paragraph D7AA of Ind AS 101 (follow carrying amount as per previous GAAP), on transition to Ind AS, in accordance with Ind AS 20, Accounting for Government Grants and Disclosure of Government Assistance , the company should recognise the unamortised amount of the government grant as deferred income. The corresponding adjustment should be made to the carrying amount of the PPE, net of cumulative depreciation (irrespective of the fact that the deemed cost exemption under paragraph D7AA of Ind AS 101 has been availed by the company for its PPE). The difference between the deferred income recognised and the adjustment made to the carrying amount of the PPE, should be recognised in the retained earnings as at the date of transition.	101.D7AA (Q 19(d))

Considering the principles in Ind AS 113, Fair Value Measurement, fair value of the asset is the exit price that would be received to sell the asset in an orderly transaction. As fair value is a market-based measurement and not an entity specific measurement, it is independent of the government grant received on the asset. Consequently, no adjustment with regard to government grant should be made to the fair value of PPE. However, the entity is required to recognise the asset-related government grant outstanding on the transition date as deferred income in accordance with Ind AS 20. This is because, after transition, the entity would no longer be applying the revaluation model under Ind AS 16. The balance outstanding in the revaluation reserve should be transferred to retained earnings or if appropriate, another category of equity. Additionally, deferred tax would need to be recognised on such an asset to the extent of difference between its carrying value in the financial statements and the tax base.	101. For intangible assets (relating to service concessions for toll roads) recognised in the financial statements before the beginning of the first Ind AS financial reporting period, revenue based amortisation would be permitted in accordance with paragraph D22 of Ind AS 101, which provides a specific exemption for toll road intangibles recognised in the financial statements before the beginning of the first Ind AS reporting period. Bulletin 9 (Issue 3)	Accounting treatment of government grants received by a government company The ITFG clarified that where a government company had received money from the government, in the nature of a promoter’s contribution, it should determine whether the payment received was as a government grant or as a shareholder’s contribution. Following would be the accounting treatment in the two scenarios: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In case the entity concludes that the contribution is in the nature of a government grant: Entity would apply the principles of Ind AS 20 retrospectively, as required by Ind AS 101. Accordingly, the grant would be recognised as income on a systematic basis over the periods in which the entity recognises as expenses the related costs for which the grants are intended to compensate. • In case the entity concludes that the contribution is in the nature of shareholders’ contribution: Ind AS 20 would not apply, since it specifically scopes out the participation by the government in the ownership of an entity. Thus, in accordance with Ind AS 101, the entity is required to reclassify the contribution received, from capital reserve to an appropriate category under ‘other equity’ at the date of transition to Ind AS. 	101.10, 101.B10 (Q 3, Q 16)

This paragraph generally prohibits retrospective application of paragraphs 23 and B96 of Ind AS 110 by a first-time adopter. There is nothing in Ind AS 101 to indicate that the prohibition contained in paragraph B7 on retrospective application of specified requirements of Ind AS 110 is applicable only in respect of subsidiaries acquired by way of business combinations and not in respect of subsidiaries formed by the parent itself. Consequently, if entity A does not restate its past business combinations (paragraph C1 of Ind AS 101), the accounting treatment of purchase of the additional interest in entity B carried out by entity A in accordance with previous GAAP would continue (i.e., no adjustments to the same would be made) while transitioning to Ind AS.

The resulting classifications are applied retrospectively, from the date of origination of the financial asset or financial liability. While Ind AS 101 does not specifically provide any transitional relief for financial instruments, it also does not specify the accounting treatment if an entity elects not to restate its past business combinations, giving rise to an application issue. In this context, ITFG clarified that the carrying amount of financial instruments acquired as part of the business combination would be their deemed cost at the date of the business combination. As a result, DTA and DTL (as referred to above), to the extent unrealised/not settled, would be required to be remeasured. The issue under consideration is whether entity X should recognise the resultant differences in amount of DTA and DTL arising from change in tax rates directly in equity.	101.11 and 101.12, Ind AS 12, Ind AS 115, Ind AS 116 (Q 4)

	The ITFG deliberated the intended meaning of terms ‘directly in equity’ and ‘transaction or event’ as envisaged in Ind AS 12. Consequently, the emerging view was that the words ‘directly in equity’ relate to the base transaction/event and the term ‘transaction or event’ refers to the source which gave rise to the deferred tax implication. The ITFG considered following examples with respect to the term ‘directly in equity’: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • An entity at the time of first-time adoption of Ind AS restates a previous business combination. This was earlier accounted under previous GAAP on book value basis. As a result, the entity recalculates the depreciation charge for items of PPE acquired as a part of the business combination on the basis of fair value for the previous periods from the date of business combination to the date of transition to Ind ASs and adjusted the resultant increase (or decrease) in retained earnings (in cumulative depreciation) as on the date of transition to Ind AS. ITFG clarified that, in doing so, the entity, in effect, restated the depreciation charge in profit or loss for each of the previous periods from the date of business combination to the date of transition to Ind AS. (Had the entity presented comparative information for all such previous periods, the increased (or decreased) depreciation for a period would have reflected in statement of profit and loss for that period). Accordingly, it was highlighted that the cumulative adjustment to retained earnings at the date of transition to Ind AS is not an adjustment ‘directly in equity’. • An entity at the time of first-time adoption of Ind AS remeasures certain equity investments at Fair Value through Other Comprehensive Income (FVOCI). Under previous GAAP, the investments were measured at cost less diminution (other than temporary in nature). The resultant increase/decrease in carrying value of investments were adjusted under an appropriate equity head (e.g. OCI) on the date of transition to Ind AS. ITFG clarified that in doing this, the entity in effect, reflected the fair value changes in OCI for each of the previous periods up to the date of transition. (Had the entity presented comparative information for all such previous periods, the increase (or decrease) in the fair value for a period would be reflected in OCI for that period.). Accordingly, it was highlighted that the cumulative adjustment to equity at the date of transition to Ind AS is not a transaction or event recognised ‘directly in equity’ and the remeasurement of deferred tax on such item is required to be recognised in OCI.

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref. (Q ref.)
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> An entity at the time of first-time adoption of Ind AS adjusts the unamortised balance of costs of issue of equity shares in an appropriate equity head on the date of transition to Ind AS. The adjustment was made in accordance with Ind AS 32, Financial Instruments: Presentation that 'transaction costs of an equity transaction shall be accounted for as a deduction from equity'. Accordingly, ITFG clarified that were the entity an existing adopter of Ind AS at the time of issuance of the equity share, it would still have adjusted the issue costs directly in equity. Hence, it was highlighted that the adjustment to equity at the date of transition to Ind AS is an adjustment 'directly in equity'. Additionally, the remeasurement of deferred tax on such item is required to be recognised directly in equity. The ITFG clarified that entity is required to determine (using the current accounting policies) the underlying items (source transaction/events) with respect to which deferred taxes were recognised by it at the time of first-time adoption of Ind AS or at the time of transition to Ind AS 115 or Ind AS 116. Accordingly, the ITFG concluded that depending on the nature of an underlying item, the change in the amount of the related deferred tax asset or deferred tax liability resulting from the remeasurement of the same at lower tax rates introduced by the Ordinance 2019 should be recognised in statement of profit and loss, OCI or directly in equity.

Glossary

Date of transition to Ind AS is the beginning of the earliest period for which an entity presents full comparative information under Ind AS in first Ind AS financial statements.

Deemed cost is the amount used as a surrogate for cost or depreciated cost at a given date. Subsequent depreciation or amortisation assumes that the entity had initially recognised the asset or liability at the given date and that its cost was equal to the deemed cost.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. (See Ind AS 113.)

First Ind AS financial statements are the first annual financial statements in which an entity adopts Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS), by an explicit and unreserved statement of compliance with Ind AS.

First Ind AS reporting period the latest reporting period covered by an entity's first Ind AS financial statements.

First-time adopter is an entity that presents its first Ind AS financial statements.

Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) are accounting standards prescribed under Section 133 of the 2013 Act.

Normalisation date is the date when the functional currency no longer has either or both of the following characteristics:

- a) A reliable general price index is not available to all entities with transactions and balances in the currency, and
- b) Exchangeability between the currency and a relatively stable foreign currency does not exist.

Or when there is a change in the entity's functional currency to a currency that is not subject to severe hyperinflation.

Opening Ind AS balance sheet is an entity's balance sheet at the date of transition to Ind AS.

Previous GAAP is the basis of accounting that a first-time adopter used for its statutory reporting requirement in India immediately before adopting Ind AS's. For instance, companies required to prepare their financial statements in accordance with section 133 of the 2013 Act, shall consider those financial statements as previous GAAP financial statements.

Ind AS-102 Share- based Payment

1. Executive summary

- Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 102, Share-based Payment requires goods or services received in a share-based payment transaction to be measured at fair value unless that fair value cannot be estimated reliably.
- Equity-settled transactions with employees are generally measured based on the grant date fair value of the equity instruments granted.
- Equity-settled transactions with non-employees are generally measured based on the fair value of the goods or services obtained.
- For equity-settled transactions, an entity recognises a cost and a corresponding increase in equity. The cost is recognised as an expense unless it qualifies for recognition as an asset.
- Initial estimates of the number of equity-settled instruments that are expected to vest are adjusted to current estimates and ultimately to the actual number of equity-settled instruments that vest unless differences are due to market conditions.
- For cash-settled share-based payment transactions, the entity recognises a cost and a corresponding liability. The cost is recognised as an expense unless it qualifies for recognition as an asset. At each reporting date and at settlement date, the recognised liability is remeasured at fair value. The remeasurements are recognised in the statement of profit and loss.
- While computing the number of awards to be included in the measurement of the liability arising from a cash settled share-based payment transaction, the best available estimate of the number of awards expected to vest would be considered and re-estimated on a periodic basis, where necessary, taking into account vesting conditions other than market conditions.
- Modification of a share-based payment results in the recognition of any incremental fair value but not any reduction in fair value. Replacements are accounted for as modifications.
- If the terms of a cash-settled share-based payment transaction are modified, with the result that it becomes an equity-settled share-based payment transaction, the liability for the original cash-settled share-based payment is derecognised. The equity-settled share-based payment is measured with reference to the fair value of the equity instruments granted as at the modification date and recognised in equity to the extent that goods or services have been received up to that date. Any difference between the carrying amount of the liability derecognised and the amount recognised in equity, is recognised in profit or loss.
- Cancellation of a share-based payment results in accelerated recognition of any unrecognised expense.
- Grants in which the counterparty has the choice of equity or cash-settlement are accounted for as compound instruments. Therefore, the entity accounts for a liability component and a separate equity component.
- The classification of grants in which the entity has the choice of equity or cash-settlement depends on whether the entity has the ability and intent to settle in shares.
- A share-based payment transaction in which the entity that receives the goods or services, the reference entity and the entity that settles the share-based payment transaction are in the same group from the perspective of the ultimate parent, is a group share-based payment transaction and is accounted for as such by both the receiving and the settling entities.
- A share-based payment transaction that is settled by a shareholder external to the group is also in the scope of the standard from the perspective of the receiving entity, as long as the reference entity is in the same group as the receiving entity.
- A receiving entity that has no obligation to settle the transaction accounts for the share-based payment transaction as equity-settled.
- A settling entity classifies a share-based payment transaction as equity-settled if it is obliged to settle in its own equity instruments, otherwise it classifies the transaction as cash-settled.
- For share-based payments with non-employees, goods are recognised when they are obtained and services are recognised over the period in which they are received.

New development

In December 2019, the Accounting Standards Board (ASB) of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) has issued an Exposure Draft (ED) of amendment to Conceptual Framework for Financial Reporting under Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS). Further the above ED proposes amendments to nine Ind AS including Ind AS 102¹.

2. Checklist

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
Applicability
1	Has the entity applied this standard in accounting for all share-based payment transactions, whether or not the entity can identify specifically some or all of the goods or services received, including:	102.2
	a) Equity-settled share-based payment transactions,		_____
	b) Cash-settled share-based payment transactions, and		_____
	c) Transactions in which the entity receives or acquires goods or services and the terms of the arrangement provide either the entity or the supplier of those goods or services with a choice of whether the entity settles the transaction in cash (or other assets) or by issuing equity instruments?		_____
2	Has the entity also applied this standard when it:	102.3A
	a) Receives goods or services when another entity in the same group (or a shareholder of any group entity) has the obligation to settle the share-based payment transaction, and		_____
	b) Has an obligation to settle a share-based payment transaction when another entity in the same group receives the goods or services?		_____
	(Note: An entity need not apply the standard when the transaction is clearly for a purpose other than payment for goods or services supplied to the entity receiving them.)
3	Has the entity excluded the following items from the scope of this standard:
	a) Transaction with an employee (or other party) in his/her capacity as a holder of equity instruments of the entity,	102.4	_____
	b) Transactions in which the entity acquires goods as part of the net assets acquired in a business combination as defined by Ind AS 103, Business Combinations , in a combination of entities or businesses under common control as described in Appendix C of Ind AS 103, or the contribution of a business on the formation of a joint venture as defined by Ind AS 111, Joint Arrangements , and	102.5	_____
	c) Share-based payment transactions in which the entity receives or acquires goods or services under a contract within the scope of paragraphs 8–10 of Ind AS 32, Financial Instruments: Presentation , or paragraphs 2.4 – 2.7 of Ind AS 109, Financial Instruments ?	102.6	_____

4	Does the entity have the following transactions (share-based payments arising from business combinations): a) Equity instruments granted to employees of the acquiree in their capacity as employees (e.g. in return for continued service), and b) The cancellation, replacement or other modification of share-based payment arrangements because of a business combination or other equity restructuring?	102.5	<hr/> <hr/>
If yes, this standard will be applicable to such transaction.
Recognition
5	Has the entity recognised the goods or services received or acquired in a share-based payment transaction when it obtained the goods or as the services are received?	102.7	<hr/>
6	Has the entity appropriately recognised a corresponding increase in equity if the goods or services were received in an equity-settled share-based payment transaction (refer Q 8 to 33), or a liability if the goods or services were acquired in a cash-settled share-based payment transaction (refer Q 34 to 53)?	102.7	<hr/>
7	Has the entity recognised as expenses, the goods or services received or acquired in a share-based payment transaction that do not qualify for recognition as assets?	102.8	<hr/>
Equity-settled share-based payment transactions
8	With regard to equity-settled share-based payment transactions: a) Has the entity measured the goods or services received, and the corresponding increase in equity, directly, at the fair value of the goods or services received, unless that fair value cannot be estimated reliably, and b) Has the entity measured their value and the corresponding increase in equity, indirectly, by reference to the fair value of the equity instruments granted, if the entity cannot estimate reliably the fair value of the goods or services received?	102.10	<hr/> <hr/>
9	a) With regards to transactions with employees and others providing similar services, has the entity measured the fair value of the services received by reference to the fair value of the equity instruments granted (typically it is not possible to estimate reliably the fair value of the services received)? b) Has the entity measured the fair value of the equity instruments as mentioned in Q 9 (a) above at grant date?	102.11	<hr/> <hr/>

10	With regard to equity-settled share-based payment transactions (with parties other than employees):	102.13
	a) Has the entity measured the fair value of the goods or the service received, directly, at the date it obtains the goods or the counterparty renders service (presuming that such fair value can be estimated reliably), and		_____
	b) Has the entity measured the goods or services received, and the corresponding increase in equity, indirectly, by reference to the fair value of the equity instruments granted, measured at the date the entity obtained the goods or the counterparty renders service, only in rare cases, if the entity rebuts the presumption that the fair value of the goods or services received can be estimated reliably?		_____
11	Where the identifiable consideration received (if any) by the entity appears to be less than the fair value of the equity instruments granted or liability incurred:	102.13A
	a) Has the entity measured the identifiable goods or services received in accordance with this standard,		_____
	b) Has the entity measured the unidentifiable goods or services received as the difference between the fair value of the share-based payment and the fair value of any identifiable goods or services received (or to be received) at the grant date, and		_____
	(Note: The entity shall measure the unidentifiable goods or services received at the grant date.)
	c) For cash-settled transactions, has the entity re-measured the liability at the end of each reporting period until it is settled in accordance with Q 34 to 36?		_____
	Transactions in which services are received
12	Where the equity instruments granted vest immediately, has the entity presumed that services rendered by the counterparty as consideration for the equity instruments have been received and recognised the services received in full, with a corresponding increase in equity on the grant date?	102.14
13	Where the equity instruments granted do not vest until the counterparty completes a specified period of service, has the entity :	102.15
	a) Presumed that the services to be rendered by the counterparty as consideration for those equity instruments will be received in the future, during the vesting period, and		_____
	b) Accounted for those services as they are rendered by the counterparty during the vesting period, with a corresponding increase in equity?		_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
---------	-------------	-----------------------------	------------------------

(Note: For example:

- a) If an employee is granted share options conditional upon completing three years' service, then the entity should presume that the services to be rendered by the employee as consideration for the share options will be received in the future, over that three-year vesting period.
- b) If an employee is granted share options conditional upon the achievement of a performance condition and remaining in the entity's employment until that performance condition is satisfied, and the length of the vesting period varies depending on when that performance condition is satisfied, then the entity should:
 - i. Presume that the services to be rendered by the employee as consideration for the share options will be received in the future, over the expected vesting period, and
 - ii. Estimate that the length of the expected vesting period at the grant date, based on the most likely outcome of the performance condition is as follows:
 - If the performance condition is a market condition, the estimate of the length of the expected vesting period should be consistent with the assumptions used in estimating the fair value of the options granted, and should not be subsequently revised,
 - If the performance condition is not a market condition, the entity should revise its estimate of the length of the vesting period, if necessary, when subsequent information indicates that such length differs from previous estimates.)

Transactions measured by reference to the fair value of the equity instruments granted

Determining the fair value of equity instruments granted

14	Has the entity measured the fair value of equity instruments granted at the measurement date, based on market prices if available, taking into account the terms and conditions upon which the equity instruments were granted (refer Q 16 to 23) for transactions measured by reference to the fair value of the equity instruments granted (also refer Q 58)?	102.16	_____
15	Has the entity estimated the fair value of the equity instruments granted using a valuation technique to estimate what the price of those equity instruments would have been on the measurement date in an arm's length transaction between knowledgeable, willing parties, if market prices are not available (also refer Q 59 to 76)?	102.17	_____ _____

	(Note: The valuation technique shall be consistent with generally accepted valuation methodologies for pricing financial instruments, and shall incorporate all factors and assumptions that knowledgeable, willing market participants would consider in setting the price subject to the requirement of Q 16 to 23.)
	Treatment of vesting conditions
16	Has the entity ensured that vesting conditions, other than market conditions, are not taken into account when estimating the fair value of the shares or share options at the measurement date?	102.19	_____
17	Has the entity taken into account vesting conditions, other than market conditions, by adjusting the number of equity instruments included in the measurement of the transaction amount so that, ultimately, the amount recognised for goods or services received as consideration for the equity instruments granted is based on the number of equity instruments that eventually vest?	102.19	_____
18	Has the entity ensured that on a cumulative basis, no amount is recognised for goods or services received if the equity instruments granted do not vest because of failure to satisfy a vesting condition, other than a market condition?	102.19	_____
19	Has the entity recognised an amount for the goods or services received during the vesting period based on the best available estimate of the number of equity instruments expected to vest and revised that estimate, if necessary, if subsequent information indicated that the number of equity instruments expected to vest differs from previous estimates?	102.20	_____
20	Has the entity revised the estimate to equal the number of equity instruments that ultimately vested on vesting date?	102.20	_____
21	For grants of equity instruments with market conditions (such as a target share price), has the entity taken such market condition into account when estimating the fair value of the equity instruments granted and recognised the goods or services received from a counterparty that has satisfied all other vesting conditions, irrespective of whether the market condition is satisfied?	102.21	_____
22	For grants of equity instruments with non-vesting conditions, has the entity taken such non-vesting conditions into account when estimating the fair value of equity instruments granted, and recognised the goods or services received from a counterparty that has satisfied all non-market vesting conditions irrespective of whether the non-vesting conditions are satisfied?	102.21A	_____

Treatment of a reload feature
23	Has the entity accounted for the reload option as a new option grant, if and when a reload option was subsequently granted for options with a reload feature?	102.22	_____
After vesting date
24	Has the entity ensured that no subsequent adjustment has been made to total equity after the vesting date? (Note: For example, the entity shall not subsequently reverse the amount recognised for services received from an employee, if the vested instruments are later forfeited, or in the case of share options, the options are not exercised.)	102.23	_____
If the fair value of the equity instruments cannot be estimated reliably
25	If the entity is unable to estimate reliably, then in rare cases has the entity applied the following requirements: a) Has the entity measured the equity instruments at their intrinsic value, initially at the date it obtained the goods or the counterparty rendered the service and subsequently at the end of each reporting period and at the date of final settlement, with any change in intrinsic value recognised in profit or loss, and (Note: For a grant of share options, the share-based payment arrangement is finally settled when the options are exercised, are forfeited or lapse.) b) Has the entity recognised the goods or services received based on the number of equity instruments that ultimately vest or (where applicable) are ultimately exercised?	102.24	_____
26	If an entity settles a grant of equity instruments to which Q 25 has been applied, has the entity: a) Accounted for the settlement as an acceleration of vesting, and recognised immediately the amount that would otherwise have been recognised for services received over the remainder of the vesting period, if the settlement occurs during the vesting period, and b) Accounted for any payment made on settlement as the repurchase of equity instruments, i.e. as a deduction from equity, except to the extent that the payment exceeds the intrinsic value of the equity instruments, measured at the repurchase date? (Note: Any such excess shall be recognised as an expense.)	102.25	_____

Modifications to the terms and conditions on which equity instruments were granted, including cancellations and settlements
27	Has the entity applied the guidance on modification in Q 28 to 33 to share-based payment transactions with parties other than employees that are measured by reference to the fair value of the equity instruments, and considered the grant date as the date on which the entity had obtained the goods or the counterparty rendered services?	102.26	_____
28	a) Has the entity recognised, as a minimum, the services received measured at the grant date fair value of the equity instruments granted, unless those equity instruments do not vest because of failure to satisfy a vesting condition (other than a market condition) that was specified at grant date? b) Has the entity recognised the effects of modifications that increase the total fair value of the share-based payment arrangement or are otherwise beneficial to the employee (refer Q 77 to 81)?	102.27	_____
29	If the grant of equity instruments is cancelled or settled during the vesting period (other than a grant cancelled by forfeiture when the vesting conditions are not satisfied): a) Has the entity accounted for the cancellation or settlement of a grant as an acceleration of vesting, and therefore recognised immediately the amount that otherwise would have been recognised for services received over the remainder of the vesting period, b) Has any payment made to the employee on the cancellation or settlement of the grant been accounted for as the repurchase of an equity interest (i.e. as a deduction from equity) except to the extent that the payment exceeds the fair value of the equity instruments granted, measured at the repurchase date, c) Has the entity recognised any such excess (in Q 29 (b) above) (to the extent that the payment exceeds the fair value of the equity instruments granted, measured at the repurchase date) as an expense, d) Has the entity remeasured the fair value of the liability at the date of cancellation or settlement, if the share-based payment arrangement (in Q 29 (b)) included liability components, and e) Has any payment made to settle the liability component referred to in Q 29 (d) above, been accounted for as an extinguishment of the liability?	102.28	_____

30	If new equity instruments are granted to the employee and the entity has identified any new equity instruments granted as replacement equity instruments for the cancelled equity instrument, has it accounted for the granting of such replacement equity instruments in the same way as a modification of the original grant of equity instruments (refer Q 28 and Q 80)?	102.28 (c)	_____
31	Has the entity accounted for those new equity instruments as a new grant of equity instruments, if the entity does not identify new equity instruments granted as replacement equity instruments for the cancelled equity instruments?	102.28 (c)	_____
32	Has the entity treated the entity's or counterparty's failure to meet a non-vesting condition during the vesting period as a cancellation where the entity or counterparty could choose whether to meet a non-vesting condition or not?	102.28A	_____
33	a) If the entity repurchased vested equity instruments, has the payment made to the employee been accounted for as a deduction from equity, except to the extent that the payment exceeds the fair value of the equity instruments repurchased, measured at the repurchase date? b) Has any such excess been recognised as an expense?	102.29	_____ _____
Cash-settled share-based payment transactions
34	a) For cash-settled share-based payments, has the entity measured the goods or services acquired and the liability incurred at the fair value of the liability (subject to the requirements of Q35 to Q41 mentioned below)? b) Has the entity remeasured the fair value of the liability at the end of each reporting period and at the date of settlement, with any changes in fair value recognised in profit or loss for the period, until the liability is settled?	102.30	_____ _____
35	a) Has the entity recognised the services received, and a liability to pay for those services, as the employees rendered service? b) Has the entity presumed that the services rendered by the employees in exchange for the share appreciation rights have been received, in the absence of evidence to the contrary?	102.32	_____ _____
(Note: Thus, the entity shall recognise immediately the services received and a liability to pay for them.)

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	c) If the share appreciation rights do not vest until the employees have completed a specified period of service, has the entity recognised the services received, and a liability to pay for them, as the employees render service during that period?		_____
36	a) Has the entity measured the liability, initially and at the end of each reporting period until settled, at the fair value of the share appreciation rights, by applying an option pricing model?	102.33	_____
	b) Does the option pricing model take into account terms and conditions on which the share appreciation rights were granted, and the extent to which the employees have rendered service to date subject to the requirements of Q37 to Q41?		_____
	(Note: An entity might modify the terms and conditions on which a cash-settled share-based payment is granted. For a modification of a share-based payment transaction that changes its classification from cash-settled to equity-settled refer Q85.)
	Treatment of vesting and non-vesting conditions
	(Note: Q37 - Q41 apply to share-based payment transactions that have not vested as on 1 April 2017 (or an earlier date, where amendments are applied retrospectively in accordance with Ind AS 8, Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors) or have a grant date on or after 1 April 2017 (or an earlier date, where amendments are applied retrospectively in accordance with Ind AS 8).)
37	Has the entity ensured that vesting conditions, other than market conditions, are not taken into account when estimating the fair value of the cash-settled share based payment at the measurement date?	102.33A	_____
38	While measuring the liability arising from the cash-settled share-based payment transactions, has the entity taken into account the vesting conditions other than market conditions, by adjusting the number of awards included in the measurement of this liability?	102.33A	_____
39	a) To apply the requirements of Q37 and Q38, has the entity recognised an amount for goods or services received during the vesting period based on the best available estimate of the number of awards that are expected to vest?	102.33B	_____

	b) Has this estimate been revised when subsequent information indicates that the number of awards expected to vest differs from previous estimates? (Note: On the vesting date, the entity should revise the estimate equal to the number of awards that ultimately vest.)
	c) Have unvested share-based payment transactions granted prior to 1 April 2017 (or an earlier date, where amendments are applied retrospectively) been remeasured on 1 April 2017 (or an earlier date, where amendments are applied retrospectively) in accordance with Q37 – Q41, and has the effect of remeasurement been recognised in the opening retained earnings or another component of equity in the reporting period during which such remeasurement has taken place?	102.59A & 59B
40	While estimating the fair value of the cash-settled share-based payments granted and remeasuring their fair value at the end of each reporting period and at the date of settlement, have both, market and non-vesting conditions been considered by the entity?	102.33C
	Share-based payment transactions with a net settlement feature for withholding tax obligations (Note: Q42, Q43, Q44 (c) and Q95 apply to share-based payment transactions that are unvested (or vested but unexercised) as on 1 April 2017 (or an earlier date, where amendments are applied retrospectively in accordance with Ind AS 8) and share-based payment transactions with a grant date on or after 1 April 2017.)	102.59A 102.59B

	b) For share based payment transactions in which the counterparty has the choice of settlement, that are structured such that the fair value of one settlement alternative is the same as the other, has the entity measured the fair value of the compound financial instrument as the same as the fair value of the debt component?
48	The entity shall account separately for the goods or services received or acquired in respect of each component of the compound financial instrument as follows:	102.38
	a) Has the entity recognised the goods or services acquired, and a liability to pay for those goods or services, as the counterparty supplies goods or renders service, in accordance with the requirements applying to cash-settled share-based payment transactions (refer Q 34 to 36) for the debt component, and
	b) Has the entity recognised the goods or services received, and an increase in equity, as the counterparty supplies goods or renders service, in accordance with the requirements applying to equity-settled share-based payment transactions (refer Q 8 to 34) for the equity component?
49	Has the entity transferred the liability direct to equity, as the consideration for the equity instruments issued, if the entity issued equity instruments on settlement rather than paying cash?	102.39
50	Has the entity applied any payment made in cash on settlement to settle the liability in full and ensured that the equity component previously recognised continues to remain within equity (however, this requirement does not preclude the entity from recognising a transfer within equity, i.e. a transfer from one component of equity to another)?	102.40
Share-based payment transactions in which the terms of the arrangement provide the entity with a choice of settlement
51	If the entity has a present obligation to settle in cash, has it accounted for the transaction in accordance with the requirements applying to cash-settled share-based payment transactions?	102.42
	(Note: The entity has a present obligation to settle in cash if the choice of settlement in equity instruments has no commercial substance (e.g. because the entity is legally prohibited from issuing shares) or the entity has a past practice or a stated policy of settling in cash, or generally settles in cash whenever the counterparty asks for cash-settlement.)

53	If no present obligation to settle in cash exists, upon settlement, has the entity:	102.43	_____
	a) Accounted for a cash payment as the repurchase of an equity interest, i.e. as a deduction from equity, if the entity elected to settle in cash (except as required by Q 53 (c) below),		_____
	b) Undertaken no further accounting (other than a transfer from one component of equity to another, if necessary), if the entity has elected to settle by issuing equity instruments, and		_____
	c) Recognised an additional expense for the excess value given, if the entity has elected the settlement alternative with the higher fair value, as at the date of settlement?		_____
Share-based payment transactions among group entities
54	Has the entity receiving the goods or services measured the goods or services received as either an equity-settled or a cash-settled share-based payment transaction by assessing the nature of the awards granted, and its own rights and obligations in its separate or individual financial statements?	102.43A	_____
55	Has the entity receiving the goods or services measured the goods or services received as an equity-settled share-based payment transaction when:	102.43B	_____
	a) The awards granted are its own equity instruments, or		_____
	b) The entity has no obligation to settle the share-based payment transaction?		_____
	If yes, has the entity subsequently remeasured such an equity-settled share-based payment transaction only for changes in non-market vesting conditions (refer Q 16 to 21)?		_____
56	Has the entity settled a share-based payment transaction when the other entity in the group receives the goods or services:	102.43C	_____
	a) If yes, has the entity recognised the transaction as an equity-settled share-based payment transaction only if it is settled in the entity's own equity instruments, and		_____

Shares
58	Has the entity measured the fair value of the shares at the market price of the entity's shares (or an estimated market price, if the entity's shares are not publicly traded), adjusted to take into account the terms and conditions upon which the shares were granted for shares granted to employees (refer Q 14)?	102.B2	_____
Share options
59	For share options granted to employees, in many cases market prices are not available (refer Q 15), because the options granted are subject to terms and conditions that do not apply to traded options. If traded options with similar terms and conditions do not exist, is the fair value of the options granted, estimated by applying an option pricing model (refer Q 60 to 63)?	102.B4	_____
60	Has the entity considered the factors that knowledgeable and willing market participants would consider in selecting the option pricing model to apply?	102.B5	_____
61	Has the entity considered in its option pricing models, as a minimum, the following factors:	102.B6	_____
	a) The exercise price of the option,		_____
	b) The life of the option (Q 66 to 68),		_____
	c) The current price of the underlying shares,		_____
	d) The expected volatility of the share price (Q 69 to 71),		_____
	e) The dividends expected on the shares (if appropriate) (Q 72 to 73), and		_____
	f) The risk-free interest rate for the life of the option (Q 74)?		_____
62	Has the entity taken into account other factors that knowledgeable, willing market participants would consider in setting the price?	102.B7	_____
63	Have factors that a knowledgeable, willing market participant would not consider in setting the price of a share option (or other equity instrument) not been taken into account when estimating the fair value of share options (or other equity instruments) granted?	102.B10	_____

Inputs to option pricing models
64	Has the entity calculated an expected value, by weighting each amount within the range by its associated probability of occurrence when there is likely to be a range of reasonable expectations about future volatility, dividends and exercise behavior?	102.B12	_____
65	Has the entity made sure that they did not simply base estimates of volatility, exercise behavior and dividends on historical information without considering the extent to which the past experience is expected to be reasonably predictive of future experience?	102.B15	_____
Expected early exercise
66	Has the entity considered the following factors in estimating early exercise:	102.B18
	a) The length of the vesting period, because the share option typically cannot be exercised until the end of the vesting period. Hence, determining the valuation implications of expected early exercise is based on the assumption that the options will vest,		_____
	b) The average length of time similar options have remained outstanding in the past,		_____
	c) The price of the underlying shares. Experience may indicate that the employees tend to exercise options when the share price reaches a specified level above the exercise price,		_____
	d) The employee's level within the organisation, and		_____
	e) Expected volatility of the underlying shares. On an average, employees might tend to exercise options on highly volatile shares earlier than on shares with low volatility?		_____
67	Did the entity base its estimate on an appropriately weighted average expected life for the entire employee group or on appropriately weighted average lives for subgroups of employees within the group, based on more detailed data about employees' exercise behavior when estimating the expected life of share options granted to a group of employees?	102.B19	_____
68	Has the entity separated an option grant into groups for employees with relatively homogeneous exercise behaviour?	102.B20	_____
Expected volatility
69	Has the entity considered the following factors in estimating expected volatility:	102.B25
	a) Implied volatility from traded share options on the entity's shares, or other traded instruments of the entity that include option features (such as convertible debt), if any,		_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	b) The historical volatility of the share price over the most recent period that is generally commensurate with the expected term of the option (taking into account the remaining contractual life of the option and the effects of expected early exercise),		_____
	c) The length of time an entity's shares have been publicly traded. A newly listed entity might have a high historical volatility, compared with similar entities that have been listed longer, (for further guidance for newly listed entities is refer below),		_____
	d) The tendency of volatility to revert to its mean, i.e. its long-term average level, and other factors indicating that expected future volatility might differ from past volatility, and		_____
	e) Appropriate and regular intervals for price observations. The price observations should be consistent from period to period?		_____
70	a) Has the entity considered historical volatility of the share price over the most recent period that is generally commensurate with the expected option term?	102.B26	_____
	b) Has the entity computed historical volatility for the longest period for which trading activity is available, if the entity is a newly listed entity and does not have sufficient information on historical volatility?		_____
71	Has the entity considered the following factors to consider when estimating expected volatility, if the entity is an unlisted entity:	102.B27
	a) In some cases, an unlisted entity that regularly issues options or shares to employees (or other parties) might have set up an internal market for its shares. Has the volatility of those share prices been considered when estimating expected volatility,	102.B28	_____
	b) Alternatively, has the entity consider the historical or implied volatility of similar listed entities, for which share price or option price information is available, to use when estimating expected volatility, and	102.B29	_____
	(Note: This would be appropriate if the entity has based the value of its shares on the share prices of similar listed entities.)
	c) Has the entity derived an estimate of expected volatility consistent with that valuation methodology, if the entity has not based its estimate of the value of its shares on the share prices of similar listed entities, and has instead used another valuation methodology to value its shares?	102.B30	_____

Expected dividends
72	Has the entity made no adjustment for expected dividends if the employee is entitled to receive dividends paid during the vesting period, if the grant date for fair value of shares granted to employees is estimated? (Note: No adjustment is required for expected dividends.)	102.B33	_____
73	a) Has the grant date valuation of the rights to shares or options taken expected dividends into account, if the employees are not entitled to dividends or dividend equivalents during the vesting period (or before exercise, in the case of an option)? b) Has expected dividends been included in the application of an option pricing model when the fair value of an option grant is estimated?	102.B34	_____ _____
Risk-free interest rate
74	Has the entity used an appropriate substitute if no zero-coupon government issues exist or if circumstances indicate that the implied yield on zero-coupon government issues is not representative of the risk-free interest rate or if market participants would typically determine the risk-free interest rate by using that substitute, rather than the implied yield of zero-coupon government issues, when estimating the fair value of an option with a life equal to the expected term of the option being valued?	102.B37	_____
Capital structure effects
75	If the entity has written any share options, are new shares to be issued when those share options are exercised (either actually issued or issued in substance, if shares previously repurchased and held in treasury are used)?	102.B39	_____
76	Has the entity considered whether there would be a possible dilutive effect of the future exercise of the share options granted might have an impact on their estimated fair value at grant date? (Note: Option pricing models can be adapted to take into account this potential dilutive effect.)	102.B41	_____
Modifications to equity-settled share-based payment arrangements
77	Has the entity recognised, as a minimum, the services received measured at the grant date fair value of the equity instruments granted, unless those equity instruments do not vest because of failure to satisfy a vesting condition (other than a market condition)] that was specified at grant date?	102.B42	_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
78	In addition, has the entity recognised the effects of modifications that increase the total fair value of the share-based payment arrangement or are otherwise beneficial to the employee?	102.B42	_____
79	In order to apply the requirements of Q 28, has the entity considered the following:	102.B43	_____
	a) If the modification increases the fair value of the equity instruments granted, measured immediately before and after the modification, the entity shall include the incremental fair value granted in the measurement of the amount recognised for services received as consideration for the equity instruments granted,		_____
	b) If the modification increases the number of equity instruments granted, the entity shall include the fair value of the additional equity instruments granted, measured at the date of the modification, in the measurement of the amount recognised for services received as consideration for the equity instruments granted, consistently with the requirements mentioned above, and		_____
	c) If the entity modifies the vesting conditions in a manner that is beneficial to the employee, for example, by reducing the vesting period or by modifying or eliminating a performance condition (other than a market condition, changes to which are accounted for in accordance with (a) above), the entity shall take the modified vesting conditions into account when applying the requirements of Q 16 to 22?		_____
80	If the entity has modified the terms or conditions of the equity instruments granted in a manner that reduces the total fair value of the share-based payment arrangement, or is not otherwise beneficial to the employee, has the entity nevertheless continued to account for the services received as consideration for the equity instruments granted as if that modification had not occurred (other than a cancellation of some or all the equity instruments granted, which shall be accounted for)?	102.B44	_____
81	Has the entity appropriately accounted for share-based payment transactions in which it receives services as consideration for its own equity instruments as equity-settled, regardless of:	102.B49	_____
	a) Whether the entity chooses or is required to buy those equity instruments from another party to satisfy its obligations to its employees under the share-based payment arrangement,		_____
	b) The employee's rights to the entity's equity instruments were granted by the entity itself or by its shareholder(s), and		_____
	c) The share-based payment arrangement was settled by the entity itself or by its shareholder(s)?		_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
82	Has the entity accounted for the transaction with its employees as cash-settled, if the entity (if not a subsidiary), received goods or services from its suppliers (including employees)?	102.B56	_____
83	Has the entity accounted for the above transaction as an equity-settled one, if the entity is a subsidiary?	102.B57	_____
84	Has the entity measured its obligation in accordance with the requirements applicable to cash-settled share-based payment transactions in Q 56, if the entity is a parent entity?	102.B58	_____
Accounting for modification of a cash settled share-based payment transaction that results in a change in its classification to an equity-settled share based payment transaction
85	If the entity has modified the terms and conditions of a cash-settled share-based payment transaction which has resulted in it becoming an equity-settled share based payment transaction, then has the entity:	102.B44A, B44B and B44C
	a) Accounted for such modification from the date of modification,		_____
	b) Measured the equity-settled share-based payment transaction by reference to the fair value of the equity instruments granted at the modification date,		_____
	(Note: The equity-settled share-based payment transaction is recognised in equity on the modification date to the extent to which goods or services have been received.)
	c) Derecognised the liability for the cash-settled share-based payment transaction,		_____
	d) Recognised the difference between Q85 (b) and (c) in the statement of profit and loss?		_____
	(Note: If as a result of the modification, the vesting period is extended or shortened, then the above requirements will apply to the modified vesting period. The accounting requirements in Q85 are applicable to only those modifications that occur on or after 1 April 2017)		102.B44B
86	If the entity has cancelled or settled a cash-settled share-based payment transaction (other than a transaction cancelled by forfeiture when the vesting conditions are not satisfied) and equity instruments are granted and, on that grant date, the entity identifies them as replacement for the cancelled cash-settled share-based payment, then has the entity applied the requirements of Q85 above?	102.B44C	_____

Disclosure
87	With regard to the nature and extent of share-based transactions, has the entity:	102.45
	a) Disclosed a description of each type of share-based payment arrangement that existed at any time during the period, including the general terms and conditions of each arrangement, and		_____
	b) Aggregated the information for substantially similar types of share-based payment arrangements (unless separate disclosure of each arrangement is necessary)?		_____
88	Has the entity disclosed the number and weighted average exercise prices of share options for each of the following groups of options:	102.45
	a) Outstanding at the beginning of the period,		_____
	b) Granted during the period,		_____
	c) Forfeited during the period,		_____
	d) Exercised during the period,		_____
	e) Expired during the period,		_____
	f) Outstanding at the end of the period, and		_____
	g) Exercisable at the end of the period?		_____
89	a) Has the entity disclosed weighted average share price at the date of exercise with regards to share options exercised during the period?	102.45	_____
	b) Has the entity disclosed the weighted average share price during the period, if options were exercised on a regular basis throughout the period?		_____
90	For share options outstanding at the end of the period, has the entity:	102.45
	a) Disclosed the range of exercise prices and weighted average remaining contractual life, and		_____
	b) Divided the outstanding options into ranges that are meaningful for assessing number and timing of additional shares that may be issued and the cash that may be received upon exercise of those options, if the range of exercise prices is wide?		_____
91	If the entity measures the fair value of goods or services received as consideration for equity instruments of the entity indirectly, by reference to the fair value of the equity instruments granted, has the entity disclosed at least the following on the next page:	102.47

Cash-settled share-based transaction: A share-based payment transaction in which the entity acquires goods or services by incurring a liability to transfer cash or other assets to the supplier of those goods or services for amounts that are based on the price (or value) of equity instruments (including shares or share options) of the entity or another group entity.

Employees and others providing similar services: Individuals who render personal services to the entity and either (a) the individuals are regarded as employees for legal or tax purposes, (b) the individuals work for the entity under its direction in the same way as individuals who are regarded as those rendered by employees. For example, the term encompasses all management personnel, i.e. those persons having authority and responsibility for planning, directing and controlling the activities of the entity, including non-executive directors.

Equity instrument: A contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of an entity after deducting all of its liabilities.

Equity instrument granted: The right (conditional or unconditional) to an equity instrument of the entity conferred by the entity on another party, under a share-based payment arrangement.

Equity-settled share-based payment transaction : A share-based payment transaction in which the entity (a) receives goods or services as consideration for its equity instruments own (including shares or share options), or (b) receives goods or services but has no obligation to settle the transaction with the supplier.

Fair value: The amount for which an asset could be exchanged, a liability settled, or an equity instrument granted could be exchanged, between knowledgeable, willing parties in an arm's length transaction.

Grant date: The date at which the entity and another party (including an employee) agree to a share-based payment arrangement, being when the entity and the counterparty have a shared understanding of the terms and conditions of the arrangement. At grant date the entity confers on the counterparty the right to cash, other assets, or equity instruments of the entity, provided the specified vesting conditions, if any, are met. If that agreement is subject to an approval process (for example, by shareholders), grant date is the date when that approval is obtained.

Intrinsic value: The difference between the fair value of the shares to which the counterparty has the (conditional or unconditional) right to subscribe or which it has the right to receive, and the price (if any) the counterparty is (or will be) required to pay for those shares. For example, a share option with an exercise price of INR15, on a share with a fair value of INR20, has an intrinsic value of INR5.

Market condition: A performance condition upon which the exercise price, vesting or exercisability of an equity instrument depends that is related to the market price of the entity's equity instruments, such as attaining a specified share price or a specified amount of intrinsic value of a share option, or achieving a specified target that is based on the market price of the entity's equity instruments relative to an index of market prices of equity instruments of other entities. A market condition requires the counterparty to complete a specified period of service (i.e. a service condition), the service requirement can be explicit or implicit.

Measurement date: The date at which the fair value of the equity instruments granted is measured for the purposes of this Ind AS. For transactions with employees and others providing similar services, the measurement date is grant date. For transactions with parties other than employees (and those providing similar services), the measurement date is the date the entity obtains the goods or the counterparty renders service.

Performance condition: A vesting condition that requires:

- a) The counterparty to complete a specified period of service (i.e. a service condition), the service requirement can be explicit or implicit, and
- b) Specified performance target(s) to be met while the counterparty is rendering the service required in (a).

The period of achieving the performance target(s):

- a) Shall not extend beyond the end of the service period, and
- b) May start before the service period on the condition that the commencement date of the performance target is not substantially before the commencement of the service period.

A performance target is defined by reference to:

- a) The entity's own operations (or activities) or the operations or activities of another entity in the same group (i.e. a non-market condition), or
- b) The price (or value) of the entity's equity instruments or the equity instruments of another entity in the same group (including shares and share options) (i.e. a market condition).

A performance target might relate either to the performance of the entity as a whole or to some part of the entity (or part of the group), such as a division or an individual employee.

Reload feature: A feature that provides for an automatic grant of additional share options whenever the option holder exercises previously granted options using the entity's shares, rather than cash, to satisfy the exercise price.

Reload option: A new share option granted when a share is used to satisfy the exercise price of a previous share option.

Service condition: A vesting condition that requires the counterparty to complete a specified period of service during which services are provided to the entity. If the counterparty, regardless of the reason, ceases to provide service during the vesting period, it has failed to satisfy the condition. A service condition does not require a performance target to be met.

Share-based payment arrangement: An agreement between the entity (or another group entity or any shareholder of any group entity) and another party (including an employee) that entitles the other party to receive

- a) Cash or other assets of the entity for amounts that are based on the price (or value) of equity instruments (including shares or share options) of the entity or another group entity, or
- b) Equity instruments (including shares or share options) of the entity or another group entity, provided the specified vesting conditions, if any, are met

Share-based payment transaction: A transaction in which the entity

- a) Receives goods or services from the supplier of those goods or services (including an employee) in a share-based payment arrangement, or
- b) Incurs an obligation to settle the transaction with the supplier in a share-based payment arrangement when another group entity receives those goods or services.

Share option: A contract that gives the holder the right, but not the obligation, to subscribe to the entity's shares at a fixed or determinable price for a specified period of time.

Vest: To become an entitlement. Under a share-based payment arrangement, a counterparty's right to receive cash, other assets or equity instruments of the entity vests when the counterparty's entitlement is no longer conditional on the satisfaction of any vesting conditions.

Vesting conditions: The conditions that determine whether the entity receives the services that entitle the counterparty to receive cash, other assets or equity instruments of the entity, under a share-based payment arrangement. Vesting conditions are either service conditions or performance conditions. Service conditions require the counterparty to complete a specified period of service. Performance conditions require the counterparty to complete a specified period of service and specified performance targets to be met (such as a specified increase in the entity's profit over a specified period of time). A performance condition might include a market condition.

Vesting period: The period during which all the specified vesting conditions of a share-based payment arrangement are to be satisfied.

Ind AS-103 Business Combinations

1. Executive summary

- Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 103, Business Combinations provides guidance on accounting for business combinations under the acquisition method (acquisition accounting), with limited exceptions.
- A business combination is a transaction or other event in which an acquirer obtains control of one or more business.
- A 'business' is an integrated set of activities and assets that is capable of being conducted and managed to provide a return to investors by way of dividends, lower costs or other economic benefits.
- The acquirer in a business combination is the combining entity that obtains control of the other combining business or businesses. The date of acquisition is the date on which the acquirer obtains control of the acquiree.
- Consideration transferred by the acquirer, which is generally measured at fair value at the date of acquisition, may include assets transferred, liabilities incurred by the acquirer to the former owners of the acquiree and equity interests issued by the acquirer. Acquisition related costs are excluded from the consideration transferred and expensed when incurred.
- The identifiable assets acquired and the liabilities assumed are recognised separately from goodwill at the date of acquisition if they meet the definition of assets and liabilities and are exchanged as part of the business combination. They are measured at the date of acquisition at their fair values, with limited exceptions.
- The acquirer in a business combination can elect, on a transaction-by-transaction basis, to measure 'ordinary' Non-Controlling Interests (NCI) at fair value, or at their proportionate interest in the net assets of the acquiree, at the date of acquisition. All other components of NCI (such as equity components of convertible bonds and options under share-based payments arrangements) shall be measured at fair value or in accordance with other relevant Ind ASs.
- Goodwill is recognised at the date of acquisition, measured as a residual. Goodwill previously recorded by the acquiree is not recorded as a separate asset by the acquirer. When the residual is a deficit (gain on a bargain purchase), it is recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity as capital reserve after reassessing the values used in the acquisition accounting.
- If the initial accounting for a business combination is incomplete by the end of the reporting period in which the combination occurs, the acquirer shall report in its financial statements provisional amounts for the items for which the accounting is incomplete. This is referred to as a measurement period.
- Adjustments to acquisition accounting during the measurement period reflect additional information about facts and circumstances that existed at acquisition date. The measurement period cannot exceed one year. In general, items recognised in the acquisition accounting are measured and accounted for in accordance with the relevant Ind AS subsequent to the business combination.
- This standard provides additional guidance on accounting for common control business combinations.
- Transitional provisions are not provided in this standard since all transitional provisions related to Ind ASs, wherever considered appropriate have been included in Ind AS 101, First-time Adoption of Indian Accounting Standards.

New developments

• Additional guidance on acquisition accounting

- On 30 March 2019 MCA notified, as part of the annual improvements to Ind AS, an amendment that provides additional guidance on Ind AS 103 with regard to acquisition accounting. The amendment clarifies that when an entity obtains control of a business that is a joint operation, then the acquirer would remeasure its previously held interest in that business such that the transaction would be considered as a business combination achieved in stages and would be accounted for on that basis.
- Effective date: The amendments are applicable prospectively from 1 April 2019¹.

• Proposed revision to definition of business

- In February 2019, ICAI proposed to amend the definition of 'business' in Ind AS 103. This amendment was proposed in order to assist companies in determining whether an acquisition is a business or purchase of a group of assets. The proposed amendment is based on the revision made by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) to IFRS 3, Business Combinations in October 2018.
- The amendments to definition of business highlight that the 'output of a business' is to provide goods and services to customers, whereas the previous definition focussed on returns in the form of dividends, lower costs or other economic benefits to investors and others. The new definition is narrow and is expected to facilitate robust decision-making when assessing whether a set of acquired assets and activities constitute a business.

- Some of the key amendments proposed are:
 - Optional concentration test: The amendments include an election to use a concentration test. This is a simplified assessment that results in an asset acquisition if substantially all of the fair value of the gross assets is concentrated in a single identifiable asset or a group of similar identifiable assets.
 - Assessment focuses on substantive processes: If a preparer chooses not to apply the concentration test, or the test is failed, then the assessment focuses on the existence of a substantive process.
- Effective date: The revised definition is proposed to be made applicable to businesses acquired in annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 April 2020². However, early adoption is permitted.

• Proposed revision to Conceptual Framework

- In December 2019, the Accounting Standards Board (ASB) of the ICAI has issued an Exposure Draft (ED) of amendment to Conceptual Framework for Financial Reporting under Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS). Further the above ED proposes amendments to nine Ind AS including Ind AS 103³.

² Subject to notification by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs

³ The proposal is currently only an ED.

Applicability
1	Has the entity excluded the following transactions or other events from the scope of this standard as they are governed by another individual Ind AS:	103.2
	a) Accounting for the formation of a joint arrangement in the financial statements of the joint arrangement itself,		_____
	b) Acquisition of an asset or a group of assets that does not constitute a business, and		_____
	c) Acquisition by an investment entity (as defined in Ind AS 110, Consolidated Financial Statements), of an investment in a subsidiary that is required to be measured at fair value through profit or loss?	103.2A	_____
Identifying a business combination
2	This Ind AS defines a business combination as a transaction or other event in which an acquirer obtains control of one or more businesses.
	If the entity has obtained control of a business by one of the following methods, has the transaction been considered to fall within the definition of a business combination:	103.B5
	a) Transferring cash, cash equivalents or other assets (including net assets that constitute a business),		_____
	b) Incurring liabilities,		_____
	c) Issuing equity interests,		_____
	d) Providing more than one type of consideration, and		_____
	e) Without transferring consideration, including by contract alone? (Refer Q 48)		_____
3	If the entity has structured business combination with any other entity or entities in common control, has the guidance in this standard on accounting for such transactions been applied? (Refer Q 82 and 83)		_____
4	a) Has the entity structured the business combination in any of the following ways:	103.B6
	i. One or more businesses become subsidiaries of an acquirer or the net assets of one or more businesses are legally merged into the acquirer,		_____
	ii. One combining entity transfers its net assets, or its owners transfer their equity interests, to another combining entity or its owners,		_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> iii. All of the combining entities transfer their net assets, or the owners of those entities transfer their equity interests, to a newly formed entity, or iv. A group of former owners of one of the combining entities obtains control of the combined entity? (Note: This is only illustrative)		_____
	b) If the answer to Q 4 (a) is yes, has the guidance in this standard been applied to such business combinations?		_____
5	Has the entity applied this standard only if the acquired set of activities satisfy the definition of a business i.e. have the following three elements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Inputs – economic resources that create, or have the ability to create, outputs when one or more processes are applied to them, b) Processes – Systems, standards, protocols, conventions or rules that when applied to inputs, create or have the ability to create outputs, and c) Outputs – The result of inputs and processes applied to those inputs that provide or have the ability to provide a return to investors or other owners, members or participants? (Note: The acquisition of all the inputs and processes used by the seller in operating a business is not necessary for the activities and assets acquired to meet the definition of business. It is important that the entity is capable of producing output by integrating what was acquired either with own inputs and processes or with inputs and processes that it could obtain. Accordingly, outputs are not required to qualify as a business as long as there is ability to create outputs.)	103.3 103.B7	_____
	Acquisition method
6	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Has the entity accounted for each business combination by applying the acquisition method? (Refer ITFG bulletin 19 issue 4 clarification) b) While applying the acquisition method, has the entity: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. Identified the acquirer, ii. Determined the acquisition date, iii. Recognised and measured the identifiable assets acquired, the liabilities assumed and any non-controlling interest in the acquire, and iv. Recognised and measured goodwill or a gain from a bargain purchase? 	103.5	_____
7	For each business combination, has one of the combining entities been identified as the acquirer? (Refer Q 8 to 11)	103.6	_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
8	If a business combination has occurred, does the application of the guidance in Ind AS 110 clearly indicate which of the combining entities is the acquirer? (If answer to above is yes, then the principles of Ind AS 110 shall apply in identifying the acquirer. If no, then principles of this Ind AS (Refer Q 9 to 11 for the same) shall be used to identify the acquirer.)	103.7	_____
9	In a business combination effected primarily by transferring cash or other assets or by incurring liabilities, has the entity considered the acquirer to be the entity that transfers the cash or other assets or incurs the liabilities?	103.B14	_____
10	If the business combination was effected primarily by exchanging equity interests, have the following factors been considered for identifying the acquirer: a) Identification of the combining entity issuing equity interests under the business combination (usually the entity that issues its equity interests is the acquirer; however, in some business combinations, commonly called 'reverse acquisitions', the issuing entity is the acquiree), b) The relative voting rights in the combined entity after the business combination (which is the combining entity whose owners as a group retain or receive the largest portion of the voting rights in the combined entity), c) The existence of a large minority voting interest in the combined entity if no other owner or organised group of owners has a significant voting interest (does a single owner or organised group of owners of a combining entity hold the largest minority voting interest in the combined entity), d) The composition of the governing body of the combined entity (do the owners of a combining entity have the ability to elect or appoint or to remove a majority of the members of the governing body of the combined entity), e) The ability, if any, of the (former) management of a combining entity to dominate the management of the combined entity, and f) The terms of the exchange of equity interests (whether any of the combining entity that has paid a premium over the pre-combination fair value of the equity interests of the other combining entity or entities)?	103.B15	_____
11	In a business combination involving more than two entities, for determining the acquirer, has the entity also considered, among other things, which of the combining entities initiated the combination, as well as the relative size of the combining entities (The acquirer is usually the combining entity whose relative size is significantly greater than that of the other combining entity or entities)?	103.B16 103.B17	_____

Determination of acquisition date
12	a) Has the acquirer identified the acquisition date, being the date on which it obtains control of the acquiree after considering all pertinent facts and circumstances in identifying the acquisition date? (Refer ITFG bulletin 12 issue 8 clarification) b) If answer to Q 12 (a) is no, has the acquirer obtained control on a date that is earlier or later than the closing date based on any legal evidence for the same? (Note: The date on which the acquirer obtains control of the acquiree is generally the date on which the acquirer legally transfers the consideration, acquires the assets and assumes the liabilities of the acquiree, i.e. the 'closing date'.)	103.8	<hr/> <hr/>
Recognition conditions
13	Have the identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed at the acquisition date been recognised by the acquirer only if they meet the definitions of assets and liabilities in the Framework for the Preparation and Presentation of Financial Statements in accordance with Ind AS issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI)? (Refer ITFG bulletin 18 issue 4 clarification) (Note: If the identifiable assets and liabilities acquired and assumed respectively are part of what the acquirer and the acquiree exchanged in the business combination transaction and not a result of separate transactions, has the guidance in this standard been applied?)	103.11	<hr/>
Determining what is part of the business combination transaction
14	Has the acquirer considered the following factors to determine whether a transaction is part of the exchange for the acquiree or whether the transaction is separate from the business combination: a) The reason for the transaction, b) Who initiated the transaction, and c) The timing of the transaction?	103.B50	<hr/> <hr/> <hr/>
15	Have the following types of transactions been accounted for as a separate transaction: a) A transaction that in effect settles pre-existing relationships between the acquirer and acquiree,	103.52	<hr/>

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	b) A transaction that remunerates employees or former owners of the acquiree for future services, and		_____
	c) A transaction that reimburses the acquiree or its former owners for paying the acquirer's acquisition-related costs?		_____
16	Has the acquirer identified any amounts that are not part of what the acquirer and the acquiree (or its former owners) exchanged in the business combination if the acquirer and the acquiree have a pre-existing relationship or other arrangement before negotiations for the business combination began, or they enter into an arrangement during the negotiations that is separate from the business combination? (Note: The acquirer shall recognise as part of applying the acquisition method only the consideration transferred for the acquiree and the assets acquired and liabilities assumed in the exchange for the acquiree.)	103.51	_____
17	Does the business combination settle a pre-existing relationship? (Note: A pre-existing relationship may also be a contract that the acquirer recognises as a re-acquired right.)	103.B51	_____
18	a) If the answer to Q 17 is yes, then has the acquirer recognised the gain or loss at fair value?	103.B52	_____
	b) If the answer to Q 17 is no, then has the acquirer recognised the lower of (i) or (ii) as gain or loss: i. The amount by which the contract is favourable or unfavourable from the perspective of the acquirer when compared with the terms for current market transactions for the same or similar items, ii. The amount of any stated settlement provisions in the contract available to the counterparty to whom the contract is unfavourable?	103.B52	_____
	c) If (ii) is less than (i) is the difference included as part of the business combination?		_____
19	Has the entity classified arrangements for contingent payments to employees or selling shareholders as contingent consideration forming part of business combination or separate transactions after considering the following factors : a) Continuing employment and its duration, b) Level of remuneration and incremental payment, if any, and c) Number of shares owned?	103.B54	_____
20	a) Are there any assets and liabilities that had not been previously recognised as an asset or a liability by the acquiree but satisfy the recognition principle or conditions?	103.13	_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	b) If yes, have these assets or liabilities been recognised by the acquirer?		_____
21	Has the acquirer recognised, separately from goodwill, the identifiable intangible assets acquired in a business combination? (Note: An intangible asset is identifiable if it meets either the separability criterion or the contractual-legal criterion.)	103.B31	_____ _____
Classification of identifiable assets and liabilities in a business combination
22	Has the acquirer made the relevant classifications and designations of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed on the basis of the contractual terms, economic conditions, its operating or accounting policies and other conditions that existed on the acquisition date?	103.15	_____
23	If the classification of the assets and liabilities is with respect to a lease contract in which acquiree is the lessor, is the bifurcation into operating and finance lease made in accordance with Ind AS 116, Leases ⁴ ?	103.17	_____
24	If the contract in concern is an insurance contract, has the same been classified in accordance with Ind AS 104, Insurance Contracts ?	103.17	_____
25	In case of situations covered in Q 23 and 24, have the contracts been classified on the basis of the contractual terms and the other factors at the inception of the contract (or if the terms of the contract have been modified in a manner that would change its classification, at the date of that modification, which might be the acquisition date)?	103.17	_____
Measurement principle
26	Has the acquirer measured the identifiable assets acquired and the liabilities assumed at their acquisition-date fair values?	103.18	_____
27	Has acquirer measured at the acquisition date components of non-controlling interest in the acquiree that are present ownership interests and entitle their holders to a proportionate share of the entity's net assets in the event of liquidation either at:	103.19	_____
	a) Fair value, or		_____
	b) Present ownership instruments' proportionate share in the recognised amounts of the acquiree's identifiable net assets?	103.19	_____

⁴ The Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Amendment Rules, 2019 notified Ind AS 116, Leases, applicable to annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 April 2019. As a consequence of this notification, Ind AS 17, Leases, has been superseded. Accordingly, checklist has been amended.

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
28	Have all other components of non-controlling interests been measured at their acquisition date fair values, unless another measurement basis is required by Ind AS?		_____
29	a) Has the acquirer taken into account the terms of the lease, when measuring the acquisition-date fair value of an asset such as a building, or a patent which is subject to an operating lease in which acquiree is the lessor?	103.B42	_____
	b) Has the acquirer recognised a separate asset or liability if the terms of an operating lease are either favourable or unfavourable when compared with market terms?		_____
Exceptions to the recognition or measurement principles
30	If the acquirer has identified a contingent liability assumed in a business combination, has the acquirer recognised the contingent liability at the acquisition date only if it:	103.22 103.23
	a) Poses a present obligation that arises from past events, and		_____
	b) Has fair value that can be measured reliably?		_____
31	Has the acquirer recognised and measured a deferred tax asset or liability arising from the assets acquired and liabilities assumed in a business combination in accordance with Ind AS 12, Income Taxes ?	103.24
32	Has the acquirer accounted for the potential tax effects of temporary differences and carry forwards of an acquiree that exist at the acquisition date or arise as a result of the acquisition in accordance with Ind AS 12?	103.25
33	Has the acquirer recognised and measured a liability (or an asset, if any) related to the acquiree's employee benefit arrangements in accordance with Ind AS 19, Employee Benefits ?	103.26
34	In the event that the seller in a business combination contractually indemnifies the acquirer for the outcome of a contingency or uncertainty related to all or part of a specific asset or liability, has the acquirer recognised an indemnification asset at the same time that it recognises the indemnified item measured on the same basis as the indemnified item, subject to the need for a valuation allowance for uncollectible amounts?	103.27
35	In the event that the indemnification may relate to an asset or a liability that is an exception to the recognition or measurement principles, has the indemnification asset been recognised and measured using assumptions consistent with those used to measure the indemnified item, subject to management's assessment of the collectability of the indemnification asset and any contractual limitations on the indemnified amount?	103.28	_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
36	a) Has the acquirer recognised Right-Of-Use (ROU) assets and lease liabilities for leases identified in accordance with Ind AS 116, if the acquiree is the lessee⁴? (Refer ITFG bulletin 21 issue 4 clarification) (Note: The acquirer is not required to recognise the ROU assets and lease liabilities for the following: i. Leases for which the lease term ends within 12 months (refer Ind AS 116) of the acquisition date or ii. Leases for which the underlying asset is of low value (refer Ind AS 116)	103.28A	_____
	b) Has the acquirer measured the lease liability at the present value of the remaining lease payments as if the acquired lease was a new lease at the acquisition date?	103.28B	_____
	c) Has the acquirer measured the ROU asset at the same amount as the lease liability (adjusted to reflect favourable or unfavourable terms of the lease when compared with market terms)?		_____
37	Has the acquirer measured the value of an intangible asset which is a reacquired right and recognised this on the basis of the remaining contractual term of the related contract regardless of whether market participants would consider potential contractual renewals when measuring its fair value? (Refer to the related application guidance provided in the standard.)	103.29	_____
38	Has the acquirer measured a liability or an equity instrument related to share-based payment transactions of the acquiree or the replacement of an acquiree's share-based payment transactions with share-based payment transactions of the acquirer in accordance with the method in Ind AS 102, Share-based Payment at the acquisition date?	103.30	_____
39	Has the acquirer measured an acquired non-current asset (or disposal group) that is classified as held for sale at the acquisition date in accordance with Ind AS 105, Non-current Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations ?	103.31	_____
	Recognising and measuring goodwill or a gain from a bargain purchase
40	Has the excess of (a) over (b) below at the acquisition date been recognised by the acquirer as goodwill:	103.32
	a) The aggregate of the following : i. The consideration transferred, which generally requires acquisition-date fair value,		_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	ii. The amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquiree, and		_____
	iii. In a business combination achieved in stages, the acquisition-date fair value of the acquirer's previously held equity interest in the acquiree,		_____
	b) The net of the acquisition-date amounts of the identifiable assets acquired and the liabilities assumed measured in accordance with this Ind AS?		_____
	Bargain purchases
41	If the amount in Q 40 (b) exceeds the aggregate of the amounts specified in Q 40 (a), has the acquirer recognised the resulting gain in other comprehensive income on the acquisition date and accumulated the same in equity as capital reserve only if:	103.34 103.36
	a) There is clear evidence of the underlying reasons for classifying the business combination as a bargain purchase,		_____
	b) The entity has correctly identified all of the assets acquired and all of the liabilities assumed, and	103.36	_____
	c) The procedures used to measure the following appropriately reflect consideration of all available information as of the acquisition date:
	i. The identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed,		_____
	ii. The non-controlling interest in the acquiree, if any,		_____
	iii. For a business combination achieved in stages, the acquirer's previously held equity interest in the acquiree, and		_____
	iv. The consideration transferred?		_____
42	If the conditions for recognising a gain described in Q 41 are not met, has the excess (subject to the above reassessment and review) been recognised directly in equity as capital reserve?	103.36A	_____
	Consideration transferred
43	Is the consideration transferred in a business combination measured at fair value?	103.37	_____
	(Note: The fair value shall be calculated as the sum of the acquisition-date fair values of the assets transferred by the acquirer, the liabilities incurred by the acquirer to former owners of the acquiree and the equity interests issued by the acquirer.)
44	In case the assets and liabilities of the acquirer have carrying amounts that differ from their fair values at the acquisition date, have the assets and liabilities been remeasured at fair value?	103.38	_____

	Measurement period
50	If the initial accounting for a business combination is incomplete by the end of the reporting period in which the combination occurs, has the acquirer reported in its financial statements provisional amounts for the items for which the accounting is incomplete? (Note: The measurement period is the period after the acquisition date during which the acquirer may adjust the provisional amounts recognised for a business combination as if the accounting for the business combination had been completed at the acquisition date.)	103.45	_____
51	During the measurement period, has the acquirer: a) Retrospectively adjusted the provisional amounts recognised at the acquisition date to reflect new information obtained about facts and circumstances that existed as of the acquisition date and, if known, would have affected the measurement of the amounts recognised as of that date, b) Also recognised additional assets or liabilities if new information is obtained about facts and circumstances that existed as of the acquisition date and, if known, would have resulted in the recognition of those assets and liabilities as of that date, c) Ensured that the measurement period ends as soon as the acquirer receives the information it was seeking about facts and circumstances that existed as of the acquisition date or learns that more information is not obtainable, and d) Ensured that the measurement period does not exceed one year from the acquisition date?	103.45	_____ _____ _____ _____
52	During the measurement period, has the acquirer acquired information pertaining to the following: a) The identifiable assets acquired, liabilities assumed and any non-controlling interest in the acquiree, b) The consideration transferred for the acquiree, c) In a business combination achieved in stages, the equity interest in the acquiree previously held by the acquirer, and d) The resulting goodwill or gain on a bargain purchase?	103.46	_____ _____ _____ _____

Information that is obtained shortly after the acquisition date is more likely to reflect circumstances that existed at the acquisition date than information obtained several months later.)	103.47
54	Has the acquirer recognised an increase (or decrease) in the provisional amount recognised for an identifiable asset (or liability) by means of a decrease (or increase) in goodwill?	103.48
55	During the measurement period, has the acquirer recognised adjustments to the provisional amounts as if the accounting for the business combination had been completed at the acquisition date?	103.49
56	After the measurement period ends, has the acquirer revised the accounting for a business combination only to correct an error in accordance with Ind AS 8, Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors ?	103.50
57	Has the acquirer accounted for acquisition-related costs as expenses in the periods in which the costs are incurred and the services are received (except the costs to issue debt or equity securities shall be recognised in accordance with Ind AS 32, Financial Instruments: Presentation and Ind AS 109, Financial Instruments)?	103.53
Subsequent measurement and accounting
58	Has the acquirer subsequently been measuring and accounting for the following in a business combination in accordance with Ind AS 103: a) Reacquired rights, b) Contingent liabilities recognised as of the acquisition date, c) Indemnification assets, and d) Contingent consideration?	103.54
59	Has an acquirer amortised the reacquired right, recognised as an intangible asset, over the remaining useful life?	103.55
60	When the acquirer has subsequently sold a reacquired right to a third party, has the acquirer included the carrying amount of the intangible asset in determining the gain or loss on the sale? (Note: A reacquired right recognised as an intangible asset shall be amortised over the remaining contractual period of the contract in which the right was granted.)

3. Additional considerations

Some of the key requirements from the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act)

- Certain business combinations such as mergers and amalgamations are dealt with under Chapter XV-Compromises, Arrangements and Amalgamations of the 2013 Act. With the notification of the relevant sections dealing with compromises, arrangements and amalgamations (including fast track amalgamations and demergers), companies are now required to make an application to the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) in case of such schemes.
- The NCLT assumed jurisdiction of the High Courts as the sanctioning authority for certain sections such as compromises, arrangements, reduction of capital and variations of shareholders' rights.
- No compromise or arrangement would be sanctioned by the NCLT unless a certificate by the company's auditor has been filed with the tribunal to the effect that the accounting treatment, if any, proposed in the scheme of the compromise or arrangement is in conformity with the standards prescribed in Section 133 of 2013 Act.
- On 21 August 2019, the MCA has issued a circular (no.09/2019) and clarified that the provision of Section 232(6) of the 2013 Act is an enabling provision which allows the companies in the scheme to decide and agree upon an appointed date from which the scheme should come into force. An appointed date could be a specific calendar date or it could be tied to the occurrence of an event.
- MCA also clarified that the appointed date clarified in the scheme would deemed to be the acquisition date and date of transfer of control for the purpose of conforming to accounting standards (including Ind AS 103).

Some of the key requirements of the Securities and Exchange Board of India for listed companies (SEBI requirements)

- The SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (Listing Regulations) provide procedures (through a circular dated 30 November 2015) to be followed by listed entities for undertaking schemes of arrangements, such as amalgamations, mergers, reconstruction, etc. In order to align SEBI requirements with the 2013 Act, SEBI on 10 March 2017 revised certain obligations in the Listing Regulations (given in circular dated 30 November 2015) in relation to the schemes of arrangements. As per this regulatory framework, companies filing for a scheme of arrangement with stock exchanges post 10 March 2017 need to provide additional information with respect to the scheme. The key changes in this circular relate to the following topics:
 - For schemes of arrangement between a listed and an unlisted entity, the listed entity would have to include certain applicable information pertaining to the unlisted entity involved in the scheme in the format specified for abridged prospectus, which would have to be certified by a SEBI registered merchant banker and submitted to stock exchanges.
 - The SEBI has prescribed e-voting for approval of the scheme instead of postal voting
 - There is a three-year lock-in requirement relating to shares held by promoters for a scheme involving hiving-off a division from a listed entity into an unlisted entity to the extent of 20 per cent of the post-merger paid up capital of the unlisted issuer.
 - Listed entities are required to submit a detailed 'compliance report' relating to compliance with all regulatory requirements and accounting standards, which is to be certified by the company secretary, chief financial officer and the managing director of the entity.

Significant carve-in/carve-out from IFRS

- Carve-in: IFRS 3, Business Combinations excludes from its scope business combinations of entities under common control. Ind AS 103 (Appendix C) gives the guidance in this regard.
- Carve-out: IFRS 3 requires bargain purchase gain arising on business combination to be recognised in profit or loss. Ind AS 103 requires the same to be recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity as capital reserve, unless there is no clear evidence for the underlying reason for classification of the business combination as a bargain purchase, in which case, it shall be recognised directly in equity as capital reserve.

In October 2018, the IASB revised the definition of the term 'business'. Determining whether a transaction results in an asset or a business acquisition has long been a challenging but important area of judgement. The IASB has issued amendments to IFRS 3 that clarify this matter. This amendment has been proposed in February 2019.

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

- There is no specific guidance in ICDS on business combinations given that the tax implications in India are currently based on the separate financial statements of an entity. Further, as per Ind AS 103, acquisition costs are required to be charged to the income statement. The allow ability of these expenses would be driven by the normal provisions of the Act.
- The accounting for common control transactions under Ind AS 103 is based on the pooling of interest method. The tax implications relating to such transactions are dealt with under the Income Tax Act, 1961. There is no specific guidance under ICDS on the accounting of such transactions.

Some of the clarifications provided by the Ind AS Technical Facilitation Group (ITFG)

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
Bulletin 12 (Issue 8)	Acquisition date in a scheme approved by NCLT As per provisions of the 2013 Act (proviso to Section 232(3)), no scheme of arrangement would be sanctioned by the NCLT only if a certificate by the company's auditor has been filed with the NCLT. The certificate should include the effect that the accounting treatment, if any, proposed in the scheme of compromise or arrangement is in conformity with the accounting standards prescribed under Section 133 of the 2013 Act. The ITFG considered a situation where pursuant to a court scheme, a company is merged with another company with an appointed date approved by NCLT (which is prior to the Ind AS implementation date). In view of this, ITFG clarified that if: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Business combination is under common control: In such a case, an entity is required to restate its financial statements as if the business combination had occurred from the beginning of the preceding period in the financial statements. • Business combination is not under common control: In such a case, the date of acquisition is the date from which an acquirer obtains control of the acquiree. In both the cases, if an auditor considers that as per the proposed accounting treatment, the date from which the amalgamation is effected in the books of accounts of the amalgamated company is different from the acquisition date as per Ind AS 103 i.e. the date on which control has been actually transferred, then the auditor should state the same in the certificate to be issued under Section 232(3) of the 2013 Act. Additionally, if the NCLT approves the scheme with a different appointed date as compared to the acquisition date as per Ind AS 103, then the appointed date approved by the NCLT would be considered as the acquisition date for business combinations. The company would be required to provide appropriate disclosures and the auditor would need to consider the requirements of relevant auditing standards when issuing its certificate.	103.9 (Q 12)

Bulletin 18 (Issue 4)	Whether retrospective restatement of business combination under a court scheme allowed The ITFG considered a situation where an entity (XYZ Ltd.) had an amalgamation prior to implementation of Ind AS, under the order of the High Court. The accounting as per the scheme was not in compliance with the accounting prescribed in Ind AS (i.e. item capitalised by the company under the scheme did not meet the definition of an asset under Ind AS). The issue under consideration was whether XYZ Ltd. should consider the court scheme in carrying out retrospective restatement of the business combination. The ITFG clarified as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Where a business combination occurs on or after the date of transition by the entity to Ind AS but the scheme approved by the relevant authority (Court or the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT)) prescribes a treatment that differs from the treatment required as per Ind AS 103, the treatment prescribed under the scheme would override the requirements of Ind AS 103. • Where a business combination occurred before the date of transition of the entity to Ind AS but the scheme approved by the relevant authority (Court or the NCLT) prescribed a treatment that differs from the treatment required as per Ind AS 103, the issue whether the restatement of a business combination upon transition to Ind AS is legally permissible requires a careful evaluation of the exact stipulations contained in the scheme. As the schemes approved by the relevant authorities have varying stipulations, each case requires a separate consideration of the issue of legal permissibility of restatement based on its specific facts. Where it is evaluated that under law, the scheme approved by the relevant authority does not preclude restatement upon transition to Ind AS, the restatement is permissible subject to complying with the conditions laid down in this behalf in Ind AS 101. 	103.11 (Q 13)

	Situation 2: Where A Ltd transferred one of its division to C Ltd and appointed date for the transfer is 1 October 2018. ITFG assumed that transfer of division from A Ltd to C Ltd. constituted a transfer of business. Additionally, ITFG concluded that the transfer qualified as a common control business transaction from the perspective of C Ltd. on the basis of the following analysis: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • C Ltd obtains control of a business that it did not previously control • Both the combining parties, i.e., C Ltd. (the acquirer) and the division transferred, are controlled by A Ltd. before and after the transfer • Control of A Ltd. over the transferee (C Ltd) and the transferor (the transferred division) cannot be said to be transitory since C Ltd. has been a subsidiary of A Ltd. since January 2016. ITFG clarified that C Ltd. would be required to prepare its financial statements (including comparative information) for the year ended 31 March 2019 as if the transfer of the division had occurred from the beginning of the comparative period presented in the financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2019 i.e., 1 April 2017, and not the appointed date of 1 October 2018 specified in the scheme.
Bulletin 16 (Issue 5)	Demerger of one of the businesses of parent to its subsidiary and court approved scheme A parent (company B) demerged one of its businesses under the order of the High Court (HC) and sold it to its subsidiary (company A) in FY2016-17 (which was the year of transition to Ind AS i.e. Ind AS is applicable from FY 2017-18). Company A accounted for the transaction under Accounting Standards. The ITFG considered following two scenarios for the given case: Scenario A: Accounting treatment of demerger not prescribed in the court-approved scheme: As per ITFG, in case the court approved scheme does not prescribe any accounting treatment for the demerger in the books of company A, then the transaction	103.C9 (Q 83)

	would be considered akin to a transaction occurring on or after the date of transition to Ind AS. Therefore, it would be accounted for as per relevant requirements under Ind AS, irrespective of its accounting under previous GAAP. The demerger qualifies as a 'common control business combination', therefore, company A would be required to account for the demerger under 'pooling of interest method'. Accordingly, company A in its financial statements for FY 2016-17, would be required to recognise assets and liabilities acquired from company B at their respective book values as appearing in the books of company B. While presenting the comparative amounts in the Ind AS financial statements for FY 2017-18, company A would be required to restate the amount of assets and liabilities recognised under IGAAP for FY 2016-17 following pooling of interest method. Further, assuming that both the acquirer and the acquiree were under common control as on 1 April 2016, ITFG clarified that the financial information in the financial statements in respect of prior periods should be restated as if the business combination had occurred from the beginning of the preceding period (i.e. 1 April 2016) in the financial statements, irrespective of the actual date of the combination. Scenario B: Accounting treatment of demerger prescribed in the court-approved scheme: The ITFG in the present case clarified that the accounting treatment of a transaction as required under an order of a court/tribunal (or other similar authority) overrides the accounting treatment that would otherwise be required to be followed in respect of the transaction. Accordingly, in the given case, if the court approved scheme of demerger prescribed the accounting treatment for the demerger in the books of company A (for instance, recognition of assets and liabilities acquired at their respective fair values as at the date of demerger), then company A would be required to follow the treatment prescribed in the scheme in its financial statements for the FY 2016-17. Further, if the

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
	effect of such treatment has to be carried over in subsequent years, then also the same treatment of court approved scheme would be followed in the subsequent years subject to compliance of auditing standards. The ITFG considered the announcement of the council of ICAI with respect to disclosures to be made in cases where a court/tribunal makes an order sanctioning an accounting treatment which is different from that prescribed by an Accounting Standard (AS). The announcement, inter alia requires the following disclosures to be made in the financial statements of the year in which different treatment has been given: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A description of the accounting treatment made along with the reason that the same has been adopted because of the court/tribunal order. • Description of the difference between the accounting treatment prescribed in the AS and that followed by the company. • The financial impact, if any, arising due to such a difference.

Ind AS-104 Insurance Contracts

1. Executive summary

- Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 104, Insurance Contracts describes an insurance contract as a contract that transfers significant insurance risk. Insurance risk is 'significant' if an insured event could cause an insurer to pay significant additional benefits in any scenario, excluding those that lack commercial substance.
 - A financial instrument that does not meet the definition of an insurance contract (including investments held to back insurance liabilities) is accounted for under the general recognition and measurement requirements for financial instruments specified in Ind AS 109, Financial Instruments.
 - Financial instruments that include discretionary participation features are in the scope of the standard-i.e. existing accounting policies may be applied, although these are subject to the general financial instrument disclosures.
 - Generally, entities that issue insurance contracts are required to continue their existing accounting policies with respect to insurance contracts except when the standard requires or permits changes in accounting policies.
 - Changes in existing accounting policies for insurance contracts are permitted only if the new policy or a combination of new policies, results in information that is more relevant or reliable, or both, without reducing either relevance or reliability.
 - The recognition of catastrophe and equalisation provisions is prohibited for contracts not in existence at the reporting date.
 - A liability adequacy test is required to ensure that the measurement of the entity's insurance liabilities considers all contractual cash flows, using current estimates.
 - The application of 'shadow accounting' for insurance liabilities is permitted for consistency with the treatment of unrealised gains or losses on assets.
 - An expanded presentation of the fair value of insurance contracts acquired in a business combination or portfolio transfer is permitted.
 - Significant disclosures are required of the terms, conditions and risks related to insurance contracts, consistent in principle with those required for financial assets and financial liabilities.
- New developments
- The International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) has issued an exposure draft of amendments to IFRS 17, Insurance Contracts, in June 2019. The exposure draft, inter alia, proposes to amend the mandatory effective date of IFRS 17, so that entities would be required to apply IFRS 17 for annual reporting period beginning on or after 1 January 2022. The IASB considers that deferral of one year would be sufficient to address any implementation concerns.
 - In India, Ind AS 117, Insurance Contracts (converged with IFRS 17) is still at an exposure draft stage and will be updated based on the amendments made to IFRS 17. (The IASB has indicated that they aim to issue the final amendments to IFRS 17 in mid 2020).
 - IFRS 4, Insurance Contracts would be replaced by IFRS 17. Therefore, the Insurance Development and Regulatory Authority of India (IRDAI) was of view that implementing IFRS 4 equivalent i.e. Ind AS 104, Insurance contracts in the insurance sector in India at this juncture would involve avoidable costs and efforts. It may therefore not be desirable to implement Ind AS 104 in the insurance sector as an interim measure. Implementation of Ind AS 109 before implementation of equivalent of IFRS 17 equivalent may cause volatility in the financial statements because of asset liability mismatch.
 - The IRDAI, on 21 January 2020, deferred the implementation of Ind AS by the insurance sector in India till further notice. Further, the insurance companies are no longer required to submit proforma Ind AS financial statements to IRDAI on a quarterly basis as was earlier required.

2. Checklist

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
Applicability
1	Has the entity applied this standard if it:	104.2
	a) Issues insurance contracts,		_____
	b) Issues reinsurance contracts,		_____
	c) Holds reinsurance contracts, or		_____
	d) Issues financial instruments with a discretionary participation feature?		_____
	(Note: For aspects (such as accounting for financial assets/ financial liabilities) of accounting by insurers, other than those stated above, please refer Ind AS 32, Financial Instruments: Presentation, Ind AS 107, Financial Instruments: Disclosures and Ind AS 109.)	104.3
2	Has the entity evaluated its insurance contracts as per the guidance on the definition of insurance contracts given in Appendix B of the standard?	104.B1	_____
3	More specifically, on evaluation, do the entity's insurance contracts have significant insurance risk, if yes, apply this standard. If not, such contracts will need to be recognised and measured as per applicable Ind AS?		_____
4	Has the entity ensured that it does not apply the guidance in this standard and applies the relevant Ind AS instead, to the following types of contracts:	104.4
	a) Product warranties issued directly by a manufacturer, dealer or retailer (refer Ind AS 115, Revenue from Contracts with Customers and Ind AS 37, Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets),		_____
	b) Employers' assets and liabilities under employee benefit plan and retirement benefit obligations (refer Ind AS 19, Employee Benefits),		_____
	c) Contractual rights or contractual obligations that are contingent on the future use of, or right to use, a non-financial item (for e.g. some licence fees, royalties, contingent lease payments and similar items), as well as a lessees' residual value guarantee embedded in a finance		_____

	lease (refer Ind AS 116, Leases ¹ , Ind AS 115 and Ind AS 38, Intangible Assets),		_____
	d) Financial guarantee contracts (refer Ind AS 109) unless the issuer has previously asserted explicitly that it regards such contracts as insurance contracts and has used accounting applicable to insurance contracts,		_____
	e) Contingent consideration payable or receivable in a business combination (refer Ind AS 103, Business Combinations), or		_____
	f) Direct insurance contracts in which entity is the policyholder?		_____
5	Has the entity applied this standard to reinsurance contracts that it holds as a cedant?	104.4 (f)	_____
6	Has the entity separated embedded derivatives, if any, from their host insurance contract? (Note: This standard applies to derivatives embedded in an insurance contract which needs to be separated from their host contract and measured at fair value and include changes in their fair value in profit or loss, unless the derivative is insurance contract itself. An exception to this is the policyholder's option to surrender an insurance contract for a fixed amount even if the exercise price differs from the carrying amount of the host liability.)	104.7	_____
7	If the derivative contract is itself an insurance contract, then has the entity applied this standard, else applied Ind AS 109?	104.7	_____
8	Has the entity measured the separated embedded derivatives at fair value?	104.7	_____
9	Has the entity included changes in the fair value of the separated embedded derivatives in profit and loss?	104.7	_____
10	If the entity has insurance contracts where policyholders' have the option to surrender the contract for a fixed amount, where the exercise price differs from the carrying amount of the host insurance liability, has it elected not to separate this option and measure it as fair value (being an embedded derivative)?	104.8	_____

¹ The Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Amendment Rules, 2019 notified Ind AS 116, which is applicable for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 April 2019. As a consequence of this notification, Ind AS 17, Leases has been superseded. Accordingly, the checklist has been amended.

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
11	If the entity has a put option or cash surrender option embedded in an insurance contract, whose surrender value, varies in response to the change in a financial variable or a non-financial variable that is not specific to a party to the contract, has the entity applied the requirements of Ind AS 109 relating to separation of this embedded derivative and its measurement at fair value?	104.8	_____
12	If the holders' ability to exercise a put option or cash surrender option as described in Q 11 is triggered by a change in a variable, has the entity applied to requirements of Ind AS 109 relating to separation of embedded derivatives?	104.8	_____
13	If the entity as an insurer has insurance contracts that contain both insurance and a deposit component, has the entity ensured that it has unbundled those components if: a) It can measure the deposit component (including any embedded surrender option) separately, excluding the insurance component, and b) Its accounting policies do not otherwise require it to recognise all obligations and rights arising from the deposit component? (Note: If the conditions in Q 13(a) are met but those in Q 13(b) are not, then unbundling is not required, but is permitted. If the conditions in both Q 13(a) and (b) are not met then unbundling is prohibited.)	104.10	_____
14	If the components mentioned in Q 13 are unbundled, then has the entity applied this standard to the insurance component and Ind AS 109 to the deposit component?	104.12	_____
15	Has the entity ensured that it complies with the implications of the criteria in paragraph 10-12 of Ind AS 8, Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors, specifically that an insurer: a) Has not recognised as a liability any provisions for possible future claims, if those claims arise under insurance contracts that are not in existence at the end of the reporting period (such as catastrophe provisions and equalisation provisions), b) Has carried out the liability adequacy test as described in Q 16 to 20, c) Has removed an insurance liability (or a part of an insurance liability) from its balance sheet when, and only when, it is extinguished i.e. when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged or cancelled or expires,	104.12	_____

	e) Has considered whether its reinsurance assets are impaired?		_____
Recognition and measurement
16	Has the entity assessed at the end of each reporting period, whether its recognised insurance liabilities are adequate, using current estimates of future cash flows under its insurance contracts?	104.15	_____
17	In case the carrying amount of entity's insurance liabilities is inadequate in the light of estimated future cash flows, has the entity recognised the entire deficiency in profit or loss?	104.15	_____
18	a) In the liability adequacy test, has the entity considered current estimates of all contractual cash flows and of related cash flows such as claims handling costs, as well as cash flows resulting from embedded options and guarantees?	104.16	_____
	b) If the test shows that the liability is inadequate, has the entire deficiency been recognised in profit or loss?		_____
19	In case the entity's accounting policies do not require a liability adequacy test, then:	104.17
	a) Has the entity determined the carrying amount of the relevant insurance liabilities less the carrying amount of any related deferred acquisition costs and any related intangible assets (such as those acquired in a business combination or portfolio transfer), and		_____
	b) If the net amount so determined is less than the carrying amount as per Ind AS 37, then has the entity recognised the entire difference in profit and loss and decreased the carrying amount of the related deferred acquisition costs or related intangible assets or increase the carrying amount of the relevant insurance liabilities?		_____
20	a) If an insurer's liability adequacy test meets the minimum requirements of Q 18, has the test been applied at the level of aggregation specified in that test?	104.18	_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	b) If the liability adequacy test does not meet the minimum requirements in Q 18, has the comparison described in Q 19 been made at the level of a portfolio of contracts that are subject to broadly similar risks and managed together as a single portfolio?		_____
21	Has a reinsurance asset been considered as impaired if, and only if:	104.20	_____
	a) There is objective evidence, as a result of an event that occurred after initial recognition of the reinsurance asset, that the cedant may not receive all amounts due to it under the terms of the contract, and		_____
	b) That event has a reliably measurable impact on the amounts that the cedant will receive from the reinsurer?		_____
22	If a cedant's reinsurance asset is impaired as determined in Q 21, has the cedant reduced its carrying amount accordingly and recognised the impairment loss in profit and loss?	104.20	_____
23	Has the entity changed its accounting policies for insurance contracts if, and only if, the change makes the financial statements more relevant to the economic decision-making needs of users and no less reliable, or more reliable and no less relevant to those needs, based on the criteria in Ind AS 8?	104.22	_____
24	If the insurer has elected to change its accounting policies for designated insurance liabilities to reflect current market interest rates and require other current estimates and assumptions, has it continued to apply current market interest rates, and the other estimates and assumptions consistently in all periods to these liabilities until they are extinguished?	104.24	_____
	(Note: The election in this paragraph permits an insurer to change its accounting policies for designated liabilities, without applying those policies consistently to all similar liabilities as Ind AS 8 would otherwise require.)		_____
25	While the entity may continue the following practices, has it ensured that it has not changed its accounting policies to introduce any of the following practices (as they do not satisfy the criteria in Q 23):	104.25	_____
	a) Measuring insurance liabilities on an undiscounted basis,		_____
	b) Measuring contractual rights to future investment management fees at an amount that exceeds their fair value as implied by a comparison with current fees charged by other market participants for similar services, or		_____

	c) Using non-uniform accounting policies for the insurance contracts (and related deferred acquisition costs and related intangible assets, if any) of subsidiaries, except as permitted in Q 24?		_____
26	Has the entity ensured that it has not changed its accounting policies to introduce additional prudence if it already measures its insurance contracts with sufficient prudence?	104.26	_____
27	While the entity need not change its accounting policies for insurance contracts to eliminate future investment margins, has it ensured that it does not introduce an accounting policy that reflects future investment margins in the measurement of insurance contracts, unless it overcomes the rebuttable presumption that introduction of such an accounting policy will result in the financial statements becoming less relevant and reliable?	104.27	_____
	Shadow accounting
28	If the insurer has changed its accounting policies so that a recognised but unrealised gain or loss on an asset affects measurements of its insurance liabilities, deferred acquisition costs and related intangible assets in the same way that a realised gain or loss does, has the related adjustment been recognised in other comprehensive income if, and only if, the unrealised gains or losses are recognised in other comprehensive income (shadow accounting)?	104.30	_____
29	Has the insurer, at the acquisition date, measured at fair value the insurance liabilities assumed and insurance assets acquired in a business combination in compliance with Ind AS 103? (Note: An insurer is permitted but not required to use an expanded presentation that splits the fair value of acquired insurance contracts into two components: a) The liability measured in accordance with the insurer's accounting policies for insurance contracts that it issues, and b) An intangible asset, representing the difference between the fair value of the contractual insurance rights acquired/insurance obligations assumed and the amount described in (a) above. 	a) If the entity has recognised the guaranteed element and the discretionary participation feature separately, has it:
	i. Classified the guaranteed element as a liability,		_____
	ii. Classified the discretionary participation feature as either a liability or a separate component of equity, or split it into liability and equity components based on a consistent accounting policy (ensuring that is not classified as an intermediate category that is neither liability nor equity),		_____
	iii. Recognised all premiums received as revenue without separating any portion that relates to the equity component and recognised resulting changes, in the guaranteed element and in the portion of the discretionary participation feature classified as a liability, in profit and loss, and		_____
	iv. Recognised the portion of profit or loss attributable to any equity component of a discretionary participation feature as an allocation of profit or loss, not as expense or income?		_____
	b) If the entity has not recognised the guaranteed element and discretionary participation feature separately, has it classified the whole contract as a liability?		_____
	c) If the contract contains an embedded derivative within the scope of Ind AS 109, has the entity applied Ind AS 109 to that embedded derivative?		_____
	d) Has the entity continued its existing accounting policies for such contracts (to the extent not described in Q 15 to 21 and Q 30(a) to (c) above), unless it changes those policies in a manner that complies with Q 23 to 28?		_____

If an insurer uses an alternative method to manage sensitivity to market conditions, such as an embedded value analysis, it may use that sensitivity analysis to meet the requirement in paragraph 40(a) of Ind AS 107. Such an insurer should also provide the disclosures required by paragraph 41 of Ind AS 107.)

- d) Has the entity disclosed the information about exposures to market risk arising from embedded derivatives contained in a host insurance contract if the insurer is not required to, and does not, measure the embedded derivatives at fair value?

Glossary

Cedant is the policyholder under a reinsurance contract

Deposit component is a contractual component that is not accounted for as a derivative under Ind AS 109 and would be within the scope of Ind AS 109 if it were a separate instrument.

Direct insurance contract is an insurance contract that is not a reinsurance contract.

Discretionary participation feature is a contractual right to receive, as a supplement to guaranteed benefits, additional benefits:

- a) That are likely to be a significant portion of the total contractual benefits
- b) Whose amount or timing is contractually at the discretion of the issuer and
- c) That are contractually based on:
 - i. The performance of a specified pool of contracts or a specified type of contract
 - ii. Realised and/or unrealised investment returns on a specified pool of assets held by the issuer or
 - iii. The profit or loss of the company, fund or other entity that issues the contract.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

Financial guarantee contract is a contract that requires the issuer to make specified payments to reimburse the holder for a loss it incurs because a specified debtor fails to make payment when due in accordance with the original or modified terms of a debt instrument.

Financial risk is the risk of a possible future change in one or more of a specified interest rate, financial instrument price, commodity price, foreign exchange rate, index of prices or rates, credit rating or credit index or other variable, provided in the case of a non-financial variable that the variable is not specific to a party to the contract.

Guaranteed benefits are payments or other benefits to which a particular policyholder or investor has an unconditional right that is not subject to the contractual discretion of the issuer.

Guaranteed element is an obligation to pay guaranteed benefits, included in a contract that contains a discretionary participation feature.

Insurance asset is an insurer's net contractual rights under an insurance contract.

Insurance contract is a contract under which one party (the insurer) accepts significant insurance risk from another party (the policyholder) by agreeing to compensate the policyholder if a specified uncertain future event (the insured event) adversely affects the policyholder. (See Appendix B for guidance on this definition.)

Insurance liability is an insurer's net contractual obligations under an insurance contract.

Insurance risk is a risk, other than financial risk, transferred from the holder of a contract to the issuer.

Insured event is an uncertain future event that is covered by an insurance contract and creates insurance risk.

Insurer is the party that has an obligation under an insurance contract to compensate a policyholder if an insured event occurs.

Liability adequacy test is an assessment of whether the carrying amount of an insurance liability needs to be increased (or the carrying amount of related deferred acquisition costs or related intangible assets decreased), based on a review of future cash flows.

Policyholder is a party that has a right to compensation under an insurance contract if an insured event occurs.

Reinsurance asset is a cedant's net contractual right under a reinsurance contract.

Reinsurance contract is an insurance contract issued by one insurer (the reinsurer) to compensate another insurer (the cedant) for losses on one or more contracts issued by the cedant.

Reinsurer is the party that has an obligation under a reinsurance contract to compensate a cedant if an insured event occurs.

Unbundle refers to accounting for the components of a contract as if they were separate contracts.

Ind AS-105 Non-current Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations

1. Executive summary

- Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 105, Non-current Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations requires non-current assets and some groups of assets and liabilities (known as disposal groups) to be classified as held for sale when their carrying amounts will be recovered principally through sale rather than through their continuing use.
- Assets classified as held for sale are not amortised or depreciated.
- Non-current assets and disposal groups held for sale are generally measured at the lower of their carrying amount and fair value less cost to sell, and are presented separately on the face of the balance sheet.
- The comparative balance sheet is not re-presented when a non-current asset or disposal group is classified as held for sale.
- The classification, presentation and measurement requirements that apply to items that are classified as held for sale also apply to a non-current asset or disposal group that is classified as held for distribution.
- A discontinued operation is a component of the entity that either has been disposed off or classified as held for sale.
- Discontinued operations are limited to those operations that are a separate major line of business or geographical area, and to subsidiaries acquired exclusively with a view to resell.
- Discontinued operations are presented separately on the face of the statement of profit and loss.
- The comparative statement of profit and loss is restated for discontinued operations.

2. Checklist

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	Applicability
	This standard shall be applied in accounting for assets held for sale, held for distribution and the presentation and disclosure of discontinued operations.
	Classification of non-current asset (or disposal groups) as held for sale or as held for distribution to owners
1	Has the entity classified non-current assets (or disposal groups) whose carrying amounts will be recovered principally through a sale transaction rather than through continuing use as 'held for sale' if the following conditions are met:	105.6
	a) The asset is available for immediate sale in its present condition subject only to terms that are usual and customary for sales of such assets (or disposal groups),	105.7	_____
	b) Its sale is highly probable,	105.8	_____
	For sale to be highly probable, has the entity considered the following:
	i. The appropriate level of management must be committed to a plan to sell the asset (or disposal group),		_____
	ii. An active programme to locate a buyer and complete the plan must have been initiated,		_____
	iii. The asset (or disposal group) must be actively marketed for sale at a price that is reasonable in relation to its current fair value,		_____
	iv. In addition, the sale should be expected to qualify for recognition as a completed sale within one year from the date of classification, except as permitted by Q 6,		_____
	v. Actions required to complete the plan should indicate that it is unlikely that significant changes to the plan will be made or that the plan will be withdrawn, and		_____
	vi. The probability of shareholders' approval (if required in the jurisdiction) should be considered as part of the assessment of whether the sale is highly probable?		_____
2	If the entity is committed to a sale plan involving loss of control of a subsidiary, has it classified all the assets and liabilities of that subsidiary as held for sale when the criteria in Q 1 are met, regardless of whether the entity will retain a non-controlling interest in its former subsidiary after the sale?	105.8A	_____

3	If the entity is committed to distribute the asset (or disposal group) to the owners, has it classified the non-current asset (or disposal group) as held for distribution to owners? (Note: For this, the assets must be available for immediate distribution in their present condition and the distribution must be highly probable.)	105.12A	_____
4	Have the classification, presentation and measurement requirements in Ind AS 105 applicable to a non-current asset (or disposal group) that is classified as held for sale also been applied to a non-current asset that is held for distribution?	105.5A	_____
5	If the entity has non-current assets (or disposal groups) classified as held for sale, then has it excluded such assets (or disposal groups) from the disclosure requirements in other Ind ASs unless those Ind ASs require: a) Specific disclosures in respect of non-current assets (or disposal groups) classified as held for sale. This includes the disclosure of earnings per share for a discontinued operation that is classified as held for sale and disclosures required under Ind AS 113, Fair Value Measurement, which are applicable when a non-current asset or disposal group held for sale is measured at fair value less costs to sell, or b) Disclosures about measurement of assets and liabilities within a disposal group that are not within the scope of the measurement requirement of Ind AS 105 and such disclosures are not already provided in other notes to the financial statements? (Note: Additional disclosures about non-current assets (or disposal groups) classified as held for sale or discontinued operations may be necessary to comply with the general requirements of Ind AS 1, Presentation of Financial Statements.)	105.5B	_____
Extension of the period required to complete a sale
6	If there are any events/circumstances which may extend the period to complete the sale beyond one year, is there sufficient evidence to indicate that the entity remains committed to its plan to sell the assets (or disposal group) based on the following criteria being met:	105.9	_____
	a) At the date the entity committed itself to a plan to sell a non-current asset (or disposal group) it reasonably expects that others (not a buyer) will impose conditions on the transfer of the asset (or disposal group) that will extend the period required to complete the sale, and:	105.B1	_____

Non-current assets that are to be abandoned
8	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) If the entity has a non-current asset (or disposal group) that is to be abandoned, has this been excluded from classification as 'held for sale' unless it meets the criteria as set out in the definition of discontinued operation given in the standard? 	105.13	_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	(Note: Non-current assets (or disposal groups) to be abandoned include non-current assets (or disposal groups) that are to be used to the end of their economic life and non-current assets (or disposal groups) that are to be closed rather than sold.)
	b) If the entity has any non-current asset that has been temporarily taken out of use, has the entity ensured that it has not accounted for such non-current asset as if it had been abandoned?	105.14
	Measurement of non-current assets (or disposal groups) classified as held for sale
9	a) Post classification of non-current assets (or disposal groups) as held for sale, has the entity measured it at the lower of its carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell?	105.15
	b) Post classification of non-current assets (or disposal groups) as held for distribution, has the entity measured it at the lower of its carrying amount and fair value less costs to distribute?	105.15A
10	If the asset (or disposal group) has been acquired as part of a business combination, has the entity measured it at fair value less costs to sell?	105.16
11	If the sale is expected to occur beyond one year by the entity, has it measured the costs to sell at their present value? Additionally, has the entity presented in profit or loss, any increase in the present value of the costs to sell, that arises from the passage of time, as a financing cost?	105.17
12	Immediately before the initial classification of the asset (or disposal group) as held for sale, has the entity measured the carrying amounts of the asset (or all the assets and liabilities in the group) in accordance with applicable Ind AS?	105.18
13	On subsequent remeasurement of a disposal group, has the entity measured the carrying amounts of any assets and liabilities that are not within the scope of the measurement requirements of this Ind AS, but are included in a disposal group classified as held for sale, in accordance with applicable Ind AS before the fair value less costs to sell of the disposal group is remeasured?	105.19
	Recognition of impairment losses and reversals
14	Has the entity recognised an impairment loss for any initial or subsequent write-down of the asset (or disposal group) to fair value less costs to sell, to the extent that it has not been	105.20

	recognised in accordance with Q 13?		_____
15	For any subsequent increase in fair value less costs to sell of an asset, but not in excess of the cumulative impairment loss that has been recognised either in accordance with this Ind AS or previously in accordance with Ind AS 36, Impairment of Assets , has the entity recognised any gain?	105.21	_____
16	In case of impairment loss (or any subsequent gain) recognised for a disposal group, has the entity reduced (or increased) the carrying amount of the non-current assets in the group that are within the scope of the measurement requirements of this Ind AS, in the order of allocation set out in Ind AS 36?	105.23	_____
17	As at the date of derecognition, has the entity recognised a gain or loss not previously recognised by the date of the sale of a non-current asset (or disposal group)? (Note: Entities are required to follow the requirements relating to derecognition as set out in Ind AS 16, Property, Plant and Equipment and Ind AS 38, Intangible Assets for property, plant and equipment and intangible assets respectively.)	105.24	_____
18	While a non-current asset is classified as held for sale or when it is part of a disposal group classified as held for sale, has the entity ensured that it does not charge any depreciation (or amortise it)? (Note: Interest and other expenses attributable to the liabilities of a disposal group classified as held for sale shall continue to be recognised.)	105.25	_____
Changes to a plan of sale or to a plan of distribution to owners
19	a) In case the criteria as specified in Q 1, 2 and 6 or in Q 3 (for held for distribution to owners) are no longer met for an asset (or disposal group) that was classified as held for sale or as held for distribution to owners, has the entity ceased to classify the asset (or disposal group) as held for sale or held for distribution? (Note: In such cases the entity shall follow the guidance in Q 20 to 23 to account for this change except when Q 19 (b) applies)	105.26	_____
	b) If the entity has reclassified an asset (or disposal group) directly from being held for sale to being held for distribution to owners, or directly from being held for distribution to owners to being held for sale, has it considered the change in classification as a continuation of the original plan for disposal,	105.26A	_____
	c) Has the entity ensured that:		_____

	i. It does not follow the guidance in Q 20-22 to account for this change, (Note: The entity shall apply the classification, presentation and measurement requirements in this Ind AS that are applicable to the new method of disposal.)		_____
	ii. Measures the non-current asset (or disposal group) by following the requirements in Q 9 (a) (if reclassified as held for sale) or Q 9 (b) (if reclassified as held for distribution to owners) and recognise any reduction or increase in the fair value less costs to sell/costs to distribute of the non-current asset (or disposal group) by following the requirements in Q 14-18, and		_____
	iii. Does not change the date of classification in accordance with Q 1 (b) and Q 3. This does not preclude an extension of the period required to complete a sale or a distribution to owners if the conditions in Q 6 are met?		_____
20	Has the entity measured a non-current asset that ceases to be classified as held for sale or as held for distribution to owners (or ceases to be included in a disposal group classified as held for sale or as held for distribution to owners) at the lower of:	105.27
	a) Its carrying amount before the asset (or disposal group) was classified as held for sale or as held for distribution to owners, adjusted for any depreciation, amortisation or revaluations that would have been recognised had the asset (or disposal group) not been classified as held for sale or as held for distribution to owners, and	105.B1	_____
	b) Its recoverable amount at the date of the subsequent decision not to sell or distribute?		_____
21	Has the entity included any required adjustment to the carrying amount of a non-current asset that ceases to be classified as held for sale or as held for distribution to owners in profit or loss from continuing operations in the period in which the criteria in Q 1 and Q 6 or Q 3 are no longer met?	105.28	_____
22	a) If the entity has removed an individual asset or liability from a disposal group classified as held for sale, have the remaining assets and liabilities of the disposal group continued to be measured as a group only if the group meets the criteria in Q 1 and Q 6?	105.29	_____
	b) If the entity has removed an individual asset or liability from a disposal group classified as held for distribution to owners, have the remaining assets and liabilities of the disposal group to be distributed, continued to be measured as a group only if the group meets the criteria in Q 3?		_____

23	If the disposal group referred to in Q 19 does not meet the criteria in Q 1 to Q 6, has the entity individually measured the remaining non-current assets of the group, that individually meet the criteria to be classified as held for sale (or as held for distribution to owners), at the lower of their carrying amounts and fair values less costs to sell (or costs to distribute) at that date?	105.29	_____
Classification, presentation and disclosure of discontinued operations
24	a) Is any component of the entity classified as a discontinued operation?	105.32	_____
	b) For classification as a discontinued operation, has the entity considered a component of the entity that either has been disposed of, or is classified as held-for-sale, and:		_____
	i. Represents a separate major line of business or geographic area of operations,		_____
	ii. Is part of a single co-ordinated plan to dispose of a separate major line of business or geographical area of operations or		_____

The settlement of employee benefit plan obligations, provided that the settlement is directly related to the disposal transaction.)
	g) If the entity ceases to classify a component of the entity as held for sale, then has the entity reclassified the results of operations of the component previously presented in accordance with Q 25 (a) to 25 (f) and included them in income from continuing operations for all periods presented and describing the amounts of prior periods as having been re-presented, and	105.36	_____
	h) Included in profit and loss from continuing operations, any gain or loss on the remeasurement of a non-current asset (or disposal group) classified as held for sale that does not meet the definition of discontinued operations?	105.37	_____
26	If the entity is committed to sale or distribution plan involving loss of control of a subsidiary and subsidiary is a disposal group that meets the definition of discontinued operation, in accordance with this standard, then has the disclosure required by Q 25 (a) to 25 (g) been provided?	105.36A	_____
	Presentation of a non-current asset or disposal group classified as held for sale
27	For non-current assets or disposal groups held for sale, has the entity disclosed:	105.38
	a) Non-current asset(s) and assets from a disposal group classified as held for sale separately from other assets in the balance sheet,		_____
	b) Liabilities of a disposal group classified as held for sale separately from other liabilities in the balance sheet,		_____
	c) Assets and liabilities classified as held for sale on a gross basis, i.e. not offset and presented as a single amount,		_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	d) The major classes of assets and liabilities classified as held for sale either in the balance sheet or in notes, except when the disposal group is a newly acquired subsidiary that meets the criteria to be held for sale on acquisition, and		_____
	e) Cumulative income or expense recognised in Other Comprehensive Income (OCI) relating to a non-current asset (or disposal group) classified as held for sale separately?		_____
	(Note: If the disposal group is a newly acquired subsidiary that meets the criteria to be classified as held for sale on acquisition, disclosure of the major classes of assets and liabilities is not required.)	105.39
28	In the period in which a non-current asset (or disposal group) is either classified as held for sale or sold, has the entity disclosed:	105.41
	a) A description of the non-current asset (or disposal group),		_____
	b) A description of the facts and circumstances of the sale, or leading to the expected disposal, and the expected manner and timing of that disposal,		_____
	c) The gain or loss recognised in accordance with Q 14-15 and, if not separately presented in the statement of profit and loss, the caption in the statement of profit and loss that includes that gain or loss, and		_____
	d) If applicable, the reportable segment in which the non-current asset (or disposal group) is presented in accordance with Ind AS 108, Operating Segments ?		_____
29	If there are changes to a plan of sale and either Q 19 (a) or Q 22 applies then has the entity disclosed the following description in the period of the decision to change the plan to sell the non-current asset (or disposal group):	105.42
	a) Description of the facts and circumstances leading to the decision, and		_____
	b) The effect of the decision on the results of operations for the period and any prior periods presented?		_____
30	When the criteria for classification of a non-current asset (or disposal group) as held for sale are met after the reporting period, but before the authorisation of the financial statements for issue, has the entity disclosed the information specified in Q 28 (a), (b) and (d) in the notes? (Refer ITFG bulletin 22 issue 6 clarification)	105.12	_____

3. Additional considerations

Some of the key requirements from the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act)

- There are no specific requirements in the 2013 Act relating to this standard.

Significant carve-outs from IFRS

- Requirements regarding presentation of discontinued operations in the separate statement of profit and loss, where separate statement of profit and loss is presented under paragraph 33A of IFRS 5, Non-current Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations have been deleted. This change is consequential to the removal of option regarding two statement approach in Ind AS 1. Ind AS 1 requires that the components of profit or loss and components of OCI shall be presented as a part of the statement of profit and loss. However, paragraph number 33A has been retained in Ind AS 105 to maintain consistency with paragraph numbers of IFRS 5.
- Paragraph 5 (d) of IFRS 5, deals with non-current assets that are accounted for in accordance with the fair value model in IAS 40, Investment Property. Since Ind AS 40 prohibits the use of fair value model, this paragraph is deleted in Ind AS 105.
- Paragraph 7 of Ind AS 105 prescribes the conditions for classification of a non-current asset (or disposal group) as held for sale. A clarification has been added in Paragraph 7 that the non-current asset (or disposal group) cannot be classified as held for sale, if the entity intends to sell it in a distant future.

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

- No specific requirements have been prescribed under ICDS relating to this standard.

Glossary

Cash-Generating Unit is the smallest identifiable group of assets that generates cash inflows that are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets or groups of assets.

Component of an entity is the operations and cash flows that can be clearly distinguished, operationally and for financial reporting purposes, from the rest of the entity.

Costs to sell is the incremental costs directly attributable to the disposal of an asset (or disposal group), excluding finance costs and income tax expense.

Current asset: An entity shall classify an asset as current when:

- a) It expects to realise the asset, or intends to sell or consume it, in its normal operating cycle,
- b) It holds the asset primarily for the purpose of trading,
- c) It expects to realise the asset within twelve months after the reporting period, or
- d) The asset is cash or a cash equivalent (as defined in Ind AS 7) unless the asset is restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period.

Discontinued operation is a component of an entity that either has been disposed of or is classified as held for sale and:

- a) Represents a separate major line of business or geographical area of operations,
- b) Is part of a single coordinated plan to dispose of a separate major line of business or geographical area of operations, or
- c) Is a subsidiary acquired exclusively with a view to resale.

Disposal group is a group of assets to be disposed of, by sale or otherwise, together as a group in a single transaction, and liabilities directly associated with those assets that will be transferred in the transaction. The group includes goodwill acquired in a business combination if the group is a cash-generating unit to which goodwill has been allocated in accordance with the requirements of paragraphs 80–87 of Ind AS 36 or if it is an operation within such a cash generating unit.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

Firm purchase commitment is an agreement with an unrelated party, binding on both parties and usually legally enforceable, that (a) specifies all significant terms, including the price and timing of the transactions, and (b) includes a disincentive for non-performance that is sufficiently large to make performance highly probable.

Highly probable means significantly more likely than probable.

Non-current asset is an asset that does not meet the definition of a current asset.

Probable means more likely than not.

Recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs to sell and its value in use.

Value in use is the present value of estimated future cash flows expected to arise from the continuing use of an asset and from its disposal at the end of its useful life.

Ind AS-106 Exploration for and Evaluation of Mineral Resources

1. Executive summary

- The objective of Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 106, Exploration for and Evaluation of Mineral Resources is to specify the financial reporting for the exploration for and evaluation of mineral resources. Entities identify and account for pre-exploration expenditure, Exploration and Evaluation (E&E) expenditure and development expenditure separately.
- The entity may determine an accounting policy to specify which type of E&E costs are recognised as exploration and evaluation assets and those that can be expensed as incurred.
- There is no industry-specific guidance on the recognition or measurement of pre-exploration expenditure or development expenditure. Pre-exploration expenditure is generally expensed as it is incurred.
- Typically, the more closely that expenditure relates to a specific mineral resource, the more likely that its capitalisation will result in relevant and reliable information.
- Capitalised E&E expenditures are classified as either tangible or intangible assets, according to their nature. If the entity elects to capitalise E&E expenditure as an E&E asset, then that asset is measured initially at cost.
- After recognition, the entity shall apply either the cost model or the revaluation model to the exploration and evaluation assets. If the revaluation model is applied (either the model in Ind AS 16, Property, Plant and Equipment, or the model in Ind AS 38, Intangible Assets) it shall be consistent with the classification of the assets.
- The entity may change its accounting policies for E&E expenditures if the change makes the financial statements more relevant to the economic decision-making needs of users and no less reliable, or more reliable and no less relevant to those needs.
- An E&E asset shall no longer be classified as such when the technical feasibility and commercial viability of extracting a mineral resource are demonstrable. E&E assets shall be assessed for impairment, and impairment losses (if any) shall be recognised before reclassification.
- E&E assets shall be assessed for impairment when facts and circumstances suggest that the carrying amount of an E&E asset may exceed its recoverable amount. Some relief is provided from the general requirements of Ind AS 36, Impairment of Assets in assessing whether there is any indication of impairment of E&E assets. The test for recoverability of E&E assets can combine several cash-generating units, as long as the combination is not larger than an operating segment.

New development

In December 2019, the Accounting Standards Board (ASB) of the ICAI has issued an Exposure Draft (ED) of amendment to Conceptual Framework for Financial Reporting under Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS). Further the above ED proposes amendments to nine Ind AS including Ind AS 106¹.

¹ The proposal is currently only an ED.

3. Additional considerations

Some of the key requirements from the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act)

- Schedule II to the 2013 Act prescribes indicative useful life in respect of assets used in exploration, production and refining oil and gas. Where an entity adopts a useful life different from what is indicated, the financial statements should disclose such difference and provide justification, duly supported by technical advice.

Significant carve-outs from IFRS

- No significant carve outs from IFRS have been provided in this standard.

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

- No specific requirements have been prescribed under ICDS relating to this standard.

Glossary

Exploration and evaluation assets are exploration and evaluation expenditures recognised as assets in accordance with the entity's accounting policy.

Exploration and evaluation expenditures are expenditures incurred by an entity in connection with the exploration for and evaluation of mineral resources before the technical feasibility and commercial viability of extracting a mineral resource are demonstrable.

Exploration for and evaluation of mineral resources are the search for mineral resources, including minerals, oil, natural gas and similar non-regenerative resources after the entity has obtained legal rights to explore in a specific area, as well as the determination of the technical feasibility and commercial viability of extracting the mineral resource.

Ind AS-107 Financial Instruments: Disclosures

1. Executive summary

- Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 107, Financial Instruments: Disclosures, specifies comprehensive disclosure requirements for financial instruments in the financial statements.
- The entity shall provide disclosures in the financial statements that enable users to evaluate:
 - The significance of financial instruments for the entity’s financial position and performance, and
 - The nature and extent of risks arising from financial instruments to which the entity is exposed during the period and at the end of the reporting period, and how the entity manage those risks.
- The principles in this standard complement the principles for recognising, measuring and presenting financial assets and financial liabilities in Ind AS 32, Financial Instruments: Presentation, and Ind AS 109, Financial Instruments.
- A financial asset and a financial liability are offset only when the entity:
 - Currently has a legally enforceable right to offset, and
 - Has an intention to settle net or to settle both amounts simultaneously.
- Specific disclosure requirements include information on the following:
 - Carrying amounts,
 - Fair values,
 - Items designated at Fair Value Through Profit or Loss (FVTPL),
 - Investments in equity instruments designated at Fair Value Through Other Comprehensive Income (FVOCI),
 - Reclassification of financial assets between categories,
 - Offsetting of financial assets and financial liabilities and the effect of potential netting arrangements;
 - Collateral,
 - Loss allowance for expected credit losses, and
 - Hedge accounting.
- Disclosures of both quantitative and qualitative information is required.
- Qualitative disclosures describe management’s objectives, policies and processes for managing risks arising from financial instruments.
- Quantitative data about the exposure of risks arising from financial instruments should be based on information provided internally to key management. However, certain disclosures about the entity’s exposures to credit risk, liquidity risk and market risk arising from financial instruments are required, irrespective of whether this information is provided to management.
- Information is provided about financial assets that are not derecognised in their entirety.
- Information is provided about financial assets that are derecognised in their entirety but in which the entity has a continuing involvement.

3. Additional considerations

Some of the key requirements from the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act)

- There are no specific requirements in the 2013 Act related to disclosure of financial instruments.

Significant carve-outs from IFRS

- There are no carve outs from IFRS in respect of this standard.

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

- No specific requirements have been prescribed under ICDS relating to this standard.

Key requirements of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (Listing Regulations)

- Regulations 31 read with Schedule V (Part C) of the Listing regulations mandates listed entities to make disclosure regarding commodity price risk and hedging activities in the corporate governance report section of the annual reports. On recommendation of the Corporate Governance Committee formed under the chairmanship of Shri Uday Kotak, SEBI by way of circular dated 15 November 2018 prescribed the format in which these disclosures are required to be made. Therefore, these disclosures would be part of the corporate governance report of the annual report and would contain the following :
 - The risk management policies with respect to commodities including through hedging
 - The total exposure (both on asset and liability side) to various commodities (in INR terms)
 - Percentage of these exposures that have been hedged through commodity derivatives, taken both in the domestic and international market.
 - Commodity risks faced by the listed entity during the year and how they have been managed.

Some of the clarifications provided by the Ind AS Technical Facilitation Group (ITFG)

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
Bulletin 13 (Issue 8)	Disclosure of foreign currency risk The ITFG clarified that if an entity capitalises the exchange differences as permitted by paragraph D13AA of Ind AS 101, First-time adoption of Indian Accounting Standards , the financial risk related disclosure requirements of Ind AS 107 would still apply to such long-term foreign currency monetary items (for which the option under paragraph D13AA of Ind AS 101 has been availed). This is because, the entity continues to remain exposed to foreign currency risk in respect of such instruments, and these could lead to an indirect impact in the statement of profit and loss or equity, for example through depreciation or amortisation of the capitalised amount of exchange differences.	107.40, 107.41, 107.42 (Q 93), (Q. 94)

Glossary

Credit risk: The risk that one party to a financial instrument will cause a financial loss for the other party by failing to discharge an obligation.

Credit risk rating grades: Rating of credit risk based on the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument.

Currency risk: The risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in foreign exchange rates.

Interest rate risk: The risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates.

Liquidity risk: The risk that an entity will encounter difficulty in meeting obligations associated with financial liabilities that are settled by delivering cash or another financial asset.

Loans payable: Loans payable are financial liabilities, other than short-term trade payables on normal credit terms.

Market risk: The risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market risk comprises three types of risk: currency risk, interest rate risk and other price risk.

Other price risk: The risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices (other than those arising from interest rate risk or currency risk), whether those changes are caused by factors specific to the individual financial instrument or its issuer or by factors affecting all similar financial instruments traded in the market.

Ind AS-108 Operating Segments

1. Executive summary

- Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 108, Operating Segments applies to companies to which Ind AS apply as notified under the Companies Act, 2013. The core principle underlying this standard is that the entity shall disclose information to enable users of its financial statements to evaluate the nature and the financial effects of the business activities in which it engages and the economic environment in which it operates.
- Segment disclosures are provided for those components of the entity that engage in business activities from which they may earn revenues and incur expenses, whose operating results are regularly reviewed by management in making operating decisions and for which discrete financial information is available.
- Such components (operating segments) are identified on the basis of internal reports that the entity's Chief Operating Decision Maker (CODM) regularly reviews in allocating resources to segments and in assessing their performance.
- The aggregation of operating segments is permitted only when the operating segments have characteristics so similar that they can be expected to have essentially the same future prospects (i.e. meeting the specified aggregation criteria).
- Reportable segments are identified based on quantitative thresholds of revenue, profit/loss, or assets.
- The amounts disclosed for each reportable segment are the measures reported to the CODM, which are not necessarily based on the same accounting policies as the amounts recognised in the financial statements.
- Because segment profit or loss, segment assets and segment liabilities are disclosed as they are reported to the CODM, rather than as they would be reported under Ind AS, disclosure of how these amounts are measured for each reportable segment is also required.
- Reconciliations between total amounts for all reportable segments and financial statement amounts are disclosed with a description of all material reconciling items.
- The entity would also be required to carry out a reconciliation between policies applied in computing information for management systems (MIS) and those used for segment reporting. Hence, the entity will need to devise or upgrade systems to ensure comparability between the MIS and the accounting system.
- General and entity-wide disclosures include information about products and services, geographical areas – including country of domicile and individual foreign countries, if material – major customers, and factors used to identify the entity's reportable segments. Such disclosures are required even if the entity has only one segment.
- Comparative information is normally restated for changes in reportable segments.
- If a financial report contains both the consolidated financial statements of a parent that is within the scope of this Ind AS as well as the parent's separate financial statements, segment information is required only in the consolidated financial statements.

Applicability
1	Ind AS 108 should be applied by entities to which Ind AS notified under the Companies Act, 2013 apply. If the entity is not required to apply this Ind AS but chooses to disclose information about segments that does not comply with this Ind AS, it shall not describe the information as segment information. Also, if a financial report contains both the consolidated financial statements of a parent that is within the scope of this Ind AS as well as the parent's separate financial statements, segment information is required only in the consolidated financial statements.	108.2 108.3 108.4

3. Additional considerations

Some of the key requirements from the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act)

- The MCA through its circular dated 23 February 2018 (S.O. 802 (E)) has exempted government companies (covered under the Ind AS road map) engaged in defence production from applying this Ind AS.

Significant carve-outs from IFRS

- Applicability of IFRS 8, Operating Segments

Paragraph 2 of IFRS 8 requires that the standard shall apply to:

- a) The separate or individual financial statements of an entity:
 - i. Whose debt or equity instruments are traded in a public market (a domestic or foreign stock exchange or an over-the-counter market, including local and regional markets), or
 - ii. That files, or is in the process of filing, its financial statements with a securities commission or other regulatory organisation for the purpose of issuing any class of instruments in a public market and
- b) The consolidated financial statements of a group with a parent:
 - i. Whose debt or equity instruments are traded in a public market (a domestic or foreign stock exchange or an over-the-counter market, including local and regional markets), or
 - ii. That files, or is in the process of filing, the consolidated financial statements with a securities commission or other regulatory organisation for the purpose of issuing any class of instruments in a public market.

The above have not been included in the Ind AS as the applicability or exemptions to the Ind AS is governed by the 2013 Act and the Rules made thereunder

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

- No specific requirement has been prescribed under the ICDS relating to this standard.

Some of the clarifications provided by the Ind AS Technical Facilitation Group (ITFG)

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
Bulletin 13 (Issue 3)	Disclosure of major customers in case of single operating segment ITFG clarified that an entity which operates in a single operating segment is also required to disclose information on transactions with a single external customer that contributes 10 per cent or more of the entity's revenues. This information includes disclosure of the fact of such an extent of reliance, total amount of revenues from each such customer and the identity of segment or segments reporting the revenues.	108.34 (Q 25)

Glossary

Operating segment: An operating segment is a component of an entity:

- a) That engages in business activities from which it may earn revenues and incur expenses (including revenues and expenses relating to transactions with other components of the same entity),
- b) Whose operating results are regularly reviewed by the entity's chief operating decision maker to make decisions about resources to be allocated to the segment and assess its performance, and
- c) For which discrete financial information is available.

Ind AS-109 Financial Instruments

1. Executive summary

- Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 109, Financial Instruments establishes principles for the financial reporting of financial assets and financial liabilities.
- Ind AS 109 shall be applied by the entity to all types of financial instruments except for interests in subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures, rights and obligations under leases, employers' rights and obligations under employee benefit plans, financial instruments issued by the entity that are classified as equity instruments, rights and obligations under insurance contracts, forward contracts to buy or sell an acquiree in a business combination, loan commitments, share based payment transactions and certain reimbursement rights.
- The entity shall recognise a financial asset or a financial liability in its balance sheet when, and only when, the entity becomes party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.
- A derivative is a financial instrument or other contract (within the scope of the standard), the value of which changes in response to some underlying variable (other than a non-financial variable specific to a party to the contract), that has an initial net investment smaller than would be required for other instruments that have a similar response to the variable and that will be settled at a future date.
- An embedded derivative is a component of a hybrid contract that affects the cash flows of the hybrid contract in a manner similar to a stand-alone derivative instrument. An embedded derivative is not accounted for separately from the host contract if it is closely related to the host contract, if a separate instrument with the same terms as the embedded derivative would not meet the definition of a derivative or if the entire contract is measured at fair value through profit or loss. An embedded derivative in a financial asset is also not separated and the hybrid contract is measured at fair value through profit or loss. In other cases, an embedded derivative is accounted for separately as a derivative. All derivatives (including separated embedded derivatives) are measured at fair value with - changes in fair value recognised in profit or loss.
- When the entity first recognises a financial asset, it shall measure it at its fair value and classify it as a financial asset measured at:
 - Amortised cost, if the financial asset is held within a business model whose objective is to hold financial assets in order to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding,
 - Fair Value Through Other Comprehensive Income (FVOCI), if the financial asset is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding,
 - FVOCI, if the financial asset is an investment in an equity instrument within the scope of this standard, that is neither held for trading nor contingent consideration recognised by an acquirer in a business combination, for which the entity makes an irrevocable election to present subsequent changes in fair value in other comprehensive income, or
 - Fair Value Through Profit or Loss (FVTPL).
- When the entity first recognises a financial liability, it shall classify it as a financial liability measured at amortised cost, or FVTPL and measure it at fair value.
- The entity shall measure a financial asset or financial liability at its fair value plus or minus, in the case of a financial asset or financial liability not at FVTPL, transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of the financial asset or financial liability.

- When, and only when, the entity changes its business model for managing financial assets it shall reclassify all affected financial assets prospectively. The entity shall not reclassify any financial liability.
- The entity has to determine whether derecognition should be applied to a part of a financial asset (or a part of a group of similar financial assets) or a financial asset (or a group of similar financial assets) in its entirety. The entity shall derecognise a financial asset when, and only when: (a) the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset expire, or (b) it transfers the financial asset and the transfer qualifies for derecognition.
- The entity shall remove a financial liability (or a part of a financial liability) from its balance sheet when, and only when, it is extinguished—i.e. when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged or cancelled or expires. The difference between the carrying amount of a financial liability (or part of a financial liability) extinguished or transferred to another party and the consideration paid, including any non-cash assets transferred or liabilities assumed, shall be recognised in profit or loss.
- Financial assets are subsequently measured at fair value or amortised cost. Changes in the fair value of financial assets are recognised as follows:
 - Debt financial assets measured at FVOCI: Changes in fair value are recognised in other comprehensive income except for foreign exchange gains and losses and expected credit losses, which are recognised in profit or loss. On derecognition, any gains or losses accumulated in other comprehensive income are reclassified to profit or loss,
 - Equity financial assets measured at FVOCI: All changes in fair value are recognised in other comprehensive income and not reclassified to profit or loss, and
 - Financial assets at FVTPL: All changes in fair value are recognised in profit or loss.
- Financial liabilities, other than those classified as FVTPL are generally measured at amortised cost.
- Impairment is recognised using an expected credit loss model, which means that it is not necessary for a loss event to occur before an impairment loss is recognised.
- The general approach to impairment uses two measurement bases: 12-month expected credit losses and lifetime expected credit losses, depending on whether the credit risk on a financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition.
- Hedge accounting is voluntary and allows an entity to measure assets, liabilities and firm commitments selectively on a basis different from that otherwise stipulated in Ind AS or to defer the recognition in profit or loss of gains or losses on derivatives.
- The objective of hedge accounting is to represent, in the financial statements, the effect of the entity's risk management activities that use financial instruments to manage exposures arising from particular risks that could affect profit or loss (or other comprehensive income, in the case of investments in equity instruments for which the entity has elected to present changes in fair value in other comprehensive income).
- There are three hedge accounting models:
 - Fair value hedges of fair value exposures,
 - Cash flow hedges of cash flow exposures, and
 - Net investment hedges of currency exposures on net investments in foreign operations.

New developments

• Prepayment features with negative compensation

- On 30 March 2019, MCA notified an amendment to Ind AS 109, clarifying the classification and measurement of financial assets having prepayment features, which may result in negative compensation. The amendment is based on the revision made by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) to IFRS 9, Financial Instruments in October 2017.
- The amendment clarifies that financial assets containing prepayment features with negative compensation can now be measured at amortised cost or at FVOCI if they meet the other relevant requirements of IFRS 9.
- The amendment is applicable retrospectively from 1 April 2019¹.

• Proposed amendments to Ind AS pursuant to benchmark interest rate reform

- In October 2019, the Accounting Standards Board (ASB) of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) issued an Exposure Draft (ED) proposing amendments to Ind AS 109, Financial Instruments, and Ind AS 107, Financial Instruments: Disclosures. These amendments are based on the amendments made by the IASB to IAS 39, Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement, IFRS 7, Financial Instruments: Disclosures and IFRS 9, Financial Instruments on 26 September 2019.

- The amendments modify some specific hedge accounting requirements to provide relief from potential effects of the uncertainty caused by the Inter-Bank Offer Rates (IBOR) reform. Additionally, the amendments require companies to provide additional information to investors about their hedging relationships which are directly affected by these uncertainties.
- The amendments are expected to be effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 April 2020².

² The amendments are subject to MCA notification.

	g) Loan commitments other than those loan commitments described in paragraph 2(h) to 2(j). Also, all loan commitments are subject to the impairment and derecognition requirements of this standard,		_____
	h) Financial instruments, contracts and obligations under share-based payment transactions to which Ind AS 102, Share-based Payment applies,		_____

³ The Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Amendment Rules, 2019 notified Ind AS 116 Leases, applicable to annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 April 2019. As a consequence of this notification, Ind AS 17, Leases has been superseded. Accordingly, the checklist has been amended.

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	i) Rights to payments to reimburse the entity for expenditure that it is required to make to settle a liability that it recognises as a provision in accordance with Ind AS 37, Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets, or for which, in an earlier period, it recognised a provision in accordance with Ind AS 37, and
	j) Rights and obligations within the scope of Ind AS 115, Revenue from Contracts with Customers that are financial instruments, except for those that Ind AS 115 specifies are accounted for in accordance with this standard?
2	For financial instruments listed in Q 1 (a) to (j), that meet any of the following exceptions, has the entity applied the requirements of this standard to the extent specified below:
	a) The entity is permitted or required to account for the instruments in Q 1(a) using Ind AS 109,	109.2.1
	b) The instrument in Q 1 (a) is a derivative linked to interests in subsidiaries, associates or joint ventures other than derivatives which are equity instruments,	109.2.1
	c) Under Q 1(b) above, the entity's finance lease receivables (i.e. net investments in finance leases) and operating lease receivables recognised by a lessor are subject to the derecognition and impairment requirements of this standard,	109.2.1
	d) Under Q 1(b) above, the lease liabilities recognised by a lessee are subject to the derecognition requirements in paragraph 3.3.1 of this standard,	109.2.1
	e) Under Q 1(b) above, the entity has derivatives that are embedded in leases which are subject to the embedded derivatives requirements of this standard,	109.2.1
	f) Under Q 1(e) above, the entity has a derivative that is embedded in a contract within the scope of Ind AS 104 if the derivative is not itself a contract within the scope of Ind AS 104,	109.2.1
	g) Under Q 1(e) above, the entity has financial guarantee contracts and has previously asserted that such contracts are insurance contracts, (Refer bulletins- (ITFG 12 issue 3), (ITFG 13 issue 2),(ITFG16 issues 1 and 7) clarifications)	109.2.1
	(Note: In this situation, the issuer may elect to apply either this standard or Ind AS 104 to such financial guarantee contracts.)
	h) Under Q 1(g) above, the entity has loan commitments that are designated as financial liabilities at FVTPL; or the entity has a past practice of selling the assets resulting from its loan commitments shortly after origination,	109.2.3

	i) Under Q 1(g) above, the entity has loan commitments that can be settled net in cash or by delivering or issuing another financial instrument,	109.2.3
	j) Under Q 1(g) above, the entity has commitments to provide a loan at a below-market interest rate, and	109.2.3
	k) Under Q 1(j) above, the entity has contracts to buy or sell a non- financial item that can be settled net in cash or another financial instrument, or by exchanging financial instruments? (For example, contracts to buy or sell commodities such as copper, gold, aluminium, etc., that can be settled net in cash or another financial instrument, or for which the entity has a past practice of settling net in cash. Also refer paragraphs 8 and 9 of Ind AS 32.)	109.2.4
	(Note: If the entity has contracts that were entered into and continue to be held for the purpose of the receipt or delivery of a non-financial item, this standard shall not be applied.)
	Recognition and derecognition
	Recognition
3	Has the entity recognised a financial asset or a financial liability only when it becomes a party to the contractual provisions of an instrument? This includes:	109.3.1.1
	a) Recognition of all contractual rights and obligations under derivatives on its balance sheet as assets and liabilities, respectively, and
	b) Recognition of firm commitments to buy or sell non-financial items, that are within the scope of this standard; or are designated as a hedged item in a fair value hedge (to the extent of change in the net fair value attributable to the hedged risk? (Refer ITFG bulletin 15 issue 3 clarification)
4	If the purchase or sale of a financial asset is classified as a regular way purchase or sale, has the entity consistently used trade date accounting or settlement date accounting for financial assets classified in the same category in accordance with this standard? .	109.3.1.2
	Derecognition
5	a) Has the entity consolidated all subsidiaries in accordance with Ind AS 110 and then applied the derecognition provisions of Ind AS 109 (refer Q 6 to 9) to determine if a transfer of financial assets can be derecognised in the consolidated financial statements?	109.3.2.1
	b) If the entity prepares separate financial statements, has it applied the derecognition provisions (refer Q6 to 9) at the entity-level to determine if a transfer of financial assets can be derecognised in such separate financial statements?

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
---------	-------------	-----------------------------	------------------------

(Note: The derecognition provisions may be applied in the preparation of separate financial statements. However, the derecognition analysis should be re-performed at the consolidated level when the entity prepares consolidated financial statements.)

Applicability to a part or all of a financial asset (or group of similar assets)

6	Has the entity determined whether Q 7 to 11 should be applied to a part of a financial asset (or part of a group of similar financial assets) or a financial asset (or a group of similar financial assets) in its entirety on the basis of the following conditions:	109.3.2.2

- c) The part comprises only a fully proportionate (pro rata) share of specifically identified cash flows from a financial asset (or a group of similar financial assets), for example a pro-rata share of only interest cash flows arising from a group of loans?

(Note: If any of the above conditions are satisfied, then derecognition can be applied to that part of the financial asset. In all other cases, derecognition principles are applied to the financial asset in its entirety (or to the group of similar financial assets in their entirety.)

Derecognition criteria

7	Has the entity derecognised a financial asset only if one of the following conditions (a) or (b) are met:
	a) The entity’s contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset have expired, or	109.3.2.3
	b) The entity has transferred the financial asset in accordance with Q 8 below and such transfer qualifies for derecognition in accordance with Q 9 below?

Transfer of asset

8	Has the entity derecognised a financial asset only if there is a ‘transfer’ of the financial asset based on the conditions in (a) or (b) below and such ‘transfer’ qualifies for derecognition in

a)	Has the entity transferred the contractual rights to receive the cash flows of the financial asset, or	109.3.2.4	_____
b)	Has the entity retained the contractual rights to receive the cash flows of the financial asset, but assumed a contractual obligation to pay the cash flows to one or more recipients in an arrangement that meets all the conditions below (commonly known as a 'pass through arrangement'):	109.3.2.5	_____
	i. The entity has no obligation to pay amounts to the eventual recipients unless it collects equivalent amounts from the original asset,		_____
	ii. The entity is prohibited by the terms of the transfer contract from selling or pledging the original asset other than as security to the eventual recipients for the obligation to pay them cash flows, and		_____
	iii. The entity has an obligation to remit any cash flows it collects on behalf of the eventual recipients without material delay?		_____
	(Note: the entity is not entitled to reinvest such cash flows, except for investments in cash or cash equivalents (as defined in Ind AS 7, Statement of Cash Flows) during the short settlement period from the collection date to the date of required remittance to the eventual recipients, and interest earned on such investments is passed to the eventual recipients.)
9	Has the entity evaluated the extent to which it retains the risks and rewards of ownership (including risks such as credit risk, liquidity risk, market risk, etc.) of the financial asset in the following manner:	109.3.2.6
a)	If the entity has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset, has the entity derecognised the financial asset and recognised the assets or liabilities separately for any rights and obligations created or retained in the transfer,		_____
b)	If the entity has retained substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset, has the entity continued to recognise the financial asset, or		_____
c)	If the entity neither transfers nor retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset, has the entity evaluated whether it has retained control of the financial asset as follows:
	i. If the entity has not retained control of the financial asset (such that the transferee has the practical ability to sell the asset in its entirety to an unrelated third party and is able to exercise that ability unilaterally and without needing to impose additional restrictions on the transfer), has the entity derecognised the	109.3.2.9

	Transfers that do not qualify for derecognition
11	If the transfer does not result in derecognition, has the entity continued to recognise the transferred asset in its entirety and recognise a financial liability for the consideration received? (Note: In subsequent periods, the entity shall recognise any income on the transferred asset and any expense incurred on the financial liability.)	109.3.2.15
	Continuing involvement in transferred assets
12	If the entity neither transfers nor retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of a transferred asset, and retains control of the transferred asset, has the entity continued to recognise the transferred asset to the extent of its continuing involvement? (Note: The extent of the entity's continuing involvement in the transferred asset is the extent to which it is exposed to changes in the value of the transferred asset (For examples refer paragraph B3.2.13 of Ind AS 109.))	109.3.2.16
13	Has the entity recognised an associated liability when it continues to recognise an asset to the extent of its continuing involvement and has the entity measured the associated liability in such a way that the net carrying amount of the transferred asset and the associated liability is: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. Equal to the amortised cost of the rights and obligations retained by the entity, if the transferred asset measured at amortised cost, or ii. Equal to the fair value of the rights and obligations retained by the entity when measured on a stand-alone basis, if the transferred asset is measured at fair value? 	109.3.2.17
14	Has the entity recognised any income/expenses arising on the transferred asset and the associated liability to the extent of its continuing involvement?	109.3.2.18
15	If the entity subsequently recognises changes in the fair value of the transferred asset and the associated liability, has it accounted for these consistently with each other and not offset them (refer Q 79)?	109.3.2.19
16	Has the entity ensured that it does not offset the asset and the associated liability when a transferred asset continues to be recognised, and also does not offset any income arising from the transferred asset with any expense incurred on the associated liability? (Also refer paragraph 42 of Ind AS 32)	109.3.2.22

Option to designate a financial liability at FVTPL
28	Has the entity, at initial recognition, irrevocably designated a financial liability as measured at FVTPL, when permitted by Q 32, or only when doing so results in more relevant information, based on either of the following two indications: a) It eliminates or significantly reduces a measurement or recognition inconsistency (sometimes referred to as an 'accounting mismatch') that would otherwise arise from measuring assets or liabilities or recognising the gains and losses on them on different bases, or b) A group of financial liabilities or financial assets and financial liabilities is managed and its performance is evaluated on a fair value basis, in accordance with a documented risk management or investment strategy, and information about the group is provided internally on that basis to the entity's key management personnel?	109.4.2.2	_____ _____
Embedded derivatives
29	If the entity has hybrid contracts which contain a host that is an asset within the scope of this Standard, has the entity applied the requirements in Q 22 to 26 to the entire hybrid contract?	109.4.3.2	_____
30	If the entity has a hybrid contract which contains a host that is not an asset within the scope of this standard, has the embedded derivative been separated from the host and accounted for separately as a derivative if, and only if: a) The economic characteristics and risks of the embedded derivative not closely related to the economic characteristics and risks of the host, b) A separate instrument with the same terms as the embedded derivative would meet the definition of a derivative, and c) The hybrid contract is not measured at fair value with changes in fair value recognised in profit or loss? (Note: The following are examples of contracts where the entity shall account for the embedded derivative separately from the host contract: i. An embedded foreign currency derivative in a host contract that is not denominated in the functional currency of a substantial party to the contract or a currency in which the related goods or services are routinely denominated globally, or a commonly used currency in the economic environment in which the transaction takes place ii. Equity indexed or commodity indexed interest or principal payments embedded in a host debt instrument	109.4.3.3	_____ _____ _____

32	If a contract contains one or more embedded derivatives, and the host is not an asset within the scope of this standard, despite the considerations in Q 30 and 31, has the entity elected to designate the entire hybrid contract as at FVTPL, only when the following two conditions do not exist:	109.4.3.5	_____
	a) The embedded derivative(s) do(es) not significantly modify the cash flows that otherwise would be required by the contract, and		_____
	b) Is it clear, with little or no analysis, when a similar hybrid instrument is first considered that separation of the embedded derivative is prohibited?		_____
33	Has the entity designated the entire hybrid contract as at FVTPL where it is unable to measure the embedded derivative separately either at acquisition or at the end of a subsequent financial reporting period?	109.4.3.6	_____
34	If the entity is unable to measure reliably, the fair value of an embedded derivative, has it determined such fair value as the difference between the fair value of the hybrid contract and the fair value of the host?	109.4.3.7	_____

Measurement
Initial measurement
38	At initial recognition, has the entity measured a financial asset(s), except trade receivables within the scope of Q 44 or financial liability(s) at its fair value? (Refer bulletins- (ITFG 15 issue 7) and (ITFG 18 issue 3) clarifications)	109.5.1.1	_____
39	In the case of a financial asset except for trade receivables within the scope of Q 44 or a financial liability not at FVTPL, has the entity considered transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of the financial asset or financial liability in the initial recognition amount? (Refer bulletins- (ITFG 10 issue 2), (ITFG 12 issue 4) and (ITFG 17 issue 2) clarifications)	109.5.1.1	_____
40	If the fair value of a financial asset or financial liability at initial recognition is different from the transaction price, and the fair value is evidenced by a quoted price in an active market, has the entity recognised the difference between the fair value at initial recognition and the transaction price as a gain or loss?	109.5.1.1A 109.B5.1.2 A	_____
41	If in reference to Q 40, the fair value is not evidenced by a quoted price in an active market, has the entity deferred the difference between the fair value at initial recognition and the transaction price? (Note: After initial recognition, the entity shall recognise that deferred difference as a gain or loss only to the extent that it arises from a change in a factor (including time) that market participants would take into account when pricing the asset or liability.)	109.B5.1.2 A	_____
42	Has the entity applied either trade date accounting or settlement date accounting consistently for all regular way purchases or sales of financial assets that are classified in the same way in accordance with this standard? (Note: For this purpose assets that are mandatorily measured at FVTPL form a separate classification from assets designated as measured at FVTPL. In addition, equity investments accounted for using the option provided in Q 85 form a separate classification.)		_____
43	If the entity has used settlement date accounting for an asset that is subsequently measured at amortised cost, has the asset been recognised initially at its fair value on the trade date?	109.5.1.2	_____
44	Has the entity measured trade receivables at their transaction price, if they do not contain a significant financing component in accordance with Ind AS 115 or if at the contract inception, the entity expects that the period between when the entity transfers the promised goods/services to a customer and when the customer pays for that good or service would be one year or less?	109.5.1.3	_____

Amortised cost measurement
50	Has the entity calculated interest revenue by using the effective interest method, i.e. by applying the effective interest rate to the gross carrying amount of a financial asset, except as described in Q 51 and 52? (Refer bulletins- (ITFG 8 issue 9) and (ITFG 17 issue 4) clarifications)	109.5.4.1	_____
51	If the entity has purchased or originated credit-impaired financial assets, has the entity applied the credit adjusted effective interest rate to the amortised cost of such financial asset from initial recognition?	109.5.4.1 (a)	_____
52	If the entity has financial assets that are not purchased or originated credit-impaired financial assets but subsequently have become credit-impaired financial assets, has the entity applied the effective interest rate to the amortised cost of such financial asset in subsequent reporting periods?	109.5.4.1 (b)	_____
53	If the credit risk on a financial instrument asset described in Q 52 improves such that the financial asset is no longer credit-impaired (and the improvement can be related objectively to an event occurring after the requirements in Q 52 were applied), has the entity, in subsequent reporting periods, calculated the interest revenue by applying the effective interest rate to the gross carrying amount of the financial asset?	109.5.4.2	_____
Modification of contractual cash flows
54	If the contractual cash flows of a financial asset are renegotiated or otherwise modified and such renegotiation or modification does not result in derecognition of the financial asset in accordance with Q 7 has the entity recalculated the gross carrying amount of the financial asset and recognised a modification gain or loss in profit or loss? 62	If the entity has measured the loss allowance for a financial instrument at an amount equal to lifetime expected credit losses in the previous reporting period but the conditions in Q 59 are no longer met at the current reporting date, has the entity measured the loss allowance at an amount equal to 12-month expected credit losses at the current reporting date?	109.5.5.7	_____
63	Has the entity recognised in profit or loss, as an impairment gain or loss, the amount of expected credit losses (or reversal) required to adjust the loss allowance at the reporting date to the amount that is required to be recognised in accordance with this Standard?	109.5.5.8	_____
64	In determining whether the credit risk on a financial instrument has increased significantly (refer Q 59 and 60) since initial recognition, has the entity used the change in the risk of a default occurring over the expected life of the financial instrument, instead of the change in the amount of expected credit losses? (Note: To make that assessment, the entity shall compare the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the reporting date with the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the date of initial recognition and consider reasonable and supportable information, that is available without undue cost or effort, that is indicative of significant increases in credit risk since initial recognition.)	109.5.5.9	_____
65	Has the entity assumed that the credit risk on a financial instrument has not increased significantly (refer Q 59 and 60) since initial recognition, if the financial instrument determined to have low credit risk at the reporting date based on:	109.5.5.10 109.B5.5.2 2	_____
	a) The entity's internal credit risk ratings or other methodologies that are consistent with a globally understood definition of low credit risk and that consider the risks and the type of financial instruments being assessed,		_____
	b) The borrower's strong capacity to meet its contractual cash flow obligations in the near term, and		_____
	c) Adverse changes in economic and business conditions in the longer term not necessarily reducing the ability of the borrower to fulfil its contractual cash flow obligations?		_____
66	a) If reasonable and supportable forward-looking information is available without undue cost or effort, has the entity ensured that it does not rely solely on past due information when determining whether credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition?	109.5.5.11	_____
	b) If there are contractual payments that are more than 30 days past due, has the entity presumed that the credit risk on a financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition, or rebutted this presumption only if the entity has reasonable and supportable information that is available without undue cost or effort, that demonstrates		_____ that the credit risk has not increased significantly since initial recognition even though the contractual payments are more than 30 days past due?		_____

67	If the contractual cash flows on a financial asset have been renegotiated or modified and the financial asset was not derecognised, has the entity assessed whether the credit risk of the financial instrument increased significantly (refer Q 59), by comparing the risk of a default occurring at the reporting date (based on the modified contractual terms); and the risk of a default occurring at initial recognition (based on the original, unmodified contractual terms)?	109.5.5.12	_____
68	a) Despite the requirements in Q 59 and 60, for purchased or originated credit impaired financial assets, has the entity, recognised only the cumulative changes in lifetime expected credit losses since initial recognition as a loss allowance?	109.5.5.13	_____
	b) Has the entity recognised the amount of change in lifetime expected credit losses as an impairment gain or loss?	109.5.5.14	_____
	(Note: The favourable changes in lifetime expected credit losses are recognised as an impairment gain even if the lifetime expected credit losses are less than the amount of expected credit losses that were included in the estimated cash flows on initial recognition.)
	Impairment for trade receivables, contract assets and lease receivables (Simplified approach)
69	Despite the requirements in Q 59 and 60, has the entity measured the loss allowance at an amount equal to lifetime expected credit losses for:	109.5.5.15
	a) Trade receivables or contract asset that result from transactions that are within the scope of Ind AS 115, and that:
	i. Do not contain a significant financing component in accordance with Ind AS 115, or when the entity applies the practical expedient in accordance with paragraph 63 of Ind AS 115, or		_____
	ii. Contain a significant financing component in accordance with Ind AS 115, if the entity chooses as its accounting policy to measure the loss allowance at an amount equal to lifetime expected credit losses,		_____
	(Note: That accounting policy should be applied to all such trade receivables or contract assets, but may be applied separately to trade receivables and contract assets.)
	b) Lease receivables that result from transactions that are within the scope of Ind AS 116 ³ , if the entity chooses as its accounting policy to measure the loss allowance at an

	Measurement of expected credit losses
70	Has the entity measured the expected credit losses of a financial instrument in a way that reflects: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) An unbiased and probability-weighted amount that is determined by evaluating a range of possible outcomes, b) Time value of money, and c) Reasonable and supportable information that is available without undue cost or effort at the reporting date about past events, current conditions and forecasts of future economic conditions? 	109.5.5.17	_____
71	When measuring expected credit losses, has the entity: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Considered the risk or probability that a credit loss occurs by reflecting the possibility that a credit loss occurs and the possibility that no credit loss occurs, even if the possibility of a credit loss occurring is very low, b) Considered the maximum contractual period (including extension options) over which it is exposed to credit risk, and not a longer period, even if that longer period is consistent with business practice, and c) Measured such losses for financial instruments that include both a loan and an undrawn commitment component, over a period that the entity is exposed to credit risk and expected credit losses would not be mitigated by credit risk management actions, even if that period extends beyond the maximum contractual period? 	109.5.5.18 109.5.5.19 109.5.5.20	_____ _____ _____
	Reclassification of financial assets
72	If the entity has reclassified financial assets in accordance with Q 36, has it applied the reclassification prospectively from the reclassification date (i.e. the first day of the first reporting period following the change in business model that results in the entity reclassifying financial assets as per Q 36), and not restated any previously recognised gains, losses (including impairment gains or losses) or interest? (Also refer Q 73 to 78)	109.5.6.1	_____
73	If the entity has reclassified a financial asset out of the amortised cost measurement category into the FVTPL measurement category, has it measured the fair value on reclassification date and recognised any gain or loss arising from a difference between the previous amortised cost of the financial asset and fair value in profit or loss?	109.5.6.2	_____

74	If the entity has reclassified a financial asset out of the FVTPL measurement category into the amortised cost measurement category:	109.5.6.3
	a) Has it considered its fair value at the reclassification date as its new gross carrying amount, and determined the effective interest rate on the basis of this value, and
	b) Has the date of reclassification been treated as the date of initial recognition for the purpose of applying the impairment requirements described in Q 57 to 71?	109.B5.6.2
75	If the entity has reclassified a financial asset out of the amortised cost measurement category into the FVOCI measurement category:	109.5.6.4
	a) Has its fair value been measured at the reclassification date and any gain or loss arising from a difference between the previous amortised cost of the financial asset and the fair value been recognised in other comprehensive income, and
	b) Has it continued to use the same effective interest rate and measurement of expected credit losses as both measurement categories apply the same approach to recognition of interest revenue and impairment?	109.B5.6.1
76	If the entity has reclassified a financial asset out of the FVOCI measurement category into the amortised cost measurement category:	109.5.6.5
	a) Has the financial asset been reclassified at its fair value at the reclassification date,
	b) Has the cumulative gain or loss previously recognised in other comprehensive income been removed from equity and adjusted against the fair value of the financial asset at the reclassification date such that the financial asset is measured as if it had always been measured at amortised cost, and
	c) Has the entity continued to use the same effective interest rate and measurement of expected credit losses?
77	If the entity has reclassified a financial asset out of the FVTPL measurement category and into the FVOCI measurement category:	109.5.6.6
	a) Has the entity continued to measure the financial asset at fair value, and
	b) Has the entity determined the effective interest rate based on this fair value and considered the date of reclassification as the date of initial recognition for the purpose of applying the impairment requirements described in Q 57 to 71?	109.B5.6.2

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	a) Not recognised for assets measured at amortised cost, or		_____
	b) Recognised in profit or loss or in Other Comprehensive Income (OCI) in accordance with Q 79 for assets measured at fair value?		_____
85	Has the entity presented subsequent changes in the fair value of an investment in an equity instrument in OCI only when it makes an irrevocable election (in accordance with Q 24(b)) to do so for an equity instrument within the scope of this standard, that is neither held for trading nor contingent consideration recognised by an acquirer in a business combination to which Ind AS 103 applies?	109.5.7.5	_____
86	If Q 85 applies to an equity instrument, has the entity recognised the dividends in profit or loss in accordance with Q 80?	109.5.7.6	_____
87	Does the entity carry any financial liability that is designated as at FVTPL?	109.5.7.7	_____
88	If the entity has a financial liability that is designated as at FVTPL, has the gain or loss on such financial liability been presented as follows:	109.5.7.7	_____
	a) The amount of change in the fair value of the financial liability that is attributable to changes in the credit risk of that liability shall be presented in other comprehensive income, and		_____
	b) The remaining amount of change in the fair value of the liability shall be presented in profit or loss?		_____
89	If the accounting treatment for the gain or loss on a financial liability at FVTPL described in Q 88 (a) creates or enlarges an accounting mismatch in profit or loss, has the entity presented all gains or losses on that liability (including the effects of changes in credit risk) in profit or loss?	109.5.7.7	_____
90	Has the entity presented all gains and losses on loan commitments and financial guarantee contracts that are designated as at FVTPL, in profit or loss?	109.5.7.9	_____
91	a) Has the entity recognised gain or loss other than impairment and exchange gains or losses, on a financial asset measured at FVOCI in other comprehensive income?	109.5.7.10	_____

Hedge Accounting - Hedging instruments
92	Has the entity designated only the following qualifying instruments as a hedging instrument in a hedge relationship:		_____
	a) A derivative measured at FVTPL, except for some written options,	109.6.2.1	_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	b) A non-derivative financial asset or financial liability, measured at FVTPL, unless it is a financial liability designated as at FVTPL for which the amount of its change in fair value that is attributable to changes in the credit risk of that liability is presented in other comprehensive income in accordance with Q 88, or	109.6.2.2	_____
	c) The foreign currency risk component of a non-derivative financial asset or a non-derivative financial liability may be designated as a hedging instrument in a hedge of foreign currency risk provided it is not an investment in an equity instrument for which the entity has elected to present changes in fair value in other comprehensive income in accordance with Q 85?	109.6.2.2	_____
93	Has the entity ensured that only contracts with a party external to the reporting entity are designated as hedging instruments?	109.6.2.3	_____
94	Has the qualifying instrument been designated in its entirety as a hedging instrument, subject to exceptions below:	109.6.2.4	_____
	a) Separating the intrinsic value and time value of an option contract and designating as the hedging instrument only the change in intrinsic value of an option and not the change in its time value,	100.6.2.4	_____
	b) Separating the forward element and the spot element of a forward contract and designating as the hedging instrument only the change in the value of the spot element of a forward contract and not the forward element; similarly, the foreign currency basis spread may be separated and excluded from the designation of a financial instrument as the hedging instrument, and		_____
	c) A proportion of the entire hedging instrument, such as 50 per cent of the nominal amount, may be designated as the hedging instrument in a hedging relationship. However, a hedging instrument may not be designated for a part of its change in fair value that results from only a portion of the time period during which the hedging instrument remains outstanding?		_____
95	If the entity has designated hedging instruments jointly, in a combination of derivatives or a proportion of them; and non-derivatives or a proportion of them, has the entity ensured that such designation excludes the combinations described below:	109.6.2.5	_____
	a) A derivative instrument that combines a written option and a purchased option (for example, an interest rate collar) if it is, in effect, a net written option at the date of designation (unless it is designated as an offset to a purchased option including one that is embedded in another financial instrument), and	109.6.2.6	_____

Hedged items
96	Has the entity designated only items that qualify as hedged items based on the characteristics described in Q 97 to 102, in its hedging relationships? (Refer ITFG bulletin 3 issue 10 clarification)
97	Is the hedge item a recognised asset or liability, an unrecognised firm commitment, a forecast transaction or a net investment in a foreign operation, which is either a single item or group of items or a component of such an item or group of items?	109.6.3.1
98	Is the hedged item reliably measurable?	109.6.3.2
99	If the hedged item is a forecast transaction, is it highly probable in nature?	109.6.3.3
100	If the hedged item is an aggregated exposure, is it a combination of an exposure that could qualify as a hedged item in accordance with Q 97 and a derivative or a forecast transaction of such an aggregated exposure (if it is highly probable and is eligible as a hedged item once it has occurred)?	109.6.3.4
101	Has the entity designated only assets, liabilities, firm commitments or highly probable forecast transactions with a party external to the entity as hedged items in the consolidated financial statements, except if the entity is an investment entity as defined in Ind AS 110, where transactions with its subsidiaries (that are measured at FVTPL) will not be eliminated in the consolidated financial statements?	109.6.3.5
102	a) As an exception to Q 101, has the entity designated the foreign currency risk of an intragroup monetary item as a hedged item in the consolidated financial statements only if it results in an exposure to foreign exchange rate gains or losses that are not fully eliminated on consolidation in accordance with Ind AS 21?	109.6.3.6
	b) Similarly, has the entity designated the foreign currency risk of a highly probable forecast intragroup transaction as a hedged item only if the transaction is denominated in a currency other than the functional currency of the entity and the foreign currency risk will affect consolidated profit or loss?	109.6.3.6
103	Has an entity designated an item in its entirety as the hedged item in a hedging relationship, except as permitted in Q 104?	109.6.3.7
104	If an entity has designated a component of an item as the hedged item in a hedging relationship, is it only one of the following types of components:	109.6.3.7
	a) Only changes in the cash flows or fair value of an item attributable to a specific risk or risks (risk component), provided that, based on an assessment within the context of the particular market structure, the risk component is separately identifiable and reliably measurable . Risk components include a designation of only changes in the cash flows or the fair value of a hedged item above or below a specified price or other variable (a one-sided risk),	109.6.3.7	_____

	b) One or more selected contractual cash flows, or		_____
	c) Components of a nominal amount, i.e. a specified part of the amount of an item?		_____
	Qualifying criteria for hedge accounting	109.6.4.1
105	Has the entity ensured that it applies hedge accounting only to qualifying hedge relationships that meet all the criteria in Q 105 (a) to 105 (d) below:
	a) The hedging relationship consist only of eligible hedging instruments and eligible hedged items,		_____
	b) At the inception of the hedging relationship there is formal designation and documentation of the hedging relationship and the entity’s risk management objective and strategy for undertaking the hedge,		_____
	c) The documentation in Q 105 (b) includes identification of the hedging instrument, the hedged item, the nature of the risk being hedged and how the entity will assess whether the hedging relationship meets the hedge effectiveness requirements (including its analysis of the sources of hedge ineffectiveness and how it determines the hedge ratio), and		_____
	d) The hedging relationship meets all of the following hedge effectiveness requirements:
	i. There is an economic relationship between the hedged item and the hedging instrument,		_____
	ii. The effect of credit risk does not dominate the value changes that result from that economic relationship,		_____
	iii. The hedge ratio of the hedging relationship is the same as that resulting from the quantity of the hedged item that the entity actually hedges and the quantity of the hedging instrument that the entity actually uses to hedge that quantity of hedged item, and		_____
	iv. The designation does not reflect an imbalance between the weightings of the hedged item and the hedging instrument that would create hedge ineffectiveness that could result in an accounting outcome that would be inconsistent with the purpose of hedge accounting?		_____

Accounting for qualifying hedge relationships
106	Has the entity applied hedge accounting to hedging relationships that meet the qualifying criteria in Q 105 above, only when it opts to designate the hedging relationship?.	109.6.5.1
107	Has the entity categorised the designated hedge relationship into one of the following three types:
	a) Fair value hedge: a hedge of the exposure to changes in fair value of a recognised asset or liability or an unrecognised firm commitment, or a component of any such item, that is attributable to a particular risk and could affect profit or loss. (For example, a hedge of the price risk in an equity investment using an equity option contract),	109.6.5.2
	b) Cash flow hedge: a hedge of the exposure to variability in cash flows that is attributable to a particular risk associated with all, or a component of, a recognised asset or liability or a highly probable forecast transaction, and could affect profit or loss. (For example, a hedge of highly probable forecast cash flows arising from foreign currency sales using a foreign currency forward contract), or	109.6.5.2
	c) A hedge of a net investment in a foreign operation as defined in Ind AS 21?	109.6.5.2
	(Note: A hedge of the foreign currency risk of a firm commitment may be accounted for as a fair value hedge or a cash flow hedge.)
108	If the hedged item is an equity instrument for which the entity has elected to present changes in fair value in other comprehensive income, has the recognised hedge ineffectiveness been presented in OCI?	109.6.5.3
	(Note: In this case, the hedged exposure referred to in Q 107 (a) must be one that could affect OCI.)
109	If a hedging relationship has ceased to meet the hedge effectiveness requirement relating to the hedge ratio (refer Q 105 (d) and the risk management objective for that designated hedging relationship remains the same, has the entity adjusted the hedge ratio of the hedging relationship so that it meets the qualifying criteria again (rebalancing)?	109.6.5.5
110	If the hedging relationship (or a part of a hedging relationship) has ceased to meet the qualifying criteria (after considering any rebalancing, if applicable), has the entity discontinued hedge accounting prospectively (this includes instances when the hedging instrument expires or is sold, terminated or exercised)?	109.6.5.6
111	Has the entity ensured that the following circumstances are not considered as an expiration or termination of a hedging	109.6.5.6

	instrument, and hedge accounting has not been discontinued:
	a) The replacement or rollover of a hedging instrument into another hedging instrument if it is part of, and consistent with, the entity's documented risk management objective,		_____
	b) The parties to the hedging instrument have agreed that one or more clearing counterparties replace their original counterparty to become the new counterparty to each of the parties, as a consequence of laws or regulations or the introduction of laws or regulations, or		_____
	c) Other changes, if any, to the hedging instrument have been made, which are limited to those that are necessary to effect such a replacement of the counterparty and consistent with the terms that would be expected if the hedging instrument were originally cleared with the clearing counterparty?		_____
112	Has the entity applied the requirements in Q 116 when it discontinues hedge accounting for a fair value hedge for which the hedged item is a financial instrument measure at amortised cost?	109.6.5.7	_____
113	Has the entity applied the requirements in Q 118 when it discontinues hedge accounting for a cash flow hedge?	109.6.5.7	_____
	Fair value hedges
114	If a fair value hedge continues to meet the qualifying criteria as mentioned in Q 105, has the entity accounted for the hedging relationship as follows:	109.6.5.8
	a) Has the entity recognised the gain or loss on the hedging instrument in profit or loss (or OCI, if the hedging instrument hedges an equity instrument for which the entity has elected to present changes in fair value in OCI,		_____
	c) Has the entity ensured that the hedging gain or loss remains in OCI if the hedged item is an equity instrument for which the entity has elected to present changes in fair value in OCI in accordance with Q 24(b), and		_____
	d) Has the cumulative change in the fair value of the hedged item subsequent to its designation been recognised as an asset or a liability with a corresponding gain or loss recognised in profit or loss, if the hedged item is an unrecognised firm commitment (or a component thereof)?		_____

115	When a hedged item in a fair value hedge is a firm commitment (or a component thereof) to acquire an asset or assume a liability, has the initial carrying amount of the asset or the liability that results from the entity meeting the firm commitment been adjusted to include the cumulative change in the fair value of the hedged item that was recognised in the balance sheet?	109.6.5.9	<hr/>
116	Has the entity amortised any adjustment arising from Q 114 (b) to 114 (d) to profit or loss if the hedged item is a financial instrument (or a component thereof) measured at amortised cost?	109.6.5.10	<hr/>
	(Note: Amortisation may begin as soon as an adjustment exists and no later than when the hedged item ceases to be adjusted for hedging gains and losses. The amortisation is based on a recalculated effective interest rate at the date that it begins.)
	Cash flow hedges
117	If a cash flow hedge continues to meet the qualifying criteria in Q 105, has the entity accounted for the hedging relationship as follows:	109.6.5.11	<hr/>
	a) Has the entity adjusted the separate component of equity associated with the hedged item (cash flow hedge reserve) to the lower of the cumulative gain or loss on the hedging instrument from inception of the hedge and the cumulative change in fair value of the hedged item (i.e. the present value of the cumulative change in the hedged expected future cash flows) from inception of the hedge,		<hr/>
	b) Has the entity recognised the portion of the gain or loss on the hedging instrument that is determined to be an effective hedge (i.e. the portion that is offset by the change in the cash flow hedge reserve calculated in accordance with (a) above) in OCI,		<hr/>
	c) Has the entity recognised any remaining gain or loss on the hedging instrument (or any gain or loss required to balance the change in the cash flow hedge reserve in accordance with Q 117 (a)), representing hedge ineffectiveness in profit or loss, and		<hr/>
	d) Has the entity accounted for the amount accumulated in the cash flow hedge reserve in accordance with Q 117 (a) as follows on the next page:		<hr/>

3. Additional considerations

Some of the key requirements from the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act)

- Companies that may have received moneys (as deposits) from their directors, are required to disclose such a receipt, by way of notes to the financial statements. Private companies, are additionally required to disclose moneys received (as deposits) from the relatives of the directors.

Significant carve-outs from IFRS

- The option to apply the requirements of IAS 39 for a fair value hedge of the interest rate exposure of a portfolio of financial assets or financial liabilities, as provided in IFRS 9 has been removed in Ind AS 109.

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

ICDS I – Accounting policies

- A marked-to-market loss or an expected loss is not permitted to be recognised unless the recognition of such loss is in accordance with the provisions of any other ICDS.

ICDS VI – Forward Exchange Contracts

- Any premium or discount arising at the inception of a forward exchange contract shall be amortised as expense or income over the life of the contract. Exchange differences on such a contract shall be recognised as income or as expense in the previous year in which the exchange rates change in case where the forward contracts are entered against underlying assets/liabilities at the balance sheet, and are not entered for trading or speculation purposes. For this purpose, forward exchange contracts also include foreign currency option contracts and other financial instruments of similar nature. Any profit or loss arising on cancellation or renewal shall be recognised as income or as expense for the year.
- For all other cases, the premium, discount or exchange difference on contracts that are intended for trading or speculation purposes, or that are entered into to hedge the foreign currency risk of a firm commitment or a highly probable forecast transaction shall be recognised at the time of settlement.
- The transitional provisions under notified ICDS provide that ICDS would apply to all forward contracts existing as on 1 April, 2016 or entered on or after 1 April, 2016. Such contracts shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of this standard after taking into account the income or expenses, if any, recognised in respect of said contracts for the year ending on or before 31 March, 2016.

ICDS VIII – Securities

- ICDS VIII has two parts- Part A deals with securities held as stock in trade (ICDS is not applicable for securities that fall under long term/short term capital gains). A security on acquisition shall be recognised at actual cost. At the end of any year, securities held as stock-in-trade shall be valued at actual cost initially recognised or net realisable value at the end of that year, whichever is lower. However, at the end of any year, securities not listed on a recognised stock exchange; or listed but not quoted on a recognised stock exchange with regularity from time to time, shall be valued at actual cost initially recognised. When cost of a specific security cannot be identified, it shall be determined on the basis of the first-in-first-out method or the weighted average cost formula.
- FAQ 19 to ICDS: With respect to the subsequent measurement of securities held as stock-in-trade, CBDT clarified that securities are first required to be aggregated category wise. The aggregate cost and NRV of each category of security is then compared, and the lower of the two is taken as the carrying value of the security as per ICDS VIII.

- Part B of ICDS VIII deals with securities held by a scheduled bank or public financial institution formed under a Central or State Act or so declared under the Companies Act, 1956 or the 2013 Act. Securities are required to be classified, recognised and measured in accordance with the extant guidelines issued by the Reserve Bank of India, and any claim for deduction in excess of the said guidelines shall not be taken into account.

ICDS IX – Borrowing Costs

- The methodology for recognition of borrowing costs has been specifically prescribed in the ICDS and interest expense is recognised on time basis.
- All the borrowing costs incurred on or after 1 April, 2016 shall be capitalised for the year commencing on or after 1 April, 2016 in accordance with the provisions of this standard after taking into account the amount of borrowing costs capitalised, if any, for the same borrowing for any previous year ending on or before 31 March, 2016.

Bulletin 8 (Issue 9)	Recognition of dividend income on an investment in debt instrument The ITFG considered an example of a redeemable preference share as a debt instrument with legal form of income as dividend. In order to assess if Solely Payment of Principal and Interest (SPPI) test is met for a redeemable preference share, an entity would need to evaluate if the dividend is discretionary or non-discretionary. An entity would need to consider applicable legal provisions in the relevant jurisdiction and also specific terms and conditions associated with the preference shares to determine whether the payment of dividend on the instrument is at the discretion of the issuer.	109.5.4.1
Bulletin 17 (Issue 4)	Where payment of dividend is not at the discretion of the issuer, the contractual cash flows (dividends and redemption proceeds) associated with the preference share would be akin to those associated with a plain-vanilla loan or other plain-vanilla debt instrument unless the cash flows do not meet the SPPI test. In this case the dividend income would be recognised in the form of ‘interest income’. If the preference shares meet the business model test as well, then they may be subsequently classified at amortised cost or at FVOCI	(Q 50, 51, 52 and 53)

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
	(unless the entity has chosen the fair value option). In this case the dividend income would be accounted for as explained below: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Debt instrument is subsequently measured at amortised cost: Interest income on such assets is computed in the manner as is specified below: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Where the asset is not credit-impaired: Compute interest income by applying EIR to the gross carrying amount ○ Where the asset is a purchased or originated credit-impaired financial asset: Compute interest income by applying credit adjusted EIR to the amortised cost of the financial asset ○ Where the asset is not a purchased or originated credit-impaired financial asset, but subsequently has become credit impaired: Compute interest income by applying EIR to the amortised cost of the financial asset during the periods the asset is considered as credit impaired, and when the credit risk improves so that the financial asset is no longer credit impaired, compute interest income by applying the EIR to the gross carrying amount of the debt instrument. – Debt instrument is classified and measured at FVOCI: Interest income is recognised in the statement of profit and loss in accordance with the EIR method • Where payment of dividend (whether cumulative or non-cumulative) is at the discretion of the issuer, the contractual cash flows characteristics differ from those of a basic lending arrangement. Hence, such a preference share fails the SPPI test and would be classified at FVTPL. In this case, interest income may form part of the fair value gains or losses of the instrument or be presented separately. The entity would be required to give disclosures for its accounting policy in accordance with disclosure requirements contained in Ind AS 107.

This implies, inter alia, that the dividends on preference shares are accrued in the same manner as interest on debentures or loans. In the given situation, the preference shares would be classified as financial liability in their entirety (the covenant of their terms of issue relating to dividends would represent a contractual obligation of P to pay such dividends). With regard to the rate at which these would be discounted, the entity should evaluate on the basis of its own facts and circumstances. In this regard, ITFG clarified that the contract would be accounted for as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In the opening Ind AS balance sheet: V needs to determine whether the commission received by it is equivalent to the premium that S would pay to obtain a similar guarantee in a standalone arm’s length transaction. If this is the case, then at initial recognition (i.e. in the opening Ind AS balance sheet), the fair value of the financial guarantee contract is likely to equal the commission received. • Subsequent measurement: Financial guarantee contracts should subsequently be measured at the higher of the amount of loss allowance (estimate of the expected loss that would devolve on the guarantee contract) and the amount initially recognised less cumulative amount of income recognised in accordance with Ind AS 18, Revenue⁶. 	109.4.2.1, 109.5.5.1 (Q 27c, Q 57)

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Present value of the amount by which the interest (or other similar) cash flows in respect of the loan are lower than what they would have been if the loan was an unguaranteed loan. • Present value of the probability-weighted cash flows that may arise under the guarantee (i.e. the expected value of the liability). The fair value so computed would be recognised as a liability (i.e. deferred income such as 'unearned financial guarantee commission'). Further, since S Ltd. has not charged a guarantee commission, therefore, the economic substance of the arrangement in the given case is distribution/repayment of capital made by S Ltd. to its parent (P Ltd.). Accordingly, the debit should be made to an appropriate head under 'equity'. As per ITFG, it would not be appropriate to debit the fair value of the guarantee to profit or loss (as if it were a non-reciprocal distribution to a third party) as it would fail to properly reflect the existence of the parent-subsidiary relationship that would have caused S Ltd. not to charge the guarantee commission. Subsequent accounting According to ITFG, the application of Ind AS 115 would result in the amount of unearned financial guarantee commission which was recognised initially as liability, being amortised over the period of the guarantee. Consequently, the balance of the unearned financial guarantee commission would decline progressively over the period of the guarantee. Additionally, at each reporting date, S Ltd. would be required to compare the unamortised amount of the deferred income with the amount of loss allowance determined in respect of the guarantee using the expected credit loss model as at that date. Accordingly, in case: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Amount of loss allowance is lower than the unamortised amount of deferred income: Liability of S Ltd. (with respect to financial guarantee) would be represented by the unamortised amount of the financial guarantee commission. • Amount of loss allowance is higher than the unamortised amount of deferred income: S Ltd. would be required to recognise a further liability equal to the excess of the amount of the loss allowance over the amount of the unamortised unearned financial guarantee commission. An exception to the general measurement principles is provided for financial guarantee contracts that are designated at inception as at FVTPL or that arise when a transfer of a financial asset does not qualify for derecognition or results in continuing involvement. Accordingly, the fair value of the loan should be debited to the carrying amount of the loan, this would in effect result in such fair value being included in determination of EIR of the loan • The provision of guarantee by S Ltd. without charging guarantee commission is analogous to a distribution by S Ltd. to P Ltd, accordingly, the fair value of the loan should be credited in accordance with Ind AS 27, Separate Financial Statements. As per Ind AS 27, in the separate financial statements of the parent, investment in the subsidiary should be accounted for at cost or in accordance with Ind AS 109. Accordingly: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – If the investment is accounted for at cost, then distribution received (i.e. credit of fair value of the guarantee) should be given to profit or loss. Impairment would be considered separately – If the investment is accounted for at FVOCI, distribution would be recognised in profit or loss, unless the distribution clearly represents a recovery of a part of cost of investment – If the investment is accounted for at FVTPL, distribution received would be credited to profit or loss. The fact that S Ltd. has not paid any dividend to P Ltd. earlier would not impact this accounting treatment. Further, ITFG also clarified that this transaction would require disclosure under Ind AS 24, for guarantees given to or received from related parties. Financial guarantee by a parent for a loan taken by its subsidiary that is repaid early Where a parent (P Ltd.) provided a guarantee for a loan (of 10 years) taken by its subsidiary (S Ltd.) prior to transition to Ind AS, on the date of transition to Ind AS, P Ltd. should recognise the financial guarantee obligation in its separate financial statements and the corresponding impact should be in the 'investment in subsidiary' considering the terms of the guarantee. Subsequently, the financial guarantee would be recorded in accordance with Ind AS 109. The ITFG clarified that where the loan is prepaid, the change in the estimated life of the loan should be accounted for as a change in the accounting estimate, and as per the provisions of Ind AS 8, Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors,	109.2.1, 109.4.2.1c (Q 2g, Q 27c)

Generally, in case of prepayment of loan by an unrelated third party, the parent would not have refunded the consideration and would have recognised the entire unrecognised commission in the statement of profit and loss. Therefore, the ITFG clarified that similar approach should be followed for guarantee given to the subsidiary. Accordingly, in the given case, amount of financial guarantee obligation initially recognised (say at INR1,000) would be amortised as income in each accounting period as per Ind AS 109. At the end of year six (year of prepayment), P Ltd. would have INR400 as the carrying value of financial guarantee in its financial statements. Since S Ltd. has repaid the loan and no obligation exists for P Ltd., therefore, P Ltd. should reverse the balance outstanding as guarantee obligation with corresponding recognition of revenue of INR400 in the statement of profit and loss.

12-month expected credit losses: The portion of lifetime expected credit losses that represent the expected credit losses that result from default events on a financial instrument that are possible within the 12 months after the reporting date.

Amortised cost of a financial asset or financial liability: The amount at which the financial asset or financial liability is measured at initial recognition minus the principal repayments, plus or minus the cumulative amortisation using the effective interest method of any difference between that initial amount and the maturity amount and, for financial assets, adjusted for any loss allowance.

Credit impaired financial asset: A financial asset is credit-impaired when one or more events that have a detrimental impact on the estimated future cash flows of that financial asset have occurred. Evidence that a financial asset is credit-impaired include observable data about the following events:

- Significant financial difficulty of the issuer or the borrower;
- A breach of contract, such as a default or past due event;
- The lender(s) of the borrower, for economic or contractual reasons relating to the borrower's financial difficulty, having granted to the borrower a concession(s) that the lender(s) would not otherwise consider;
- It is becoming probable that the borrower will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation;
- The disappearance of an active market for that financial asset because of financial difficulties; or
- The purchase or origination of a financial asset at a deep discount that reflects the incurred credit losses.

It may not be possible to identify a single discrete event instead, the combined effect of several events may have caused financial assets to become credit-impaired.

Credit loss: The difference between all contractual cash flows that are due to an entity in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the entity expects to receive (ie all cash shortfalls), discounted at the original effective interest rate (or credit-adjusted effective interest rate for purchased or originated credit-impaired financial assets). An entity shall estimate cash flows by considering all contractual terms of the financial instrument (for example, prepayment, extension, call and similar options) through the expected life of that financial instrument. The cash flows that are considered shall include cash flows from the sale of collateral held or other credit enhancements that are integral to the contractual terms. There is a presumption that the expected life of a financial instrument can be estimated reliably.

However, in those rare cases when it is not possible to reliably estimate the expected life of a financial instrument, the entity shall use the remaining contractual term of the financial instrument.

Credit-adjusted effective interest rate: The rate that exactly discounts the estimated future cash payments or receipts through the expected life of the financial asset to the amortised cost of a financial asset that is a purchased or originated credit-impaired financial asset. When calculating the credit-adjusted effective interest rate, an entity shall estimate the expected cash flows by considering all contractual terms of the financial asset (for example, prepayment, extension, call and similar options) and expected credit losses. The calculation includes all fees and points paid or received between parties to the contract that are an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs, and all other premiums or discounts. There is a presumption that the cash flows and the expected life of a group of similar financial instruments can be estimated reliably. However, in those rare cases when it is not possible to reliably estimate the cash flows or the remaining life of a financial instrument (or group of financial instruments), the entity shall use the contractual cash flows over the full contractual term of the financial instrument (or group of financial instruments).

Derecognition: The removal of a previously recognised financial asset or financial liability from an entity's balance sheet.

Derivative: A financial instrument or other contract within the scope of this Standard with all three of the following characteristics:

- Its value changes in response to the change in a specified interest rate, financial instrument price, commodity price, foreign exchange rate, index of prices or rates, credit rating or credit index, or other variable, provided in the case of a non-financial variable that the variable is not specific to a party to the contract (sometimes called the 'underlying').
- It requires no initial net investment or an initial net investment that is smaller than would be required for other types of contracts that would be expected to have a similar response to changes in market factors.
- It is settled at a future date.

Contract assets: Those rights that Ind AS 115 specifies are accounted for in accordance with this Standard for the purposes of recognising and measuring impairment gains or losses.

Dividends: Distributions of profits to holders of equity instruments in proportion to their holdings of a particular class of capital.

Effective interest method: The rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash payments or receipts through the expected life of the financial asset or financial liability to the gross carrying amount of a financial asset or to the amortised cost of a financial liability. When calculating the effective interest rate, an entity shall estimate the expected cash flows by considering all the contractual terms of the financial instrument (for example, prepayment, extension, call and similar options) but shall not consider the expected credit losses. The calculation includes all fees and points paid or received between parties to the contract that are an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs, and all other premiums or discounts. There is a presumption that the cash flows and the expected life of a group of similar financial instruments can be estimated reliably. However, in those rare cases when it is not possible to reliably estimate the cash flows or the expected life of a financial instrument (or group of financial instruments), the entity shall use the contractual cash flows over the full contractual term of the financial instrument (or group of financial instruments).

Expected credit losses: The weighted average of credit losses with the respective risks of a default occurring as the weights.

Financial guarantee contract: A contract that requires the issuer to make specified payments to reimburse the holder for a loss it incurs because a specified debtor fails to make payment when due in accordance with the original or modified terms of a debt instrument.

Financial liability at FVTPL: A financial liability that meets one of the following conditions:

- It meets the definition of held for trading.
- Upon initial recognition it is designated by the entity as at FVTPL in accordance with paragraph 4.2.2 or 4.3.5.
- It is designated either upon initial recognition or subsequently as at FVTPL in accordance with paragraph 6.7.1.

Firm commitment: A binding agreement for the exchange of a specified quantity of resources at a specified price on a specified future date or dates.

Forecast transaction: An uncommitted but anticipated future transaction.

Gross carrying amount of a financial asset: The amortised cost of a financial asset, before adjusting for any loss allowance.

Hedging instrument: A designated derivative or (for a hedge of the risk of changes in foreign currency exchange rates only) a designated non-derivative financial asset or non-derivative financial liability whose fair value or cash flows are expected to offset changes in the fair value or cash flows of a designated hedged item.

Hedge ratio: The relationship between the quantity of the hedging instrument and the quantity of the hedged item in terms of their relative weighting.

Held for trading: A financial asset or financial liability that:

- Is acquired or incurred principally for the purpose of selling or repurchasing it in the near term;
- On initial recognition is part of a portfolio of identified financial instruments that are managed together and for which there is evidence of a recent actual pattern of short-term profit-taking; or
- Is a derivative (except for a derivative that is a financial guarantee contract or a designated and effective hedging instrument).

Impairment gain or loss: Gains or losses that are recognised in profit or loss in accordance with paragraph 5.5.8 and that arise from applying the impairment requirements in Section 5.5.

Lifetime expected credit losses: The expected credit losses that result from all possible default events over the expected life of a financial instrument.

Loss allowance: The allowance for expected credit losses on financial assets measured in accordance with paragraph 4.1.2, lease receivables and contract assets, the accumulated impairment amount for financial assets measured in accordance with paragraph 4.1.2A and the provision for expected credit losses on loan commitments and financial guarantee contracts.

Modification gain or loss: The amount arising from adjusting the gross carrying amount of a financial asset to reflect the renegotiated or modified contractual cash flows. The entity recalculates the gross carrying amount of a financial asset as the present value of the estimated future cash payments or receipts through the expected life of the renegotiated or modified financial asset that are discounted at the financial asset's original effective interest rate (or the original credit-adjusted effective interest rate for purchased or originated credit-impaired financial assets) or, when applicable, the revised effective interest rate calculated in accordance with paragraph 6.5.10. When estimating the expected cash flows of a financial asset, an entity shall consider all contractual terms of the financial asset (for example, prepayment, call and similar options) but shall not consider the expected credit losses, unless the financial asset is a purchased or originated credit-impaired financial asset, in which case an entity shall also consider the initial expected credit losses that were considered when calculating the original credit-adjusted effective interest rate.

Past due: A financial asset is past due when a counterparty has failed to make a payment when that payment was contractually due.

Purchased or originated credit-impaired financial asset: Purchased or originated financial asset(s) that are credit-impaired on initial recognition.

Reclassification date: The first day of the first reporting period following the change in business model that results in an entity reclassifying financial assets.

Regular way purchase or sale: A purchase or sale of a financial asset under a contract whose terms require delivery of the asset within the time frame established generally by regulation or convention in the market place concerned.

Transaction costs: Incremental costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, issue or disposal of a financial asset or financial liability (see paragraph B5.4.8). An incremental cost is one that would not have been incurred if the entity had not acquired, issued or disposed of the financial instrument.

Ind AS-110 Consolidated Financial Statements

1. Executive summary

- The objective of Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 110, Consolidated Financial Statements is to establish principles for the presentation and preparation of consolidated financial statements when the entity controls one or more entities.
- Ind AS 110 requires the entity that controls one or more entities presents consolidated financial statements unless it is a qualifying investment entity or specific exemption criteria are met.
- An investor controls an investee when the investor is exposed to (has rights to) variable returns from its involvement with the investee, and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee. Control involves power, exposure to variability of returns and a linkage between the two
- Step 1: Understanding the investee:
 - Control is generally assessed at the level of the legal entity. However, an investor may have control over only specified assets and liabilities of the legal entity (referred to as a silo), in which case control is assessed at that level.
 - The purpose and design of the investee does not in itself determine whether the investor controls the investee. However, it plays a role in the judgement applied by the investor in areas of the control model. Assessing purpose and design includes considering the risks that the investee was designed to create and to pass on to the parties involved in the transaction, and whether the investor is exposed to some or all of those risks.
 - The ‘relevant activities’ of the investee - i.e. the activities that significantly affect the investee’s returns- need to be identified. In addition, the investor determines whether decisions about the relevant activities are made based on voting rights.
- Step 2: Power over relevant activities:
 - Only substantive rights are considered in assessing whether the investor has control over the relevant activities.
 - If voting rights are relevant for assessing power, then the investor considers potential voting rights that are substantive, rights arising from other contractual arrangements and factors that may indicate de facto power e.g. the investor has a dominant shareholding and the other vote holders are sufficiently dispersed.
 - If voting rights are not relevant for assessing power, then the investor considers evidences of the practical ability to direct the relevant activities, indicators of special relationship (more than passive interest) with the investee, and the size of the investor’s exposure to variable returns from its involvement with the investee.
- Step 3: Exposure to variability: An investor is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee when the investor’s returns from its involvement have the potential to vary as a result of the investee’s performance. The investor’s returns can be only positive, only negative or both. Returns should be interpreted broadly and it could be said to encompass synergistic returns as well as direct returns.
- Step 4: Linkage: If the investor is an agent, then the link between power and returns is absent and the decision maker’s delegated power is treated as if it were held by the principal. The entity takes into account the rights of parties acting on its behalf in assessing whether it controls an investee.
- To determine whether it is an agent, the decision maker considers:
 - Substantial removal and other rights held by a single or multiple parties,
 - Whether its remuneration is on arm’s length terms,
 - Whether its remuneration is on arm’s length terms,
 - Its other economic interests, and
 - The overall relationship between itself and other parties.

- The entity takes into account the rights of parties acting on its behalf in assessing whether it controls an investee.
- The difference between the reporting date of a parent and its subsidiary cannot be more than three months. Adjustments are made for the effects of significant transactions and events between two dates.
- Uniform accounting policies are used throughout the group.
- Ind AS 110, requires losses relating to subsidiaries to be attributed to Non-Controlling Interests (NCI) even if it results in a negative balance.
- Intra-group transactions are eliminated in full.
- On loss of control of a subsidiary, the assets and liabilities of the subsidiary and the carrying amount of the NCI are derecognised. The consideration received and any retained interest (measured at fair value) are recognised. Amounts recognised in Other Comprehensive Income (OCI) are reclassified as required by other Ind ASs. Any resultant gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss.
- Ind AS 110, requires that changes in the ownership interest of equity holders of the parent in a subsidiary, that do not result in a loss of control are accounted for as equity transactions (transactions between shareholders).

Schedule III

- An entity preparing consolidated financial statements should mutatis mutandis follow the requirements of Schedule III to the 2013 Act, as applicable to an entity preparing stand-alone financial statements (i.e. balance sheet, statement of changes in equity and statement of profit and loss).
- All Indian and foreign subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures will be covered under consolidated financial statements. The entity is required to disclose the list of subsidiaries or associates or joint ventures which have not been consolidated in the consolidated financial statements, along with the reasons of not consolidating.
- In the consolidated financial statements, entities are required to disclose the following as additional information for the parent, Indian and foreign subsidiaries, NCI in all subsidiaries, Indian and foreign associates and joint ventures:
 - Amount and percentage of net assets to the consolidated net assets (net assets is total assets minus total liabilities),
 - Amount and percentage of share in profit or loss to the consolidated profit or loss,
 - Amount and percentage of share in OCI to the consolidated OCI, and
 - Amount and percentage of total comprehensive income to the consolidated total comprehensive income.

2. Checklist

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
Scope
1	Has the entity presented consolidated financial statements unless it is permitted not to do so under the following circumstances:	110.4
	a) The entity is a wholly-owned subsidiary or a partially-owned subsidiary of another entity and all its other owners, including those not otherwise entitled to vote, have been informed about, and do not object to, the parent not presenting the consolidated financial statements,		_____
	b) The entity’s debt or equity instruments are not traded in a public market (a domestic or foreign stock exchange or an over-the-counter market, including local and regional markets),		_____
	c) The entity has not filed, nor is it in the process of filing, its financial statements with a securities commission or other regulatory organisation for the purpose of issuing any class of instruments in a public market,		_____
	d) The entity’s ultimate or any intermediate parent produces financial statements that are available for public use and comply with Ind AS, in which subsidiaries are consolidated or are measured at fair value through profit or loss in accordance with this Ind AS,		_____
	e) The entity is a post-employment benefit plan or other long-term employee benefit plan to which Ind AS 19, Employee Benefits , applies, and	110.4A	_____
	f) The entity is an investment entity meeting the requirements in Q 14 and 15 to measure all of its subsidiaries at fair value through profit or loss? (Refer ITFG 5 issue 1 clarification)	110.4B	_____
Control
2	a) Has the entity identified the investees that it controls based on its consideration of all of the following factors, irrespective of its nature of involvement with investees: (Refer FAQ by ICAI)	110.5 110.7
	i. Power over the investee (refer Q4 and 5),		_____
	ii. Exposure, or rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee (see Q6), and		_____
	iii. The ability to use its power over the investee to affect the amount of the investor’s returns (see Q7)?		_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
b)	In identifying the investees that it controls, has the entity also considered the following other factors:	110.B3, 110.B5-B8
	i. The purpose and design in order to identify the relevant activities of the investee: design is such that the control is established by majority voting rights or through contractual arrangements. In case of the latter, the risks to which the investee was designed to be exposed, the risks it was designed to pass on to the parties involved with the investee and whether the investor is exposed to some or all of those risks should also be considered. Risks includes not only the downside risk, but also the potential for upside,	110.B11, 110.B12, 110.B13	<hr/>
	ii. What constitutes relevant activities (operating and financing activities) that significantly affect the return of the investees and how the decision (appointment, remuneration of investee's Key Management Personnel (KMP), budgeting and capital decisions) about those activities are made. In case of multiple investors, which investor is able to direct the activities that most significantly affect those returns consistently with the treatment of concurrent decision making rights,		<hr/>
	iii. Whether the rights of the investor give it the current ability to direct the relevant activities (see Q 4 below),		<hr/>
	iv. Whether the investor is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee (see Q 6 below), and		<hr/>
	v. Whether the investor has the ability to use its power over the investee to affect the amount of the investor's return (see Q 6 below)?		<hr/>
3	Has the entity reassessed whether it continues to controls an investee, in case facts and circumstances indicate that any one or more of the three elements listed in Q 2(a) above have changed?	110.8	<hr/>
	Power
4	Has the entity determined whether it has power over an investee based on its existing rights (i.e. substantive rights and rights that are not protective) that give the entity the current ability to direct the relevant activities (i.e. the activities that significantly affect the investee's returns) so as to affect the amount of the entity's return?	110.10, 110.12	<hr/>

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	Factors to be considered in assessing if investor has power includes:
a)	Rights that either individually or in combination, can give an investor power for e.g. voting rights including potential voting rights. However, even in case there are potential voting rights, the proportions of profit or loss and changes in equity allocated to the parent and NCI in preparing consolidated financial statements is determined solely on the basis of existing ownership interests and does not reflect the possible exercise or conversion of potential voting rights and other derivatives unless in substance an existing ownership interest exists,	110.B15	_____
b)	Rights to appoint, reassign or remove members of an investee’s key management personnel who have the ability to direct the relevant activities,		_____
c)	Rights to appoint or remove another entity that directs the relevant activities,		_____
d)	Rights to direct the investee to enter into, or veto any changes to, transactions for the benefit of the investor,		_____
e)	Other rights (such as decision-making rights specified in a management contract) that give the holder the ability to direct the relevant activities,		_____
f)	Barriers (economic or otherwise) that prevent exercise of rights,	110.B23	_____
g)	If exercise of substantive rights is dependent on agreement of more than one party, mechanism should be in place for approvals and common consensus between all of the parties so as to demonstrate that all parties involved have practical ability to exercise their rights collectively. Since no one investor can direct the activities without the co-operation of the others, no investor individually controls the investee and thus less likely that those rights are substantive,	110.B23	_____
h)	Rights are exercisable when decision on relevant activities are to be made, thus to be substantive, rights should be currently exercisable, and	110.B24	_____
i.	Having only protective rights does not give power to investor. Example of protective rights includes:	110.B13,
		110.B27	_____
ii.	Lender’s right to restrict a borrower from undertaking activities that could significantly change the credit risk of the borrower to the detriment of the lender,	110.B28	_____
iii.	The right of a party holding a non-controlling interest in an investee to approve capital expenditure greater than that required in the ordinary course of business, or to approve the issue of equity or debt instruments, and		_____

5	Has the entity's power over an investee been assessed on the basis of: a) Voting rights granted by equity instruments such as shares, when power is obtained directly and solely from such voting rights, or b) A consideration of more than one factor, for example when power results from one or more contractual arrangements?	110.11	<hr/> <hr/>

Returns

6	Has the entity assessed whether it controls an investee based on its exposure, or rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee, if the returns from such involvement have the potential to vary as a result of the investee's performance?	110.16, 110.B55	<hr/>
---	---	-----------------	-------

(Note: Variable returns vary as a result of the performance of investee and can be only positive, only negative or both. Variability of the returns are to be assessed based the substance of the arrangement regardless of the legal form of the returns. Examples include dividends, other distributions, remuneration for servicing an investee's assets or liabilities, fees and exposure to loss from providing credit or liquidity support, residual interests in the investee's assets and liabilities on liquidation of that investee, tax benefits, and access to future liquidity that the entity has from its involvement with an investee and returns that are not available to other interest holders. Although only one investor can control an investee, more than one party can share in the returns of an investee. For example, holders of non-controlling interests can share in the profits or distributions of an investee.)

Link between power and returns

7	a) Has the entity assessed if it controls an investee based on the ability to use its power over the investee to affect its own returns from its involvement with the investee, in terms of the decision making rights that it exercises in its capacity as a principal?	110.18, 110.B59	<hr/>
---	---	-----------------	-------

(Note: Where there is more than one principal, each of them shall assess whether they have power over the investee by considering the requirements as mentioned in Q 2 to 6 above).

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
b)	Has the entity determined whether it is acting in the capacity of a principal based on an evaluation of the relationship between itself, the investee being managed and other parties involved with the investee, on consideration of factors that include:	110.B58-110.B72
i.	The scope of its decision-making authority over the investee - the activities that are permitted according to the decision-making agreement(s) and specified by law, the discretion that the decision maker has when making decisions about those activities, the purpose and design of the investee, the risks to which the investee was designed to be exposed, the risks it was designed to pass on to the parties involved and the level of involvement the decision maker had in the design of an investee are to be considered,	110.B62, 110.B63
ii.	The rights held by other parties and rights exercisable by an investee’s board of directors (or other governing body) – Substantive removal rights and rights that restrict decision maker’s discretion held by another party may indicate that the decision maker is only an agent,	110.B64 110.B65 110.B66 110.B67
ii.	The remuneration to which it is entitled in accordance with the remuneration agreement(s) - Unless the remuneration of the decision maker is commensurate with the services provided and the agreement includes only terms, conditions or amounts that are customarily present in arrangements for similar services and level of skills negotiated on an arm’s length basis the decision maker cannot be an agent,	110.B68 110.B69 110.B70
iii.	The decision maker’s exposure to variability of returns from other interests that it holds in the investee – the magnitude of variability and the difference in the exposure to variability as compared to other investors are to be considered, and	110.B71, 110.B72
iv.	An investor that is an agent in accordance with Q 7(b) does not control an investee when it exercises decision-making rights delegated to it. Investor needs to assess if there is any change in its assessment that it acts as an agent or principal. For e.g. if changes to the rights of the investor, or of other parties, occur, the investor no longer acts as an agent or principal?	110.B84
Accounting requirements
8	Has the entity (as parent) prepared consolidated financial statements using uniform accounting policies for like transactions and other events in similar circumstances?(Refer bulletins- (ITFG 11 issue 6) and (ITFG 15 issue 9) clarifications)	110.19

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
9	Has the entity determined the date on which it has obtained control of the investee and begun consolidation of an investee from the aforementioned date by following the consolidation procedures stated below:	110.20
	a) Combine like items of assets, liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows of the parent with those of its subsidiaries,	110.B86	<hr/>
	b) Offset (eliminate) the carrying amount of the parent's investment in each subsidiary and the parent's portion of equity of each subsidiary (Ind AS 103, Business Combination explains how to account for any related goodwill),		<hr/>
	c) Eliminate in full intragroup assets and liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between entities of the group (profits or losses resulting from intragroup transactions that are recognised in assets, such as inventory and fixed assets, are eliminated in full). Intragroup losses may indicate an impairment that requires recognition in the consolidated financial statements. Ind AS 12, Income Taxes , applies to temporary differences that arise from the elimination of profits and losses resulting from intragroup transactions, (Refer ITFG bulletin 12 issue 5 clarification)		<hr/>
	d) The financial statements of the parent and its subsidiaries shall have the same reporting date unless it is impracticable to do so, in which case the most recent financial statements of the subsidiary adjusted for the effects of significant transactions or events that occur between the date of those financial statements and the date of the consolidated financial statements shall be used. In any case the difference between the reporting dates shall not exceed three months,	110.B92 110.B93	<hr/>
	e) The accounting policies adopted by investee are the same as that used in preparation of consolidated financial statements. If not, appropriate adjustments are required to be recorded so as to ensure conformity with the Group's (Parent with subsidiaries together 'the Group') accounting policies, (Refer ITFG bulletin 11 issue 7 clarification)	110.B87	<hr/>
	f) Income, expenses, assets and liabilities of subsidiary are included in consolidated financial statements only from the date the investor gains control until the date the investor ceases to control subsidiary,	110.B88	<hr/>
	g) In case potential voting rights, or other derivatives containing potential voting rights, exist, the proportion of profit or loss and changes in equity have been allocated between the parent and NCI, solely on the basis of existing ownership interests and does not reflect the possible exercise or conversion of potential voting rights and other derivatives,	110.B89	<hr/>

h)	In cases where an entity has, in substance, an existing ownership interest as a result of a transaction that currently gives the entity access to the returns associated with an ownership interest, the proportion allocated to the parent and NCI is determined by taking into account the eventual exercise of those potential voting rights and other derivatives that currently give the entity access to the returns,	110.B90
i)	The profit or loss and each component of other comprehensive income has been attributed to the owners of the parent and to the non-controlling interest,	110.B94
	(Note: Profit and loss and other comprehensive income attributable to 'non-controlling interest' and to 'owners of the parent' should be presented as such in the statement of profit and loss as allocation for the period. Similar disclosures for total comprehensive income should also be presented in the statements of changes in equity.)	Sch III Part III Para 1(i)
j)	The total comprehensive income is attributed to the owners of the parent and to the non-controlling interests even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance, and (Refer ITFG bulletin 8 issue 6 clarification)	110.B94
k)	In case a subsidiary has outstanding cumulative preference shares that are classified as equity and are held by NCI, the entity computes its share of profit or loss after adjusting for the dividends on such shares, whether or not such dividends have been declared?	110.B95
Non-controlling interests
10	Has the entity presented NCI in the consolidated balance sheet and in the consolidated statement of changes in equity, within equity, separately from the equity of the owners of the parent?	110.22 Sch III Part III Para 1 (ii)
11	Has the entity classified changes in a parent's ownership interest in a subsidiary that do not result in the parent losing control of the subsidiary as equity transactions? (Refer bulletins- (ITFG 13 issue 7) and (ITFG 19 issue 1) clarifications)	110.B96
	(Note: When the proportion of the equity held by non-controlling interests changes, the entity shall adjust the carrying amounts of the controlling and non-controlling interests to reflect the changes in their relative interests in the subsidiary. The entity shall recognise directly in equity any difference between the amount by which the non-controlling interests are adjusted and the fair value of the consideration paid or received, and attribute it to the owners of the parent.)

Loss of control
12	If the entity has lost control of its subsidiary, has it ensured that it: (Refer ITFG bulletin 17 issue 5 clarification)	110.25
	a) Derecognises the assets (including any goodwill) and liabilities of the subsidiary at their carrying amounts at the date when control is lost; and the carrying amount of any NCI in the former subsidiary at the date when control is lost (including any components of other comprehensive income attributable to them),	110.B98	<hr/>
	b) Recognises at its fair value, the consideration received, if any, distribution of shares of the subsidiary to owners in their capacity as owners and any investment retained in the former subsidiary when control is lost and subsequently accounts for it and for any amounts owed by or to the former subsidiary in accordance with relevant Ind AS,		<hr/>
	c) Recognises the gain or loss associated with the loss of control attributable to the former controlling interest,		<hr/>
	d) Reclassifies to profit or loss, or transfers directly to retained earnings if required by other Ind ASs, the amounts recognised in other comprehensive income in relation to the subsidiary on the same basis as would be required if the entity had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities, and		<hr/>
	e) Accounts for all amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in relation to that subsidiary on the same basis as would be required if the entity had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities. Any gain or loss previously recognised in other comprehensive income would be reclassified to profit or loss on the disposal of the related assets or liabilities. Any revaluation surplus previously recognised in other comprehensive income would be transferred directly to retained earnings on the disposal of the asset?	110.B99	<hr/>
13	Has the entity ensured that two or more arrangements that should be accounted for as a single transaction resulting in loss of control and having the following indicators, have been accounted for as per the requirement mentioned in Q 12 above:	110.B97
	a) They are entered into at the same time or in contemplation of each other,		<hr/>
	b) They form a single transaction designed to achieve an overall commercial effect,		<hr/>
	c) The occurrence of one arrangement is dependent on the occurrence of at least one other arrangement, and		<hr/>
	d) One arrangement considered on its own is not economically justified, but it is economically justified when considered together with other arrangements?		<hr/>

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
Determining whether an entity is an investment entity
14	Based on a consideration of all facts and circumstances including its purpose and design, has the entity met all of the following criteria (essential elements) for being considered an investment entity: (Refer ITFG bulletin 20 issue 2 clarification)	110.27
	a) It obtains funds from one or more investors for the purpose of providing those investor(s) with investment management services, as indicated below:
	i. Its business purpose is to invest solely for capital appreciation, investment income (such as dividends, interest or rental income), or both,
	(Note: Determining business purpose consideration includes reference to entity's offering memorandum, publications distributed by the entity and other corporate or partnership documents. Manner in which the entity presents itself to other parties (such as potential investors or potential investees); for example, an entity may present its business as providing medium-term investment for capital appreciation).	110.B85A 110.B85B
	ii. It may provide investment-related services (e.g. investment advisory services, investment management, investment support and administrative services), either directly or through a subsidiary, to third parties as well as to its investors even if those activities are substantial to the entity, subject to the entity continuing to meet the definition of an investment entity. It may also participate in providing management services and strategic advice to an investee and participate in providing financial support to an investee, such as a loan, capital commitment or guarantee either directly or through a subsidiary, if these activities are undertaken to maximise the investment return (capital appreciation or investment income) from its investees and do not represent a separate substantial business activity or a separate substantial source of income to the investment entity.	110.B85C 110.B85D
	iii. It does not plan to hold its investments indefinitely, i.e. it holds them for a limited period?
	(Note: An investment entity shall have an exit strategy (which may vary by type of investment) documenting how the entity plans to realise capital appreciation from substantially all of its equity investments and non-financial asset investments and for any debt instruments that have the potential to be held indefinitely like perpetual debt investments. Exit strategy is not required in case of investment in another investment entity formed in connection with the entity for legal, regulatory, tax or similar business reasons provided that the investment entity investee has appropriate exit strategies for its investments. Different potential exit strategies can be identified for different types or portfolios of investments (rather than for each individual investment) and should include a substantive time frame for exiting the investments.)	110.B85F 110.B85G 110.B85H

	It commits to its investor(s) that its business purpose is to invest funds solely for returns from capital appreciation, investment income, or both, and (Note: The entity is not investing solely for capital appreciation, investment income, or both, if the entity or another member of the group containing the entity (i.e. the group that is controlled by the investment entity's ultimate parent) obtains, or has the objective of obtaining, other benefits from the entity's investments that are not available to other parties that are not related to the investee.)	110.B85I	_____
c)	It measures and evaluates the performance of substantially all of its investments on a fair value basis as indicated below:
	i. It provides investors with fair value information and measure substantially all of its investments at fair value in its financial statements whenever fair value is required or permitted in accordance with Ind ASs, and (Note: To meet this, the entity elects the exemption from applying the equity method in Ind AS 28, Investment in Associates and Joint Ventures for its investments in associates and joint ventures; and measure its financial assets at fair value using the requirements in Ind AS 109, Financial Instruments. The fair value measurement element applies to an investment entity's investments. Accordingly, an investment entity need not measure its non-investment assets or its liabilities at fair value.)	110.B85K	_____
	ii. Investment entities: Accounting for change in status
18	If the entity ceases to be an investment entity has it accounted for (apply Ind AS 103 to any subsidiary that was previously measured at fair value through profit or loss) the change in its status prospectively from the date at which the change in status occurred?	110.B100	_____
Investment entities: Exception to consolidation
19	If the entity is an investment entity, has it ensured that it consolidates any subsidiaries (which are not investment entities themselves), whose main purpose and activities are providing services relating to the entity's investment activities, and applied the requirements of Ind AS 103 to the acquisition of any such subsidiary?	110.31	_____
20	Has the investment entity measured its investment in a subsidiary (other than that referred to in Q 19 above) at fair value through profit or loss in accordance with Ind AS 109? (Refer ITFG 20 bulletin 20 issue 2 clarification)	110.31	_____

- The 2013 Act considers control over composition of the board of directors or exercise or control of more than one-half of the total voting power of a company as the basis for deciding holding/subsidiary relationship. However, for the purpose of preparing consolidated financial statements under Ind AS, the holding/subsidiary relationship will be determined in accordance with Ind AS 110.
- The 2013 Act provides relief to unlisted subsidiary companies (wholly-owned and partially-owned subsidiaries of an Indian parent entity) from preparing consolidated financial statements. This relief is in line with the requirements of paragraph 4 of Ind AS 110. Subsidiaries of foreign companies in India have not been granted an exemption from the preparation of the consolidated financial statements.
- On 30 January 2020, the MCA issued amendments to the Companies (Accounts) Rules. As per the amendments, every, Non-Banking Financial Company (NBFC), which is required to comply with Ind AS should file their separate financial statements together with the consolidated financial statements with Registrar of Companies in the prescribed format. The amendments are effective from 5 February 2020.

Significant carve-outs from IFRS

- One of the essential requirements (under both IFRS 10, Consolidated Financial Statements, and Ind AS 110) for an entity to qualify as an investment entity is that the entity measures and evaluates the performance of substantially all of its investments on fair value basis. In this context IFRS 10 paragraph B85(a) provides that to meet this requirement, an entity would need to elect to account for any investment property using the fair value model in IAS 40, Investment Property. Ind AS 40, Investment Property, does not permit fair valuation of investment property. Consequently, above paragraph of IFRS 10 is not included in Ind AS 110.

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

- No specific requirement has been prescribed under ICDS relating to this standard.

Key requirements of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (Listing Regulations)

- If the entity is required to prepare and present financial reports under the Listing Regulations, such requirements do not specifically mandate full compliance with Ind AS 34. The provisions relating to recognition and measurement as per this standard would be applicable as far as compliance with Ind AS 34 is concerned. In addition, the specific requirements of the statute/regulation will have to be followed.
- Listed entities are required to provide their unaudited/audited, quarterly/half yearly financial results as the case may, as per the formats of the balance sheet and statement of profit and loss, prescribed in Schedule III to the 2013 Act.
- For further clarification please refer to Ind AS 34 checklist.

Some of the clarifications provided by the Ind AS Technical Facilitation Group (ITFG) and FAQs issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI)

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification Provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
Bulletin 5	Principle of control as per Ind AS 110 to be applied	110.4
(Issue 1)	In a certain case, an entity did not consolidate a subsidiary under AS 21, Consolidated Financial Statements, under previous GAAP, when control was intended to be temporary or there were severe long-term restrictions that impair the ability to transfer funds in the near future. The ITFG clarified that control definition as per Ind AS 110 would be applied to assess whether an investor controls another entity. Accordingly, since Ind AS 110 does not provide exemption from consolidation due to temporary control or severe long-term restrictions, the entity is required to consolidate all its subsidiaries unless they meet the specific exemption from consolidation.	(Q 1)
Bulletin 8	Accounting for accumulated losses of subsidiaries	110.B94
(Issue 6)	The ITFG clarified that an entity having a subsidiary/multiple subsidiaries with accumulated losses on the date of transition to Ind AS, should account for the accumulated losses of the subsidiary(ies) in its consolidated financial statements as below: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • When past business combinations are not restated based on the exemption in Ind AS 101, First-time adoption of Ind AS: The entity would be required to attribute the total profit or loss and each component of other comprehensive income to the owners of the parent and to the NCI prospectively, from the date of transition • When past business combinations are restated: The entity will be required to attribute the accumulated losses of the subsidiaries, to the owners of the parent and to the NCI, retrospectively from the date of application of Ind AS 103, in its consolidated financial statements on the date of transition. 	(Q 9 (j))
Bulletin 11	Consolidation of financial statements of a subsidiary following a different method of depreciation	110.19
(Issue 6)	ITFG clarified that selection of the method of depreciation is an accounting estimate, and not an accounting policy. Though Ind AS 110 requires members of the group to use uniform accounting policies for like transactions and other events in similar circumstances, this requirement is not applicable for accounting estimates made while preparing financial statements. Accordingly, a subsidiary can have a different method of estimating depreciation for Property, Plant and Equipment (PPE), if its expected pattern of consumption is different. The method once selected in the stand-alone financial statement of the subsidiary should not be changed while preparing the consolidated financial statements.	(Q 8)
Bulletin 11	Applicability of Ind AS to non-corporate entities	110.B87
(Issue 7)	ITFG clarified that Ind AS is applicable to corporates only, and non-corporates cannot apply it even voluntarily. However, where a non-corporate entity is a subsidiary/joint venture/associate of a company that is required to apply Ind AS, it will be required to prepare its financial statements data as per Ind AS for the purpose of consolidation.	(Q 9e)

FAQ on consolidation of LLP and partnership firms	Consolidation of subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures in the legal form of an LLP or partnership firm The ICAI clarified that an entity that controls a Limited Liability Partnership (LLP) and/or a partnership firm, or holds such LLP and/or partnership firm as its associate or joint venture, is required to consolidate the financial statements of such LLP and/or partnership firm while preparing its consolidated financial statements.	110.5 (Q 2)

Bulletin 12 (Issue 5)	Treatment of intra-group profit in consolidated financial statements ITFG considered a situation, where an entity (XYZ) was consolidating the financial statements of another entity (ABC) for the first time under Ind AS (since the other entity was not considered a 'subsidiary' under the previous GAAP). The entities had entered into a transaction for sale of an asset (with a profit margin for XYZ), that resulted in ABC recognising an item of PPE in its financial statements under previous GAAP. On transition to Ind AS, while preparing its consolidated financial statements, XYZ availed of the deemed cost exemption provided under para D7AA of Ind AS 101. In view of this, ITFG clarified that while consolidating the financial statements of ABC, XYZ would first have to eliminate the intra group profit recognised in PPE in the separate financial statements of ABC, in accordance with Ind AS 110. It would then apply the deemed cost exemption.	110.B86 (Q 9c)
Bulletin 13 (Issue 7)	Accounting for partial disposal of an investment in a subsidiary In a specific scenario where the stake of a parent in a particular subsidiary is reduced/diluted due to infusion of additional funds by another investor without a loss of control, ITFG concluded that this was in the nature of an equity transaction. Therefore, it would have no impact on goodwill or the statement of profit and loss. It clarified that NCI are recorded at fair value (or proportionate share in the recognised amounts of the acquiree's identifiable net assets, if chosen) only at the date of the business combination. Subsequent changes due to purchases or sales when control is maintained, are recorded at the NCI's proportionate share of the net assets. Additionally, the following disclosures should be made in the financial statements of the parent entity: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Separate Financial Statements (SFS): No impact and investment in the subsidiary would continue to be recognised at its carrying amount, but the dilution/reduction of shareholding, should be disclosed appropriately in the financial statements. • Consolidated Financial Statements (CFS): The entity is required to present a schedule that discloses the effects on the equity attributable to owners of the parent of any changes in its ownership interest in a subsidiary that do not result in a loss of control. 	110.B96 (Q 11)

Bulletin 17 (Issue 5)	Equity accounting in the CFS of investor in case of loss of control The ITFG clarified that when an investor loses control of a subsidiary, and instead retains a joint control (or an interest representing significant influence), it recognises such investment retained in the former subsidiary at its fair value. Such fair value is regarded as the cost on initial recognition of an investment in the joint venture (or an associate). Further, on acquisition of the investment (or on gaining such interest), any difference between the cost of the investment and the entity's share of the net fair value of the investee's identifiable assets and liabilities would be recognised as goodwill or directly in equity as capital reserve. Appropriate adjustments to the entity's share of the associate's or joint venture's profit or loss after acquisition are made in order to account, for example, for depreciation of the depreciable assets based on their fair values at the acquisition date. Similarly, appropriate adjustments to the entity's share of the associate's or joint venture's profit or loss after acquisition are made for impairment losses such as for goodwill or PPE. The fair value of identifiable assets and liabilities are considered to be the cost of the assets and liabilities for the investor to the extent of its share in the investee. Accordingly, appropriate adjustments arising out of fair valuation of assets/liabilities impacting profit or loss would be made in the CFS of the investor. (For further discussion on this clarification, please refer Ind AS 28 checklist)	110.25, Ind AS 28 (Q 12)

Glossary

Consolidated financial statements: The financial statements of a group in which the assets, liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows of the parent and its subsidiaries are presented as those of a single economic entity.

Control of an investee: An investor controls an investee when the investor is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee.

Decision maker: An entity with decision-making rights that is either a principal or an agent for other parties.

Group: A parent and its subsidiaries.

Investment entity: An entity that:

- a) Obtains funds from one or more investors for the purpose of providing those investor(s) with investment management services,
- b) Commits to its investor(s) that its business purpose is to invest funds solely for returns from capital appreciation, investment income, or both, and
- c) Measures and evaluates the performance of substantially all of its investments on a fair value basis.

Non-controlling interest: Equity in a subsidiary not attributable, directly or indirectly, to a parent.

Parent: An entity that controls one or more entities.

Power: Existing rights that give the current ability to direct the relevant activities.

Protective rights: Rights designed to protect the interest of the party holding those rights without giving that party power over the entity to which those rights relate.

Relevant activities: For the purpose of this Ind AS, relevant activities are activities of the investee that significantly affect the investee's returns.

Removal rights: Rights to deprive the decision maker of its decision-making authority.

Subsidiary: An entity that is controlled by another entity.

The following terms are defined in Ind AS 111, Ind AS 112, Ind AS 28 or Ind AS 24, and are used in this Ind AS with the meanings specified in those Ind ASs:

- Associate

Ind AS-111 Joint Arrangements

1. Executive summary

- Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 111, Joint Arrangements establishes principles for financial reporting by entities that have an interest in arrangements that are controlled jointly.
- A joint arrangement is an arrangement over which two or more parties have joint control and can be either in the form of a joint operation or a joint venture depending upon the rights and obligations of the parties to the arrangement.
- In a joint operation, the parties to the arrangement have rights to the assets and obligations for the liabilities related to the arrangement.
- In a joint venture, the parties to the arrangement have rights to the net assets of the arrangement.
- A joint arrangement not structured through a separate vehicle is a joint operation.
- A joint arrangement structured through a separate vehicle may be either a joint operation or a joint venture. Classification depends on the legal form of the vehicle, contractual arrangement and an assessment of 'other facts and circumstances'.
- A joint venturer accounts for its interest in a joint venture in the same way as an investment in an associate - i.e. generally under the equity method.
- A joint operator recognises its assets, liabilities and transactions - including its share in those arising jointly - in both its consolidated and separate financial statements. These assets, liabilities and transactions are accounted for in accordance with the relevant Ind ASs.

- A party to a joint venture that does not have joint control accounts for its interest as a financial instrument, or under the equity method if significant influence exists.
- A party to a joint operation that does not have joint control recognises its assets, liabilities and transactions - including its share in those arising jointly - if it has rights to the assets and obligations for the liabilities of the joint operation.

New development

On 30 March 2019 MCA notified an amendment to Ind AS 111 which provides additional guidance with regard to accounting for joint control obtained by a participant in a joint operation.

The amendment clarifies that a party that participates in a joint operation, but does not have joint control, and subsequently obtains joint control over the joint operation (which constitutes a business as defined in Ind AS 103, Business Combinations), would not be required to remeasure its previously held interests in the joint operation.

Effective date: The amendment is applicable prospectively from annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 April 2019¹.

Scope
1	If the entity is a party to a joint arrangement, has it applied this standard in accounting for such a joint arrangement?	111.3	_____
Joint arrangement
2	Has the entity determined if it is a party to an arrangement over which it has joint control along with other parties to the arrangement, based on the following characteristics:	111.4 111.5	_____
	a) The entity and other parties to the arrangement are bound by a contractual agreement (refer Q 3) and		_____
	b) The contractual arrangement gives two or more of the parties to the arrangement joint control of the arrangement (refer Q 4 and 5)?		_____
3	Are the entity and other parties to the arrangement bound by a contractual agreement as evidenced in one or more of the following ways:		_____
	a) There is an enforceable contractual arrangement, though not always in writing, in the form of a contract or documented discussion between the parties,	111.B2	_____
	b) If the arrangement is structured through the formation of a separate vehicle, the contractual arrangement is incorporated in the articles, charter or by-laws of the vehicle, or	111.B3	_____
	c) The contractual arrangement generally sets out the terms upon which the parties participate in the joint activity and generally deals with the following matters:	111.B4	_____
	i. The purpose, activity and duration of the joint arrangement,		_____
	ii. How the members of the board of directors, or equivalent governing body, of the joint arrangement, are appointed,		_____
	iii. The decision-making process: the matters requiring decisions from the parties, the voting rights of the parties and the required level of support for those matters,		_____
	iv. The capital or other contributions required of the parties, and		_____

	v. How the parties share assets, liabilities, revenues, expenses or profit or loss relating to the joint arrangement?		_____
	Joint control
4	Has the entity considered all facts and circumstances in determining that the contractual arrangement gives two or more parties (including the entity) joint control over the arrangement, based on the following considerations:
	a) Do all parties to the contractual arrangement need to act together to direct the activities that significantly affect the returns of the arrangement (relevant activities), indicating that there is collective control,	111.8 111.B5	_____
	b) Do decisions about the relevant activities require the unanimous consent of the parties that collectively control the arrangement, and	111.9 111.B6	_____
	(Note: For example: an arrangement in which each party has 50 per cent of the voting rights and the contractual arrangement between them specifies that at least 51 per cent of the voting rights are required to make decisions about the relevant activities. In this case, the parties have implicitly agreed that they have joint control of the arrangement because decisions about the relevant activities cannot be made without both parties agreeing.)	111.B7	_____
	c) Do the parties to the arrangement have the individual ability to prevent any of the other parties, or a group of parties, from making unilateral decisions about the relevant activities (and not merely decisions that give a party protective rights) without its consent?	111.10 111.B9	_____
	(Note: A party with joint control of an arrangement can prevent any of the other parties, or a group of the parties, from controlling the arrangement. This Ind AS distinguishes between parties that have joint control of a joint arrangement (joint operators or joint venturers) and parties that participate in, but do not have joint control of, a joint arrangement. If the joint control and unanimous consent requirements are not met, the arrangements are evaluated for other Ind ASs (Ind AS 110, Consolidated Financial Statements, Ind AS 28, Investments in Associates and Joint Ventures or Ind AS 109, Financial Instruments).)	111.11	_____
5	If there are any changes in facts and circumstances at the reporting date described in Q 4, has the entity reassessed whether it still has joint control of the arrangement?	111.13	_____

Types of joint arrangement
6	If the parties are bound by a framework agreement that sets out the general contractual terms for undertaking one or more activities and permits the parties to establish different joint arrangements to deal with specific activities that form part of the agreement, has the entity assessed the type of each joint arrangement separately to determine if it is a joint operation or a joint venture? (Note: Joint operations and joint ventures can coexist when the parties undertake different activities that form part of the same framework agreement.)	111.8	_____
Joint operations
7	Has the entity assessed the rights and obligations of the parties to determine that the joint arrangement in which it is involved, which is not structured through a separate vehicle, is a joint operation when it has the following characteristics:	111.14	_____
	a) The parties with joint control over the arrangement have rights to the assets and corresponding revenues, and obligations for the liabilities and corresponding expenses relating to the arrangement,	111.B16	_____
	b) The contractual arrangement usually describes the nature of the activities that are the subject of the arrangement and how the parties intend to undertake those activities together, and	111.B17	_____
	c) In case of parties agreeing to share and operate assets together, the contractual arrangement establishes the parties' rights to the asset that is operated jointly, and how output or revenue from the asset and operating costs are shared among the parties?	111.B18	_____
8	In case of a joint arrangement structured through a separate vehicle, is the joint arrangement classified as a joint operation, only when (based on assessment of the legal form of the separate vehicle, the terms of the contractual arrangement and, when relevant, any other facts and circumstances), it has rights to the assets, and obligations for the liabilities, relating to the arrangement as evidenced by one or more of the following:		_____
	a) The legal form does not confer separation between the parties and the separate vehicle (i.e. the assets and liabilities held in the separate vehicle are the parties' assets and liabilities),	111.B24	_____

b)	The terms of the contractual arrangement reverse or modify the rights and obligations conferred by the legal form of the separate vehicle either to provide specifically or in such a way that the parties have rights to the assets, and obligations for the liabilities relating to the arrangement in a specified proportion. It may also establish the allocation of revenues and expenses on the basis of the relative performance of each party to the joint arrangement, or	111.B26 111.B28	_____
c)	As per other facts and circumstances, the activities of an arrangement are primarily designed for the provision of output to the parties such that:
i.	It indicates that the parties have rights to substantially all the economic benefits of the assets of the arrangement, and (Note: In such cases, the parties often ensure their access to the outputs provided by the arrangement by preventing the arrangement from selling output to third parties.)	111.B31	_____
ii.	The effect of an arrangement with such a design and purpose is that the liabilities incurred by the arrangement are, in substance, satisfied by the cash flows received from the parties through their purchases of the output? (Note: When the parties are substantially the only source of cash flows contributing to the continuity of the operations of the arrangement, this indicates that the parties have an obligation for the liabilities relating to the arrangement. In other words, the arrangement depends on the parties on a continuous basis for settling the liabilities relating to the activity conducted through the arrangement.)	111.B32	_____
Joint venture
9	Has the entity determined that the joint arrangement in which it is involved, which is structured through a separate vehicle is a joint venture when:
a)	It gives the parties (joint venturers) to the joint arrangement rights to the net assets of the arrangement, and	111.B21	_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	b) It does not have any of the characteristics described in Q 8 above?	111.B33	_____
10	If there are any changes in facts and circumstances at the reporting date as mentioned in Q 6 to 9, has the entity reassessed whether the type of joint arrangement in which it is involved has changed?	111.19	_____ _____
	Financial statements of parties to a joint arrangement - joint operation
11	If the joint arrangement is a joint operation as per Q 7 and Q 8, has the entity (as a joint operator) recognised the following items in relation to its interest in the joint operation, in accordance with the relevant Ind AS applicable to such items:	111.20 111.21
	a) Its assets, including its share of any assets held jointly,		_____
	b) Its liabilities, including its share of any liabilities incurred jointly,		_____
	c) Its revenue from the sale of its share of the output arising from the joint operation,		_____
	d) Its share of the revenue from the sale of the output by the joint operation, and		_____
	e) Its expenses, including its share of any expenses incurred jointly?		_____
12	If the entity has acquired an initial or additional interest in a joint operation in which the activity of the joint operation constitutes a business, as defined in Ind AS 103, has the entity applied, to the extent of its share, the requirements of Ind AS 103 (as mentioned in Q 14) and other Ind AS, including disclosure requirements, to the extent they do not conflict with the requirements of this Ind AS?	111.21A	_____
13	Has the party that participates in a joint operation (but does not have joint control) subsequently obtained joint control over the joint operation (which constitutes a business as defined in Ind AS 103)?		_____
	If yes, then it would not be required to remeasure its previously held interests in the joint operation?		_____
	(Note: A party that participates in a joint operation but does not have joint control and subsequently obtains joint control over the joint operation (which constitutes a business as defined in Ind AS 103) would not be required to remeasure its previously held interests in the joint operation.)	113.B33CA

14	Where the entity is required to apply the guidance in Ind AS 103, as per Q 12, has the entity complied with the principles on business combinations accounting that do not conflict with this Ind AS, including, but not limited to:	111.B33A
	a) Measuring identifiable assets and liabilities at fair value, other than items for which exceptions are given in Ind AS 103 and other Ind AS,		_____
	b) Recognising acquisition-related costs as expenses in the periods in which the costs are incurred and the services are received, with the exception that the costs to issue debt or equity securities are recognised in accordance with Ind AS 32, Financial Instruments: Presentation and Ind AS 109,		_____
	c) Recognising deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities that arise from the initial recognition of assets or liabilities, except for deferred tax liabilities that arise from the initial recognition of goodwill, as required by Ind AS 103 and Ind AS 12, Income Taxes for business combinations,		_____

3. Additional considerations

Some of the key requirements from the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act)

- Preparation of separate/standalone financial statements is mandatory under the 2013 Act.

Significant carve-outs from IFRS

- Ind AS 111 requires Ind AS 103 accounting for common control transactions involving the acquisition of an interest in a joint operation when the parties are sharing joint control. IFRS 11, Joint Arrangements scopes out the same as IFRS 3, Business Combinations, does not deal with business combinations under common control.

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

- No specific requirements have been prescribed under ICDS relating to this standard.

Some of the clarifications provided by the Ind AS Technical Facilitation Group (ITFG)

- No specific clarifications have been provided by ITFG relating to this standard.

Glossary

Joint arrangement: An arrangement of which two or more parties have joint control.

Joint control: The contractually agreed sharing of control of an arrangement, which exists only when decisions about the relevant activities require the unanimous consent of the parties sharing control.

Joint operation: A joint arrangement whereby the parties that have joint control of the arrangement have rights to the assets, and obligations for the liabilities, relating to the arrangement.

Joint operator: A party to a joint operation that has joint control of that joint operation.

Joint venture: A joint arrangement whereby the parties that have joint control of the arrangement have rights to the net assets of the arrangement.

Joint venture: A party to a joint venture that has joint control of that joint venture.

Party to a joint arrangement: An entity that participates in a joint arrangement, regardless of arrangement whether that entity has joint control of the arrangement.

Separate vehicle: A separately identifiable financial structure, including separate legal entities or entities recognised by statute, regardless of whether those entities have a legal personality.

The following terms are defined in Ind AS 27, Ind AS 28 or Ind AS 110, and are used in this Ind AS with the meanings specified in those Ind ASs:

- Control of an investee
- Equity method
- Power
- Protective rights

Ind AS-112 Disclosure of Interest in Other Entities

1. Executive summary

- Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 112, Disclosure of Interest in Other Entities requires the entity to provide users with information that enables them to evaluate the nature of, and risks associated with, its interests in other entities and the effects of those interests on its financial position, financial performance and cash flows.
- This Ind AS shall be applied by an entity that has an interest in any of the following:
 - Subsidiaries,
 - Joint arrangements (i.e. joint operations or joint ventures),
 - Associates, and
 - Unconsolidated structured entities.
- All requirements of this Ind AS (except with respect to disclosure of summarised financial information) would also apply to subsidiaries, joint arrangements, associates and unconsolidated structured entities that are classified (or included in a disposal group that is classified) as held for sale or discontinued operations in accordance with Ind AS 105, Non-current Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations.
- If an entity has consolidated subsidiaries, then it provides information in its consolidated financial statements that helps users to understand the composition of the group and the interests of Non-Controlling Interests (NCI) in the group's activities and cash flows. This includes:
 - The nature and extent of significant restrictions on the entity's ability to access or use assets or settle liabilities of the group,
 - Specific information on any subsidiaries with material NCI, such as financial information for the subsidiary and information about the proportion of NCI and accumulated NCI,
 - The consequences of changes in its ownership in a subsidiary and of losing control, and
 - The nature of and any changes in the risk associated with the interests in consolidated structured entities.
- If the entity holds interests in joint arrangement and associates, then it provides information in its consolidated financial statement that helps users to understand the nature and risks associated with these interests. This includes:
 - Significant restrictions on a joint arrangement's ability to transfer cash dividends or to repay loans and advances,
 - The nature, extent and financial effect of holding an interest in a joint arrangement or an associate, and
 - Any commitments and contingent liabilities towards a joint arrangement or an associate.
- If the entity holds interests in consolidated structured entities, then it discloses the terms of any contractual arrangement that could require it to provide financial support to the consolidated structured entity.
- If the entity holds interests in unconsolidated structured entities, then it provides disclosures that enable users to understand the specific risks arising from holding these interests and the nature of these interests. The required disclosures include:
 - General information about interests in unconsolidated entities – such as the nature, purpose, size and activities of an unconsolidated structured entity, and
 - Information about the nature of risk – such as carrying amounts of assets and liabilities recognised in the consolidated financial statements, maximum exposure to loss from the holding and any commitments to provide financial support.
- If the entity does not hold an interest in an unconsolidated structured entity, but has sponsored such an entity, then it discloses the following:
 - The method for determining how a sponsored entity has been identified,
 - Income from the structured entity in the reporting period, and
 - The carrying amount of all the assets transferred to the structured entity during the reporting period.
- An investment entity discloses quantitative data about its exposure to risks arising from unconsolidated subsidiaries.
- To the extent that an investment entity does not have 'typical' characteristics, it discloses the significant judgements and assumptions made in concluding that it is an investment entity.

3. Additional considerations

Some of the key requirements from the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act)

- Given that consolidation is mandatory under the 2013 Act, these disclosures are mandatorily required in the Ind AS financial statements.
- The standard also applies to standalone/separate financial statements of the entity which has interests in unconsolidated structured entities and prepares separate financial statements as its only financial statements. (Refer Q 14 – Q 19 and Q 24 – Q 28 in above checklist when preparing those separate financial statements.)

Significant carve-outs from IFRS

- No significant carve-outs from IFRS have been provided in this standard.

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

- No specific requirement has been prescribed under the ICDS relating to this standard.

Glossary

Income from a structured entity includes, but is not limited to, recurring and non-recurring fees, interest, dividends, gains or losses on the re-measurement or derecognition of interests in structured entities and gains or losses from the transfer of assets and liabilities to the structured entity.

Interest in another entity refers to contractual and non-contractual involvement that exposes an entity to variability of returns from the performance of the other entity. An interest in another entity can be evidenced by, but is not limited to, the holding of equity or debt instruments as well as other forms of involvement such as the provision of funding, liquidity support, credit enhancement and guarantees. It includes the means by which an entity has control or joint control of, or significant influence over, another entity. An entity does not necessarily have an interest in another entity solely because of a typical customer supplier relationship.

Structured entity-An entity that has been designed so that voting or similar rights are not the dominant factor in deciding who controls the entity, such as when any voting rights relate to administrative tasks only and the relevant activities are directed by means of contractual arrangements.

Ind AS-113 Fair Value Measurement

1. Executive summary

- Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 113 Fair Value Measurement, applies to most fair value measurements and disclosures that are required or permitted under Ind AS.
- Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date i.e. an exit price. Market participants are independent of each other, they are knowledgeable and have a reasonable understanding of the asset or liability, and they are willing and able to transact.
- Fair value measurement assumes that a transaction takes place in the principal market (i.e. the market with the greatest volume and level of activity) for the asset or liability or, in the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market for the asset or liability.
- There are three general approaches to valuation, with various techniques applied under those approaches:
 - The market approach e.g. quoted prices in an active market,
 - The income approach e.g. discounted cash flows, and
 - The cost approach e.g. depreciated replacement cost
- A fair value hierarchy is established based on the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value.
- A premium or discount (e.g. a control premium) may be an appropriate input to a valuation technique, but only if it is consistent with the relevant unit of account.
- The inputs are categorised into three levels, with the highest priority given to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities and the lowest priority given to unobservable inputs. Appropriate valuation technique(s) should be used, maximising the use of relevant observable inputs and minimising the use of unobservable inputs.
- Fair value on initial recognition generally equals the transaction price.
- Non- financial assets are measured based on their 'highest and best use'- i.e. the use that would maximise the value of the asset (or group of assets) for a market participant.
- In the absence of quoted prices for the transfer of the instrument, a liability or an entity's own equity instruments is valued from the perspective of a market participant that holds the corresponding asset. Failing that, other valuation techniques are used to value the liability or own equity instrument from the perspective of a market participant that owes the liability or has issued the equity instrument.
- The fair value of a liability reflects non-performance risk, which is assumed to be the same before and after the transfer of the liability.
- Certain groups of financial assets and financial liabilities with offsetting market or credit risks may be measured based on the net risk exposure.
- For assets or liabilities with bid and ask prices, the entity uses the price within the bid-ask spread that is most representative of fair value in the circumstances. The use of bid prices for assets and ask prices for liabilities is permitted.
- Guidance is provided on measuring fair value when there has been a decline in the volume or level of activity in a market, and when transactions are not orderly.
- A comprehensive disclosure framework is designed to help users of financial statements assess the valuation techniques and inputs used in fair value measurements, and the effect on profit or loss or other comprehensive income of recurring fair value measurements that are based on significant unobservable inputs.

2. Checklist

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
Applicability
This standard shall be applied in determining fair value measurement except when another standard requires or permits a different accounting treatment.
Objective
1	If the entity has the following types of transactions, has the entity ensured that these are measured based on the guidance in the relevant Ind AS and are not included within the scope of this standard:	113.6
	a) Share-based payment transactions within the scope of Ind AS 102, Share-based Payment ,		_____
	b) Leasing transactions within the scope of Ind AS 116, Leases ¹ , and		_____
	c) Measurements that have some similarities to fair value but are not fair value, such as net realisable value in Ind AS 2, Inventories , or value in use in Ind AS 36, Impairment of Assets ?		_____
2	If the entity has the following types of transactions, have disclosures been presented in accordance with the relevant Ind AS and not in accordance with this standard:	113.7
	a) Plan assets measured at fair value in accordance with Ind AS 19, Employee Benefits , and		_____
	b) Assets for which recoverable amount is fair value less costs of disposal in accordance with Ind AS 36?		_____
3	Has the fair value measurement been applied to both initial and subsequent measurement if fair value is required or permitted by any other Ind AS?	113.8
4	Has the entity taken into account characteristics like the condition and location of the asset, restrictions on the sale or use of asset for determining the fair value of the asset?	113.11

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
5	The asset or liability measured at fair value might be either of the following:	113.13 113.14
	i) A stand-alone asset or liability (e.g. a financial instrument or a non-financial asset), or
	ii) A group of assets, a group of liabilities or a group of assets and liabilities (e.g. a cash-generating unit or a business).
	Has the entity determined the 'unit of account' for an asset or liability, in order to assess whether the asset or liability is a stand-alone asset or liability, a group of assets, a group of liabilities or a group of assets and liabilities for recognition or disclosure purposes?		<hr/>
	(Note: The unit of account for the asset or liability shall be determined in accordance with the Ind AS that requires or permits the fair value measurement, except as provided in this Ind AS.)
6	For determining the fair value, has the entity appropriately considered the following:	113.16 113.17
	a) Principal market,		<hr/>
	b) The most advantageous market, or		<hr/>
	c) The market in which the entity would normally enter into a transaction to sell the asset?		<hr/>
7	Has the entity ensured that it has used the price in the principal market for the asset or liability, for which the said market is available, even if the price in a different market is potentially more advantageous as at the measurement date?	113.18	<hr/>
8	If the entity has access to the principal market at the measurement date, has this price been used even if no observable market is available to provide pricing information about the sale of an asset or the transfer of a liability at the measurement date?	113.19 113.21	<hr/>
9	Has the entity measured the fair value using the assumptions that the market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, assuming that market participants act in their economic best interest?	113.22	<hr/>
10	In developing the assumptions required in Q 9, has the entity identified characteristics that distinguish market participants considering the factors specific to the following:	113.23	<hr/>
	a) The asset or liability,		<hr/>

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	b) The principal market for the asset or liability, and		_____
	c) Market participants with whom the entity would enter into a transaction in a market?		_____
11	a) Has the entity ensured that the price in the principal market has not been adjusted for transaction costs?	113.25	_____
	b) Has the entity accounted for the transaction costs in accordance with other Ind ASs?		_____
12	If location is an important characteristic of the asset, has the price in the principal market been adjusted for the costs, if any, that would be incurred to transport the asset from its current location to that market?	113.26	_____
Application to non-financial assets
13	a) For fair value measurement of a non-financial asset, has the entity taken into account the ability of the market participant to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use?	113.27 113.28	_____
	b) For determining the highest and best use, has the entity taken into account the use of the asset that is:		_____
	i. Physically feasible,		_____
	ii. Legally permissible, and		_____
	iii. Financially feasible?		_____
14	Has the entity assumed that the current use of the non-financial asset is the highest and best use unless market participants suggest that a different use by the market participants would maximise the value of the asset?	113.29 113.30	_____
Valuation premise for non-financial assets
15	Has the entity evaluated the following to measure the fair value:	113.31	_____
	a) If the highest and best use of the asset is to use the asset in combination with other assets or with other assets and liabilities, then is the fair value of that asset the price that		_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	would be received in a current transaction to sell the asset assuming that the asset would be used with other assets or with other assets and liabilities and that those would be available to market participants,		_____
	b) Do liabilities associated with the asset and with the complementary assets include liabilities that fund working capital, but do not include liabilities used to fund assets other than those within the group of assets,		_____
	c) Are the assumptions about the highest and best use of a non-financial asset consistent for all the assets (for which highest and best use is relevant) of the group of assets or the group of assets and liabilities within which the asset would be used, and		_____
	d) If the highest and best use of the asset is to use it on a stand-alone basis, then has the entity ensured that the fair value of that asset is the price that would be received in a current account transaction to sell the asset to market participants that would use the asset on a stand-alone basis?		_____
	Application to liabilities and entity's own equity instruments
16	When a fair value measurement assumes that a liability or an entity's own equity instrument is transferred to a market participant at the measurement date, has the entity assumed the following:	113.34
	a) A liability would remain outstanding and the market participant transferee would be required to fulfil the obligation. The liability would not be settled with the counterparty or otherwise extinguished on the measurement date,		_____
	b) The entity's own equity instrument would remain outstanding and the market participant transferee would take on the rights and responsibilities associated with the instrument, and		_____
	c) The instrument would not be cancelled or otherwise extinguished on the measurement date?		_____
17	If there is no observable market to provide pricing information about the transfer of liability or the entity's own equity	113.35	_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	instrument, has the entity taken into consideration an observable market for such times where they are held by other parties as assets?		_____
	Liability and equity instruments held by other parties as assets
18	Where a quoted price for the transfer of an identical or a similar liability or entity's own equity instrument is not available, has the entity measured the fair value of liability or equity instrument from the perspective of market participant who holds the identical item as an asset at the measurement date?	113.37	_____
19	Has the entity measured the fair value of liability or equity by using the following:	113.38	_____
	a) Quoted price in an active market for the identical item held by another party as an asset, if the price is available,		_____
	b) If the quoted price is not available, then by using other observable inputs, such as the quoted price in a market that is not active for the identical item held by another party as an asset, or		_____
	c) If the observable prices in (a) and (b) are not available, using another valuation technique such as income approach and market approach?		_____
20	If there are any factors specific to the asset that are not applicable to the fair value measurement of the liability or equity, has the entity adjusted quoted price of a liability or the entity's own equity instrument held by another party as an asset?	113.39	_____
21	Has entity ensured that price of the asset does not reflect the effect of a restriction preventing the sale of that asset?	113.39	_____
	Liability and equity instruments not held by other parties as assets
22	If the identical item is not held by another party as an asset, has the entity measured the fair value using valuation techniques from the perspective of market participant that owes the liability or has issued the claim on equity?	113.40	_____
23	In case the entity has applied present value technique has it taken into consideration either of the following:	113.41	_____
	a) The future cash outflows that a market participant would		_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	expect to incur in fulfilling the obligation, including the compensation that a market participant would require for taking on the obligation, or b) The amount that a market participant would receive to enter into or issue an identical liability or equity instrument, using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the identical item (e.g. having the same credit characteristics) in the principal (or most advantageous) market for issuing a liability or an equity instrument with the same contractual terms? (Refer ITFG bulletin 16 issue 1 clarification)		_____
	Non-performance risk
24	Has the entity assumed the non-performance risk to be same before and after the transfer of liability?	113.42	_____
25	While measuring the fair value of a liability, has the entity taken into account the effect of its credit risk and any other factors that might influence the likelihood that the obligation will or will not be fulfilled?	113.43	_____
	Restriction preventing the transfer of a liability or an entity's own equity instrument
26	Has the entity ensured that in measuring the fair value of a liability or an entity's own equity instrument, no separate input or an adjustment to other inputs relating to the existence of a restriction that prevents the transfer of the item is considered?	113.45	_____
	Financial liability with demand feature
27	If the entity has any financial liability with a demand feature, has the entity ensured that the fair value of financial liability is not less than amount payable on demand? (Refer bulletins- (ITFG 15 issue 9) and (ITFG 17 issue 9) clarifications)	113.47	_____
	Application to financial assets and financial liabilities with offsetting positions in market risks or counterparty credit risk
28	If the entity manages any group of financial assets and financial liabilities on the basis of its net exposure to either market risks	113.48	_____

	or credit risk, has the entity applied the exception to measure the fair value on the basis of the price that would be received to sell a net long position (i.e. an asset) for a particular risk exposure or paid to transfer a net short position (i.e. a liability)?		_____
29	Has the entity applied the exception in Q28 only when it has satisfied all the following conditions: (Note: This exception does not pertain to financial statement presentation.) a) The entity manages the group of financial assets and financial liabilities on the basis of its net exposure to a particular market risk (or risks) or to the credit risk of a particular counterparty in accordance with the entity's documented risk management or investment strategy, b) The entity provides information on that basis about the group of financial assets and financial liabilities to the its key management personnel, as defined in Ind AS 24, Related Party Disclosures , and c) The entity is required or has elected to measure those financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value in the balance sheet at the end of each reporting period?	113.49 113.50	_____
30	Has the entity applied the exception in Q28 only to financial assets, financial liabilities and other contracts within the scope of Ind AS 109, Financial Instruments ?	113.52	_____
	Exposure to market risks
31	While using the exception to measure the fair value for a group of financial assets and financial liabilities, has the entity applied the price within the bid-ask spread which is the most representative of the fair value in the circumstances to the entity's net exposure to those market risks?	113.53	_____
32	While using the exception, has the entity ensured that the market risks which the entity is exposed to within the group of financial assets and liabilities is substantially the same?	113.54	_____
33	Has the entity ensured that the duration of exposure to a particular market risk arising from the financial assets and financial liabilities are substantially the same?	113.55	_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
Fair value at initial recognition
34	If the fair value at initial recognition equals transaction price, has the entity taken into consideration the following factors specific to the transaction and to the asset or liability: a) Whether the transaction is between related parties, b) Whether the transaction takes place under duress or the seller is forced to accept the price in the transaction, c) Whether the unit of account represented by the transaction price is different from the unit of account for the asset or liability measured at fair value, and d) Whether the market in which the transaction takes place is different from the principal market (or most advantageous market)?	113.58 113.59	_____ _____ _____ _____
35	In case the transaction price differs from the fair value, has the entity recorded resultant gain or loss in profit or loss?	113.60	_____
Valuation techniques
36	Has the entity used a valuation technique that is appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data is available to measure fair value, maximising the use of relevant observable inputs and minimising the use of unobservable inputs? For example, three widely used valuation techniques are: a) Market approach, b) Cost approach, or c) Income approach.	113.62	_____
37	a) Has the entity used a single valuation technique only when appropriate (for example, when valuing an asset or liability using quoted prices in an active market for identical assets or liabilities)? b) If multiple valuation techniques are considered (when more appropriate), have the results been evaluated considering the reasonableness of the range of values indicated by those results?	113.63	_____ _____
38	a) Has the entity ensured that the valuation technique used to measure the fair value are applied consistently?	113.65	_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	b) If there has been a change in valuation technique or its application, has the entity ensured that the change results in measurement that is equally or more representative of fair value in the given circumstances? (Note: For example: new market develops, new information becomes available, valuation techniques improve or market conditions change.)		_____
39	Have revisions resulting from change in valuation technique or its application has been accounted as per Ind AS 8, Accounting policies, changes in accounting estimates and errors? (Note: The disclosures in Ind AS 8 for a change in accounting estimate are not required for revisions resulting from a change in a valuation technique or its application.)	113.66	_____
	Inputs to valuation techniques
40	Has the entity selected the inputs that are consistent with the characteristics of the asset or liability that market participants would take into account in a transaction? (Note: A fair value measurement shall not incorporate a premium or discount that is inconsistent with the unit of account in the Ind AS that requires or permits fair value measurement. Premiums or discounts that reflect size as a characteristic of the entity's holding are not permitted in a fair value measurement.)	113.69	_____
41	Has entity considered the following markets in identifying the observable inputs for assets and liabilities: a) Exchange markets, b) Dealer markets, c) Brokered markets, and d) Principal-to-principal markets? (Note: The disclosures in Ind AS 8 for a change in accounting estimate are not required for revisions resulting from a change in a valuation technique or its application.)	113.68	_____ _____ _____ _____
	Inputs based on bid and ask prices
42	If an asset or liability measured at fair value has a bid price and	113.70

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	an ask price, whether the entity has measured the fair value within the bid-ask spread? (Note: This Ind AS does not preclude the use of mid-market pricing or other pricing conventions that are used by market participants as a practical expedient for fair value measurements within a bid-ask spread.)		_____
Fair value hierarchy
43	Has the entity given the highest priority to quoted prices (unadjusted) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs?	113.72
44	a) Are the inputs used to measure the fair value categorised within different levels of the fair value hierarchy?	113.73 113.74	_____
	b) If yes, has the fair value measurement been categorised in its entirety in the same level of the fair value hierarchy as the lowest level input that is significant to the entire measurement?		_____
	c) Has the fair value hierarchy prioritised the inputs to valuation techniques, not the valuation techniques used to measure fair value?		_____
45	If an observable input requires an adjustment with an unobservable input, and that adjustment results in a significantly higher or lower fair value measurement, has the entity categorised the resulting measurement within Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy?	113.75	_____
Level 1 inputs
46	a) Has the entity used the quoted prices (unadjusted) in an active market for identical assets or liability to measure the fair value?	113.76 113.78	_____
	b) Have the following two conditions been determined for Level I input:
	i. The principal market for the asset or liability or, in the absence of a principal market, the most advantageous market for the asset or liability, and		_____
	ii. Whether the entity can enter into a transaction for the asset or liability at the price in that market at the measurement date?		_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
47	Has the entity ensured that it has not made any adjustment relating to Level 1 input except in the following cases: a) The quoted price is available in the market but not readily accessible, b) The quoted price does not represent the fair value as at the measurement date, or c) When measuring the fair value of a liability or an entity's own equity instrument using the quoted price for an identical item, the price needs to be adjusted for factors specific to this asset?	113.79	<hr/> <hr/> <hr/>
Level 2 inputs
48	a) Does the level 2 input include the following: i. Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets, ii. Quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active, iii. Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability, or iv. Market-corroborated inputs? b) If the asset or liability has a specified contractual term, is the Level 2 input observable for the full term of the asset or liability?	113.82	<hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>
49	Has the entity considered the following factors in making adjustments to Level 2 inputs: a) The condition or location of the asset, b) The extent to which input relate to items that are comparable to the asset or liability, and c) The volume or level of activity in the markets within which inputs are observed.	113.83	<hr/> <hr/>
50	If the adjustments to Level 2 inputs have used significant unobservable inputs, has the entity ensured that fair value measurement is categorised within Level 3 of the hierarchy?	113.84	<hr/>
Level 3 inputs
51	Has entity ensured that the unobservable inputs are used only to the extent that relevant observable inputs are not available to measure the fair value?	113.87	<hr/>

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
52	Has the entity considered an adjustment for risk in a fair value measurement if market participants would include one when pricing the asset or liability?	113.88	_____
Disclosure
53	Has the entity disclosed the following:	113.91
	a) For assets and liabilities that are measured at fair value on a recurring or non-recurring basis in the balance sheet after initial recognition, the valuation techniques and inputs used to develop those measurements, and		_____
	b) For recurring fair value measurements using significant unobservable inputs (Level 3), the effect of the measurements on profit or loss or other comprehensive income for the period?		_____
54	Has the entity disclosed, at a minimum, the following information for each class of assets and liabilities measured at fair value in the balance sheet after initial recognition:	113.93
	a) For recurring and non-recurring fair value measurements, the fair value measurement at the end of the reporting period, and for non-recurring fair value measurements, the reason for the measurement,		_____
	b) For recurring and non-recurring fair value measurements, the level of the fair value hierarchy (Level 1, 2, or 3),		_____
	c) If there are any transfers between level 1 and level 2 of the hierarchy, the reasons for those transfers,		_____
	d) A description of the valuation technique (s) and the inputs used in the fair value measurement for the items categorised within Level 2 and Level 3 of the hierarchy,		_____
	e) If there has been change in the valuation technique, that change and the reasons for making it,		_____
	f) For fair value measurements categorised within Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy, quantitative information about the significant unobservable inputs,		_____
	g) For recurring fair value measurements categorised within Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy, a reconciliation from the

57	If an entity has made an accounting policy decision to use the exception in Q 28, has it disclosed the same?	113.96	_____
58	Has the entity disclosed the information required by Q 54(b), (d), and (i) for each class of assets and liabilities not measured at fair value but for which the fair value is disclosed?	113.97	_____
59	If the entity has issued a liability with inseparable third-party credit enhancement and measured the same at fair value, has the entity disclosed the existence of that credit enhancement and whether it is reflected in the fair value measurement of the liability?	113.98	_____
60	Has the entity presented the quantitative disclosures required by this Ind AS in a tabular format unless other format is more appropriate?	113.99	_____
Valuation techniques
Market approach
61	If the entity has used a market approach to measure fair value, has the entity used market multiples derived from a set of comparable assets, liabilities or a group of assets and liabilities?	113.B5 113.B6	_____
62	Has the entity used matrix pricing to value financial instruments such as debt securities etc.?	113.B7	_____
Cost approach
63	If the entity has used cost approach to measure fair value, does the cost approach reflect the amount that would be required currently to replace the service capacity of an asset?	113.B8	_____
Income approach
64	a) Has the entity measured the fair value by using any of the following techniques:	113.B11	_____
	i. Present value techniques,		_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ii. Option pricing models, or iii. Multi-period excess earnings method? 		<hr/> <hr/> <hr/>
	b) If not, is the valuation technique used by the entity appropriate and relevant?		<hr/>
	Component of present value management
65	Does the fair value measurement using the present value technique include the following elements:	113.B13
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) An estimate of future cash flows for the asset or liability being measured, b) Expectations about possible variations in the amount and timing of the cash flows representing the uncertainty inherent in the cash flows, c) The time value of money, represented by the rate on risk-free monetary assets that have maturity dates or durations that coincide with the period covered by the cash flows and pose neither uncertainty in timing nor risk of default to the holder (i.e. a risk-free interest rate), d) The price for bearing the uncertainty inherent in the cash flows (i.e. a risk premium), e) Other factors that market participants would take into account in the circumstances, and f) For a liability, the non-performance risk relating to that liability, including the entity's (i.e. the obligor's) own credit risk? 		<hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>
	Risk and uncertainty
66	Does the fair value measurement include the risk premium as a compensation for uncertainty inherent in the cash flow?	113.B16	<hr/>
67	Do the present value techniques (which may differ in how they adjust for risk and the type of cash flows), fall into either of the following categories:	113.B17
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Discount rate adjustment technique, that uses a risk-adjusted discount rate, b) Method 1 of the expected present value technique that uses risk-adjusted expected cash flows and a risk-free rate, or 	113.B25	<hr/>

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	c) Method 2 of the expected present value technique that uses expected cash flows that are not risk-adjusted and a discount rate adjusted to include the risk premium that market participants require?	113.B26	_____
	Discount rate adjustment technique
68	Is the discount rate used in the discount rate adjustment technique derived from observable rates of return for comparable assets or liabilities that are traded in the market?	113.B18	_____
69	In case of fixed receipts or payments, does the discount rate adjustment technique take into account the adjustment for inherent risk?	113.B22	_____
	Applying present value techniques to liabilities and an entity's own equity instruments not held by other parties as assets
70	a) While measuring the fair value of a liability that is not held by another party as an asset, has the entity estimated future cash flows that market participants would expect to incur in fulfilling the obligation?	113.B31	_____
	b) Does such compensation include the return that a market participant would require for the following:
	i. Undertaking the activity, i.e. the value of fulfilling the obligation, (e.g. by using resources that could be used for other activities), and		_____
	ii. Assuming the risk associated with the obligation (i.e. a risk premium that reflects the risk that the actual cash outflows might differ from the expected cash outflows)?		_____

3. Additional considerations

Some of the key requirements from the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act)

- In October 2017, Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA) notified the section on valuation by registered valuers under the 2013 Act and issued the Companies (Registered Valuers and Valuation) Rules, 2017 (the Rules). As per these, while performing the valuation of property, stock, shares, debentures, securities, goodwill, any other assets, net worth of a company, or its liabilities under the 2013 Act or its rules, a registered valuer, is required to adhere to the requirements of the Rules.
- While valuation standards are yet to be issued and notified under the 2013 Act by MCA, in August 2018, the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) issued the 'ICAI Valuation Standards' (ICAI VS), which would be applicable for all valuation engagements on mandatory basis under the 2013 Act. These valuation standards are recommendatory for valuation engagements under other statutes like Income Tax, Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI), Foreign Exchange Management Act (FEMA), etc. These standards are effective for valuation reports issued on or after 1 July 2018.

Significant carve-outs from IFRS

- No significant carve-outs from IFRS have been provided in this standard

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

- There is no specific guidance on fair value measurement under ICDS.
- Most of the guidance under ICDS refers to historical cost measurement. Thus, most of the fair value guidance may result in difference in treatment for tax purposes

Glossary

Active market, is a market in which transactions for the asset or liability take place with sufficient frequency and volume to provide pricing information on an ongoing basis.

Cost Approach, is a valuation technique that reflects the amount that would be required currently to replace the service capacity of an asset (often referred to as current replacement cost).

Highest and best use, is the use of the non-financial asset by market participants that would maximise the value of the asset or the group of assets and liabilities (e.g. a business) within which the asset would be used.

Income approach, is a valuation technique the convert the future amounts (e.g. cash flows or income and expenses) to a single current (i.e. discounted) amount. The fair value measurement is determined on the basis of the value of indicated by the current market expectations about those future amounts.

Inputs, are the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, including assumptions about risk such as the risk inherent in a particular valuation technique used to measure fair value and the risk inherent in the inputs to the valuation technique. Inputs may be observable or unobservable.

Level 1 inputs, are the quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the entity can access at the measurement date.

Level 2 inputs, are the inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability either directly or indirectly.

Level 3 inputs, are unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

Market – corroborated inputs, are the inputs that are derived principally or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.

Most advantageous market, is the market that maximises the amount that would be received to sell the asset or minimises the amount that would be paid to transfer the liability, after taking into account transactions costs and transport costs.

Observable inputs, are inputs that are developed using market data, such as publicly available information about actual events or transactions, and that reflect the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability.

Principal market, is the market with the greatest volume and level of activity for the asset or liability.

Transaction costs, are the costs to sell an asset or transfer a liability in the principal (or most advantageous) market for the asset or liability that are directly attributable to the disposal of the asset or the transfer of liability and meet both of the following criteria:

- a) They result directly from and are essential to that transaction,
- b) They would not have been incurred by the entity had the decision to sell the asset or transfer the liability not been made.

Transport costs, are the costs that would be incurred to transport an asset from its current location to its principal (or most advantageous) market.

Unit of account, is the level at which an asset or liability is aggregated or disaggregated in an Ind AS for recognition purposes.

Unobservable inputs, are the inputs for which market data are not available and that are developed using the best information available about the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability.

Ind AS-114 Regulatory Deferral Accounts

1. Executive summary

- Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 114, Regulatory Deferral Accounts specifies the financial reporting requirements for regulatory deferral account balances that arise when an entity provides goods or services to customers at a price or rate that is subject to rate regulation.
- The entity is eligible to apply the standard only if it:
 - Is subject to oversight and/or approval from an authorised body (the rate regulator),
 - Accounted for regulatory deferral account balances in its financial statements under its previous GAAP immediately before adopting Ind AS, and
 - Elects to apply the requirements of the standard in its first Ind AS financial statements.
- Adoption of the standard is optional for eligible entities, but the decision to apply it has to be taken in the entity's first Ind AS financial statements.
- The standard permits an eligible entity to continue to recognise and measure regulatory deferral account balances in accordance with its previous GAAP when it adopts Ind AS. Under Ind AS 114, Guidance Note on Accounting for Rate Regulated Activities issued by The Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) would be considered as previous GAAP.
- Regulatory deferral account balances are presented separately from assets, liabilities, income and expenses that are recognised in accordance with other Ind ASs.
- The normal requirements of other Ind ASs apply to regulatory deferral account balances, subject to some exceptions, exemptions and additional requirements that are specified in the standard, including:
 - Presentation of earnings per share both including and excluding the net movement in regulatory deferral account balances,
 - Application of the requirements of the impairment standard to a cash-generating unit that includes regulatory deferral account balances,
 - Exclusion from the measurement requirements of the standard on non-current assets held for sale and discontinued operations,
 - Application of uniform accounting policies to the regulatory deferral account balances of all of an entity's subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures in its consolidated financial statements, regardless of whether those investees account for those balances,
 - Application of business combinations guidance, with an exception for the recognition and measurement of an acquiree's regulatory deferral account balances,
 - Additional disclosure requirements if an entity's interests in its subsidiaries, associates or joint ventures contain regulatory deferral account balances, and
 - The option to use the deemed cost exemption on transition to Ind AS for items of property, plant and equipment or intangible assets that are, or were previously, used in operations that are subject to rate regulation.
- The entity shall provide disclosures that enable users of the financial statements to evaluate the nature of risks associated with and effects of rate regulation.

New development

In December 2019, the Accounting Standards Board (ASB) of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) has issued an Exposure Draft (ED) of amendment to Conceptual Framework for Financial Reporting under Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS). Further the above ED proposes amendments to nine Ind AS including Ind AS 114¹.

¹ The proposal is currently only an ED.

2. Checklist

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
Objective
The objective of this standard is to specify the financial reporting requirements for regulatory deferral account balances that arise when an entity provides goods or services to customers at a price or rate that is subject to rate regulation.
Scope
1	Has the entity applied this standard in its first Ind AS financial statements if, and only if, it:	114.5	<hr/> <hr/>
	a) Conducts rate regulated activities, and b) Recognised amounts that qualify as regulatory deferral account balances in its financial statements in accordance with its previous GAAP?
2	If this is not the first Ind AS financial statements prepared by the entity, has the entity applied the requirements of this standard if and only if, it recognised regulatory deferral account balances by electing to apply this standard in its first Ind AS financial statements?	114.6	<hr/> <hr/>
	(Note: If the entity subject to rate regulation has come into existence after Ind AS coming into force, or the entity's activities become subject to rate regulation subsequent to preparation of its first Ind AS financial statements, it shall be entitled to apply the requirements of previous GAAP in respect of its rate regulated activities (refer Q 5 to 7.))
3	If the entity is within the scope of this standard (refer Q 1) and elects to apply this standard, has the entity applied all of the requirements of this standard to all regulatory deferred account balances that arise from all of the entity's rate regulated activities?	114.8	<hr/>
Recognition, measurement, impairment and derecognition
4	When electing to apply this standard, has the entity also applied paragraphs 10 and 12 of Ind AS 8, Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors , when developing its accounting policies for the recognition, measurement, impairment and derecognition of regulatory deferral account balances?	114.9	<hr/>

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
Continuation of existing accounting policies
5	On initial application of this standard, has the entity continued to apply previous GAAP accounting policies for the recognition, measurement, impairment and derecognition of regulatory deferral account balances, except for any changes permitted in Q 8 and Q 9?	114.11	_____
6	When the entity continues to apply previous GAAP accounting policies to regulatory deferral account balances (as per Q 5), has it complied with the requirements of this standard (refer Q 12) for presentation of such amounts, even if it requires changes to the entity's previous GAAP presentation policies?	114.11	_____
7	Has the entity applied the policies established in accordance with Q 5 and Q 6 consistently, except for changes permitted in Q 8 and Q 9?	114.12	_____
Changes in accounting policies
8	Has the entity ensured that it has not changed its accounting policies in order to start recognising regulatory deferral account balances, except as permitted in Q 9?	114.13	_____
9	Has the entity changed its accounting policies for regulatory deferral account balances only if the change makes the financial statements more relevant to the economic decision-making needs of users and no less reliable, or more reliable and no less relevant to those needs?	114.13	_____
(Note: The entity shall judge relevance and reliability using the criteria in paragraph 10 of Ind AS 8.)
Interaction with other standards
10	Have the following specific exceptions, exemptions or additional requirements related to the interaction of this standard with other relevant standards been applied appropriately:	114.16	_____
	a) Ind AS 10, Events after the Reporting Period shall be applied to identify whether the estimates and assumptions used in the recognition and measurement of regulatory deferral account balances should be adjusted to reflect events that occur between the end of the reporting period and the date when financial statements are authorised for issue,	114.B8	_____
	b) Ind AS 12, Income Taxes shall be applied by a rate-regulated entity to all its activities,	114.B9	_____
	i. However, has the entity presented deferred tax assets/liabilities either:	114.B11	_____
	• With the line items that are presented for the regulatory deferral account debit balances and credit balances, or		_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> As a separate line item alongside the related regulatory deferral account debit balances and credit balances? 		_____
	ii. Has the entity presented the movement in the deferred tax asset (liability) that arises as a result of regulatory deferral account balances either: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> With the line items that are presented in the statement of profit and loss for the movements in regulatory deferral account balances, or As a separate line item alongside the related line items that are presented in the statement of profit and loss for the movements in regulatory deferral account balances, 	114.B12	_____
	c) In addition to the presentation requirements in Ind AS 33, Earnings per Share , the entity shall present additional basic and diluted earnings per share calculated by excluding the net movement in regulatory deferral account balances,	114.B14	_____
	d) Ind AS 36, Impairment of Assets does not apply to the separate regulatory deferral account balances recognised, except for the requirements in paragraphs 74 to 79 of Ind AS 36 relating to identifying the recoverable amount and carrying amount of a cash-generating unit that may include regulatory deferral account balances,	114.B16	_____
	e) As an exception to Ind AS 103, Business Combinations , the acquiree's regulatory deferral account balances shall be recognised in the consolidated financial statements of the acquirer in accordance with the acquirer's policies, irrespective of whether the acquiree recognised those balances in its own financial statements,	114.B18	_____
	f) The measurement requirements of Ind AS 105, Non-current Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations shall not apply to the regulatory deferral account balances recognised. If the entity presents a discontinued operation or a disposal group, it shall not include the movement in regulatory deferral account balances that arose from the rate-regulated activities of the discontinued operation or disposal group within the line items presented under Ind AS 105 and instead present these along with the movements in regulatory deferral account balances related to profit or loss,	114.B20 114.B21	_____
	(Note: Where the entity includes the regulatory deferral account balances and movements in those balances that are related to the disposal group or discontinued operation within the related regulated deferral account line items, it may be necessary to disclose them separately as part of the analysis of the regulatory deferral account line items as required by Q 28.)	114.B22	_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
g)	Based on the principles of Ind AS 110, Consolidated Financial Statements and Ind AS 28, Investments in Associates and Joint Ventures , if a parent recognises regulatory deferral account balances in its consolidated financial statements in accordance with this standard, it shall apply the same accounting policies to the regulatory deferral account balances arising in all of its subsidiaries and make the necessary adjustments to the associate's or joint venture's accounting policies as well when applying the equity method, and	114.B23 114.B24	_____
h)	The entity shall separately disclose the net movement in regulatory deferral account balances that are included within amounts that are required to be disclosed by Ind AS 112, Disclosure of Interests in Other Entities? (Refer Q 30 and Q 31)	114.B25 114.B26 114.B27 114.B28	_____
11	Have other Ind ASs (i.e. for which there is no specific exception, exemption or additional requirements as referred to in Q 10 above) been applied to the regulatory deferral account balances in the same way as they apply to assets, liabilities, income and expenses that are recognised in accordance with other standards?	114.16	_____
Presentation
12	With respect to changes in presentation:
a)	Has the entity recognised and presented separately (refer Q 13 to 20) the regulatory deferral account balances in the balance sheet in addition to the assets and liabilities that are recognised in accordance with other Ind ASs, and	114.18	_____
b)	Has the entity presented all the regulatory deferral account balances and the movements in those balances in addition to the requirements in Ind AS 1, Presentation of Financial Statements ?	114.19	_____
13	With respect to classification of regulatory deferral account balances, has the entity presented separate line items in the balance sheet for:	114.20
a)	The total of all regulatory deferral account debit balances, and		_____
b)	The total of all regulatory deferral account credit balances?		_____
14	Have the separate line items as required by Q 13 been distinguished from the assets and liabilities that are presented in accordance with other Ind ASs by the use of sub-totals, which are drawn before the regulatory deferral account balances are presented appropriately?	114.21	_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
Disclosure
21	Has the entity in accordance with this standard disclosed the following information for the users:	114.27
	a) The nature of, and the risks associated with, the rate regulation that establishes the price(s) that the entity can charge customers for the goods or services it provides, and		_____
	b) The effects of that rate regulation on its financial position, financial performance and cash flows?		_____
22	If any of the disclosures set out in Q 25 to Q 32 are not considered relevant to meet the objective in Q 21, have they been omitted from the financial statements?	114.28	_____
23	If the disclosures provided in accordance with Q 25 to Q 32 are insufficient to meet the objective in Q 21, has the entity disclosed additional information that is necessary to meet that objective?	114.28	_____
24	Has the entity considered all the following points to meet the disclosure objective:	114.29
	a) The level of detail that is necessary to satisfy the disclosure requirements,		_____
	b) How much emphasis to place on each of the various requirements,		_____
	c) How much aggregation or disaggregation to undertake, and		_____
	d) Whether users of financial statements need additional information to evaluate the quantitative information disclosed?		_____
25	With respect to explanation of activities subject to rate regulation, has the entity disclosed for each type of rate-regulated activity:	114.30
	a) A brief description of the nature and extent of the rate-regulated activity and the nature of the regulatory rate-setting process,		_____
	b) The identity of the rate regulator(s). If the rate regulator is a related party (as defined in Ind AS 24, Related Party Disclosures), the entity shall disclose that fact, together with an explanation of how it is related, and		_____
	c) How the future recovery of each class (i.e. each type of cost or income) of regulatory deferral account debit balance or reversal of each class of regulatory deferral account credit balance is affected by risks and uncertainty such as demand risk, regulatory risk and other risk, etc.?		_____

	(Note: Few examples of demand risk, regulatory risk and other risks are given as follows:
	i. Demand risk: Changes in consumer attitudes, the availability of alternative sources of supply or the level of competition
	ii. Regulatory risk: The submission and approval of a rate-setting application or the entity's assessment of the expected future regulatory actions and
	iii. Other risks: Currency or other market risks.)
26	Has the entity given the required disclosures in the financial statements either directly in the notes or incorporated by cross-reference from the financial statements to some other statement, such as a management commentary or risk report, that is available to users of the financial statements on the same terms as the financial statements and at the same time?	114.31	_____
27	Has the entity disclosed the basis on which regulatory deferral account balances are recognised and derecognised, and how they are measured initially and subsequently, including how regulatory deferral account balances are assessed for recoverability and how any impairment loss is allocated?	114.32	_____
28	Has the entity, for each type of rate-regulated activity, disclosed the following information for each class of regulatory deferral account balance:	114.33	_____
	a) A reconciliation of the carrying amount at the beginning and the end of the period, in a table including the following components:		_____
	i. The amounts that have been recognised in the current period in the balance sheet as regulatory deferral account balances,		_____
	ii. The amounts that have been recognised in the statement of profit and loss relating to balances that have been recovered (sometimes described as amortised) or reversed in the current period,		_____
	iii. Other amounts, separately identified, that affected the regulatory deferral account balances, such as impairments, items acquired or assumed in a business combination, items disposed of, or the effects of changes in foreign exchange rates or discount rates,		_____
	b) The rate of return or discount rate (including a zero rate or a range of rates, when applicable) used to reflect the time value of money that is applicable to each class of regulatory deferral account balance, and		_____
	c) The remaining periods over which the entity expects to recover (or amortise) the carrying amount of each class of regulatory deferral account debit balance or to reverse each class of regulatory deferral account credit balance?		_____

29	a) Has the entity disclosed the impact of the rate regulation on the amounts of current and deferred tax recognised when rate regulation affects the amount and timing of an entity's income tax expense (income)? b) In addition, has the entity separately disclosed any regulatory deferral account balance that relates to taxation and the related movement in that balance?	114.34	<hr/> <hr/>
30	Has the entity provided disclosures in accordance with Ind AS 112 for an interest in a subsidiary, associate or joint venture that has rate-regulated activities and for which regulatory deferral account balances are recognised in accordance with this standard?	114.35	<hr/>
31	If answer to Q 30 is yes, has the entity disclosed the amounts that are included for the regulatory deferral account debit and credit balances and the net movement in those balances for the interests? (Refer Q 10 (h))	114.35	<hr/>
32	If the entity has any amounts with respect to regulatory deferral account balances that are no longer recoverable or reversible, has the entity disclosed that fact, the reason why it is not recoverable or reversible and the amount by which the regulatory deferral account balance has been reduced?	114.36	<hr/>

Some of the key requirements from the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act)

- Schedule III to the 2013 Act requires regulatory deferral account balances to be presented in the balance sheet in accordance with the relevant Ind AS. There are no other specific provisions under the 2013 Act for accounting for regulatory deferral accounts.

Significant carve-outs from IFRS

- IFRS 14, Regulatory Deferral Accounts permits an eligible entity to continue to recognise and measure regulatory deferral account balances in accordance with its previous GAAP when it adopts IFRS. However, for the purpose of Ind AS 114, it has been modified to clarify that Guidance Note on Accounting for Rate Regulated Activities would be considered as the previous GAAP.
- A clarification is included in Ind AS 114 that an entity subject to rate regulation coming into existence after Ind AS coming into force or an entity whose activities become subject to rate regulation subsequent to preparation and presentation of first Ind AS financial statements should be permitted to apply the requirements of previous GAAP in respect of such rate regulated activities.

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

- No specific requirement has been prescribed under ICDS relating to share based payments.

Some of the clarifications provided by the Ind AS Technical Facilitation Group (ITFG)

- No specific clarifications have been provided by ITFG relating to this standard.

Glossary

First Ind AS financial statements: The first annual financial statements in which an entity adopts Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS), by an explicit and unreserved statement of compliance with Ind AS.

First-time adopter: An entity that presents its first Ind AS financial statements.

Previous GAAP: The basis of accounting that a first-time adopter used immediately before adopting Ind ASs for its reporting requirements in India. For instance, for companies preparing their financial statements in accordance with the existing Accounting Standards notified under the Companies (Accounting Standards) Rules, 2006 shall consider those financial statements as previous GAAP financial statements.

Explanation:

Guidance Note on Accounting for the Rate Regulated Activities, issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) shall be considered to be the previous GAAP.

Rate regulated activities: An entity's activities that are subject to rate regulation.

Rate regulation: 'Cost of Service Regulation' as defined in the Guidance Note on Accounting for Rate Regulated Activities.

Rate regulator: 'Regulator' as defined in the Guidance Note on Accounting for Rate Regulated Activities.

Regulatory deferral account balance: A 'Regulatory Asset' or a 'Regulatory Liability' as defined in the Guidance Note on Accounting for Rate Regulated Activities.

Ind AS-115 Revenue from Contracts with Customers

1. Executive summary

- Ind AS 115, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (the standard), is based on the core principle that an entity recognises revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which it expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services.
- The standard provides the following five step model for recognition of revenue from contracts with customers:
 - Step 1: Identify the contract with customer
 - Step 2: Identify the performance obligations in the contract
 - Step 3: Determine the transaction price
 - Step 4: Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligation
 - Step 5: Recognise revenue when (or as) the entity satisfies a performance obligation.

Step 1: Identify the contract with customer

- A contract is an agreement between two or more parties that creates enforceable rights and obligations. It may be written, oral or implied by customary business practices and needs to meet all of the following criteria:
 - It is legally enforceable
 - It is approved and all the parties are committed to their obligations
 - Rights to goods or services and payment terms can be identified
 - Collection of consideration is considered probable and
 - It has commercial substance i.e., the risk, timing or amount of the entity's future cash flows is expected to change as a result of the contract.

Step 2: Identify the performance obligations in the contract

- At contract inception, entities are required to identify as a performance obligation an implicit or an explicit promise to transfer to the customer a distinct good or service (or bundle of goods or services)
- A good or service that is promised to a customer is distinct if both the following criteria are met:
 - The good or service is capable of being distinct: Customers can benefit from the good or service on its own or with other readily available resources. Various factors may provide such evidence, such as when the good or service can be used, consumed, sold for an amount that is greater than scrap value or held in a way that generates economic benefits
 - The promise to transfer the good or service is distinct within the context of the contract: The promise to transfer the good or service is separately identifiable from other promises in the contract.

Step 3: Determine the transaction price

- Determination of transaction price is done by considering all amounts to which an entity expects to be entitled in exchange for transferring promised goods or services excluding amounts collected on behalf of third parties (for example, some sales taxes). Additionally, the consideration may include fixed amounts, variable amounts, or both.

Step 4: Allocating the transaction price to performance obligation

- The objective of allocating transaction price is for an entity to allocate transaction price to each performance obligation in an amount that depicts expected entitlement for transferring the promised goods or services.

- The stand-alone selling price is the price at which an entity would sell a promised good or service separately to a customer. Entities shall allocate the transaction price in proportion to the stand-alone selling price of each distinct good or service (determined at contract inception). The stand-alone selling price is determined as below:

- Observable price: the best evidence of a stand-alone selling price is the observable price of a good or service when the entity sells that good or service separately in similar circumstances and to similar customers,
- Estimated price: if a stand-alone selling price is not directly observable, an entity shall estimate it by considering all information available to the entity, maximise the use of observable inputs and apply estimation methods consistently in similar circumstances. Some of the estimation methods are:
 - Adjusted market assessment approach
 - Expected cost plus a margin approach and
 - Residual approach.

Step 5: Recognise revenue when (or as) the entity satisfies a performance obligation

- Revenue is required to be recognised when (i.e. at a point in time) or as (i.e. over a period of time) the entity satisfies a performance obligation by transferring the control of a promised good or service to the customer.
- A performance obligation is satisfied over time if either:
 - Customer simultaneously receives and consumes the benefits as the entity performs
 - Customer controls the asset as the entity creates or enhances it or
 - The entity's performance does not create an asset with an alternative use and there is right to payment for performance to date.

- If a performance obligation is not satisfied over time, an entity satisfies the performance obligation at a point in time.
- Measurement of revenue is dependent upon the determination of the transaction price allocated to that performance obligation.

Costs

- The standard includes guidance on accounting for incremental costs to obtain and costs to fulfil a contract that are not in the scope of another standard.

Presentation

- An entity recognises a contract asset when it transfers goods or services before it has unconditional right to payment, and a contract liability when the customer makes a payment before it receives the goods or services.

Disclosures

- An entity provides specific quantitative and qualitative disclosures to enable users of the financial statements to understand the nature, timing and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows arising from contracts with customers.

Effective date and transition

- The standard became effective on 1 April 2018.
- An entity may make the transition to the standard using one of two methods:
 - Apply the standard retrospectively (with optional practical expedients) and record the effect of applying the standard at the start of the earliest presented comparative period.
 - Apply the standard to open contract at the date of initial application and record the effect of applying the standard at that date. The comparative periods presented are not restated.

Determining the nature of the entity's promise
29	If the nature of an entity's promise in granting a licence has been considered as a promise to provide a right to access the entity's intellectual property, then has the entity satisfied all of the following criteria:	115.B58
	a) The contract requires, or the customer reasonably expects, that the entity will undertake activities that significantly affect the intellectual property to which the customer has rights,
	(Note: Factors that may indicate that a customer could reasonably expect that an entity will undertake activities that significantly affect the intellectual property include the entity's customary business practices, published policies or specific statements. 	b) The rights granted by the licence directly expose the customer to any positive or negative effects of the entity's activities identified in Q 29(a) above, and
	c) Those activities do not result in the transfer of a good or a service to the customer as those activities occur (refer Q 15)?
30	a) If the criteria in Q 29 are met, then has the entity accounted for the promise to grant a licence as a performance obligation satisfied over time, because the customer simultaneously receives and consumes the benefit from its performance of providing access to its intellectual property as the performance occurs (please refer Q 85(a))?	115.B60

(Note: The consideration promised in a contract with a customer may include fixed amounts, variable amounts, or both.)

	For the purpose of determining the transaction price, the entity shall assume that the goods or services will be transferred to the customer as promised in accordance with the existing contract and that the contract will not be cancelled, renewed or modified.)	115.49
--	--	--------	--

41	When determining the transaction price, does the entity consider the effects of all of the following:	115.48
----	---	--------	--

- a) Variable consideration (refer Q 42-46 and Q 54),
- b) Constraining estimates of variable consideration (refer Q 52-53),
- c) The existence of a significant financing component in the contract (refer Q 55-57 and Q 120),
- d) Non-cash consideration (refer Q 58-61), and
- e) Consideration payable to a customer (refer Q 62 – 64?)

(Note: The nature, timing and amount of consideration promised by a customer affects the estimate of the transaction price.)

Variable consideration

	If the consideration promised in a contract includes a variable amount, an entity needs to estimate the amount of consideration to which it will be entitled in exchange for transferring the promised goods or services to a customer.	115.50
--	---	--------	--

	An amount of consideration can vary because of discounts, rebates, refunds, credits, price concessions, incentives, performance bonuses, or other similar items. It can also vary if an entity's entitlement to the consideration is contingent on the occurrence or non-occurrence of a future event e.g. if either a product was sold with a right of return or a fixed amount is promised as a performance bonus on achievement of a specified milestone.	115.51

42	Has the entity determined the variability of the consideration promised by the customer by considering the following:	115.52
	a) The terms of the contract explicitly state that the promised consideration is variable,		_____
	b) The customer has a valid expectation arising from an entity/s customary business practices, published policies or specific statements that it will accept an amount of consideration that is less than the price stated in the contract, i.e. it is expected that the entity will offer a price concession. This offer may be referred to as a discount, rebate, refund or credit,		_____
	c) Other facts and circumstances indicate that the entity's intention, when entering into the contract with the customer, is to offer a price concession to the customer?		_____
43	Has the entity estimated the amount of variable consideration by using either of the following methods, depending on which method is expected to better predict the amount of consideration to which it will be entitled:	115.53
	a) The expected value, which is the sum of probability-weighted amounts in a range of possible consideration amounts, or		_____
	(Note: The expected value may be an appropriate estimate of the amount of variable consideration if an entity has a large number of contracts with similar characteristics.)
	b) The most likely amount, which is the single most likely amount in a range of possible consideration amounts (i.e. the single most likely outcome of the contract)?		_____
	(Note: The most likely amount may be an appropriate estimate of the amount of variable consideration if the contract has only two possible outcomes (e.g. an entity either achieves a performance bonus or does not).)	115.53
44	a) Has the entity applied one method consistently throughout the contract when estimating the effect of an uncertainty on an amount of variable consideration to which it will be entitled?	115.54	_____
	b) In addition, has the entity considered all the information (historical, current and forecast) that is reasonably available to it and identified a reasonable number of possible consideration amounts?		_____
	(Note: The information that an entity uses to estimate the amount of variable consideration would typically be similar to the information that its management uses during the bid-and-proposal process and in establishing prices for promised goods or services.)

	a) The difference, if any, between the amount of promised consideration and the cash selling price of the promised goods or services, and		_____
	b) The combined effect of both of the following:
	i. The expected length of time between when the entity transfers promised goods or services to the customer and when the customer pays for those goods or services, and		_____
	ii. The prevailing interest rates in the relevant market?		_____
	(Note: The timing of payments agreed to by the parties to the contract (either explicitly or implicitly) provides either the customer or the entity with a significant benefit of financing the transfer of goods or services to the customer.	115.60
	The objective when adjusting the promised amount of consideration for a significant financing component is for the entity to recognise revenue at an amount that reflects the price that a customer would have paid for the promised goods or services if the customer had paid cash for those goods or services when (or as) they transfer to the customer (i.e. the cash selling price.	115.61

77 Has the entity allocated discount entirely to one or more, but not all, performance obligations in the contract if all of the following criteria are met: 115.82

- a) The entity regularly sells each distinct good or service (or each bundle of distinct goods or services) in the contract on a stand-alone basis,
- b) The entity also regularly sells on a stand-alone basis a bundle (or bundles) of some of those distinct goods or services at a discount to the stand-alone selling prices of the goods or services in each bundle, and
- c) The discount attributable to each bundle of goods or services described in Q 77(b) is substantially the same as the discount in the contract and an analysis of the goods or services in each bundle provides observable evidence of the performance obligation (or performance obligations) to which the entire discount in the contract belongs?

3. Additional considerations

Some of the key requirements from the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act)

- MCA notified an amendment to the Schedule II of the 2013 Act. The amendment clarifies that companies following Ind AS would be unable to apply revenue based amortisation method to toll road intangible assets that are recognised after the beginning of the first year of adoption of Ind AS. (Refer Ind AS 38 checklist.)

Significant carve-outs from IFRS

- 'Penalties' have been excluded from the list of examples given in relation to computation of variable consideration due to which the amount of consideration can vary under Ind AS as compared to that computed in accordance with IFRS 15, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. Ind AS 115 provides additional guidance to explain the accounting treatment of 'penalties'.
- An entity is required to present separately the amount of excise duty included in the revenue recognised in the statement of profit and loss.
- Additional disclosures as compared to IFRS 15 are prescribed. An entity is required to present reconciliation of the amount of revenue recognised in the statement of profit and loss with the contracted price showing separately each of the adjustments made to the contract price specifying the nature and amount of each such adjustment.
- Additional guidance has been given in Ind AS 115 to explain the accounting treatment in case of transfers of control of a product to a customer with an unconditional right of return.

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

ICDS III, Construction Contracts

- ICDS III prescribes non-recognition of margins during the early stages of the contract and thus allows contract revenue to be recognised only to the extent of costs incurred. It states that the early stage of a contract shall not extend beyond 25 per cent of the stage of completion. Completed service method to recognise contract revenue is not permitted. Revenue is not adjusted for the time value.
- ICDS does not permit the recognition of expected losses on onerous contracts.
- The FAQs on ICDS clarify that retention money, which is a part of an overall contract revenue, should be recognised as revenue, only when it is reasonably certain that it will be ultimately collected.
- Since there is no specific ICDS notified for real estate developers, Build Operate and Transfer (BOT) operators and leases yet, therefore, relevant provisions of the IT Act and ICDS shall apply to these transactions as may be applicable (refer FAQ on ICDS).
- The transitional provisions under notified ICDS provide that in case of construction contracts which commenced prior to applicability of ICDS, but were not completed by 31 March 2016, contract revenue and contract costs associated with such contracts are to be recognised based on the method followed by an entity prior to the applicability of the ICDS i.e. 1 April 2016.

ICDS IV, Revenue Recognition

- ICDS IV provides guidance on recognition of revenue for computing income.
- Expected losses on onerous contracts are not permitted to be recognised upfront.
- With respect to revenue from rendering of services, the revenue should be recognised by using only the percentage completion method, except in following cases:
 - Where services are provided by an indeterminate number of acts over a specified period of time, revenue may be recognised on a straight line basis over the specified period, and
 - Revenue from service contracts with a duration of not more than 90 days may be recognised when the rendering of services under that contract is completed or substantially completed.
- Revenue is not adjusted for the time value.
- Interest shall accrue on time basis and discount or premium on debt securities held should accrue over period of maturity except accrual of interest on refund of any outstanding tax, duty or cess.

Interest on tax, duty and cess would be recognised in the PY in which it is received.

- It has been clarified that interest should be accrued on time basis and royalty should be accrued on the basis of contractual terms. Subsequent non-recovery in either cases can be claimed as deduction in view of amendment to Section 36(1)(vii) of the Income Tax Act, 1961 (IT Act). Further, the provision of the IT Act (for example, Section 43D relating to special provisions in case of income of public financial institutions, public companies, etc.) shall prevail over the provisions of ICDS. (Refer FAQ on ICDS)
- In case of foreign companies generating income in relation to interest, royalty and fees for technical services rendered, relevant ICDS should be applied for computation of these income on gross basis for arriving at the amount chargeable to tax. (Refer FAQ on ICDS).
- The transitional provisions of ICDS IV require the management to consider cumulative catch-up of revenue after the date of transition for all contracts undertaken on or before 31 March 2016, but not completed by the said date.
- There is no specific ICDS notified for real estate developers, Build Operate and Transfer (BOT) operators and leases. Therefore, relevant provisions of the IT Act and ICDS shall apply to these transactions as may be applicable (refer FAQ on ICDS). On notification of the ICDS on real estate transactions (currently in the draft stage), transactions of the real estate developers will be governed by the said ICDS.

	Considering the nature of performance obligation of the entity, it would not be meeting criterion (b) as it would not be able to create or enhance an asset that the customer controls as the asset is created or enhanced. In the given case, for evaluation of criterion (c), an entity should consider whether the performance obligation creates an alternative use to the entity. Additionally, in determining whether it has an enforceable right to payment for performance completed to date requires consideration of the detailed requirements and guidance provided in the standard. While the right to payment for performance completed to date does not need to be for a fixed amount, the entity must be entitled, at all times throughout the duration of the contract, to an amount that at least compensates the entity for performance completed to date if the contract is terminated by the customer or another party for reasons other than the entity's failure to perform as promised. In assessing the existence and enforceability of a right to payment for performance completed to date, an entity is required to consider the contractual terms as well as any legislation or legal precedent that could supplement or override those contractual terms. Further ITFG provided that basis the above evaluation, if entity concludes that the performance obligation of the entity under its contract with a customer is satisfied over time, then the entity is required to determine an appropriate method of measuring progress on the basis of the relevant requirements and guidance contained in Ind AS 115. Ind AS 115 specifies two types of methods: input method and output method, which an entity should consider based on the nature of the goods or services that the entity promised to transfer to the customer in determining the appropriate method for measuring progress.

Contract: An agreement between two or more parties that creates enforceable rights and obligations.

Contract asset: An entity's right to consideration in exchange for goods or services that the entity has transferred to a customer when that right is conditioned on something other than the passage of time (for example, the entity's future performance).

Contract liability: An entity's obligation to transfer goods or services to a customer for which the entity has received consideration (or the amount is due) from the customer.

Customer: A party that has contracted with an entity to obtain goods or services that are an output of the entity's ordinary activities in exchange for consideration.

Income: Increases in economic benefits during the accounting period in the form of inflows or enhancements of assets or decreases of liabilities that result in an increase in equity, other than those relating to contributions from equity participants.

Performance obligation: A promise in a contract with a customer to transfer to the customer either:

- (a) a good or service (or a bundle of goods or services) that is distinct or
- (b) a series of distinct goods or services that are substantially the same and that have the same pattern of transfer to the customer.

Revenue: Income arising in the course of an entity's ordinary activities.

Stand-alone selling price (of a good or service): The price at which an entity would sell a promised good or service separately to a customer.

Transaction price (for a contract with a customer): The amount of consideration to which an entity expects to be entitled in exchange for transferring promised goods or services to a customer, excluding amounts collected on behalf of third parties.

Ind AS 116 Leases

1. Executive summary

- Ind AS 116, Leases requires an entity to assess at the inception of the contract, whether the contract is, or contains, a lease.
- A contract is, or contains, a lease if it conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset (explicitly or implicitly specified in the contract) for a period of time in exchange for a consideration.
- The standard lays emphasis on which party controls the use of the identified asset. A customer has the right to control the use of an identified asset, if it has the:
 - Right to obtain substantially all of the economic benefits from use of the identified asset and
 - Right to direct the use of the identified asset i.e. it has the right to direct how and for what purpose the asset is used throughout the period of use.
- Once a lease is identified, a lessee is required to recognise a Right-Of-Use (ROU) asset representing its right to use the underlying leased asset and a lease liability representing its obligation to make lease payments on the balance sheet.
- ROU asset will be measured at cost and the lease liability will be measured at the present value of the lease payments that are not paid at that date.
- The cost of the ROU asset will include following amounts:
 - Initial measurement of lease liability
 - Prepaid lease payments less any lease incentives received
 - Initial direct costs incurred by the lessee and
 - Estimated costs to dismantle, remove or restore the underlying asset.
- The lease payments to be included in the measurement of lease liability comprise the following payments:
 - Fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments)
 - Variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate
 - Amounts expected to be payable by the lessee under residual value guarantees
 - The exercise price of a purchase option if the lessee is reasonably certain to exercise that option
 - Payments of penalties for terminating the lease, if the lease term reflects the lessee exercising an option to terminate the lease.
- For calculating the amount of lease liability, the lease payments will be discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease, if that rate can be readily determined. If that rate cannot be readily determined, the lessee is required to use its incremental borrowing rate.
- While determining the lease term, termination options held by the lessor only are not considered. Termination options held by the lessee will also be considered.
- Subsequently, the lease liability is measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method. A ROU asset will be measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment.
- A lessee is required to remeasure the lease liability by discounting the revised lease payments based on either unchanged discount rate or a revised rate depending upon the facts and circumstances of a case.
- A lessee may elect not to apply the lease accounting model to:
 - Leases with a lease term of 12 months or less that do not contain a purchase option i.e. short term leases.
 - Leases for which the underlying asset is of low value when it is new – even if the effect is material in aggregate.
- If a lessee sub-leases an asset, or expects to sub-lease an asset, the head lease does not qualify as a lease of a low-value asset.
- A lessor will classify each of its leases as an operating lease or a finance lease. A lease is classified as a finance lease if it transfers substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to the ownership of an underlying asset. A lease is classified as an operating lease if it does not transfers substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to the ownership of an underlying asset. The lease classification test is based on Ind AS 17, Leases classification criteria.

- A change in the scope of a lease, or the consideration for a lease, that was not part of the original terms and conditions of the lease will be accounted for as a lease modification by a lessor and a lessee.
 - In a sale-and-leaseback transaction, an entity is required to apply the requirements for determining when a performance obligation is satisfied in Ind AS 115 to determine whether the transfer of an asset is accounted for as a sale of that asset.
- Effective date and transition
- The standard became effective on 1 April 2019.
 - A lessee is permitted to:
 - Apply Ind AS 116 to contracts that were previously identified as leases applying Ind AS 17
 - Not to apply Ind AS 116 to contracts that were not previously identified as containing a lease applying Ind AS 17.
 - An entity can make the transition to the standards by using any of the following methods:
 - Apply the standard retrospectively to each prior reporting period presented applying Ind AS 8, Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors or
 - Apply the standard retrospectively with the cumulative effect of initially applying the standard recognised at the date of initial application (with optional practical expedients). The comparative periods presented are not restated.

	i. It is physically distinct or		_____
	ii. It is not physically distinct but the customer has the right to obtain substantially all of the economic benefits from use of the asset?		_____
c)	At the inception of the contract, has the entity ensured that the supplier does not meet the following conditions:	116.B14	_____
	i. It does not have the practical ability to substitute the alternative assets throughout the period of use and (Note: For instance, a customer cannot prevent the supplier from substituting the asset and alternative assets are readily available to the supplier or could be sourced by the supplier within a reasonable period of time.)		_____
	ii. It will not benefit economically from the exercise of its right to substitute the asset? (Note: A supplier will benefit economically from the exercise of its right to substitute the asset, if the economic benefits associated with substituting the asset are expected to exceed the costs associated with substituting the asset. For instance, if the asset is located at customer's premise or elsewhere, the costs associated with substitution are generally higher than when located at the supplier's premise and therefore, more likely to exceed the benefits associated with substituting the asset.)		_____

5	Has it been ensured that the supplier's right or obligation to substitute the asset is not for the purpose of repairs and maintenance on account of the asset not operating properly or availability of technical upgrade? (Note: Such a right does not preclude a customer from having a right to use the asset.)	116.B18	_____

Right to obtain economic benefits from use
8	Has the entity ensured that it has right to obtain substantially all of the economic benefits from use of the asset throughout the period of use?	116.B21	_____
9	While assessing right to obtain economic benefits, has the entity considered the following:	116.B21
	a) The economic benefits have been derived from use of an asset directly or indirectly, (Note: The economic benefits from the use of an asset can be derived by using, holding or sub-leasing the asset.)		_____
	b) The economic benefits can include primary output and by-products from the use of the asset,		_____
	c) The economic benefits can include economic benefits from using the asset that could be realised from a commercial transaction with a third party,		_____
	d) The economic benefits have resulted from the use of an asset only within the defined scope of a customer's right to use an asset,	116.B22	_____
	e) The economic benefits can include any consideration paid to the supplier or another party from use of an asset? (Note: For instance, if the customer is required to pay the supplier a percentage of sales from use of retail space as consideration for that use, that requirement does not prevent the customer from having the right to obtain substantially all of the economic benefits from use of the retail space. 	b) In case the relevant decisions about how and for what purpose the asset is used are predetermined, then:		_____
	i. The customer has the right to operate the asset (or to direct others to operate the asset in a manner that it determines) throughout the period of use, without the supplier having the right to change those operating instructions or		_____
	ii. The customer designed the asset (or specific aspects of the asset) in a way that predetermines how and for what purpose the asset will be used throughout the period of use?		_____
	(Note: The relevant decisions can be predetermined by the design of the asset or by contractual restrictions on the use of the asset.)	116.B28
11	If the answer to Q 10(a) is yes, then has the entity considered at least the following decision-making rights that are most relevant to changing how and for what purpose the asset is used throughout the period of use:	116.B26
	a) Rights to change the type of output that is produced by the asset (for example, to decide whether to use a shipping container to transport goods or for storage, or to decide upon the mix of products sold from retail space),		_____
	b) Rights to change when the output is produced (for example, to decide when an item of machinery or a power plant will be used),		_____
	c) Rights to change where the output is produced (for example, to decide upon the destination of a truck or a ship, or to decide where an item of equipment is used), and		_____
	d) Rights to change whether the output is produced, and the quantity of that output (for example, to decide whether to produce energy from a power plant and how much energy to produce from that power plant)?		_____ (Note:
	i. The decision-making rights are relevant when they affect the economic benefits to be derived from use.	116.B25
	ii. The decision-making rights that are most relevant are likely to be different for different contracts, depending on the nature of the asset and the terms and conditions of the contract.)

20	Has the lessee elected, by class of underlying asset, not to separate non-lease components from lease components? (Note: When a lessee elects to apply the above practical expedient then it would account for each lease component and any associated non-lease components as a single lease component. A lessee should not apply the above practical expedient to embedded derivatives that meet the criteria of Ind AS 109.)	116.15	_____

3. Additional considerations

Some of the key requirements from the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act)

- There are no specific requirements arising out of the 2013 Act in the context of this standard.

Significant carve-outs from IFRS

- IFRS 16 requires that ROU asset that meet the definition of an investment property shall be measured at fair value, if lessee applies fair value model in IAS 40, Investment Property to its investment property. However, Ind AS 116, has no such requirement, since Ind AS 40, Investment Property prohibits the use of fair value model.
- IFRS 16 requires classification of cash payments for interest portion of lease liability applying requirements of IAS 7, Statement of Cash Flows. IAS 7 provides option of treating interest paid as operating or financing activity. However, Ind AS 116 specify that cash payments for interest portion of lease liability will be classified as financing activities, since Ind AS 7, Statement of Cash Flows requires interest paid to be treated as financing activity only.

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

- No specific requirement has been prescribed under ICDS relating to this standard.

	Determination of lease term
Bulletin 21 and 22 (Issue 1)	While determining the lease term only the enforceable rights of the lessee to renew or extent the lease beyond the non-cancellable period are taken into consideration. For example: a. In case a lease agreement grants a lessee a right to renew or extend the lease beyond the non-cancellable period without the consent of the lessor: In such a case, the lessee has the right to use the asset beyond the non-cancellable period. (a manufacturing entity and a lessee) acquired a plot of land several years back on a 99 years lease from Industrial Development Corporation (ID Corp) (the lessor) of the State Government for its business purposes. An upfront non-refundable lease premium was paid at the time of execution of lease deed (equal to market value of the land at that time). Additionally, the lessee would pay a nominal lease rent on an annual basis over the entire 99 years period (i.e. the lease term). However, XYZ Ltd. could transfer the leased land to a third party after prior consent of the ID Corp. The lease deed does not have any specific clause on renewability upon completion of abovesaid lease term of 99 years. Also, the website of the ID Corp mentions lease would be renewable after the expiry of 99 years but not clear if any further lease premium would need to be paid upon completion of 99 years of lease to renew the lease. In this situation, ITFG considered the following issues: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Upfront payment equal to the present value of payments over the lease term ITFG deliberated on whether the transaction described is a lease within the meaning of Ind AS 116 specifically when the upfront payment made by the lessee accounts to almost all of the present value of the payments to be made over the lease term. Considering the definition under Ind AS 116, it was clarified that for a contract (or a part of a contract) to qualify as a lease, exchange of consideration for the ROU of the underlying asset is essential. ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
	In the present situation, the lease deed executed between the company and the ID Corp creates enforceable rights and obligations between the two parties and thus, constitutes a contract. Bulletin 21 (Issue 5)	Accounting for foreign exchange differences relating to lease liability In accordance with Ind AS 101, a first-time adopter is permitted to continue with its previous GAAP policy adopted for accounting for exchange differences arising from translation of Long-Term Foreign Currency Monetary Items (LTFCMI) recognised in its financial statements for the period ending immediately before the beginning of the first Ind AS financial reporting period. (Paragraph D13AA of Appendix D to Ind AS 101) In a situation considered by ITFG, an entity (applying the requirements of Ind AS 116), recognised a lease liability and a ROU asset as at 1 April 2019 in respect of a long-term lease. This lease was entered into before the beginning of its first Ind AS financial reporting period and was classified as an operating lease under the previous GAAP (i.e. under AS 17). The lease payments are denominated in a foreign currency. The issue under consideration was with regard to accounting of foreign exchange differences relating to lease liability recognised by the entity. The ITFG deliberated if such foreign exchange differences would be covered by the exemption provided under paragraph D13AA of Ind AS 101 or these should be recognised in the statement of profit and loss. The ITFG clarified that the exemption provided by paragraph D13AA of Ind AS 101 is available only in respect of LTFCMI recognised in the financial statements for the period ending immediately before the beginning of the first Ind AS financial reporting period as per the previous GAAP. Additionally, Ind AS 101 specifically provides that an entity should not apply the exemptions contained in Appendices C-D by analogy to other items. Accordingly, ITFG clarified that foreign exchange differences relating to the lease liability recognised by the entity should be charged to the statement of profit and loss.	116.26 (Q 40)

Bulletin 22 (Issue 2)	Lessor accounting for lease rental income in case of on operating lease In respect of accounting for operating leases by a lessor, Ind AS 17 did not require or permit scheduled lease rental increases to be recognised on a straight-line basis over the lease term if lease rentals were structured to increase in line with expected general inflation to compensate for the lessor’s expected inflationary cost increases. Instead, Ind AS 17 required such increases to be recognised in the respective period of increase. This was a significant difference (a carve-out) from its corresponding international standard IAS 17, Leases. However, there is no such carve-out in Ind AS 116. Thus, Ind AS 116 requires operating lease rentals to be recognised on a straight-line basis (or on another systematic basis if such other basis is more representative of the pattern in which benefit from the use of the underlying asset is diminished). ITFG considered a situation wherein an entity Y Ltd. entered into a lease agreement to provide on lease an office building to another entity X Ltd. for a period of five years beginning 1 April 2017. As per the lease agreement: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The lease rental for each subsequent year was to increase by 10 per cent over the lease rental for the immediately preceding year • The scheduled 10 per cent annual increase in lease rentals was in line with expected general inflation to compensate for Y Ltd.’s expected inflationary cost increases. Y Ltd. did not recognise the lease rental income on a straight-line basis. The ITFG considered and clarified the accounting of the rental income of the operating lease by the lessor in accordance with Ind AS 116 as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Y Ltd. is required to recognise operating lease rentals from the office building given on lease on a straight-line basis over the lease term, even though the lease rentals are structured to increase in line with expected general inflation to compensate for its expected inflationary cost increases. • The resultant change in manner of recognition of operating lease rentals by Y Ltd. represents a change in an accounting policy which would need to be accounted for as per Ind AS 8 in the absence of specific transitional provisions in Ind AS 116 dealing with the change. 	116.81 (Q 100)

Glossary

Commencement date of the lease (commencement date) is the date on which a lessor makes an underlying asset available for use by a lessee.

A contract is an agreement between two or more parties that creates enforceable rights and obligations.

Economic life is the period over which an asset is expected to be economically usable by one or more users or the number of production or similar units expected to be obtained from an asset by one or more users.

Effective date of the modification is the date when both parties agree to a lease modification.

For the purpose of applying the lessor accounting requirements in this standard, fair value is the amount for which an asset could be exchanged, or a liability settled, between knowledgeable, willing parties in an arm's length transaction.

A finance lease is a lease that transfers substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an asset.

Fixed payments are payments made by a lessee to a lessor for the right to use an underlying asset during the lease term, excluding variable lease payments.

Gross investment in the lease is the sum of:

- a) The lease payments receivable by a lessor under a finance lease and
- b) Any unguaranteed residual value accruing to the lessor.

Inception date of the lease (inception date) is the earlier of the date of a lease agreement and the date of commitment by the parties to the principal terms and conditions of the lease.

Initial direct costs are incremental costs of obtaining a lease that would not have been incurred if the lease had not been obtained, except for such costs incurred by a manufacturer or dealer lessor in connection with a finance lease.

An interest rate implicit in the lease is the rate of interest that causes the present value of the lease payments and the unguaranteed residual value to equal the sum of the fair value of the underlying asset and any initial direct costs of the lessor.

A lease is a contract, or part of a contract, that conveys the right to use an asset (the underlying asset) for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

Lease incentives are payments made by a lessor to a lessee associated with a lease, or the reimbursement or assumption by a lessor of costs of a lessee.

A lease modification is a change in the scope of a lease, or the consideration for a lease, that was not part of the original terms and conditions of the lease (for example, adding or terminating the right to use one or more underlying assets, or extending or shortening the contractual lease term).

Lease payments are payments made by a lessee to a lessor relating to the right to use an underlying asset during the lease term, comprising the following:

- a) Fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments), less any lease incentives
- b) Variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate
- c) Exercise price of a purchase option if the lessee is reasonably certain to exercise that option
- d) Payments of penalties for terminating the lease, if the lease term reflects the lessee exercising an option to terminate the lease.

For the lessee, lease payments also include amounts expected to be payable by the lessee under residual value guarantees. Lease payments do not include payments allocated to non-lease components of a contract, unless the lessee elects to combine non-lease components with a lease component and to account for them as a single lease component.

For the lessor, lease payments also include any residual value guarantees provided to the lessor by the lessee, a party related to the lessee or a third party unrelated to the lessor that is financially capable of discharging the obligations under the guarantee. Lease payments do not include payments allocated to non-lease components.

Lease term is the non-cancellable period for which a lessee has the right to use an underlying asset, together with both:

- a) Periods covered by an option to extend the lease if the lessee is reasonably certain to exercise that option and
- b) Periods covered by an option to terminate the lease if the lessee is reasonably certain not to exercise that option.

A lessee is an entity that obtains the right to use an underlying asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

Lessee's incremental borrowing rate is the rate of interest that a lessee would have to pay to borrow over a similar term, and with a similar security, the funds necessary to obtain an asset of a similar value to the right-of-use asset in a similar economic environment.

A lessor is an entity that provides the right to use an underlying asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

Net investment in the lease is the gross investment in the lease discounted at the interest rate implicit in the lease.

An operating lease is a lease that does not transfer substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an underlying asset.

Optional lease payments are payments which are to be made by a lessee to a lessor for the right to use an underlying asset during periods covered by an option to extend or terminate a lease that are not included in the lease term.

Period of use is the total period of time that an asset is used to fulfil a contract with a customer (including any non-consecutive periods of time).

Residual value guarantee is a guarantee made to a lessor by a party unrelated to the lessor that the value (or part of the value) of an underlying asset at the end of a lease will be at least a specified amount.

A right-of-use asset is an asset that represents a lessee's right to use an underlying asset for the lease term.

A short-term lease is a lease that, at the commencement date, has a lease term of 12 months or less. A lease that contains a purchase option is not a short-term lease.

A sub-lease is a transaction for which an underlying asset is re-leased by a lessee ('intermediate lessor') to a third party, and the lease ('head lease') between the head lessor and lessee remains in effect.

An underlying asset is an asset that is the subject of a lease, for which the right to use that asset has been provided by a lessor to a lessee.

An unearned finance income is the difference between:

- a) The gross investment in the lease and
- b) The net investment in the lease.

An unguaranteed residual value is that portion of the residual value of the underlying asset, the realisation of which by a lessor is not assured or is guaranteed solely by a party related to the lessor.

Useful life is the period over which an asset is expected to be available for use by an entity or the number of production or similar units expected to be obtained from an asset by an entity.

Variable lease payments are the portion of payments made by a lessee to a lessor for the right to use an underlying asset during the lease term that varies because of changes in facts or circumstances occurring after the commencement date, other than the passage of time.

Ind AS-1 Presentation of Financial Statements

1. Executive summary

- Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 1, Presentation of Financial Statements prescribes the basis for presentation of general purpose financial statements to ensure comparability both with the entity's financial statements of previous periods and with the financial statements of other entities. It sets out overall requirements for the presentation of both consolidated and separate financial statements, guidelines for their structure and minimum requirements for their content.
- For entities that operate in sectors such as banking, insurance, electricity, etc., specific formats may be prescribed under relevant regulations for presentation of financial statements and Ind AS 1 may not be applicable to that extent.
- Any entity claiming that a set of financial statements is in compliance with Ind AS complies with all such standards and related interpretations. The entity is not allowed to claim that its financial statements are, for example, 'materially' in compliance with Ind AS, or that it has complied with 'substantially all' requirements of Ind AS. Compliance with Ind AS encompasses disclosure as well as recognition and measurement requirements.
- For financial information to be useful, it needs to be relevant to users and faithfully represent what it purports to represent. The usefulness of financial information is enhanced by its comparability, verifiability, timeliness and understandability. The overriding requirement of Ind AS is for the financial statements to give a true and fair view. Compliance with Ind AS, including additional disclosure when necessary, is presumed to result in a true and fair view.
- The entity shall prepare financial statements on a going concern basis unless management intends to either liquidate the entity or to cease trading, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.
- A complete set of financial statements comprises the following:
 - A balance sheet,
 - A statement of profit and loss,
 - A statement of changes in equity,
 - A statement of cash flows,
 - Notes, including accounting policies,
 - Comparative information, and
 - A balance sheet as at the beginning of the preceding period in certain circumstances.
- The standard requires specific disclosures in the balance sheet, the statement of profit and loss, or the statement of changes in equity and requires disclosure of other line items either in those statements or in the notes.
- The standard requires the entity to recognise items as assets, liabilities, equity, income and expenses (the elements of financial statements) when they satisfy the definitions and recognition criteria for those elements in the Framework. The standard also requires the entity to consider aspects surrounding materiality, reporting and other presentation considerations.
- Financial statements are prepared on a modified historical cost basis, with a growing emphasis on fair value.
- A statement of changes in equity (and related notes) reconciles opening to closing amounts for each component of equity.
- All owner-related changes in equity are presented in the statement of changes in equity separately from non-owner changes in equity.
- Entities that have no equity as defined in Ind AS may need to adopt the financial statement presentation of members 'or unit holders' interests.
- The entity presents separately in the statements of changes in equity:
 - The total adjustment resulting from changes in accounting policies, and
 - The total adjustment resulting from the correction of errors.
- Generally, the entity presents its balance sheet classified between current and non-current assets and liabilities.
- An asset is classified as current if it is expected to be realised in the normal operating cycle or within 12 months, it is held for trading or is cash or a cash equivalent.

- A liability is classified as current if it is expected to be settled in the normal operating cycle, it is due within 12 months, or there are no unconditional rights to defer its settlement for at least 12 months.
- A liability that is payable on demand because certain conditions are breached is not classified as current if the lender has agreed, after the reporting date but before the financial statements are authorised for issue, not to demand repayment.
- The presentation of alternative earnings measures (e.g. Earnings Before Interest, Tax, Depreciation and Amortisation (EBITDA) in the statement of profit and loss and Other Comprehensive Income (OCI) is not generally prohibited, although national regulators may have more restrictive requirements.

Schedule III

- The Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act) provides general instructions for preparation of financial statements. Schedule III is divided into three parts, i.e. Division I, II and III¹. Division II is applicable to a company whose financial statements are drawn up in compliance with Ind AS and Division III is applicable to a Non-Banking Financial Company (NBFC) whose financial statements are drawn up in compliance with Ind AS.

Applicability

- Division II of Schedule III provides instructions for the preparation of financial statements and additional disclosure requirements for companies.
- The provisions of Schedule III also apply when a company is required to prepare consolidated financial statements, in addition to the disclosure requirements specified under Ind AS.

Materiality

- It requires financial statements to disclose all 'material' items, i.e. the items if they could, individually or collectively, influence the economic decisions that users make on the basis of financial statements. The definition of what is material is similar to that given in Ind AS 8, Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors. However, while preparing the statement of profit and loss, it specifies that a company should disclose a note for any item of income or expenditure which exceeds 1 per cent of the revenue from operations or INR1,000,000, whichever is higher, in addition to the consideration of materiality.

Compliance with Ind AS and the 2013 Act

- In situations where compliance with the requirements of the 2013 Act including Ind AS requires any change in treatment or disclosure (including addition, amendment, substitution or deletion in the head/sub-head or any changes in the financial statements or statements forming part thereof) in the formats given in Schedule III, then Schedule III permits such changes to be made and the requirements of Schedule III would stand modified accordingly.
- The disclosure requirements specified in Schedule III would be in addition to and not in substitution of the disclosure requirements specified in Ind AS. Companies would be required to make additional disclosures specified in Ind AS either in the notes or by way of additional statement(s) unless required to be disclosed on the face of financial statements. Similarly, all other disclosures as required by the 2013 Act should be made in the notes in addition to the requirements of Schedule III.

Other key considerations

- Schedule III sets out the minimum requirements for disclosure on the face of the financial statements. Cash flow statement should be prepared, where applicable, in accordance with the requirements of the relevant Ind AS.
- Line items, sub-line items and sub-totals should be presented as an addition or substitution on the face of the financial statements when such presentation is relevant to an understanding of the company's financial performance or position or to cater to industry, or to sector-specific disclosure requirements or when required for compliance with the amendments to the 2013 Act.
- It does not permit companies to avail of the option of presenting assets and liabilities in the order of liquidity, as provided by Ind AS 1. However, such information may be presented as additional information in the notes to the financial statements.
- It does not permit disclosure of extraordinary items (in line with Ind AS). However, the format for the statement of profit and loss does provide for separate disclosure of exceptional items, if any.

- It requires a separate disclosure of the Earning Per Share (EPS) for continuing and discontinued operations.

ICAI Guidance Note on Division II-Ind AS Schedule III to the 2013 Act (GN)

- The ICAI in July 2019 issued a revised GN to provide guidance in the preparation and presentation of financial statements in accordance with Ind AS Schedule III, for entities adopting Ind AS. The disclosure requirements under Ind AS, the 2013 Act, other pronouncements of ICAI, other statutes, etc. would be in addition to the guidance provided in this GN. Entities are encouraged to refer to the detailed guidance provided in this GN when they prepare Ind AS financial statements.

New developments

Exposure draft on definition of 'material'

- In February 2019, ICAI proposed amendments to Ind AS 1 and Ind AS 8 by refining the definition of the term 'material' to make it easier to understand. The proposed definition is based on the definition revised by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) on 31 October 2018 to make it aligned across IFRS and the Conceptual Framework.
- The revised definition of material as proposed by ICAI is:

'Information is material if omitting, misstating or obscuring it could reasonably be expected to influence decisions that the primary users of general purpose financial statements make on the basis of those financial statements, which provide financial information about a specific reporting entity.' (emphasis added)

- The revised definition proposes to clarify the following with respect to the definition of 'material':
 - It broadens the threshold for deciding whether information is material by making a reference to 'could reasonably be expected to influence' as against the previous reference 'could influence' the users of financial statements
 - It clarifies that the users to whom the definition refers are the primary users of the financial statements
 - It proposes to add 'obscuring' to the definition, alongside the existing references to 'omitting' and 'misstating'. This communicates that the understandability of financial statements should not be reduced by obscuring material information with immaterial information.
- The proposed amendments provide a definition and explanatory paragraphs in one place. ICAI expects that the effect of the revised definition would be helpful to entities to make better materiality judgements.
- Effective date: The revised definition is proposed to be made effective prospectively for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 April 2020². However, early adoption is permitted.

Exposure draft of amendment to Conceptual Framework

- In December 2019, the Accounting Standards Board (ASB) of the ICAI has issued an Exposure Draft (ED) of amendment to Conceptual Framework for Financial Reporting under Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS). Further the above ED proposes amendments to nine Ind AS including Ind AS 1³.

² Subject to notification by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA).

³ The proposal is currently only an ED.

	i. The measurement basis (or bases) used in preparing the financial statements, and		_____

3. Additional considerations

Some of the key requirements from the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act)

- Schedule III vs Ind AS: Ind AS 1 does not include any illustrative format for the presentation of financial statements. Section 129 of the 2013 Act requires companies to present the financial statements in the form prescribed in Schedule III to the 2013 Act. In case of any conflicts between the requirements of Ind AS and Schedule III to the 2013 Act, Ind AS shall prevail. For entities which are 'companies' and required to follow Schedule III of the 2013 Act, the liquidity basis as prescribed under Ind AS 1 is not available.
- National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) approved schemes: An entity may be required to comply with the accounting, presentation and disclosure requirements prescribed in an NCLT approved scheme relating to a merger or amalgamation transaction. The requirements of Ind AS 1 may stand modified to this extent.
- Frequency of reporting: Ind AS 1 requires the entity to present complete set of financial statements at least annually, unless the entity changes the reporting period and presents financial statements for a period longer or shorter than one year where appropriate disclosures shall be made by such the entity. However, the 2013 Act requires companies to generally have a financial year ending on 31 March every year.
- Materiality: Ind AS requires the entity to present separately each material class of similar items. The entity shall also present separately items of dissimilar nature or function unless they are immaterial except when required by law. Schedule III requires any item of income or expenditure which exceeds 1 per cent of revenue from operations or INR 10 lakh, whichever is higher, to be disclosed.

Significant carve-outs from IFRS

- Long-term loan arrangement: Such arrangements need not be classified as current on account of breach of a material provision, for which the lender has agreed to waive before the approval of financial statements for issue.
- Expenses analysis: IAS 1, Presentation of Financial Statements allows the entity to present the profit or loss account using either nature of expense or function of expenses classification, whichever provides information that is reliable and more relevant. Ind AS 1, however, allows only nature-wise classification of expenses.
- Single statement approach: IAS 1 provides an option either to follow the single statement approach or to follow the two statement approach. It provides that the entity may present a single statement of profit and loss and other comprehensive income, with profit or loss and other comprehensive income presented in two sections or the entity may present the profit or loss section in a separate statement of profit and loss which shall immediately precede the statement presenting comprehensive income, which shall begin with profit or loss. However, Ind AS 1 allows only the single statement approach.
- Periodicity: IAS 1 permits the periodicity, for example, of 52 weeks for preparation of financial statements. Ind AS 1 does not permit it.

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)1, Accounting Policies

- Prudence: ICDS does not recognise the concept of prudence. Hence, it disallows recognition of expected losses or mark-to-market (MTM) losses unless specifically permitted by any other ICDS.

However, ICDS remain silent on the treatment of mark-to-market unrealised gains. The Central Board of Direct Taxes, in its Frequently Asked Questions, clarified that, in accordance with the principles applicable to MTM losses, MTM gains or expected gains would not be recognised, unless its recognition is in accordance with the provisions of any other ICDS.

- Materiality: The concept of materiality which is an important consideration in preparing financial statements has not been considered under ICDS. This could pose implementation challenges, for instance, the treatment of unadjusted audit differences in the financial statements may need to be considered while computing taxable income.
- Change in accounting policies: ICDS does not permit changes in accounting policies without 'reasonable cause'. Reasonable cause has not been defined by the ICDS and hence, would involve exercise of judgement by the management and the tax authorities.

Some of the clarifications provided by the Ind AS Technical Facilitation Group (ITFG)

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
Bulletin 13 (Issue 5)	Disclosure of operating profit on the face of the statement of profit and loss ITFG clarified that presentation of an operating profit measure in the statement of profit and loss is not appropriate as classification of expenses by function is not permitted under Ind AS 1 and Ind AS Schedule III. Such a presentation is a more appropriate presentation of performance for entities that classify expenses by function. In addition, certain items which are credited to the statement of profit and loss may not form part of measure of operating profit and would result in change in the format of statement of profit and loss as prescribed by Schedule III applicable to Ind AS companies. However, the entity may provide such additional information in the notes.	1.85, 1.99 and Schedule III (Q 21(e), Q 24(d))
Bulletin 16 (Issue 2)	Treatment of income tax related interest and penalties under Ind AS vis-à-vis IFRS The ITFG clarified that the obligations for current tax and those for interest or penalties arise due to reasons that are fundamentally different in nature and Ind AS 1 requires an entity to separately present items of a dissimilar nature or function unless they are immaterial except when required by law. Therefore, interest or penalties related to income tax cannot be clubbed with current tax. (For further discussion on this clarification, please refer Ind AS 12 checklist.)	1.29 , Ind AS 12 (Q 17(b))
Bulletin 17 (Issue 8)	Classification of interest related to delay in payment of taxes The ITFG clarified that local taxes not paid by due date represent interest bearing liabilities. Bulletin 22 (Issue 7)	Presentation and accounting treatment of waiver of interest on the loan taken ITFG considered an issue related to the accounting treatment of interest on the loan for the year 2018-19. An entity A has an outstanding loan as at the year end 2018-19 in its Ind AS financial statements. The outstanding loan (repayable on demand and not related to qualifying assets) was taken from one of its directors during the year 2015-16. In previous years, the interest was charged and paid to the directors. However, in respect of interest on the loan for the year, 2018-19, a waiver was obtained from the director without amendment of the loan agreement. ITFG noted that A is contractually obligated to pay interest on the loan obtained from the director but the same has been waived off in the current year. ITFG clarified that in order to achieve fair presentation, appropriate accounting treatment would be to recognise contractual obligation for payment of interest as well as the waiver thereof. Thus, A would be required to account for the following items: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recognise interest as an item of expense • Waiver of interest as an item of income. Further, the same would also require to be disclosed as related party transactions. (It was assumed that the director is not a shareholder and is not compensated through remuneration for the interest waived).	1.15, 1.97 (Q 1), (Q 24(b and e))

Current assets: An entity shall classify an asset as current when:

- a) It expects to realise the asset, or intends to sell or consume it, in its normal operating cycle,
- b) It holds the asset primarily for the purpose of trading,
- c) It expects to realise the asset within 12 months after the reporting period, or
- d) The asset is cash or a cash equivalent (as defined in Ind AS 7) unless the asset is restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least 12 months after the reporting period.

An entity shall classify all other assets as non-current.

Current liability: An entity shall classify a liability as current when:

- a) It expects to settle the liability in its normal operating cycle,
- b) It holds the liability primarily for the purpose of trading,
- c) The liability is due to be settled within 12 months after the reporting period, or
- d) It does not have an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the reporting period (see paragraph 73 of Ind AS 1). Terms of a liability that could, at the option of the counterparty, result in its settlement by the issue of equity instruments do not affect its classification.

An entity shall classify all other liabilities as non-current.

General purpose financial statements (referred to as 'financial statements') are those intended to meet the needs of users who are not in a position to require an entity to prepare reports tailored to their particular information needs.

Impracticable Applying a requirement is impracticable when the entity cannot apply it after making every reasonable effort to do so.

Indian Accounting Standards (Ind ASs) are standards prescribed under Section 133 of the 2013 Act.

Material omissions or misstatements of items are material if they could, individually or collectively, influence the economic decisions that users make on the basis of the financial statements. Materiality depends on the size and nature of the omission or misstatement judged in the surrounding circumstances. The size or nature of the item, or a combination of both, could be the determining factor.

Other comprehensive income comprises items of income and expense (including reclassification adjustments) that are not recognised in profit or loss as required or permitted by other Ind ASs.

Owners are holders of instruments classified as equity.

Profit or loss is the total of income less expenses, excluding the components of other comprehensive income.

Reclassification adjustments are amounts reclassified to profit or loss in the current period that were recognised in other comprehensive income in the current or previous periods.

Total comprehensive income is the change in equity during a period resulting from transactions and other events, other than those changes resulting from transactions with owners in their capacity as owners.

Ind AS-2 Inventories

1. Executive summary

- Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 2, Inventories defines inventories as assets:
 - Held for sale in ordinary course of business (finished goods),
 - In the process of production for such sale (work in progress), or
 - In the form of materials or supplies to be consumed in the production process or in the rendering of services (raw material and consumables).
- Generally, inventories are measured at the lower of cost and Net Realisable Values (NRV).
- Cost includes all direct expenditure to bring inventories to their present location and condition, including allocated overheads.
- The cost of inventory is generally determined under the First-In, First-Out (FIFO) or weighted average method. The use of the Last-In, First-Out (LIFO) method is prohibited.
- Inventory costing methods may include standard cost or retail method if they approximate the actual cost.
- NRV is the estimated realisable value of inventories less estimated cost to be incurred to make the sale.
- If the NRV of an item that has been written down subsequently increases, then the write-down is reversed.
- The cost of inventory is recognised as an expense when the inventory is sold.

2. Checklist

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
Applicability
	This standard should be applied in accounting for inventories with respect to capitalisation of assets, subsequent recognition of expense, including the write-down to NRV, and in determining the cost formulas to be used in assigning costs to inventories.	2.1
Scope
1	Has the entity applied this standard if it is a trading concern that holds assets for sale in the ordinary course of business?	2.6 (a)	_____
2	Has the entity applied this standard if it holds assets in the process of production or manufacture, for sale in the ordinary course of business?	2.6 (b)	_____
3	Has the entity applied this standard to any buildings included in inventory, bought or constructed with the intention of resale in the ordinary course of business?		_____
4	Has the entity applied this standard to any materials or supplies to be consumed in the production process or in the rendering of services?	2.6 (c)	_____
	(Note: Items such as spare parts used in connection with Property, Plant and Equipment (PPE) over more than one accounting period, re-usable, returnable packaging or parts used during more than one period or samples held by the entity should be excluded from inventory.)
Recognition
5	Does the entity include the following in the cost of inventories:	2.10
	a) All cost of purchase,		_____
	b) All cost of conversion, and		_____
	c) Any other cost incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition?		_____
6	Do the costs of purchase included in the cost of inventories comprise the following:	2.11
	a) The purchase price (less trade discounts, and rebates and similar items),		_____
	b) Transport and handling charges,		_____
	c) Taxes that are not recoverable, and		_____
	d) Other costs directly attributable to the acquisition of finished goods, materials and services?		_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
7	Do the costs of purchase included in the cost of inventories comprise the following:	2.12
	a) Those costs that are directly related to the units of production (e.g. direct labour), and		_____
	b) A systematic allocation of fixed and variable production overheads that are incurred in converting the materials into finished goods?		_____
8	Has the entity based the allocation of fixed production overheads on either:	2.13
	a) Normal capacity of the production overheads, (which is the production that the entity expects to achieve on an average over a number of periods or seasons under normal circumstances, taking into account the loss of capacity resulting from planned maintenance), or		_____
	b) The actual level of production, (only where it approximates normal capacity)?		_____
9	In case of a situation where there is low production (compared to normal capacity) or plant is idle, has the entity expensed the unallocated overheads?	2.13	_____
10	In periods of abnormally high production, has the entity adjusted the amount of fixed overheads allocated to each unit of production (such that inventories are not measured above cost)?	2.13	_____
11	Has the entity allocated variable production overheads to each unit of production on the basis of the actual use of the production facilities?	2.13	_____
12	Does the production process of the entity generate multiple products,	2.14
	a) If yes, can the cost of conversion of each product be separately identified, or		_____
	b) If not separately identifiable, is the cost allocated individually or on a rational and consistent basis?		_____
13	Do the costs included in the carrying amount of inventories such as other costs represent only those costs that have been incurred in bringing inventories to their present location and condition?	2.15	_____
14	Are the costs which are not directly related to bringing inventories to their present location and condition recognised as expenses in the period in which they are incurred?	2.16	_____
15	Are qualifying borrowing costs included in the cost of inventories? (Refer Ind AS 23, Borrowing Costs)	2.17	_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
16	If the entity has purchased inventories on deferred settlement basis and the arrangement effectively contains a financing element, has the entity recognised that element (for example, a difference between the purchase price for normal credit terms and the amount paid) as interest expenses over the period of financing under the effective interest method?	2.18	_____
Cost of agricultural produce harvested from biological assets
17	If the entity holds any agricultural produce harvested from biological assets have the costs of such assets been measured on initial recognition at their fair value less costs to sell at the point of harvest?	2.20	_____
Measurement
18	Does the entity measure the inventory at the lower of cost and NRV?	2.9	_____
19	Does the entity use techniques for the measurement of the cost of inventories, such as the standard cost or the retail method, for convenience if the results approximate cost?	2.21	_____
20	If the entity applies the standard cost method, a) Does the standard cost take into account normal levels of material and supplies, labour, efficiency and capacity utilisation, and b) Are standard costs regularly reviewed and revised, if necessary?	2.21	_____
21	If the entity applies the retail method, a) Is the cost of the inventories determined by reducing the sales value of the inventories by the appropriate percentage gross margin, and b) Does the percentage used take into consideration inventories that have been marked down to below their original selling price?	2.22	_____
22	a) Does the entity hold inventories of items that are not ordinarily interchangeable and goods or services produced and segregated for specific projects? b) Does the entity identify the cost of such inventory items by using specific identification of their individual costs?	2.23	_____
23	For the items other than those dealt with under Q 22 above, does the entity assign the cost of inventory on one of the following bases: a) The FIFO method, or b) The weighted average cost formula?	2.25	_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
24	Has the entity consistently used the same cost formula (i.e. FIFO or weighted average) for all inventories that are of a similar nature and use to the entity?	2.25	_____
25	If the entity uses a different cost formula for inventories with a different nature or use, has it provided appropriate justification for doing so?	2.25	_____
26	Does the entity assess the NRV of inventories on an item by item basis, unless they are similar or related items, in which case they can be assessed on a group basis?	2.29	_____
27	Are the estimates of NRV based on the most reliable evidence available at the time the estimates were made, of the amount the inventory is expected to realise?	2.30	_____
28	Do the estimates of NRV take into consideration fluctuations of prices or costs directly relating to events occurring after the end of the period only to the extent that such events confirm conditions existing at the end of the period?	2.30	_____
29	Do the estimates of NRV take into consideration the purpose for which the inventory is held?	2.31	_____
30	If the NRV of materials and supplies held for use in the production of inventories has fallen below the cost, have such materials and other supplies not been written down below their cost if the related finished goods are expected to be sold at or above cost? (Note: Materials and other supplies held for use in the production of inventories are not written down below cost if the finished products in which they will be incorporated are expected to be sold at or above cost.)	2.32	_____
31	If the circumstances that previously caused inventories to be written down below cost no longer exist, or if there is clear evidence of an increase in NRV because of changed economic circumstances, has the write-down value been reversed (limited to the amount of the original write-down) so that the new carrying amount represents the lower of cost and the revised NRV?	2.33	_____
32	If the write-down of inventory to NRV has been reversed as a result of an increase in NRV then in such a case, has the reversal been recognised as a reduction in the amount of inventories recognised as an expense, in the period in which the reversal occurs?		_____
33	Has the carrying amount of all inventories which were sold during the period been expensed in the period when the related revenue was recognised?	2.34	_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
34	Has the entity recognised the write-down of inventories to NRV, and all other losses of inventories, as an expense in the period the write-down or loss occurred?	2.34	_____
35	a) Have inventories been allocated to some other asset account (e.g. inventory used as a component of self-constructed property, plant or equipment)?	2.35	_____
	b) In such case have the inventories been recognised as an expense during the useful life of that asset?		_____
	Disclosure
36	Has the entity presented inventory by classifying them as:	2.37
	a) Raw materials,	Sch III Part-I Para B.I	_____
	b) Work-in-progress,		_____
	c) Finished goods,		_____
	d) Stock-in-trade (in respect of goods acquired for trading),		_____
	e) Stores and spares,		_____
	f) Loose tools, and		_____
	g) Others (specify nature)?		_____
	(Note: Information about the carrying amounts held in different classifications of inventories and the extent of the changes in these assets is useful to financial statements' users. Common classifications of inventories are merchandise, production supplies, materials, work in progress and finished goods.)
37	Has the entity disclosed the following:	2.36
	a) The accounting policies adopted in measuring inventories, including the cost formula used,	Sch III Part-I Para B.I	_____
	b) The total carrying amount of inventories and the carrying amount in classifications appropriate to the entity,		_____
	c) The carrying amount of inventories carried at fair value less costs to sell,		_____
	d) The amount of inventories recognised as an expense during the period,		_____
	e) The amount of any write-down of inventories recognised as an expense in the period and presented in cost of sales,		_____
	f) The amount of any reversal of any write-down that is recognised as a reduction in the amount of inventories recognised as expense in the period and presented in cost of sales,		_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	g) The circumstances or events that led to the reversal of a write-down of inventories,		_____
	h) The carrying amount of inventories pledged as security for liabilities, and		_____
	i) Goods-in-transit under the relevant sub-head of inventories?		_____
38	Where an entity adopts a format for profit and loss that results in amounts being disclosed other than the cost of inventories recognised as an expense during the period, has the entity presented:	2.39
	a) An analysis of expenses using a classification based on nature of expenses, and		_____
	b) The costs recognised as an expense for raw materials and consumables, labour costs and other costs together with the amount of the net change in inventories for the period?		_____

- Paragraph 38 of IAS 2, Inventories dealing with recognition of inventories as an expense based on function wise classification, has been deleted in Ind AS 2

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)) II, Valuation of Inventories

- ICDS II Valuation of inventories was revised on 29 September 2016. The revised ICDS permits standard cost method as a technique to measure the cost of inventory, and prescribes the following disclosures, where standard costing is used as a measurement of cost of inventory:
 - Details of inventories measured at standard cost, and
 - A confirmation that standard cost approximates the actual cost.

Some of the clarifications provided by the Ind AS Technical Facilitation Group (ITFG)

- No specific clarifications have been provided by ITFG relating to this standard.

Glossary

Inventories are assets:

- a) Held for sale in the ordinary course of business,
- b) In the process of production for such sale, and
- c) In the form of materials or supplies to be consumed in the production process or in the rendering of services.

Net realisable value, is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

Fair value, is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

Ind AS-7 Statement of Cash Flows

1. Executive summary

- Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 7, Statement of Cash Flows requires the entity to provide information about historical changes in its cash and cash equivalents in a statement of cash flows. The statement of cash flows classifies cash flows during the period into those from operating, investing and financing activities.
- Cash and cash equivalents for the purposes of the statement of cash flows include certain short-term investments and in some cases, bank overdrafts.
- Taxes paid are separately disclosed and classified as operating activities unless it is practicable to identify them with, and therefore, classify them as, financing or investing activities.
- Cash flows from operating activities may be presented under either the direct method or the indirect method. However, in case of listed entities, the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 require the use of the indirect method in preparing the cash flow statement.
- The entity presents its cash flows in the manner most appropriate to its business.
- Foreign currency cash flows are translated at the exchange rates at the date of the cash flows (or using averages when appropriate).
- Generally, all financing and investing cash flows are reported gross. Cash flows are offset only in limited circumstances.
- For annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 April 2017, an entity is required to provide disclosures that enable users of financial statements to evaluate changes in liabilities arising from financing activities, including both changes arising from cash flows and non-cash changes.

Dividends paid should be classified as cash flows from financing activities.) 16	a) Are the cash flows arising from taxes on income separately disclosed and classified as cash flows from operating activities unless they can be specifically identified with financing and investing activities?	7.35	_____
	b) In case tax cash flows are allocated over more than one class of activity, then has the entity disclosed the total amount of taxes paid?	7.36	_____
	(Note: When it is practicable to identify the tax cash flow with an individual transaction that gives rise to cash flows that are classified as investing or financing, the tax cash flow is classified as an investing or financing activity as appropriate.)
	Foreign currency cash flows
17	Whether cash flows arising from transactions in a foreign currency are recorded in an entity's functional currency by applying to the foreign currency amount the exchange rate between the functional currency and the foreign currency at the date of the cash flow?	7.25	_____
18	Are the cash flows of a foreign subsidiary translated at the exchange rates between the functional currency and the foreign currency at the dates of the cash flows?	7.26	_____
19	Whether the cash flows denominated in a foreign currency are reported in a manner consistent with Ind AS 21, The Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates by using an exchange rate that approximates the actual rate, e.g. a weighted average exchange rate?	7.27	_____
20	a) Are unrealised gains and losses arising from changes in foreign currency exchange rates excluded from the cash flow statement, except for, the effect of exchange rate changes on cash and cash equivalents held or due in a foreign currency reported in the statement of cash flows?	7.28	_____

	b) Has the entity presented the exchange rate changes on cash and cash equivalent separately from cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities, and included the differences, if any, had those cash flows been reported at the end of period exchange rates?		_____
Investments in subsidiaries, associates, joint ventures and other businesses
21	When accounting for an investment in an associate, a joint venture or a subsidiary accounted for by use of the equity or cost method, has the entity restricted its reporting in the statement of cash flows to the cash flows between itself and the investee (for example, to dividends and advances)?	7.37	_____
22	Have the aggregate cash flows arising from obtaining or losing control of subsidiaries or other businesses been presented separately and classified as investing activities in the statement of cash flows?	7.39	_____
	(Note: Cash flows arising from changes in ownership interests in a subsidiary that do not result in a loss of control shall be classified as cash flows from financing activities, unless the subsidiary is held by an investment entity, as defined in Ind AS 110, Consolidated Financial Statements, and is required to be measured at fair value through profit or loss.	7.42A	_____
	Changes in ownership interests in a subsidiary that do not result in a loss of control, such as the subsequent purchase or sale by a parent of a subsidiary's equity instruments, are accounted for as equity transactions (see Ind AS 110), unless the subsidiary is held by an investment entity and is required to be measured at fair value through profit or loss. Accordingly, the resulting cash flows are classified as cash flows from financing activities, in the same way as other transactions with owners as described in this standard.)	7.42B	_____
23	Has the entity disclosed, in aggregate, in respect of both obtaining and losing control of subsidiaries or other businesses during the period, each of the following:	7.40	_____
	a) The total consideration paid or received,		_____
	b) The portion of the consideration consisting of cash and cash equivalents,		_____
	c) The amount of cash and cash equivalents in the subsidiaries or other businesses over which control is obtained or lost, and		_____
	d) The amount of the assets and liabilities other than cash or cash equivalents in the subsidiaries or other businesses over which control is obtained or lost, summarised by each major category?		_____
	(Note: An investment entity, as defined in Ind AS 110, need not apply requirements provided in Q 23 (c) - (d), to an investment in a subsidiary that is required to be measured at fair value through profit or loss.)	7.40A	_____

3. Additional considerations

Some of the key requirements from the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act)

- The 2013 Act defines the term ‘financial statements’ to include:
 - Balance sheet as at the end of the financial year,
 - Statement of profit and loss for the financial year,
 - Cash flow statement for the financial year,
 - Statement of change in equity, if applicable, and
- Any explanatory note forming part of the above statements.
- Therefore, preparation of cash flow statements is mandatory under the 2013 Act. Once the entity transitions to Ind AS, the cash flow statement would be prepared in accordance with the requirements of this standard.
- For one person company, small company, dormant company and private company (if such private company is a start-up), financial statements may not include the cash flow statement

Significant carve-outs from IFRS

- In case of other than financial entities, IAS 7, Statement of Cash Flows gives an option to classify the interest paid and interest and dividends received as item of operating cash flows. Ind AS 7 does not provide such an option and requires these item to be classified as item of financing activity and investing activity, respectively.
- IAS 7 gives an option to classify the dividend paid as an item of operating activity. However, Ind AS 7 requires it to be classified as a part of financing activity only.

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

- No specific requirements have been prescribed under the ICDS relating to this standard.

Some of the clarifications provided by the Ind AS Technical Facilitation Group (ITFG)

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
Bulletin 16 (Issue 4)	Classification of units of money-market mutual funds as cash equivalents The ITFG evaluated whether investments made by an entity in units of money-market mutual funds (i.e. those investing in money-market instruments such as treasury bills, certificates of deposit and commercial paper) that are traded in an active market or are puttable by the holder to the fund at Net Asset Value (NAV) at any time could be classified as cash equivalents under Ind AS. In doing so, it assessed the three cumulative conditions prescribed in Ind AS 7: a) Investment must be for meeting short-term cash commitments: This evaluation should be based on the management’s intent which could be evidenced from documentary sources such as investment policy, investment manuals, etc. It could also be	7.6, 7.7 (Q 1)

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
	corroborated by the actual experience of buying and selling those investments. However, such investments should be held only as a means of settling liabilities, and not as an investment or for any other purposes. Therefore, this condition requires an assessment of facts and circumstances of each case.
	b) Investment must be highly liquid: Units of a money market mutual fund that are traded in an active market or that can be put back by the holder at any time to the fund at their NAV could meet the condition of the investment being highly liquid.
	c) Amount that would be realised from the investment must be known, with no more than an insignificant risk of change in value of the investment: This condition requires that the amount of cash that would be received should be known at the time of initial investment. Additionally, an entity would have to ensure that the investment is subject to insignificant risk of changes in value for it to be classified as cash equivalent.
	As per ITFG, units of money-market funds would not be able to meet the last condition as their value keeps changing primarily due to changes in interest rates. However, as per ITFG there could be situations wherein this last condition could be met for instance, units of money-market mutual funds have been acquired for a very brief period before the end of tenure of a mutual fund and the maturity amounts of the mutual funds are pre-determined and known. In such a case, it could be argued that the redemption amount of the units is known and subject only to an insignificant change in value.

Cash comprises cash on hand and demand deposits.

Cash equivalents are short-term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

Cash flows are inflows and outflows of cash and cash equivalents.

Operating activities are the principal revenue-producing activities of the entity and other activities that are not investing or financing activities.

Investing activities are the acquisition and disposal of long-term assets and other investments not included in cash equivalents.

Financing activities are activities that result in changes in the size and composition of the contributed equity and borrowings of the entity.

Ind AS-8 Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors

1. Executive summary

- Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 8 Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors prescribes the criteria for selecting and changing accounting policies, accounting treatment and disclosure of changes in accounting policies, estimates and correction of errors.
- Accounting policies are the specific principles, bases, conventions, rules and practices that an entity applies in preparing and presenting financial statements.
- If Ind AS does not cover a particular issue, then the entity uses its judgement based on a hierarchy of accounting literature.
- The entity shall select and apply its accounting policies consistently for similar transactions, other events and conditions, unless an Ind AS specifically requires or permits categorisation of items for which different policies may be appropriate. If an Ind AS requires or permits such categorisation, an appropriate accounting policy shall be selected and applied consistently to each category.
- The entity shall change an accounting policy only if the change is required by an Ind AS or results in the financial statements providing reliable and more relevant information.
- When initial application of an Ind AS has an effect on the current period or any prior period, the entity shall disclose the title of the Ind AS, the nature of change in accounting policy and that it is based on transitional provisions, a description of the transitional provisions including those that might have an effect on future periods and the amount of adjustment for the current and each prior period presented to the extent applicable. When an entity has not applied a new Ind AS that has been issued but is not yet effective, the entity shall disclose this along with known or reasonably estimable information to assess the possible impact that its initial application will have on the entity's financial statements.
- The entity shall disclose the nature and amount of a change in an accounting estimate that has an effect in the current period or is expected to have an effect in future periods.

If it is impracticable to disclose the amount of effect in future periods, this fact would be disclosed by the entity.

- Errors can arise in respect of the recognition, measurement, presentation or disclosure of elements of financial statements. Generally, accounting policy changes and correction for errors are made retrospectively by adjusting opening equity and restating comparatives unless impracticable.
- The entity should account for change in accounting estimate prospectively and where it is difficult to determine whether a change is change in accounting policy or a change in estimate, then it is treated as change in estimate.
- If the classification and presentation of items in the financial statements is changed, then the entity should restate the comparatives unless this is impracticable.
- Disclosure is required for judgements that have a significant impact on the financial statements and for key sources of estimation uncertainty.

New developments

- In February 2019, the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) proposed amendments to Ind AS 1, Presentation of Financial Statements and Ind AS 8 by refining the definition of the term 'material' to make it easier to understand. The proposed definition is based on the definition revised by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) on 31 October 2018 to make it aligned across IFRS and the Conceptual Framework for Financial Reporting (conceptual framework).
- The revised definition of material as proposed by ICAI is:
 'Information is material if omitting, misstating or obscuring it could reasonably be expected to influence decisions that the primary users of general purpose financial statements make on the basis of those financial statements, which provide financial information about a specific reporting entity.' (emphasis added)

- The revised definition proposes to clarify the following with respect to the definition of 'material':
 - It broadens the threshold for deciding whether information is material by making a reference to 'could reasonably be expected to influence' as against the previous reference 'could influence' the users of financial statements, and
 - Users to whom the definition refers are the primary users of the financial statements.
- It proposes to add 'obscuring' to the definition, alongside the existing references to 'omitting' and 'misstating'. This communicates that the understandability of financial statements should not be reduced by obscuring material information with immaterial information.
- The exposure draft has proposed to remove the definition of material omissions or misstatements from Ind AS 8.
- The proposed amendments provide a definition and explanatory paragraphs in one place. ICAI expects that the effect of the revised definition would be helpful to entities to make better materiality judgements.
- Effective date: The revised definition is proposed to be made effective prospectively for annual periods beginning on or after 1 April 2020¹. However, early adoption is permitted.

Proposed amendments to the Conceptual Framework

- In December 2019, the Accounting Standards Board (ASB) of the ICAI has issued an Exposure Draft (ED) of amendment to Conceptual Framework for Financial Reporting under Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS). Further the above ED proposes amendments to nine Ind AS including Ind AS 8².

¹ Subject to notification by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA)

² The proposal is currently only an ED.

Change in accounting estimates
26	Has the entity disclosed the nature and amount of a change in an accounting estimate that has an effect in the current period or is expected to have an effect in future periods (except for the disclosure of the effect on future periods when it is impracticable to estimate that effect)?	8.39	_____
	(Note: If the amount of the effect in future periods is not disclosed because estimating it is impracticable, then entities should disclose that fact.)	8.40	_____
Prior period errors
27	Has the entity disclosed:	8.49	_____
	a) The nature of the prior period error,		_____
	b) For each prior period presented, to the extent practicable, the amount of the correction:		_____
	i. For each financial statement line item affected, and		_____
	ii. For basic and diluted earnings per share, if applicable,		_____
	c) The amount of the correction at the beginning of the earliest period presented, and		_____
	d) If retrospective restatement is impracticable for a particular prior period, the circumstances that led to the existence of that condition and a description of how and from when the error has been corrected?		_____
	(Note: Financial statements of subsequent periods need not repeat these disclosures.)		_____

3. Additional considerations

Some of the key requirements from the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act)

- As indicated above, Ind AS requires recast of prior period information in case of a change in the accounting policy or prior period errors. It may be noted that the 2013 Act also contains provisions in connection with revision of the financial statements either pursuant to the Tribunal's orders or voluntarily. A question that remains unanswered is whether, recast of financial statements as required by Ind AS, would amount to a voluntary revision of the financial statements.

Significant carve-outs from IFRS

- IAS 8, Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors provides that IFRS are accompanied by guidance to assist entities in applying their requirements. Guidance that is not an integral part of IFRS does not contain requirements for financial statements. Ind AS 8, relevant paragraph has been modified by not including the text given in the context of the guidance forming non-integral part of the Ind AS, as such guidance has not been given in the Ind AS.

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

- ICDS does not permit changes in accounting policies without a 'reasonable cause'. In case there is a change in accounting policies, the ICDS standards require disclosure. There is no requirement to recast prior financial information. The ICDS do not define what is 'reasonable cause' and hence this may lead to litigation, unless the term is specifically clarified.
- There is no specific guidance on errors. It is expected that errors would be charged to tax or deductible in the year to which they relate.

Clarifications provided by the Central Board of Direct Taxes (CBDT) in the form of Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

- Interplay between ICDS and maintenance of books of account: Entities are required to maintain books of account and prepare financial statements as per accounting policies prescribed in the 2013 Act and the Rules thereto. The accounting policies mentioned in ICDS-I, Accounting Policies being fundamental in nature, should be applied for computing income under the heads 'Profits and gains of business or profession' (PGBP) or 'Income from other sources' (IOS). (Refer FAQ 1 on ICDS)
- Applicability of ICDS to companies which have adopted Ind AS: ICDS should be applied for computation of taxable income under the head PGBP or IOS, irrespective of the accounting standards adopted by companies (i.e. either Accounting Standards or Ind AS). (Refer FAQ 5 on ICDS)
- Meaning of reasonable cause: The CBDT has highlighted that sufficient guidance is available to interpret the term 'reasonable cause'. Therefore, an assessee should apply the available guidance to its facts and circumstances and judge if a change in accounting policy meets the criteria for reasonable cause. (Refer FAQ 9 on ICDS)
- Disclosures specified under ICDS: Net effect on the income due to application of ICDS is to be disclosed in the return of income. Disclosures of significant accounting policies and disclosures required under ICDS should be made in the tax audit report in the Form 3CD. There are no separate disclosure requirements for persons who are not liable to tax audit. (Refer FAQ 25 on ICDS)

Some of the clarifications provided by the Ind AS Technical Facilitation Group (ITFG)

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
Bulletin 22 (Issue 2)	Accounting for lease rental income In respect of accounting for operating leases by a lessor, Ind AS 17, Leases did not require or permit scheduled lease rental increases to be recognised on a straight-line basis over the lease term if lease rentals were structured to increase in line with expected general inflation to compensate for the lessor’s expected inflationary cost increases. Instead, Ind AS 17 required such increases to be recognised in the respective period of increase only. This was a significant difference (a carve out) from its corresponding IFRS which was IAS 17, Leases. However, it is important to note that the above carve out is not carried forward in Ind AS 116. Thus, Ind AS 116 requires operating lease rentals to be recognised on a straight-line basis (or on another systematic basis if such other basis is more representative of the pattern in which benefit from the use of the underlying asset is diminished). An entity Y Ltd. (lessor) entered into a lease agreement to provide on lease an office building to another entity X Ltd. (lessee) for a period of five years beginning 1 April 2017. The terms of the lease agreement are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The lease rental for the first year was INR5,00,000 • The lease rental for each subsequent year was to increase by 10 per cent over the lease rental for the immediately preceding year • The scheduled 10 per cent annual increase in lease rentals was in line with expected general inflation to compensate for Y Ltd.’s expected inflationary cost increases. The lease was classified by Y Ltd. as an operating lease. Further, in accordance with Ind AS 17, Y Ltd. recognised a lease rental income of INR5,00,000 for the year 2017-18 and INR5,50,000 for the year 2018-19. Thus, Y Ltd. did not recognise the lease rental income on a straight-line basis. The ITFG considered and clarified the accounting of the rental income of the operating lease by the lessor, in accordance with Ind AS 116 as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Y Ltd. is required to recognise operating lease rentals from the office building given on lease on a straight-line basis over the lease term, even though the lease rentals are structured to increase in line with expected general inflation to compensate for its expected inflationary cost increases • The resultant change in manner of recognition of operating lease rentals by Y Ltd. represents a change in an accounting policy which would need to be accounted for as per Ind AS 8, in the absence of specific transitional provisions in Ind AS 116 dealing with the change. 	8.19, Ind AS 116 (Q 10)

Glossary

Accounting Policies – Accounting policies are the specific principles, bases, conventions, rules and practices applied by an entity in preparing and presenting financial statements.

Change in Accounting Estimate – A change in accounting estimate is an adjustment of the carrying amount of an asset or a liability, or the amount of the periodic consumption of an asset that results from the assessment of the present status of, and expected future benefits and obligations associated with, assets and liabilities. Changes in accounting estimates result from new information or new developments and, accordingly, are not correction of errors.

Prior Period errors – Prior period errors are omissions from, and misstatement in, the entity's financial statements for one or more prior periods arising from a failure to use, or misuse of, reliable information that:

- a) Was available when financial statements for those periods were approved for issue, and
- b) Could reasonably be expected to have been obtained and taken into account in the preparation and presentation of those financial statements.

Such errors include the effects of mathematical mistakes, mistake in applying accounting policies, oversights or misrepresentations of facts, and fraud.

Impracticable – Applying a requirement is impracticable when the entity cannot apply it after making every reasonable effort to do so.

Indian Accounting Standards (Ind ASs) – are Standards prescribed under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013.

Material – Omissions or misstatements of items are material if they could, individually or collectively, influence the economic decisions that users make on the basis of the financial statements. Materiality depends on the size and nature of the omission or misstatement judged in the surrounding circumstances. The size or nature of the item, or a combination of both, could be the determining factor.

Retrospective Application – is applying a new accounting policy to transactions, other events and conditions as if that policy had always been applied.

Retrospective Restatement – is correcting the recognition, measurement and disclosure of amounts of elements of financial statements as if a prior period error had never occurred.

Prospective Application – Prospective application of a change in accounting policy and of recognising the effect of a change in an accounting estimate, respectively are:

- a) Applying the new accounting policy to transactions, other events and conditions occurring after the date as at which the policy is changed, and
- b) Recognising the effect of the change in the accounting estimate in the current and future periods affected by the change.

Ind AS-10 Events after the Reporting Period

1. Executive summary

- Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 10, Events after the Reporting Period deals with events that occur after the end of the reporting period but before the financial statements are authorised for issue.
- The financial statements are adjusted to reflect events that occur after the end of the reporting period, but before the financial statements are authorised for issue by management, if those events provide evidence of conditions that existed at the end of the reporting period.
- Financial statements are not adjusted for events that are a result of conditions that arose after the reporting period, except when the going concern assumption is no longer appropriate.
- It is necessary to determine the underlying clauses of an event and its timing to determine whether the event is adjusting or non-adjusting.
- The classification of liabilities as current or non-current is based generally on circumstances at the reporting date.
- Earnings per share is restated to include the effect on the number of shares of certain share transactions that happen after the reporting date.
- If management determines that the entity is not a going concern after the reporting date but before the financial statements are authorised for issue, then the financial statements are not prepared on a going concern basis. (Also refer to checklist on Ind AS 1, Presentation of Financial Statements).

Adjusting events
1	If there are any events that have occurred between the end of the reporting period and the date on which the financial statements of the entity are approved for issue, that provide evidence of conditions that existed at the end of the reporting period in respect of the entity, has the entity treated these as adjusting events and adjusted the amount recognised in its financial statements to reflect such events occurring after the reporting period? (Refer ITFG bulletin 14 issue 4 clarification)	10.8
	(The following are some examples of adjusting events:	10.9
	a) The settlement after the reporting period of a court case that confirms that the entity had a present obligation at the end of the reporting period,
	b) The receipt of information after the reporting period indicating that an asset was impaired at the end of the reporting period, or that the amount of a previously recognised impairment loss for that asset needs to be adjusted. For example, the sale of inventories after the reporting period may give evidence about their net realisable value at the end of the reporting period,
	c) The determination after the reporting period of the cost of assets purchased, or the proceeds from assets sold, before the end of the reporting period,
	d) The determination after the reporting period of the amount of profit-sharing or bonus payments, if the entity had a present legal or constructive obligation at the end of the reporting period to make such payments as a result of events before that date, and
	e) The discovery of fraud or errors that show that the financial statements are incorrect.)
Non-adjusting events
2	If there are any events that are indicative of conditions that arose after the end of the reporting period, has the entity ensured that it has not adjusted the amounts recognised in its financial statements to reflect non-adjusting events after the reporting period?	10.10
3	If there are any material non-adjusting events, non-disclosure of which could influence the economic decisions that users make on the basis of the financial statements, has the entity disclosed the nature of the event and an estimate of its financial effect, or a statement that such an estimate cannot be made, in the financial statements?	10.21

4	a) Is there any breach of a material provision of a long-term loan arrangement on or before the end of the reporting period, with an effect that the liability becomes payable on demand on the reporting date?	10.3	_____
	b) Is there any agreement made by the lender before the approval of financial statements to not demand payment as a consequence of the breach?		_____
5	If answer to Q 4 (a) and 4 (b) is yes, has the entity considered this as an adjusting event, else has the entity disclosed the liability as payable on demand?	10.3	_____
Dividends
6	If the entity has declared dividend to equity holders after the reporting period, has the entity not recognised a liability as at the end of reporting period and disclosed the dividend in the notes in accordance with the Ind AS 1?	10.12	_____
Going Concern
7	a) Has the entity prepared its financial statements on a going concern basis?	10.14 10.15	_____
	(Note: Going concern may not be valid if:
	i. Management determined after the reporting date that it intends to liquidate the entity or cease trading,
	ii. It has no realistic alternative but to do so (e.g. if there is a deterioration in operational results and the financial position after the reporting period, it may indicate a need to consider whether the going concern assumption is appropriate.)
	b) Has the entity made disclosures as per Ind AS 1 if:	10.16
	i. The financial statements are not prepared on a going concern basis, or		_____
	ii. Management is aware of material uncertainties related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt upon the entity's ability to continue as a going concern (such events or conditions requiring disclosure may arise after the reporting period)?		_____
Disclosures
8	Has the entity disclosed the date when the financial statements were approved for issue and who gave that approval?	10.17	_____
9	If the entity's owners or others have the power to amend the financial statements after issue, has the fact been disclosed?	10.17	_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
10	Has the entity updated disclosures that relate to conditions that existed at the end of the reporting period, based upon information received after the reporting period?	10.19	_____
11	Has the entity updated the disclosures in its financial statements to reflect information received after the end of the reporting period, even when the information does not affect the amounts that it recognises in its financial statement?	10.20	_____
12	If there is any material non-adjusting event, for example:	10.22	_____
	a) A major business combination after the reporting period or disposing of a major subsidiary,
	b) Announcement of a plan to discontinue an operation,
	c) Major purchases or disposals of assets, classification of assets as held for sale, or expropriation of major assets by government,
	d) Destruction of a major production plant by fire,
	e) Announcing or completing the implementation of a major restructuring,
	f) Major ordinary share transactions or potential ordinary share transactions,
	g) Abnormally large changes in asset prices or foreign exchange rates,
	h) Changes in tax rates or tax laws enacted or announced after the reporting period that have a significant effect on current and deferred tax assets and liabilities,
	i) Entering into significant commitments or contingent liabilities, (for example, by issuing significant guarantees) or
	j) Commencing major litigation arising solely out of events that occurred after the reporting period.
	Has the following disclosure been provided:	10.21	_____
	a) Nature of the event, and		_____
	b) An estimate of its financial effect, or a statement that such an estimate cannot be made?		_____
Appendix – Distribution of non-cash assets to owners 13	The following Q 14-18 of the checklist should be completed if:
	a) Where permissible by applicable laws, the entity has distributed non-cash assets as dividend to its owners or has given its owners a choice of receiving either non-cash assets or a cash alternative as dividends,	10.A3	_____
	b) All owners of the same class of equity instruments are treated equally, and	10.A4	_____

	a) To its owners, was the liability measured at the fair value of the assets to be distributed, and	10.A12	_____
	b) In case the entity has given a choice to its owners of receiving either a non-cash asset or a cash alternative, did the entity estimate the dividend payable by considering both the fair value of each alternative and the associated probability of the owners selecting each alternative?		_____
15	Has the entity, at the end of each reporting period and at the date of settlement, reviewed and adjusted the carrying amount of the dividend payable, with any changes in the carrying amount of dividend payable being recognised in equity as adjustments to the amount of the distribution?	10.A13	_____
16	On settlement, has the entity recognised the difference between the carrying amount of the assets distributed and the carrying amount of the dividend payable in the statement of profit and loss?	10.A14	_____
17	If there is a difference between the carrying amount of the assets distributed and the carrying amount of the dividend payable, has the entity disclosed the following:	10.A15	_____
	a) The difference between the carrying amount of the dividend payable and the carrying amount of the asset in the statement of profit and loss account as a separate line item,	10.A16	_____
	b) The carrying amount of the dividend payable at the beginning and end of the period, and		_____
	c) The increase or decrease in the carrying amount recognised in the period as result of a change in the fair value of the assets to be distributed?		_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
18	If, after the end of the reporting period but before the financial statements are approved for issue, the entity declares a dividend to distribute a non-cash asset, has the entity disclosed the following:	10.A17
	a) The nature of the asset to be distributed,		_____
	b) The carrying amount of the asset to be distributed as of the end of the reporting period, and		_____
	c) The fair value of the asset to be distributed as of the end of the reporting period, if it is different from its carrying amount, and the information about the method (s) used to measure the fair value required by paragraph 93 (b), (d), (g) and (i) and 99 of Ind AS 113, Fair Value Measurement ?		_____

3. Additional considerations

Some of the key requirements from the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act)

- There are no specific requirements arising out of the 2013 Act in the context of this standard.

Significant carve-outs from IFRS

- Consequent to changes made in Ind AS 1, it has been provided in the definition of 'Events after the reporting period' that in case of breach of a material provision of a long-term loan arrangement on or before the end of the reporting period with the effect that the liability becomes payable on demand on the reporting date, if the lender, before the approval of the financial statements for issue, agrees to waive the breach, it shall be considered as an adjusting event. (Also refer checklist on Ind AS 1).

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

- There is no specific requirement under ICDS on adjusting events/non-adjusting events. Treatment of provisions made in the financial statements is dealt with under the other provisions of the Income Tax Act, 1961.

Some of the clarifications provided by the Ind AS Technical Facilitation Group (ITFG)

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
Bulletin 14 (Issue 4)	Approval of a scheme of arrangement post balance sheet date The ITFG considered a scheme of arrangement involving merger of two fellow subsidiaries (i.e. entities under common control), which was filed with the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) prior to the end of the reporting period under Ind AS (31 March 2018). The NCLT approved the scheme after the reporting date but before the approval of financial statements by the Board of Directors, with an appointed date prior to the reporting date (1 April 2017). ITFG clarified that where the court order approves a scheme with retrospective effect subsequent to the balance sheet date but before the approval of financial statements, the effective date for accounting is prior to the balance sheet date. In this case, the court's approval is an event that provides additional evidence to assist the estimation of amounts of assets and liabilities that existed at the balance sheet date. Therefore, an adjusting event has occurred which requires adjustment to the assets and liabilities of the transferor company which are being transferred. Therefore, the effect of business combination is required to be incorporated in the separate financial statements of the transferee for the financial year ending 31 March 2018.	10.8 (Q 1)

Glossary

Events after the reporting period are those events, favourable and unfavourable, that occur between the end of the reporting period and the date when the financial statements are approved by the Board of Directors in case of a company, and, by the corresponding approving authority in case of any other entity for issue.

Notwithstanding anything contained above, where there is a breach of a material provision of a long-term loan arrangement on or before the end of the reporting period with the effect that the liability becomes payable on demand on the reporting date, the agreement by lender before the approval of the financial statements for issue, to not demand payment as a consequence of the breach, shall be considered as an adjusting event.

Adjusting events after the reporting period are those that provide evidence of conditions that existed at the end of the reporting period

Non-adjusting events after reporting date are those that are indicative of conditions that arose after the reporting date.

Ind AS-12 Income Taxes

1. Executive summary

- Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 12, Income Taxes are taxes based on taxable profits, and taxes that are payable by a subsidiary, associate or joint arrangement on distribution to investors.
- Current tax is the amount of income taxes payable (recoverable) in respect of the taxable profit (loss) for a period.
- Deferred tax is the amount of income taxes payable (recoverable) in future periods as a result of past transactions or events.
- Deferred tax is recognised for the estimated future tax effects of temporary differences, unused tax losses carried forward and unused tax credits carried forward.
- A deferred tax liability is not recognised if it arises from the initial recognition of goodwill.
- A deferred tax asset or liability is not recognised if:
 - It arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination, and
 - At the time of the transaction, it affects neither accounting profit nor taxable profit.
- Deferred tax liability is not recognised in respect of temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, branches and associates and joint arrangements if certain conditions are met. (For example, in the case the investor is able to control the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences, and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future).
- A deferred tax asset is recognised to the extent that it is probable that it will be realised.
- Current and deferred taxes are measured based on rates that are enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date.
- Deferred tax is measured based on the expected manner of settlement (liability) or recovery (asset).
- Deferred tax is not discounted.
- The total income tax expense (income) recognised in a period is the sum of current tax plus the change in deferred tax assets and liabilities during the period, excluding tax recognised outside profit or loss – i.e. in other comprehensive income or directly in equity – or arising from a business combination.
- Income tax related to items recognised outside profit or loss is itself recognised outside profit or loss.
- Deferred tax is classified as non-current in the balance sheet.
- The entity offsets current tax assets and current tax liabilities only when it has a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities, and it intends either to settle on a net basis or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.
- The entity offsets deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities only when it has a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities, and the deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either the same taxable entity, or different taxable entities that intend either to settle on a net basis or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

New developments

- Appendix C, *Uncertainty over Income Tax Treatments to Ind AS 12

On 30 March 2019, MCA notified Appendix C to Ind AS 12. The amendment seeks to bring clarity on accounting for uncertainties related to income tax treatments that have yet to be accepted by tax authorities, and to reflect this uncertainty in the measurement of current and deferred taxes. The amendment is aligned with IFRIC 23, Uncertainty over Income Tax Treatments issued on 7 June 2017 by the IFRS Interpretations Committee of the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB). The key highlights of the amendment are summarised below:

- Consideration of uncertain tax treatments individually/collectively: The amendment requires entities to first determine whether they should assess the impact of uncertain tax treatments individually or collectively, with other uncertain tax treatments, depending on which approach would better predict the resolution of the uncertainty.

- The key test: The key test is whether it is probable that the taxation authority would accept the tax treatment used or planned to be used by the entity in its income tax filings. If yes, then the amount of taxes recognized in the financial statements should be consistent with the entity's income tax filings. Otherwise, the effect of uncertainty should be estimated and reflected in the financial statements (as a part of the overall measurement of tax). This would require the exercise of judgement by the entity.
- Recognition and measurement of uncertainty: The amendment prescribes that the measure that provides a better prediction of the resolution of uncertainty should be adopted by the entity, which is as below:
 - The most likely amount: Being, the single most likely amount, in a range of possible outcomes, or
 - The expected value method: Which is a sum of probabilities of a range of possible outcomes.

Entities are required to reassess the judgements and estimates applied, and update the amounts in the financial statements, if facts and circumstances change.

- Accounting impact: Depending on their current practice, entities may need to increase their tax liabilities or recognise an asset. The timing of derecognition may also change.
- Disclosures: The amendment does not introduce any new disclosure requirements, but reinforces the need to comply with the meaningful disclosure requirement under Ind AS 1, Presentation of Financial Statements and the existing disclosure requirements under Ind AS 12.

- Effective date: The appendix is applicable for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 April 2019¹.
- Transitional provisions: On its initial application, an entity is required to either:
 - Apply the standard retrospectively, by applying Ind AS 8, Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors, if that is possible without the use of hindsight, or
 - Apply it retrospectively with the cumulative effect by adjusting equity on initial application, without adjusting comparatives.
- Clarification on income tax consequences on distribution of profits
 - On 30 March 2019 MCA, as part of the annual improvements to Ind AS, notified an amendment to Ind AS 12, clarifying that the income tax consequences on distribution of profits (i.e. dividends), including payments on financial instruments classified as equity, should be recognised when a liability to pay dividend is recognised. The income tax consequences should be recognised in profit or loss, other comprehensive income or equity according to where the past transactions or events that generated distributable profits were originally recognised.
 - The amendment further moves the requirement of recognition of income tax consequences of dividends from paragraph 52B to 57A, and clarifies that The requirement for recognition applies to all income consequences and not only to the situation where there are different tax rates for distributed and undistributed profits as described in paragraph 52A of Ind AS 12.
 - Effective date and transition: These amendments are applicable prospectively for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 April 2019¹, (thus the amendments will be applied to income tax consequences of dividends recognised on or after the beginning of the earliest comparative period).

Applicability
	This standard shall be applied in accounting for income taxes.	12.1
1	Has the entity applied the standard for the below mentioned income taxes:	12.2
	a) Domestic taxes based on taxable profits, (Refer ITFG bulletin 16 issue 2 clarification)		_____
	b) Any income subjected to foreign taxes,		_____
	c) Any withholding taxes which are payable by a subsidiary, associate or joint arrangement on distributions to the reporting entity?		_____
2	Has the entity ensured that they have applied Ind AS 20, Accounting for Government Grants and Disclosure of Government Assistance for methods of accounting government grants or investment tax credit?	12.4	_____
3	Has the entity applied this standard for accounting for temporary differences that may arise from government grants or investment tax credits?	12.4	_____
Recognition of current tax liabilities and current tax assets
4	Has the entity recognised any unpaid current tax for current and prior periods as a liability?	12.12	_____
5	Has the entity recognised the amount already paid in respect of current and prior periods exceeding the amount due for those periods as an asset?	12.12	_____
	(Note: Net current tax assets and net current tax liabilities are required to be disclosed on the face of the balance sheet.)	Sch III Part-I
6	Has the entity recognised an asset in respect of tax loss that can be carried back to recover current tax of a previous period?	12.13	_____
	(Note: When a tax loss is used to recover current tax of a previous period, an entity recognises the benefit as an asset in the period in which the tax loss occurs because it is probable that the benefit will flow to the entity and the benefit can be reliably measured.)
Taxable temporary differences
7	Has the entity recognised deferred tax liability for all taxable temporary differences except for the following: (Refer bulletins- (ITFG 8 issue 8) and (ITFG 17 issue 7) clarifications)	12.15 12.22
	a) Any deferred tax liability arising from the initial recognition of goodwill (refer Q 9 and Q 10),		_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	b) Any deferred tax liability arising from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction which: i. Is not a business combination, and ii. At the time of transaction, affects neither accounting profit nor taxable profit (tax loss), c) Has the entity recognised deferred tax liability in accordance with requirements of Q 32 in respect of any taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, branches and associates, and interests in joint arrangements? (Also refer Q 22 below)		_____ _____ _____
	(Note: Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities will be disclosed on the face of the balance sheet under non-current assets and non-current liabilities, respectively.)	Sch III Part-I
8	Has the entity recognised deferred tax liability/asset arising out of taxable temporary differences in respect of any income or expense which is included in accounting profit in one period but is included in taxable profit in a different period? (Note: Examples of such differences are interest revenue, depreciation and development costs.)	12.17	_____
	Goodwill
9	Has the entity ensured that it has not recognised any subsequent reductions in a deferred tax liability that has been unrecognised because it arises from the initial recognition of goodwill? (Also refer Q 7)	12.21A	_____
10	Has the entity recognised deferred tax liability to the extent of taxable temporary differences to the extent they do not arise from the initial recognition of goodwill? (Also refer Q 7)	12.21B	_____
	Initial recognition of an asset or liability for compound financial instruments
11	When the entity issues a compound financial instrument, it classifies this instrument into a financial liability component and an equity component. If a taxable temporary difference arises from the initial recognition of the equity component separately from the liability component, has the entity recognised the resulting deferred tax liability directly in the carrying amount of the equity component, and recognised any subsequent changes in the deferred tax liability in profit or loss as deferred tax expense/income?	12.23	_____

Deductible temporary differences
12	Has the entity recognised deferred tax asset for all deductible temporary differences above only to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary difference can be utilised except on any deferred tax asset arising from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction which: Refer bulletins – (ITFG 8 issue 8), (ITFG 10 issue 3) and (ITFG 17 issue 7) clarifications	12.24 12.27
	a) Is not a business combination, and		_____
	b) At the time of transaction, affects neither accounting profit nor taxable profit (tax loss)?		_____
13	Has the entity recognised deferred tax asset in accordance with requirements of Q 26 on any deductible temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, branches and associates, and interests in joint arrangements?	12.24
14	While assessing the availability of taxable profits against which the entity can utilise a deductible temporary difference, has the entity considered the restrictions imposed by the tax law with respect to the sources of taxable profits against which it may make deduction on the reversal of that deductible temporary difference, as below:	12.27A
	a) If tax law imposes no such restriction, then has the entity assessed deductible temporary difference in combination with all of its other deductible temporary differences,		_____
	b) If tax law restricts the utilisation of losses to deduction against income of a specific type, then has the entity assessed a deductible temporary difference in combination only with other deductible temporary differences of the appropriate type?		_____
15	Does the entity have sufficient taxable temporary differences relating to the same taxation authority and the same taxable entity which are expected to reverse:	12.28
	a) In the same period as the expected reversal of the deductible temporary difference,		_____
	b) In periods into which a tax loss arising from the deferred tax asset can be carried back or forward?		_____
	If yes, has the entity recognised deferred tax asset in the above circumstances? (Refer ITFG bulletin 11 issue 2 clarification)		_____
16	If the entity has insufficient taxable temporary differences relating to the same taxation authority and the same taxable entity then has the entity recognised deferred tax asset only to the extent that:	12.29
	a) It is probable that the entity will have sufficient taxable profit relating to the same taxation authority and the same taxable entity in the same period as the reversal of the deductible temporary difference (or in the periods into which a tax loss arising from the deferred tax asset can be carried back or forward),		_____

	b) Tax planning opportunities are available to the entity that will create taxable profit in appropriate periods? (Note: In evaluating whether the entity will have sufficient taxable profit in future periods, an entity: i. Compares the deductible temporary differences with future taxable profit that exclude tax deductions resulting from the reversal of those deductible temporary differences. This comparison shows the extent to which the future taxable profit is sufficient for the entity to deduct the amounts resulting from the reversal of those deductible temporary differences, ii. Ignores taxable amounts arising from deductible temporary differences that are expected to originate in future periods, because the deferred tax asset arising from these deductible temporary differences will itself require future taxable profit in order to be utilised, iii. Includes the recovery of some of an entity's assets for more than their carrying amount if there is sufficient evidence that it is probable that the entity will achieve this.)	12.29 12.29A	_____
	Unused tax losses and unused tax credits
17	Has the entity recognised deferred tax assets only to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the unused tax losses and unused tax credits can be utilised, if the entity have any unused tax losses and unused tax credits?	12.30	_____
18	If the entity has a history of recent losses, then has the entity recognised deferred tax assets arising from the carry forward of unused tax losses or tax credits only to the extent that: a) The entity has sufficient taxable temporary differences, or b) The entity has convincing other evidence that sufficient taxable profit will be available against which unused tax losses or tax credits can be utilised?	12.35	_____ _____ _____
19	Has the entity considered following criteria in assessing the probability that taxable profits would be available against which unused tax losses or unused tax credits can be utilised: a) Sufficient taxable temporary differences relating to the same taxation authority and the same taxable entity, which will result in taxable amounts against which the unused tax losses or unused tax credits can be utilised before they expire, b) That it is probable that it will have taxable profits before the unused tax losses or unused tax credits expire, c) That the unused tax losses result from identifiable causes which are unlikely to recur,	12.36	_____ _____ _____

	d) Tax planning opportunities that will create taxable profits in the period in which the unused tax losses or unused tax credits can be utilised?		_____
	If yes, has the entity recognised deferred tax asset only to that extent of probable taxable profit?		_____
	Reassessment of unrecognised deferred tax assets
20	At the end of each reporting period, has the entity reassessed unrecognised deferred tax asset?	12.37	_____
21	If unrecognised deferred tax asset becomes probable i.e. future taxable profit will allow the deferred tax asset to be recovered, then has the entity recognised such previously unrecognised deferred tax assets?	12.37	_____
	Investments in subsidiaries, branches and associates and interests in joint arrangements
22	Has the entity recognised the deferred tax liability for all taxable temporary differences between carrying amount of investments and the tax base (which is often cost) of investments except to the extent that both of the following conditions are satisfied: (Refer bulletins- (ITFG 9 issue 1) and (ITFG 13 issue 9) clarification)	12.39
	a) The parent, investor, joint venture or joint operator is able to control the timing of the reversal of temporary difference, and		_____
	b) It is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future?		_____
23	If the entity's taxable profit or loss is determined in a different currency, changes in the exchange rates would give rise to temporary differences. Accordingly, has the entity charged or credited the resulting deferred tax liability or asset to the statement of profit and loss?	12.41	_____
	(Note: Non-monetary assets and liabilities of the entity are measured in its functional currency.)
24	If the entity has any investment in associates and does not have an agreement requiring the profits of the associate to be distributed in the foreseeable future, then has the entity recognised the deferred tax liability arising from the taxable temporary differences associated with its investment in the associates? (Refer ITFG bulletin 13 issue 9 clarification)	12.42	_____
25	In some cases, an investor may not be able to determine the amount of tax that would be payable if it recovers the cost of its investment an associate, but can determine that it will equal or exceed a minimum amount. In such a case, has the entity recognised deferred tax liability at the minimum amount of tax? (Refer ITFG bulletin 13 issue 9 clarification)	12.43	_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
26	Has the entity recognised the deferred tax asset for all deductible temporary differences only to the extent that, it is probable that:	12.44
	a) The temporary difference will reverse in the foreseeable future, and
	b) Taxable profit will be available against which the temporary difference can be utilised?
Measurement
27	Has the entity measured the current tax liability or asset at the amount expected to be paid or recovered from the taxation authorities, using the tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period? (Refer ITFG bulletin 23 issue 1 clarification)	12.46
28	Has the entity measured the deferred tax assets or deferred tax liabilities at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the period in which the asset is realised or liability is settled, based on the tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period? (Refer bulletins- (ITFG 11 issue 2) and (ITFG 23 issue 1) clarifications)	12.47
	(Note: When different tax rates apply to different levels of taxable income, deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using the average rates that are expected to apply to the taxable profit (tax loss) of the periods in which the temporary differences are expected to reverse.)	12.49
29	Does the measurement of deferred tax assets or liabilities reflect management’s intention regarding the manner of recovery of an asset or settlement of a liability? (Refer bulletins- (ITFG 7 issue 7), (ITFG 17 issue 7) and (ITFG 23 issue 1) clarifications)	12.51
30	In some jurisdictions, the applicable tax rate depends on how the carrying amount of an asset or liability is recovered or settled. In such cases, has the management considered its intention to determine the amount of deferred tax to be recognised? (Refer bulletins- (ITFG 17 issue 7) and (ITFG 23 issue 1) clarifications)	12.51
31	If a deferred tax liability or deferred tax asset arises from a non-depreciable asset measured using the revaluation model in Ind AS 16, Property, Plant and Equipment then does the measurement of the deferred tax liability or deferred tax asset reflect the tax consequences of recovering the carrying amount of the non-depreciable asset through sale, regardless of the basis of measuring the carrying amount of that asset?	12.52
32	In some jurisdictions, income taxes are payable at a higher or lower rate if part or all of the net profit or retained earnings is	12.52A

	paid out as a dividend to shareholders of the entity. In some other jurisdictions, income taxes may be refundable or payable if part or all of the net profit or retained earnings is paid out as a dividend to shareholders of the entity. In these circumstances, has the entity measured the current and deferred tax assets and liabilities at the tax rate applicable to undistributed profits?		_____
33	The income tax consequences of dividends as defined in Ind AS 109 are recognised when a liability to pay the dividend is recognised. The income tax consequences of dividends are more directly linked to past transactions or events than to distributions to owners. Therefore, has the entity recognised the income tax consequences of dividends in profit or loss, other comprehensive income or equity according to where the entity originally recognised those past transactions or events?¹ (Refer ITFG bulletin 17 issue 2 clarification)	12.57A	_____
34	Has the entity ensured that deferred tax asset or liabilities are not discounted?	12.53	_____
35	Has the entity reviewed the carrying amount of deferred tax assets at the end of each reporting period: a) Has it reduced the carrying value of a deferred tax asset to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available, b) Has it reversed any previously recognised reduction in the deferred tax assets to the extent that it becomes probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available?	12.56	_____ _____ _____
	Recognition of current and deferred tax
36	Has the entity recognised current and deferred tax as an income or an expense in the statement of profit and loss for the period? (Refer ITFG bulletin 23 issue 2 clarification)	12.58	_____
37	However, has the entity made following exceptions: (Refer ITFG bulletin 23 issue 2 clarification) a) A transaction or event which is recognised, in the same or a different period, outside profit or loss, either in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, or b) A business combination (other than the acquisition by an investment entity, as defined in Ind AS 110, Consolidated Financial Statements of a subsidiary that is required to be measured at fair value through profit or loss)?	12.58	_____ _____ _____
38	Has the entity recognised change in the carrying amount of deferred tax assets and liabilities if there is: a) Any change in tax rates or tax laws, b) A reassessment of the recoverability of the deferred tax assets, c) A change in the expected manner of recovery of an asset?	12.60	_____ _____ _____

Items recognised outside profit or loss
39	Has the entity recognised outside profit or loss the current tax and deferred tax if the tax relates to items that are recognised, in the same or a different period, outside profit or loss? (Refer ITFG bulletin 23 issue 2 clarification)	12.61A	_____
40	Therefore, has the entity recognised current tax and deferred tax of the following items that are recognised, in the same or a different period: (Refer ITFG bulletin 23 issue 2 clarification)		_____
	a) In other comprehensive income on items that are recognised in other comprehensive income, e.g.		_____
	i. Any change in the carrying amount arising from the revaluation of property, plant and equipment,	12.62	_____
	ii. Any exchange differences arising on the translation of the financial statements of a foreign operation,		_____
	b) Directly in equity on any items that are recognised directly in equity,		_____
	i. Any adjustments in the opening balance of retained earnings resulting from either a change in accounting policy that is applied retrospectively or the correction of an error,	12.62A	_____
	ii. Any amounts arising on initial recognition of the equity component of a compound financial instrument?		_____
	(Note: In exceptional circumstances, it may be difficult to determine the amount of current and deferred tax that relates to items recognised outside profit or loss (either in other comprehensive income or directly in equity).	12.63	_____
	This may be the case, for example, when:
	a) There are graduated rates of income tax and it is impossible to determine the rate at which a specific component of taxable profit (tax loss) has been taxed,
	b) A change in the tax rate or other tax rules affects a deferred tax asset or liability relating (in whole or in part) to an item that was previously recognised outside profit or loss, or
	c) The entity determines that a deferred tax asset should be recognised, or should no longer be recognised in full, and the deferred tax asset relates (in whole or in part) to an item that was previously recognised outside profit or loss.
	In such cases, the current and deferred tax related to items that are recognised outside profit or loss are based on a reasonable pro rata allocation of the current and deferred tax of the entity in the tax jurisdiction concerned, or other method that achieves a more appropriate allocation in the circumstances.)

If an entity makes such a transfer, then is the amount transferred net of any related deferred tax? (Note: Similar considerations apply to transfers made on disposal of an item of property, plant or equipment.)	12.64	_____
42	When an asset is revalued for tax purposes and that revaluation is related to an accounting revaluation of an earlier period, or to one that is expected to be carried out in a future period, has the entity recognised the tax effects of both the asset revaluation and the adjustment of the tax base in other comprehensive income in the periods in which they occur?	12.65	_____
43	However, if the revaluation for tax purposes is not related to an accounting revaluation of an earlier period, or to one that is expected to be carried out in a future period, has the entity recognised the tax effects of the adjustment of the tax base in profit or loss?	12.65	_____
44	Has the entity charged the amount paid or payable to the taxation authorities to equity as part of dividends, if the entity has paid any withholding tax on dividend on behalf of shareholders?	12.65A	_____
Deferred tax arising from a business combination
45	Due to a business combination, the entity (acquirer) recognises a change in the deferred tax asset in the period of the business combination. Has the entity ensured to not include this deferred tax asset change as part of the accounting for business combination while measuring goodwill or bargain purchase gain?	12.67	_____

Current and deferred tax arising from share-based payment transactions
47	The entity might pay remuneration for goods or services in shares, share options or other equity instruments that are considered to be equity-settled share-based payments. In this case, a temporary difference may arise, for example, when the entity receives a tax deduction for share-based payments at the exercise date, whereas the expense is recognised in profit or loss over the vesting period. Has the entity recognised deferred tax on temporary differences arising from such transactions in profit or loss?	12.68A, 12.68B 12.68C	_____
48	If the underlying transaction is a business combination or is recognised outside profit or loss, then has the entity recognised the deferred tax on temporary differences from such transactions in equity?	12.68C	_____
49	If the tax deduction (or estimated future tax deduction) for that share-based payment transaction exceeds the amount of the related cumulative remuneration expense, then this indicates that the tax deduction relates not only to remuneration expense but also to an equity item. Accordingly, has the entity recognised the excess of the associated deferred tax directly in equity?	12.68C	_____
Changes in the tax status of the entity or its shareholders
50	A change in the tax status of the entity or its shareholders does not give rise to increases or decreases in amounts recognised outside profit or loss. If there is a change in the tax status of the entity or its shareholders, then has the entity included the current and deferred tax consequences of such a change in profit or loss for the period?	12.A4	_____
51	If the above consequences relate to transactions and events that result, in the same or a different period, in a direct credit or charge to the recognised amount of equity or in amounts recognised in other comprehensive income, then has the entity recognised: a) Those tax consequences that relate to changes in the recognised amount of equity, in the same or a different period (not included in profit or loss), directly to equity, b) Those tax consequences that relate to amounts recognised in other comprehensive income, directly in other comprehensive income?	12.A4	_____ _____

Some of the key requirements from the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act)

- The MCA through a notification dated 5 February 2018 (S.O. 529 (E)) has exempted certain government companies from applying the provisions relating to deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities within this Ind AS for a period of seven years with effect from 1 April 2017.
- The exempted government companies are as follows:
 - Public financial institutions notified by Section 4A(2) of the Companies Act, 1956
 - Non-Banking Financial Companies registered with the Reserve Bank of India
 - Engaged in the business of infrastructure leasing with not less than 75 per cent of its total revenue being generated from such business with Government companies or other entities owned or controlled by Government.

Significant carve-outs from IFRS

- Ind AS 40, Investment Property does not allow use of fair value model for investment properties and therefore, Ind AS 12 has been modified to that extent.
- Ind AS 103, Business Combinations requires a different accounting treatment of bargain purchase gain, therefore, Ind AS 12 has been modified to that extent.

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

- On 29 September 2016, the Ministry of Finance issued 10 revised ICDS as follows:
 - ICDS I- Accounting Policies,
 - ICDS II- Valuation of Inventories,
 - ICDS III- Construction Contracts,
 - ICDS IV- Revenue Recognition,
 - ICDS V- Tangible Fixed Assets,
 - ICDS VI- The Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates,
 - ICDS VII- Government Grants,
 - ICDS VIII- Securities,
 - ICDS IX- Borrowing Costs,
 - ICDS X- Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets.
- These standards are applicable for computation of income chargeable under the head 'Profits and Gains of business or profession' or 'Income from other sources' to all assesses (other than an individual or a Hindu Undivided Family who is not required to get his/her accounts of the previous year audited in accordance with the provisions of Section 44AB of the Income Tax Act, 1961) following the mercantile system of accounting. These standards became applicable for assessment year 2017-18 (previous year 2016-17). Taxable profits of entities need to be determined after making appropriate adjustments to the financial statements prepared under Ind AS to bring them in conformity with ICDS

- CDS in general do not have prudence as a fundamental assumption, and accordingly in several situations this would result in earlier recognition of income or gains or later recognition of expenses or losses as compared to that under the Ind AS, this would potentially have a direct impact on the timing of tax related cash flows.

Minimum Alternate Tax

- The Finance Act, 2017 notified on 31 March 2017, has prescribed guidelines for computation of book profit for entities that prepare financial statements under Ind AS. According to it, while computing book profits for the purpose of levy of MAT under Section 115JB of the Income Tax Act, 1961:
 - No further adjustments should be made to the net profits of Ind AS compliant companies, other than those specified in Section 115JB of the IT Act
 - Certain items included in Other Comprehensive Income (OCI), that are permanently recorded in reserves and never reclassified into the statement of profit and loss, be included in book profits for MAT at an appropriate point in time, and
 - Certain adjustments relating to values of assets and liabilities transferred in a demerger to be made by both the demerged company as well as the resulting company.
 - Certain adjustments recorded in retained earnings (other equity) on first-time adoption of Ind AS, that would never subsequently be reclassified into the statement of profit and loss should be included in book profits (for the purpose of levy of MAT) in a deferred manner.
- Adjustments to book profits for MAT computation can be grouped into following two categories:
 - Adjustments relating to annual Ind AS financial statements
 - Adjustments relating to first-time adoption of Ind AS.

Adjustments relating to annual Ind AS financial statements

c1c

- Those components of OCI which would be subsequently reclassified to profit or loss would be considered for book profit as per the Ind AS financial statements i.e. in the period in which such amounts are actually reclassified.
- Those items of OCI which would never be subsequently reclassified to profit or loss are as follows:

Table 1 Items of OCI that would never be subsequently reclassified to profit or loss

Sr. No.	Items	Adjustment to MAT profit
1	Changes in revaluation surplus (Ind AS 16, Property, Plant and Equipment and Ind AS 38, Intangible Assets).	To be included in book profits at the time of realisation/ disposal/ retirement/ otherwise transferred.
2	Remeasurements of defined benefit plans (Ind AS 19, Employee Benefits).	To be included in book profits every year as the remeasurements gains and losses arise.
3	Gains and losses from investments in equity instruments designated at fair value through OCI (Ind AS 109, Financial Instruments).	To be included in book profits at the time of realisation/ disposal/ retirement/ otherwise transferred.
4	Any other item	To be included in book profits every year as the gain and losses arise.

Demergers

Book profits adjustments on distribution of non-cash assets to shareholders (e.g. demerger) to be excluded/ignored as stipulated for both resulting company and demerged company as the case may be.

Adjustments relating to first-time adoption of Ind AS

When preparing its opening Ind AS balance sheet, a first-time adopter of Ind AS would typically record a series of adjustments relating to the transition from Accounting Standards to Ind AS. Generally, these adjustments would be recorded in retained earnings (other equity) in the opening balance sheet. Considering that some of these items may never be reclassified to the statement of profit and loss, the IT Act requires the following, based on the amounts reflected on the convergence date:

- Those adjustments recorded in OCI and which would subsequently be reclassified to the profit or loss, should be included in book profits in the year in which these are reclassified to the profit and loss
- Those adjustments recorded in OCI and which would never be subsequently reclassified to the profit or loss should be included in book profits as specified below:

Table 2 Adjustments in OCI which would never be subsequently reclassified to profit or loss

Sr. No.	Items	Adjustment to MAT profit
A. Deemed cost adjustment to PPE and intangible assets
1	When fair value as deemed cost (para D5 and D7 of Ind AS 101)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The adjustment due to one-time fair value of the PPE and intangible assets on the date of transition to Ind AS would be included in book profits in the year in which the asset is retired/ disposed/ realised/ otherwise transferred. • Other adjustments such as asset restoration obligations, foreign exchange capitalisation/decapitalisation, borrowing costs adjustments, etc. will be considered in the transition amount.
2	When revaluation model has been adopted as an accounting policy for PPE and intangible assets	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • One-time adjustment to retained earnings (other equity) on transition to revaluation policy should be included in the book profits at the time when the asset is realised/disposed/realised/ otherwise transferred.
3	When PPE and intangible asset carrying values recomputed retrospectively or previous GAAP deemed cost approach followed	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Other adjustments such as asset restoration obligations, foreign exchange capitalisation/decapitalisation, borrowing costs adjustments, etc. will be considered in the transition amount.
B. Other adjustments in OCI
1	Gains and losses from investments in equity instruments designated at fair value through OCI	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • One-time adjustment to retained earnings (other equity) should be excluded from the transition amount. • Such amounts to be included in book profits when the equity instrument is realised/ disposed/retired/transferred.

Sr. No.	Items	Adjustment to MAT profit
B. Other adjustments in OCI
2	Cumulative translation differences of a foreign operation on the convergence date	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Translation differences that arose before the date of transition to Ind AS should be ignored in computation of book profits. • Include such adjustment in book profits at the time of disposal/transferred in relation to such foreign operation.
3	Investments in subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates in Ind AS separate financial statements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ignore adjustments in retained earnings (other equity) relating to investments in subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures, on first-time adoption of Ind AS. • Include such adjustment of such investment in book profits at the time of realisation/disposal/retirement/ otherwise transferred.

Transition amount

- All other adjustments recorded in ‘the other equity’ i.e. transition amount which would otherwise never subsequently be reclassified to the statement of profit and loss, should be included in the book profits, equally over a period of five years starting from the year of first-time adoption of Ind AS subject to certain exclusions as specified below.
- Transition amount means the amount or the aggregate of the amount adjusted in the other equity (excluding capital reserve, and securities premium reserve) on the date of adoption of Ind AS but not including the following:
 - Amount or aggregate of the amounts adjusted in the OCI on the convergence date which would be subsequently re-classified to profit or loss
 - Revaluation surplus for assets in accordance with Ind AS 16 and Ind AS 38 adjusted on the convergence date (covered in table above)
 - Gains or losses from investments in equity instruments designated at fair value through OCI in accordance with the Ind AS 109 adjusted on the convergence date (covered in table above)
 - Adjustments relating to items of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets recorded at fair value as deemed cost in accordance with paragraphs D5 and D7 of Ind AS 101 on the convergence date (covered in table above)
 - Adjustments relating to investments in subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates recorded at fair value as deemed cost in accordance with paragraph D15 of Ind AS 101 on the convergence date (covered in table above)
 - Adjustments relating to cumulative translation differences of a foreign operation in accordance with paragraph D13 of Ind AS 101 on the convergence date (covered in table above).

CBDT FAQs

- On 25 July 2017, the Central Board of Direct Taxes (CBDT) issued clarifications by way of FAQs on computation of book profit for the purposes of levy of MAT under section 115JB of the Income Tax Act, 1961 for Ind AS compliant companies. The clarifications are with regard to the below matters:

Starting point for computing book profits for Ind AS compliant companies

- CBDT clarified that the starting point for computing book profits for computation of MAT will be ‘Profit before Other Comprehensive Income’

Appropriate manner of computation of transition amount on convergence date

- Convergence date means the first day of the first Ind AS financial reporting period. To clarify this, CBDT stated that for a company adopting Ind AS from 1 April 2016, the convergence date would be the start of business on 1 April 2016, which is equivalently the close of business on 31 March 2016.

Items that would not require an adjustment for computing book profits for the purposes of MAT

Affects both transition amount and post Ind AS transition MAT computation

MTM losses: As MTM gains are recognized in the statement of profit and loss on financial instruments measured at FVTPL, these are included in book profits for MAT computation. CBDT has clarified that MTM losses on such instruments recognized through the statement of profit and loss should not be included in the MAT adjustment on 'diminution in value of assets'.

However, in case there is a provision for diminution/impairment in value of assets other than FVTPL financial instruments, the estimating adjustment as prescribed by the IT Act would be required.

For financial instruments where gains and losses are recognised through OCI, then CBDT has clarified that the amended provisions of MAT would continue to apply i.e. such items would be considered for MAT upon being debited/credited to statement of profit and loss or as otherwise provided.

Affects only transition amount computation

- Proposed dividend: The proposed dividend (including dividend distribution tax), credited to retained earnings as an Ind AS transitional adjustment, will not form part of the 'transition amount' under MAT.
- Deferred taxes: Deferred taxes recognised on Ind AS adjustments on the transition date will be ignored for the purpose of computing transition amount under MAT.
- Bad and doubtful losses: Amounts considered as provision for diminution in value of assets (other than Mark to Market (MTM) gains or losses on financial instruments measured at Fair Value through Profit or Loss (FVTPL)) (e.g. Expected Credit Loss adjustments) will not be considered for the purpose of computation of the 'transition amount' under MAT.
- Reclassification of capital reserves or securities premium reserve under Ind AS: Capital reserve or securities premium reclassified to retained earnings or other reserves under Ind AS and vice versa, should not be considered for the purpose of 'transition amount' under MAT.
- Changes to share application money: Share application money pending allotment, reclassified to 'Other Equity' on transition date will not be considered for the purpose of computing 'transition amount' under MAT.

Items that would be included in profit/transition amount

- Interest/Dividend on preference shares (liability): The book profit for computation of MAT should be increased by the dividend/interest on preference shares, including dividend distribution taxes (to the extent debited to the statement of profit and loss), whether it is presented as dividend or interest.
- Equity component of financial instruments: Equity component of financial instruments like non-convertible debentures, interest free loans, etc. will be considered for the purpose of computing 'transition amount' under MAT.
- Service concession arrangement adjustments: Adjustments on service concession arrangements should be included in the transition amount under MAT and also on an ongoing basis

Revaluation or fair value model of property, plant and equipment

The book profit of the previous year in which the items of the revalued PPE are retired, disposed, realised or otherwise transferred should be increased or decreased by the revaluation amount after adjustment of the depreciation on the revaluation amount relating to such asset.

Deduction for brought forward losses and unabsorbed depreciation

In the year of transition to Ind AS (e.g. Assessment year 2017-18), the deduction of lower of depreciation or losses should be allowed based on the position of the closing Ind AS balance sheet of the year of transition to Ind AS (i.e. 31 March 2016). For the subsequent periods, the position as per books of account drawn as per Ind AS should be considered.

Accounting period other than March

The CBDT clarified that a company following an accounting year other than that ending on 31 March (e.g. year ending 31 December), will be required to prepare financial statements in the year of transition to Ind AS, for the purpose of computation of MAT, partly under Indian GAAP (from April 2016 to December 2016) and partly under Ind AS (from January 2017 to March 2017, and the convergence date of the company would be 1 January 2017).

Some of the clarifications provided by the Ind AS Technical Facilitation Group (ITFG)

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
Bulletin 7 (Issue 7)	Recognition of deferred tax on non-depreciable assets Ind AS 12 requires the measurement of deferred tax assets or liabilities to reflect the tax consequences that would follow from the manner in which the entity expects, at the end of the reporting period, to recover or settle the carrying amount of its assets/liabilities. This may require the exercise of judgement based on facts and circumstances. Accordingly, ITFG clarified following points: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If a non-depreciable asset is measured using the revaluation model under Ind AS 16, or the entity expects to recover the carrying amount of the asset by selling it individually: The related deferred tax asset/liability is measured based on the tax consequences of recovering the carrying amount of such asset through sale, in a slump sale • If the entity assesses that the non-depreciable asset will be sold through a slump sale: The tax base of the land would be the same as its carrying amount, as an indexation benefit would not be available in a slump sale. Therefore, there would be no temporary difference and no deferred tax asset would be recognised. 	12.51 (Q 29)
Bulletin 17 (Issue 7)	Creation of deferred tax on land converted from fixed asset to inventory An entity Z Ltd. purchased certain land as a fixed asset on 1 January 2007 for INR100 which was subsequently converted to inventory on 1 January 2016. At the date of conversion, indexed cost of land was INR150 and its fair value was INR1,000. Z Ltd. adopted Ind AS from 1 April 2018 and its date of transition was 1 April 2017. On the date of transition, the land (now classified as inventory) was recognised at its historical cost (i.e. INR100, which was its carrying value). The issue considered by ITFG was whether Z Ltd. should recognise deferred tax on land on the date of transition to Ind AS. The ITFG pointed out that as per Income tax laws on conversion of a capital asset into stock-in-trade, and thereafter, sale of the stock-in-trade, the tax treatment would be as follows:	12.15, 12.24, 12.51 (Q 7, Q 12, Q 29, Q 30)

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Capital gains tax: There will be capital gains liability in respect of the conversion of capital asset into stock-in-trade, at market value thereof on the date of conversion. Thus, the capital gains will be computed as the difference between the indexed cost of capital asset to the assessee and the fair market value of such capital asset on the date of its conversion into stock-in-trade. However, the tax will be computed using the capital gains tax rate applicable in the year of actual sale and not in the year of conversion. Also, the capital gains tax will be required to be paid only at the time of sale of the stock-in-trade. Profit/loss on sale of land as stock-in-trade: As regard the sale of the stock-in-trade, any profit realised or loss incurred (i.e., difference between the sale proceeds and fair value on the date of conversion) will be liable to tax as business income. Such profit/loss would accrue and be liable to tax at the time of sale of the stock-in-trade. If there is a business loss in the year of sale of stock-in-trade, the Income-tax Act allows the loss to be offset against capital gains arising on conversion. Thus, the liability for capital gain tax on conversion is not sacrosanct and can vary depending on outcome from sale of stock-in-trade. While the current tax liability will arise only on the sale of stock-in-trade, the company would need to consider deferred tax implications. The ITFG pointed out that recognition of DTA would be subject to consideration of prudence. The expectation of the entity at the end of the reporting period with regard to the manner of recovery or settlement of its assets and liabilities would require exercise of judgement based on evaluation of facts and circumstances in each case. Accordingly, ITFG clarified as below: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> On the date of transition to Ind AS (1 April 2017), a deductible temporary difference existed for Z Ltd. arising out of the carrying amount of asset (which is INR100 as on 1 January 2016) and its tax base (which is INR150 as on 1 January 2016, considering indexation benefit). Thus, on the date of transition, the entity would recognise a DTA for the deductible temporary difference of INR50 in the value of land provided it satisfied DTA recognition criteria under Ind AS 12. The difference between the indexed cost of land on the date of conversion and its fair value, however, would not meet definition of temporary difference under Ind AS 12. Additionally, the business income under the Income-tax Act would be computed as a difference between the sale price of the stock-in-trade (i.e. date of actual sale of inventory) and market value of the capital asset on the date of its conversion into stock-in-trade. Hence, such a tax liability would not arise on the date of transition.

Bulletin 8 (Issue 8)	Recognition of deferred taxes on capitalised exchange differences The clarification is applicable to entities that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Availed the option under paragraph 46/46A of AS 11, The Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates, to capitalise foreign exchange gains or losses on long-term foreign currency monetary items, and • On date of transition to Ind AS, availed the exemption under paragraph D13AA of Ind AS 101, First-time adoption of Indian Accounting Standards, to continue to apply the above accounting treatment to exchange differences arising on long-term foreign currency monetary items recognised in the financial statements for the period ending immediately before the beginning of the first Ind AS financial reporting period. The ITFG clarified that capitalisation of exchange differences represents subsequent measurement of the foreign currency monetary item, which has been adjusted to the cost of the asset, and does not arise on initial recognition of an asset or liability. Hence, the initial recognition exemption would not be available and deferred tax is required to be recognised on temporary differences arising from capitalised exchange differences.	12.15, 12.24 (Q 7, Q 12)
Bulletin 9 (Issue 1) FAQ issued by ICAI (revised Sep 2019)	Deferred tax on undistributed profits When a parent receives dividend from its wholly-owned subsidiary during the year and the subsidiary would pay Dividend Distribution Tax (DDT) thereon as per tax laws to the taxation authorities. At the time of consolidation, the dividend income earned by the parent would be eliminated against the dividend recorded in its equity by the subsidiary as a result of consolidation adjustment. The DDT paid by the subsidiary to the taxation authorities (being outside the consolidation group) would be charged as expense in the consolidated statement of profit and loss of the parent (presuming that parent is unable to claim an offset against its own DDT liability). Ind AS 12 requires recognition of deferred tax liability on the undistributed reserves of subsidiaries except where the parent is able to control the timing of reversal of the temporary difference and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future. However, in case the board of directors of a subsidiary propose to declare dividend for the previous financial year, to the extent of such proposed dividend, the temporary difference (in relation to DDT liability) is considered to be probable to reverse. In case where the parent is likely to claim the DDT paid by the subsidiary as an offset against its own DDT liability, the ability to claim offset is subject to receipt of approval from the shareholders of the parent Accordingly, while it has been clarified that the parent may be required to recognise deferred tax liability in the consolidated financial statement (measured based on the DDT expense of the subsidiary) to the extent of proposed dividend of the subsidiary, recognition of deferred tax asset to the extent of offset may not be recognised pending receipt of approval from the shareholders of the parent.	12.39, 12.40 (Q 22)

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
	In the stand-alone financial statements of parent and subsidiary Ind AS 32 requires the interest, dividends, losses and gains on financial instruments to be recognised either in the statement of profit and loss or in equity, based on the classification of the financial instrument. Ind AS 12 considers a scenario when an entity may be required to pay a portion of the dividends payable to shareholders, to the taxation authorities on behalf of shareholders. In view of the above, the Accounting Standards Board (ASB) of the ICAI clarified that presentation of Dividend Distribution Taxes (DDT) payable by companies in India to be consistent with the presentation of the transaction that created those income tax consequences. Therefore, dividend and DDT thereon should be accounted for and presented as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Financial instruments classified as debt: Dividend on the financial instruments and DDT thereon will be charged to the statement of profit and loss, • Financial instrument classified as equity: Dividend on the financial instruments and DDT thereon will be recognised in equity and presented in the statement of changes in equity. • Compound financial instrument: Dividend or interest allocated to the debt portion of the instrument shall be charged to the profit and loss and DDT thereon will be charged to the statement of profit and loss. Dividend or interest allocated to the equity portion of the instrument and the DDT thereon will be recognised in equity.
Bulletin 18 (Issue 2)	ITFG in its bulletin 18, clarified that while dealing with the above issue in its bulletin 9, the intention was not to preclude recognition of DDT credit in the CFS in the period in which the parent receives dividend from a subsidiary. Therefore, based on an evaluation of facts and circumstances, the parent would need to consider whether it can reasonably expect (at the reporting date) to be able to avail of the DDT credit upon declaration of dividend at its Annual General Meeting (AGM) (to be held after the end of the financial year). The clarification considers following situations: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Declaration of dividend by parent is probable: At the time of distribution of dividend by a subsidiary to the parent (and consequent payment of DDT by the subsidiary), the parent should recognise the associated DDT credit as an asset to the extent that it is probable that a liability for DDT on distribution of dividend by the parent would arise (against which the DDT credit can be utilised). • Declaration of dividend by parent not probable: If it is not probable that a liability for DDT on distribution of dividend by the parent would arise against which the DDT credit could be utilised, then the amount of DDT paid by the subsidiary should be charged to profit or loss in the consolidated statement of profit and loss. • Assessment of DDT credit at each reporting period: At the end of each reporting period, the carrying amount of DDT credit should be reviewed. The carrying amount of the DDT credit should be reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that a liability for DDT on distribution of dividend by the parent would arise against which the DDT credit can be utilised. Conversely, any such reduction made in a previous reporting period should be reversed to the extent that it becomes probable that a 	12.39, 12.40 (Q 22)

Bulletin 11 (Issue 2)	Accounting during tax holiday period Under the previous generally accepted accounting principles (previous GAAP), Accounting Standard Interpretation (ASI) 3, Accounting for Taxes on Income in the situations of Tax Holiday under Sections 80-IA and 80-IB of the Income-tax Act, 1961 was issued to provide guidance on accounting for deferred taxes in the situations of tax holiday under section 80-IA and 80-IB of the Income Tax Act, 1961 (tax holiday period). The ITFG clarified that the ASIs are not effective under Ind AS. To determine the treatment of deferred taxes in the tax holiday period under the Ind AS regime, reference needs to be made to the principles enunciated in Ind AS 12. Accordingly, under Ind AS, deferred taxes in respect of temporary differences which reverse during the tax holiday period are not required to be recognised to the extent the entity's gross total income is subject to the deduction during the tax holiday period.	12.26-29, 12.47 (Q 15, Q 28)
Bulletin 10 (Issue 3)	Recognition of deferred tax asset on tax deductible goodwill of subsidiary, not recognised in the consolidated financial statements The ITFG considered a transaction where, while preparing its consolidated financial statements, an entity, as a result of a consolidation adjustment, eliminated goodwill recognised in the separate financial statements of its subsidiary (a company formed as a result of amalgamation of its other subsidiaries). This goodwill was tax deductible in the books of the amalgamated entity. In this context, ITFG clarified that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Tax base should be determined by reference to the tax returns of each entity in the group. Accordingly, a deferred tax asset on the tax base of goodwill should be recognised in accordance with Ind AS 12, irrespective of the fact that no goodwill was recognised in the consolidated financial statements of the entity The initial recognition exemption would not apply in this case, since the amalgamation of the subsidiaries did not result in the initial recognition of an asset or liability in the consolidated financial statements of the entity. 	12.24, 12.9 (Q 12)
Bulletin 16 (Issue 2)	Treatment of income tax related interest and penalties under Ind AS vis-à-vis IFRS The ITFG highlighted that similarity in a particular jurisdiction in the bases of computation of amount of current tax and interest/penalties for non-compliance is not a sufficient ground for clubbing these items, as these amounts are different in terms of their nature. In view of this, it clarified that an entity's obligation for current tax arises because it earns taxable profit during a period. However, an entity's obligation for interest or penalties, arises because of its failure to comply with one or more of the requirements of income-tax law (e.g. failure to deposit income tax). Therefore, it concluded that the obligations for current tax and those for interest or penalties arise due to reasons that are fundamentally different in nature and Ind AS 1 requires an entity to separately present items of a dissimilar nature or function unless they are immaterial except when required by law. Therefore, interest or penalties related to income tax cannot be clubbed with current tax	12.2 (Q 1)

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
	Further, the Guidance Note on Division II - Ind AS Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013 (guidance note) provides that any interest on shortfall in payment of advance income tax is in the nature of finance cost and hence, should not be clubbed with the current tax. Rather, it should be classified as interest expense under 'finance costs'. Similarly, any penalties levied under income tax laws should not be classified as current tax. Penalties which are compensatory in nature should be treated as interest and disclosed under finance costs. Other tax penalties should be classified under 'other expenses'. Treatment as per International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS): The ITFG also considered the treatment of such interest and penalties under IFRS. IFRS Interpretations Committee (IFRIC) clarified that entities do not have an accounting policy choice between applying IAS 12, Income Taxes and applying IAS 37, Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets to interest and penalties. Therefore, if an entity considers a particular amount payable or receivable for interest and penalties to be an income tax, then the entity should apply IAS 12 to that amount. However, if an entity does not apply IAS 12 to a particular amount payable or receivable for interest and penalties, it should apply IAS 37 to that amount. Based on the IFRIC agenda, ITFG highlighted that while considering whether an amount of interest or a penalty is in the scope of IAS 12, an entity should consider whether the interest or penalty is a tax and whether that tax is based on taxable profits (based on tax laws in the jurisdiction and other terms and conditions). For instance, interest and penalty payable under Section 234A/B/C of the Income-tax Act, 1961 (IT Act) would not qualify as income-taxes within the meaning of IAS 12. In cases, where it is difficult to identify whether an amount payable to (or receivable from) a tax authority includes interest or penalties (for instance, single demand issued by a tax authority for unpaid taxes), entire amount would qualify within the meaning of IAS 12.
Bulletin 17 (Issue 2)	Inclusion of Dividend Distribution Tax (DDT) on preference shares in Effective Interest Rate (EIR) The ITFG clarified that dividend payable on cumulative redeemable preference shares (classified as a financial liability in its entirety) would be in the nature of interest and accordingly charged to the statement profit and loss. This interest cost would be an integral part of the EIR of the preference shares. Accordingly, the related DDT would be regarded as part of interest cost and would form part of the EIR calculation. (For further discussion on this clarification, please refer Ind AS 109, Financial Instruments checklist.)	12.52B, Ind AS 109 (Q 33)

It has brought out significant changes to corporate income-tax rates. In accordance with the Ordinance 2019, the domestic companies have now been provided with an option to pay income-tax at a rate lower than the normal corporate income-tax rate of 30 per cent depending upon certain specified conditions. However, the option to pay income-tax at a lower rate is dependent upon not availing certain exemptions or incentives as specified in the Ordinance 2019.	12.46, 12.47 12.51 (Q 27) , (Q 28) (Q 29) , (Q 30)

	The issue under consideration was whether a domestic company could give effect to lower tax rate (in accordance with the Ordinance 2019) while determining current tax and DTA or DTL with the purpose to present interim results/interim financial statements as on 30 September 2019 (financial year 2019-20). Even though, the lower rates of corporate income-tax have been enacted (on 20 September 2019) well before the interim reporting date of 30 September 2019, the ITFG has clarified that such lower rates should be applied by a company for measurement of current and deferred taxes only if it expects to opt for the lower rates. This is in accordance with the requirements of Ind AS 12. Accordingly, if the company expects to opt for the lower tax rate (with an intention appropriately evidenced), the current and deferred taxes are required to be measured using lower tax rate as per the Ordinance 2019 for the purpose of presenting interim results/interim financial statements for the quarter/half year ended 30 September 2019. Additionally, it was clarified that in case the company expects to opt for the lower tax rate from the next financial year 2020-21 onwards, the lower tax rate is required to be applied only to the following extent: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The DTA is expected to be realised or • The DTL is expected to be settled in the periods during which the company expects to be subject to lower tax rate. The normal tax rate is required to be applied to the extent DTA/DTL is expected to be realised (settled) in earlier periods.

Thus, for transactions and other events recognised in the statement of profit and loss, any related tax effects are also recognised outside the statement of profit and loss (i.e. either in Other Comprehensive Income (OCI) or directly in equity, any related tax effects are also recognised either in OCI or directly in equity respectively. The ITFG considered a situation where an Entity X at the time of first-time adoption of Ind AS, made adjustments resulting from recognition of Deferred Tax Asset (DTA) and Deferred Tax Liability (DTL) directly in equity as required by the Ind AS 101. Subsequently, similar deferred tax adjustments were made directly in equity at the time of initial application of Ind AS 115 and Ind AS 116. In the financial year 2019-20, entity X decided to opt for the lower tax rate as per the Ordinance 2019. As a result, DTA and DTL (as referred to above), to the extent unrealised/not settled, would be required to be remeasured. The issue under consideration is whether entity X should recognise the resultant differences in amount of DTA and DTL arising from change in tax rates directly in equity.	12.58, 12.61, Ind AS 101 (Q 36) (Q 37) (Q 39), (Q40)

	The ITFG deliberated the intended meaning of terms ‘directly in equity’ and ‘transaction or event’ as envisaged in Ind AS 12. Consequently, the emerging view was that the words ‘directly in equity’ relate to the base transaction/event and the term ‘transaction or event’ refers to the source which gave rise to the deferred tax implication. The ITFG considered following examples with respect to the term ‘directly in equity’: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • An entity at the time of first-time adoption of Ind AS restates a previous business combination. This was earlier accounted under previous GAAP on book value basis. As a result, the entity recalculates the depreciation charge for items of PPE acquired as a part of the business combination on the basis of fair value for the previous periods from the date of business combination to the date of transition to Ind ASs and adjusted the resultant increase (or decrease) in retained earnings (in cumulative depreciation) as on the date of transition to Ind AS. ITFG clarified that, in doing so, the entity, in effect, restated the depreciation charge in profit or loss for each of the previous periods from the date of business combination to the date of transition to Ind AS. (Had the entity presented comparative information for all such previous periods, the increased (or decreased) depreciation for a period would have reflected in statement of profit and loss for that period). Accordingly, it was highlighted that the cumulative adjustment to retained earnings at the date of transition to Ind AS is not an adjustment ‘directly in equity’. • An entity at the time of first-time adoption of Ind AS remeasures certain equity investments at Fair Value through Other Comprehensive Income (FVOCI). Under previous GAAP, the investments were measured at cost less diminution (other than temporary in nature). The resultant increase/decrease in carrying value of investments were adjusted under an appropriate equity head (e.g. OCI) on the date of transition to Ind AS. ITFG clarified that in doing this, the entity in effect, reflected the fair value changes in OCI for each of the previous periods up to the date of transition. (Had the entity presented comparative information for all such previous periods, the increase (or decrease) in the fair value for a period would be reflected in OCI for that period.). Accordingly, it was highlighted that the cumulative adjustment to equity at the date of transition to Ind AS is not a transaction or event recognised ‘directly in equity’ and the remeasurement of deferred tax on such item is required to be recognised in OCI. • An entity at the time of first-time adoption of Ind AS adjusts the unamortised balance of costs of issue of equity shares in an appropriate equity head on the date of transition to Ind AS. The adjustment was made in accordance with Ind AS 32, Financial Instruments: Presentation that ‘transaction costs of an equity transaction shall be accounted for as a deduction from equity’. Accordingly, ITFG clarified that were the entity an existing adopter of Ind AS at the time of issuance of the equity share, it would still have adjusted the issue costs directly in equity. Hence, it was highlighted that the adjustment to equity at the date of transition to Ind AS is an adjustment ‘directly in equity’. Additionally, the remeasurement of deferred tax on such item is required to be recognised directly in equity.

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
	The ITFG clarified that entity is required to determine (using the current accounting policies) the underlying items (source transaction/events) with respect to which deferred taxes were recognised by it at the time of first-time adoption of Ind AS or at the time of transition to Ind AS 115 or Ind AS 116. Accordingly, the ITFG concluded that depending on the nature of an underlying item, the change in the amount of the related deferred tax asset or deferred tax liability resulting from the remeasurement of the same at lower tax rates introduced by the Ordinance 2019 should be recognised in statement of profit and loss, OCI or directly in equity.

Glossary

Accounting profit is profit or loss for a period before deducting tax expense.

Taxable profit (tax loss) is the profit (loss) for a period, determined in accordance with the rules established by the taxation authorities, upon which income taxes are payable (recoverable).

Tax expense (tax income) is the aggregate amount included in the determination of profit or loss for the period in respect of current tax and deferred tax.

Current tax is the amount of income taxes payable (recoverable) in respect of the taxable profit (tax loss) for a period.

Deferred tax liabilities are the amounts of income taxes payable in future periods in respect of taxable temporary differences.

Deferred tax assets are the amounts of income taxes recoverable in future periods in respect of:

- a) Deductible temporary differences,
- b) The carry forward of unused tax losses, and
- c) The carry forward of unused tax credits.

Temporary differences are differences between the carrying amount of an asset or liability in the balance sheet and its tax base. Temporary differences may be either:

- a) Taxable temporary differences, which are temporary differences that will result in taxable amounts in determining taxable profit (tax loss) of future periods when the carrying amount of the asset or liability is recovered or settled, or
- b) Deductible temporary differences, which are temporary differences that will result in amounts that are deductible in determining taxable profit (tax loss) of future periods when the carrying amount of the asset or liability is recovered or settled.

The tax base of an asset or liability is the amount attributed to that asset or liability for tax purposes.

Ind AS-16 Property, Plant and Equipment

1. Executive summary

- Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 16, Property, Plant and Equipment is applied in the accounting for Property, Plant and Equipment (PPE).
- PPE is initially recognised at cost.
- Cost includes all expenditure directly attributable to bringing the asset to the location and working condition for its intended use.
- Cost includes the estimated cost of dismantling and removing the asset and restoring the site.
- Subsequent expenditure is capitalised if it is probable that it will give rise to future economic benefits.
- Changes to an existing decommissioning or restoration obligation are generally added to or deducted from the cost of the related asset.
- The carrying amount of PPE may be reduced by government grants in accordance with Ind AS 20, Accounting for Government Grants and Disclosure of Government Assistance.
- PPE is depreciated over its expected useful life.
- Estimates of useful life and residual value, and the method of depreciation, are reviewed as a minimum at each reporting date. Any changes are accounted for prospectively as a change in estimate.
- When an item of PPE comprises individual components for which different depreciation methods or rates are appropriate, each component is depreciated separately.
- PPE may be revalued to fair value if fair value can be measured reliably. All items in the same class are revalued at the same time, and the revaluations are kept up to date.
- When the revaluation model is chosen, changes in fair value are generally recognised in Other Comprehensive Income (OCI).
- The gain or loss on disposal is the difference between the net proceeds received and the carrying amount of the asset.
- Compensation for the loss or impairment of PPE is recognised in the statement of profit and loss when it is receivable.

	a) The carrying amount of temporarily idle PPE,		_____
	b) The gross carrying amount of any fully depreciated PPE that is still in use,		_____
	c) The carrying amount of PPE retired from active use and not classified as held for sale in accordance with Ind AS 105, and		_____
	d) When the cost model is used, the fair value of PPE when this is materially different from the carrying amount?		_____

3. Additional considerations

Some of the key requirements from the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act)

- Review of useful life and residual value: Schedule II to the 2013 Act prescribes the useful life of various assets, and the manner of computing their residual value (which should not be more than five per cent of the original cost). Transition to Ind AS 16 would not impact companies which had elected to determine the useful life and residual value of its PPE based on technical evaluation, under the 2013 Act, since they were required to evaluate the useful lives and residual values annually (as is now prescribed under Ind AS 16).

Where the company is estimating a useful life or residual value different from those specified in Schedule II, financial statements should disclose such difference along with the justification in this behalf duly supported by technical advice.

- Componentisation: One of the significant changes brought forth by Ind AS 16 is the requirement for componentisation of PPE. Under Ind AS 16, each part of an item of PPE with a cost that is significant in relation to the total cost of the item is depreciated separately.

Componentisation of PPE would result in the management making judgements in identifying different components which are individually significant and aggregating components which are not significant.

- Treatment of revaluation gains: The revaluation surplus included in equity in respect of an item of PPE may be transferred directly to retained earnings when the asset is derecognised.

Significant carve-outs from IFRS

- No significant carve-outs from IFRS have been provided in this standard.

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

ICDS V, Tangible Fixed Assets

- Expenses incurred before actual use: Under ICDS, expenses incurred on start-up and commissioning of a project, including the expenditure incurred on test runs and experimental production should be capitalised. Therefore, expenses incurred until the date on which a plant has begun commercial production (i.e., production intended for sale or captive consumption), shall be capitalised (Refer FAQ on ICDS). However, expenditure incurred after a plant has begun commercial production shall be treated as revenue expenditure.
- Under Ind AS, costs incurred after asset is ready to use cannot be capitalised.
- Exchange differences: Ind AS does not permit capitalisation of exchange gain/loss arising out of reinstatement/settlement of monetary items associated with procurement of PPE. ICDS reiterates the fact that capitalisation of exchange differences relating to fixed asset shall be done in accordance with Section 43 A of Income Tax Act, 1961 or other such provisions.

ICDS IX, Borrowing Costs

- Deemed interest cost: Exchange differences arising from foreign currency borrowings to the extent they are regarded as interest cost are considered as borrowing costs under Ind AS 23. However, ICDS has not considered the same as borrowing cost and accordingly such costs may not be eligible for capitalisation in respect of a qualifying asset.

- Capitalisation of borrowing costs: ICDS has prescribed a new formula for capitalisation of general borrowing cost. In case of specific borrowings, capitalisation must commence only from the date of utilisation of funds.
- Qualifying assets: ICDS prescribes that the minimum period for classifying an asset as a qualifying asset is 12 months. Hence, borrowing costs are required to be capitalised if the asset necessarily requires a period of 12 months or more for its acquisition, construction or production.

Ind AS 23 defines a qualifying asset as an asset that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale. However, it does not prescribe any bright lines for determining 'substantial period' of time.
- Suspension of capitalisation of borrowing costs: Under Ind AS 16, capitalisation of borrowing costs shall be suspended during extended periods in which active development is interrupted/suspended. ICDS does not prescribe such suspension and the borrowing costs shall continue to be capitalised till the asset is put to use.

Some of the clarifications provided by the Ind AS Technical Facilitation Group (ITFG)

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
	Recognition and depreciation on spare parts
Bulletin 2 (Issue 4)	Spare parts which meet the definition of PPE as per Ind AS 16 and satisfy the recognition criteria as given in paragraph 7 of Ind AS 16, should be capitalised as PPE separately from the equipment with which the spare part is intended to be used. If the spare part does not meet the definition and recognition criteria of Ind AS 16, then it should be recognised as inventory.	16.7, 16.8, Ind AS 101 (Q 4)
Bulletin 3 (Issue 9)
Bulletin 5 (Issue 6)
	The ITFG clarified that depreciation on an item of spare part that is classified as PPE will commence when the asset is available for use i.e. when it is in the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management. In case of a spare part, as it may be readily available for use, it may be depreciated from the date of purchase of the spare part. In determining the useful life of a spare part, the life of the machine in respect of which it can be used can be one of the determining factors.
	Please refer clarification on capitalisation and depreciation of spare parts on transition to Ind AS in Ind AS 101.
	Accounting for enabling assets
Bulletin 2 (Issue 5)	The ITFG in its second bulletin clarified that the decision on whether expenses incurred on construction of assets on land not owned by an entity should be capitalised, would be based on the principles of Ind AS 16 after consideration of facts and circumstances. In its eleventh bulletin, it reiterated that expenses incurred to construct assets, not owned by the entity, in order to facilitate the construction of and the operations of its project (enabling assets) can be capitalised. This is because enabling assets assist the entity in obtaining future economic benefits from its project (irrespective of the fact that these assets are not owned by the entity). ITFG further clarified the following:	16.16b (Q 15(b))
Bulletin 11 (Issue 8)
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Capitalisation and presentation: Since the entity cannot restrict others from using the enabling assets, it cannot capitalize them individually, however, it may capitalise and present them as a part of the overall cost of the project.

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Depreciation: Entities may adopt component accounting and depreciate the enabling assets as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Useful life is different: If the components have a useful life which is different from the useful life of the PPE to which they relate, they should be depreciated separately over their useful life (which cannot exceed that of the asset to which they relate.) - Useful life and depreciation method is same: If the components have a useful life and depreciation method that are same as the useful life and depreciation method of the PPE, then they may be grouped with the related PPE and depreciated as a single component. - Directly attributable costs: Where the components have been included in the cost of PPE as a directly attributable cost, then they should be depreciated over the useful life of the PPE.
Bulletin 12 (Issue 1)	Application of revaluation model for PPE The ITFG clarified that, when an entity has immovable properties such as land or building, it needs to evaluate whether the land and buildings that it holds are classified as an investment property or as PPE. Where the entity concludes that the land and buildings are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Investment property: Only cost model can be applied for initial and subsequent measurement • PPE: The land and buildings are initially measured at cost. For subsequent measurement, the entity has an option to choose either the cost model or revaluation model for a class of PPE. Once the entity adopts the revaluation model, it is required to apply it to the entire class of asset. Accordingly, an entity may opt for revaluation model for a particular class of assets and cost model for another class of assets which are classified as PPE.	16.29-16.34 (Q 22(a))

Bulletin 20 (Issue 5)	Different accounting policies and estimates adopted by an associate and an investor In a scenario where different accounting policies/estimates were followed by an overseas associate Entity M and its Indian investor Entity L as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Both business combinations effected by Entity M are accounted for as per pooling of interest method as ordered by the local corporate regulator Fixed assets of Entity M are depreciated using the straight-line method to comply with local taxation and corporate laws while Entity M uses method that reflects the pattern of consumption of the asset. Fixed assets are depreciated over useful life prescribed by local laws in case of Entity M as against the useful life as per factors prescribed in Ind AS 16. The ITFG clarified the following accounting treatment to be applied (for the preparation of special purpose financial statements for the limited purpose of application of equity method) by the Indian investor Entity L as follows: Business combinations The business combinations should be accounted for as per the principles of Ind AS 103, i.e. a transaction that meets the definition of a common control business combination from the perspective of the associate should be accounted for as per the pooling of interests method and other business combination transactions should be accounted for as per the acquisition method. Depreciation method(s) As per the requirements of Ind AS 16 the depreciation method to be applied in respect of an item of PPE should reflect the expected pattern of consumption of the future economic benefits embodied in the asset. Thus, under Ind AS 16, depreciation method is a matter of an accounting estimate, and not an accounting policy. While preparing financial statements of the associate as per Ind ASs, the requirements of Ind AS 16 need to be considered in determining an appropriate depreciation method for each item of PPE (or significant part) even though the resultant method may be different from the method applied by the associate in preparing and presenting its financial statements as per applicable local laws. Useful lives Ind AS 16 contains detailed guidance regarding the factors to be considered in determining the useful life of an item of PPE (or significant part). While preparing financial statements of the associate as per Ind ASs the requirements of Ind AS 16 need to be considered in relation to determination of the useful life of each item of PPE. For further details on the above issue please refer Ind AS 28 checklist	16.60-16-62, Ind AS 28 (Q 42)

Glossary

Bearer Plant is a living plant that,

- a) Is used in the production or supply of agricultural produce;
- b) Is expected to bear produce for more than one period; and
- c) Has a remote likelihood of being sold as agricultural produce, except for incidental scrap sales.

Carrying amount, is the amount at which an asset is recognised after deducting any accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses.

Cost, is the amount of cash or cash equivalents paid or the fair value of the other consideration given to acquire an asset at the time of its acquisition or construction or, where applicable, the amount attributed to that asset when initially recognised in accordance with the specific requirements of other Indian Accounting Standards, e.g. Ind AS 102, Share-based Payment.

Depreciable amount, is the cost of an asset, or other amount substituted for cost, less its residual value

Depreciation, is the systematic allocation of the depreciable amount of an asset over its useful life.

Entity-specific value, is the present value of the cash flows an entity expects to arise from the continuing use of an asset and from its disposal at the end of its useful life or expects to incur when settling a liability.

Fair value, is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

Impairment loss, is the amount by which the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount.

Property, plant and equipment are tangible items that:

- a) Are held for use in the production or supply of goods or services, for rental to others, or for administrative purposes; and
- b) Are expected to be used during more than one period.

Recoverable amount, is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs to sell and its value in use.

Residual value, of an asset is the estimated amount that an entity would currently obtain from disposal of the asset, after deducting the estimated costs of disposal, if the asset were already of the age and in the condition expected at the end of its useful life.

Useful life is:

- a) The period over which an asset is expected to be available for use by an entity; or
- b) The number of production or similar units expected to be obtained from the asset by an entity.

Ind AS-19 Employee Benefits

1. Executive summary

- Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 19, Employee Benefits specifies the accounting for various types of employee benefits, including:
 - Benefits provided for services rendered – e.g. pensions, lump-sum payments on retirement, paid absences and profit-sharing arrangements, and
 - Benefits provided on termination of employment.
 - Post-employment plans are classified as:
 - Defined contribution plans – plans under which the entity pays a fixed contribution in to a fund and will have no further obligation, and
 - Defined benefit plans – all other plans.
 - Liabilities and expenses for employee benefits that are provided in exchange for services are generally recognised in the period in which the services are rendered.
 - The costs of providing employee benefits that are recognised in profit or loss or Other Comprehensive Income (OCI), unless other Ind ASs permit or require capitalisation.
 - To account for defined benefit post-employment plans, the entity:
 - Determines the present value of a defined benefit obligation by applying an actuarial valuation method,
 - Deducts the fair value of any plan assets,
 - Adjusts for any effect of the asset ceiling, and
 - Determines services costs and net interests (recognised in profit or loss) and remeasurements (recognised in OCI).
 - If insufficient information is available for multi-employer defined benefit plan to be accounted for as a defined benefit plan, then it is treated as a defined contribution plan and additional disclosures are required.
 - If the entity applies defined contribution plan accounting to a multi-employer defined benefit plan and there is an agreement that determines how a surplus in the plan would be distributed or a deficit in the plan funded, then an asset or a liability that arises from the contractual agreement is recognised.
 - If there is a contractual agreement or stated policy for allocating a group's net defined benefit cost, then participating group entities recognise the cost allocated to them.
 - If there is no agreement or policy in place, then the net defined benefit cost is recognised by the entity that is the legal sponsor, and other participating entities expense their contribution payable for the period.
 - Short term employee benefits – i.e. those that are expected to be settled wholly within 12 months after the end of the annual reporting period in which the employees render the related service – are expensed as they are incurred, except for termination benefits.
 - The expenses for long-term employee benefits, calculated on discounted basis, is usually accrued over the service period
 - A termination benefit is recognised at the earlier of:
 - The date on which the entity recognises costs for a restructuring in the scope of the provisions standard that includes the payment of termination benefits, and
 - The date on which the entity can no longer withdraw the offer of the termination benefits.
- New developments
- Plan amendment, curtailment or settlement
- On 30 March 2019, MCA notified an amendment to Ind AS 19, which clarifies the impact of plan amendments, curtailments and settlements. The amendment is based on the revision made by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) to IAS 19, Employee Benefits in February 2018.
 - The amendment clarifies that:
 - On amendment, curtailment or settlement of a defined benefit plan, a company would use updated actuarial assumptions to determine its current service cost and net interest for the period, and
 - The effect of the asset ceiling is disregarded when calculating the gain or loss on any settlement of the plan and is dealt with separately in OCI.
 - Effective date and transition: The amendment is applicable prospectively from 1 April 2019.

¹ The amendment arising out of Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Second Amendment Rules, 2019 has been incorporated in the checklists.

	a) There is a present obligation (i.e. no realistic alternative but to make such payment) as a result of past events e.g. legal obligation to pay bonus or constructive obligation, the entity has past practice of paying bonuses, and	19.20 19.21
	b) A reliable estimate of the obligation can be made?		_____
8	Has the entity made a reliable estimate of its legal or constructive obligation under a profit-sharing or bonus plan when, and only when:	19.22	_____
	a) The formal terms of the plan contain a formula for determining the amount of the benefit,		_____
	b) The entity determines the amounts to be paid before the financial statements are approved for issue, or		_____
	c) Past practice gives clear evidence of the amount of the entity's constructive obligation?		_____
	(Note: If profit-sharing and bonus payments are not expected to be settled wholly before 12 months after the end of the annual reporting period in which the employees render the related service, those payments are other long-term employee benefits (see Q 78 to 81)	19.24
Disclosure for short-term employee benefits

	a) An expense, unless another Ind AS requires or permits the inclusion of the contribution in the cost of an asset,		_____
	b) A liability (accrued expense), after deducting any contribution already paid, and		_____
	c) However, if the contribution already paid exceeds the contribution due for service before the balance sheet date, has the entity recognised that excess as an asset to the extent that the repayment will lead to a reduction in future payments or a cash refund?		_____
12	If the contributions to a defined contribution plan are not expected to be settled wholly before 12 months after the end of the annual period in which the employees render the related service, in measuring the liability referred to in Q 11 (b), have such contributions been discounted by reference to market yields at the balance sheet date on government bonds (refer Q 17 (f))?	19.52	_____
	Disclosures for defined contribution plans
13	Has the entity disclosed the amount recognised as an expense for defined contribution plans?	19.53	_____
14	Has the entity disclosed the information about contributions to defined contribution plans for key management personnel as per Ind AS 24?	19.54	_____
	Defined benefit plans
15	Has the entity determined the net defined benefit liability (asset) with sufficient regularity that the amounts recognised in the financial statements do not differ materially from the amounts that would be determined at the end of the reporting period?	19.58	_____

3. Additional considerations

Some of the key requirements from the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act)

- There are no specific requirements arising out of the 2013 Act in the context of this standard..

Significant carve-outs from IFRS

- According to Ind AS 19 the rate to be used to discount post-employment benefit obligation shall be determined by reference to the market yields on government bonds, whereas under IAS 19, Employee Benefits the government bonds can be used only for those currencies where there is no deep market of high quality corporate bonds. However, requirements given in IAS 19 in this regard have been retained with appropriate modifications for foreign entities where the expected settlement of benefits would be in currencies other than Indian Rupees.

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

- No specific requirement has been prescribed under ICDS relating to this standard. Whereas, it is expected that employee benefits provision to the extent not paid will be disallowed and deductible under Income Tax Act, 1961 in the year to which they relate or are paid.
- Post-retirement benefits: CBDT noted that while expenditure on most post-retirement benefits (like provident fund, gratuity, etc.) are covered by specific provisions, there are other post-retirement benefits offered by companies (like medical benefits), that are covered by AS 15, Employee Benefits. In the absence of a parallel ICDS notified for such benefits, CBDT clarified that these will continue to be governed by specific provisions of the Income Tax Act, 1961, and not dealt with by ICDS X (Refer to FAQ 24).

Some of the clarifications provided by the Ind AS Technical Facilitation Group (ITFG) and Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) issued by ICAI

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
FAQ on accounting for enhanced gratuity ceiling	FAQ on accounting treatment of increase in liability due to enhancement of the gratuity ceiling The Accounting Standards Board (ASB) of ICAI considered an issue where, as a result of enhancement of the gratuity ceiling from INR10 lakh to INR20 lakh under the Payment of Gratuity (Amendment) Act 2018, there was a substantial increase in the liability of a company (ABC Ltd.). The ASB stated that the increased liability due to such amendment would be considered a past service cost, as defined under Ind AS 19. Further, the accounting standards do not provide any exemption/one time relief with regard to the accounting treatment of increase in liability arising on account of past service cost. Accordingly, ABC Ltd. would be required to account for such increase in liability due to increase in gratuity ceiling as an expense as per requirements of Ind AS 19.	19.103 (Q 20)

Glossary

Employee benefits are all forms of consideration given by the entity in exchange for service rendered by employees or for the termination of employment.

Short-term employee benefits are employee benefits (other than termination benefits) that are expected to be settled wholly before twelve months after the end of the annual reporting period in which the employees render the related service.

Post-employment benefits are employee benefits (other than termination benefits and short term employee benefits) that are payable after the completion of employment.

Other long-term employee benefits are all employee benefits other than short-term employee benefits, post-employment benefits and termination benefits.

Termination benefits are employee benefits provided in exchange for the termination of an employee's employment as a result of either:

- a) The entity's decision to terminate an employee's employment before the normal retirement date or
- b) An employee's decision to accept an offer of benefits in exchange for the termination of employment.

Post-employment benefit plans are formal or informal arrangements under which the entity provides post-employment benefits for one or more employees.

Defined contribution plans are post-employment benefit plans under which the entity pays fixed contributions into a separate entity (a fund) and will have no legal or constructive obligation to pay further contributions if the fund does not hold sufficient assets to pay all employee benefits relating to employee service in the current and prior periods.

Defined benefit plans are post-employment benefit plans other than defined contribution plans.

Multi-employer plans are defined contribution plans (other than state plans) or defined benefit plans (other than state plans) that:

- a) Pool the assets contributed by various entities that are not under common control and use those assets to provide benefits to employees of more than one entity, on the basis that contribution and benefit levels are determined without regard to the identity of the entity that employs the employees.

The net defined benefit liability (asset) is the deficit or surplus, adjusted for any effect of limiting a net defined benefit asset to the asset ceiling.

The deficit or surplus is:

- a) The present value of the defined benefit obligation less
- b) The fair value of plan assets (if any).

The asset ceiling is the present value of any economic benefits available in the form of refunds from the plan or reductions in future contributions to the plan.

The present value of a defined benefit obligation is the present value, without deducting any plan assets, of expected future payments required to settle the obligation resulting from employee service in the current and prior periods.

Plan assets comprise:

- a) Assets held by a long-term employee benefit fund; and
- b) Qualifying insurance policies.

Assets held by a long-term employee benefit fund are assets (other than non-transferable financial instruments issued by the reporting entity) that:

- a) Are held by the entity (a fund) that is legally separate from the reporting entity and exists solely to pay or fund employee benefits; and

- b) Are available to be used only to pay or fund employee benefits, are not available to the reporting entity's own creditors (even in bankruptcy), and cannot be returned to the reporting entity, unless either:
 - i. The remaining assets of the fund are sufficient to meet all the related employee benefit obligations of the plan or the reporting entity; or
 - ii. The assets are returned to the reporting entity to reimburse it for employee benefits already paid.

A qualifying insurance policy is an insurance policy issued by an insurer that is not a related party (as defined in Ind AS 24) of the reporting entity, if the proceeds of the policy:

- a) Can be used only to pay or fund employee benefits under a defined benefit plan and
- b) Are not available to the reporting entity's own creditors (even in bankruptcy) and cannot be paid to the reporting entity, unless either:
 - i. The proceeds represent surplus assets that are not needed for the policy to meet all the related employee benefit obligations; or
 - ii. The proceeds are returned to the reporting entity to reimburse it for employee benefits already paid.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. (See Ind AS 113.)

Ind AS-20 Accounting for Government Grants and Disclosure of Government Assistance

1. Executive summary

- Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 20, Accounting for Government Grants and Disclosure of Government Assistance shall be applied in accounting and disclosure of government grants and for disclosure of other forms of government assistance.
- Government grants, including non-monetary grants at fair value, are recognised only when there is reasonable assurance that the entity will comply with the conditions attached to them and the grants will be received.
- If government grant is in the form of a non-monetary asset, then both the asset and the grant are either recognised at the fair value of the non-monetary asset or at a nominal amount.
- Unconditional government grants related to biological assets measured at fair value less cost to sell are recognised in profit or loss when they become receivable, conditional grants for such assets are recognised in profit or loss when the required conditions are met.
- Government grants that relate to the acquisition of an asset, other than a biological asset measured at fair value less cost to sell, are recognised in profit or loss as the related asset is depreciated or amortised. In case of a non-depreciable assets, the related grants are recognised in profit or loss over the periods that bear the cost of meeting the obligations.
- Other government grants are recognised in profit or loss when the entity recognises as expenses the related costs that the grants are intended to compensate.
- A forgivable loan from government is treated as a government grant when there is a reasonable assurance that the entity will meet the terms for forgiveness of the loan.
- Low-interest loans from government may include components that need to be treated as government grants.
- Non-monetary government grants are either to be measured at fair value or at a nominal amount.
- Government grants related to assets are presented in the balance sheet either as deferred income or by deducting the grant in arriving at the carrying amount of the asset.
- Government grants related to income are presented separately in profit or loss or as deduction from the related expense.
- Government grants that become repayable would be accounted for as a change in an accounting estimate.
- Repayment of a government grant related to income would be applied first against any unamortised deferred credit recognised in respect of the grant. To the extent that the repayment exceeds any such deferred credit, or when no deferred credit exists, the repayment would be recognised immediately in profit or loss.
- Repayment of a grant related to an asset would be recognised by either:
 - Reducing the deferred income balance by the amount repayable, or
 - Increasing the carrying amount of the related asset, if the grant was previously deducted from the carrying amount of the asset. In this case, the cumulative additional depreciation on the new carrying amount of the asset would be recognised immediately in the statement of profit and loss.

3. Additional considerations

Some of the key requirements from the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act)

- There are no specific requirements arising out of the 2013 Act in the context of this standard.

Significant carve-outs from IFRS

- MCA amended Ind AS 20 and the amendments are effective retrospectively from 1 April 2018. Consequently, there are no significant differences in Ind AS 20 as compared with IAS 20, Accounting for Government Grants and Disclosure of Government Assistance.

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

- Capital approach: ICDS does not permit the capital approach for recording of government grants. Accordingly ICDS requires all grants either to be reduced from the cost of the asset or recognised as income, immediately or over a period of time depending upon the nature of grants. Ind AS 20 does not permit the reduction of grant from the cost of the asset.
- Recognition of grant: As per paragraph 4 of ICDS VII, Government Grants, government grants should not be recognised until there is reasonable assurance that:
 - The person shall comply with the conditions attached to them, and
 - The grant shall be received. However, recognition shall not be postponed beyond the date of actual receipt.

ICDS VII mandates that initial recognition of grants cannot be postponed beyond the date of actual receipt even if all the recognition criteria are not met.

The Central Board of Direct Taxes (CBDT) on 23 March 2017 issued clarifications in the form of Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) on issues relating to the application of ICDS. Issue 17 of this FAQ clarifies that government grants received prior to 1 April 2016 shall be deemed to have been recognised on their receipt in accordance with ICDS VII, and accordingly, will be outside the transitional provisions. Therefore, the CBDT clarified the following:

- Recognition of grants received after 1 April 2016: Government grants which are received on or after 1 April 2016 and for which recognition criteria provided in paragraph 5 to 9 of ICDS VII are also satisfied, shall be recognised as per the provisions of ICDS VII.
- Recognition of grants received before 1 April 2016: Government grants which have been received prior to 1 April 2016 shall continue to be governed by the law prevailing prior to that date. (Refer FAQ on ICDS)

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
Bulletin 9 (Issue 3)	Treatment of government grant in the case of a government company The ITFG clarified that when a government company receives a contribution from the government before the date of transition to Ind AS, it should determine whether the amount received is in the nature of a government grant or shareholder's contribution. The following would be the accounting treatment in the two scenarios: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In case the entity concludes that the contribution is in the nature of a government grant: The entity should apply the principles of Ind AS 20 retrospectively. Ind AS 20 requires all grants to be recognised as income on a systematic basis over the periods in which the entity recognises as expenses the related costs, which the grants are intended to compensate. Ind AS 20 requires the grant to be classified either as a capital or an income grant and does not permit recognition of government grants in the nature of promoter's contribution directly in shareholders' funds. • In case the entity concludes that the contribution is in the nature of shareholders' contribution: Ind AS 20 would not apply to such a transaction, since it specifically scopes out the participation by the government in the ownership of an entity. Thus, in accordance with Ind AS 101, First-time Adoption of Indian Accounting Standards, the entity is required to reclassify the contribution received, from capital reserve to an appropriate category under 'other equity' at the date of transition to Ind AS. The ITFG clarified that the same principles as mentioned above would apply for contributions received by an entity subsequent to the transition date.	20.12, 20.2 (Q6, Q1(c))

The ITFG clarified that the exemption of customs duty under the EPCG scheme) is a government grant and should be accounted for as per the provisions of Ind AS 20. An entity would need to exercise judgement and carefully examine the facts, objective and conditions attached to the scheme to determine whether the grant is related to an 'asset' or to 'income'. The entity should ascertain the purpose of the grant and the costs which it intends to compensate in light of the guidance provided in Ind AS 20.	20.24, 20.26, 20.29, 20.12 (Q12, Q13, Q15, Q6)

	Accounting for export benefits under a scheme of the Government of India (including Export Promotion Capital Goods (EPCG) scheme) (cont.) Based on this analysis, under an EPCG scheme, the grant (exemption from payment of customs duty) would be recognised as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Export of goods is primary condition: If the grant received is to compensate the import cost of assets, and is subject to an export obligation as prescribed in the EPCG scheme, then the recognition of the grant would be linked to fulfilment of the associated export obligations. • Export of goods is subsidiary condition: If the grant received is to compensate the import cost of the asset, and it can be reasonably concluded that conditions relating to export of goods are subsidiary conditions, then it is appropriate to recognise such grants in profit or loss over the life of the underlying asset.
Bulletin 15 (Issue 3)	Classification of incentives receivable from government as financial assets For discussion on whether incentives receivable from government would be classified as financial assets, refer ITFG clarification under Ind AS 109, Financial Instruments.	20.9, Ind AS 109 (Q 3)
Bulletin 17 (Issue 1)	Accounting for government grants on amendments to Ind AS 20 X Ltd. received certain land prior to transition to Ind AS, from the government (as a government grant) free of cost subject to compliance with specified terms and conditions, and in accordance with the erstwhile AS 12, Accounting for Government Grants, the land was recorded at a nominal value of INR1. The ITFG considered the accounting for the government grant under two scenarios for Financial Year (FY) 2018-19, the year in which there was an amendment to Ind AS 20, permitting non-monetary government grants to be either accounted at fair value of the non-monetary asset or at a nominal amount: a) X Ltd. is a first-time adopter of Ind AS in FY 2018-19 Ind AS 101 states that an entity is required to use the same accounting policies in its opening Ind AS balance sheet and throughout all periods presented in its first Ind AS financial statements. Those accounting policies would comply with each Ind AS effective at the end of its first Ind AS reporting period. Generally those accounting policies are applied on a retrospective basis. Accordingly, X Ltd is required to apply the amended Ind AS 20 for all periods presented in its financial statements for 2018-19, including in preparing its opening Ind AS balance sheet as at 1 April 2017.	20.18, 20.23 (Q 8), (Q 11)

Bulletin 17 (Issue 1)	Accounting for government grants on amendments to Ind AS 20 (cont.) Additionally, under Ind AS 101, there is no mandatory exception or voluntary exemption from retrospective application of Ind AS 20. Consequently, X Ltd. is required to apply the requirements of Ind AS 20, retrospectively at the date of transition to Ind AS (and consequently in subsequent accounting periods). b) X Ltd. already adopted Ind AS prior to financial year 2018-19 As X Ltd. transitioned to Ind AS a few years back, it is following an accounting policy of recognising government grant and the related asset at fair value (as required by the pre-amended Ind AS 20). In accordance with Ind AS 8, an entity would change an accounting policy only if the change: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Is required by an Ind AS, or • Results in the financial statements providing reliable and more relevant information about the effects of transactions, other events or conditions on the entity's financial position, financial performance or cash flows. Considering that the amended Ind AS 20 provides entities with an accounting policy choice between recognising the grant and the asset initially either at fair value or at a nominal amount, X Ltd. is not required to change the accounting policy relating to the grant as applied by it in preparing its financial statements for the previous FY. However, X Ltd. is permitted to change its accounting policy voluntarily. In order to make a voluntary change in an accounting policy, Ind AS 8 requires the information resulting from application of the changed accounting policy to be reliable and 'more relevant'. Accordingly, X Ltd. should evaluate whether a change in the accounting policy results in reliable and more relevant financial information, which is a matter of assessment based on the particular facts and circumstances of each case. Further, where such a voluntary change in the accounting policy is made, X Ltd. would be required to disclose, inter alia, the reasons why applying the new accounting policy provides reliable and more relevant information.

Government refers to government, government agencies and similar bodies whether local, national or international.

Government assistance is action by government designed to provide an economic benefit specific to an entity or range of entities qualifying under certain criteria. Government assistance for the purpose of this Standard does not include benefits provided only indirectly through action affecting general trading conditions, such as the provision of infrastructure in development areas or the imposition of trading constraints on competitors.

Government grants are assistance by government in the form of transfers of resources to an entity in return for past or future compliance with certain conditions relating to the operating activities of the entity. They exclude those forms of government assistance which cannot reasonably have a value placed upon them and transactions with government which cannot be distinguished from the normal trading transactions of the entity.

Grants related to assets are government grants whose primary condition is that an entity qualifying for them should purchase, construct or otherwise acquire long-term assets. Subsidiary conditions may also be attached restricting the type or location of the assets or the periods during which they are to be acquired or held.

Grants related to income are government grants other than those related to assets.

Forgivable loans are loans which the lender undertakes to waive repayment of under certain prescribed conditions.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

Ind AS-21 The Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates

1. Executive summary

- Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 21, The Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates shall be applied:
 - In accounting for transactions and balances in foreign currencies, except for those derivative transactions and balances that are within the scope of Ind AS 109, Financial Instruments,
 - In translating the results and financial position of foreign operations that are included in the financial statements of the entity by consolidation or the equity method, and
 - In translating the entity's results and financial position into a presentation currency.
- The entity measures its assets, liabilities, income and expenses in its functional currency, which is the currency of the primary economic environment in which it operates.
- The entity needs to determine its functional currency based on the primary economic environment in which it operates. The primary economic environment is normally the one in which the entity primarily generates and expends cash.
- While determining the functional currency of its Foreign Operation (FO), the entity needs to consider certain additional factors, including the degree of autonomy with which the FO operates, the significance of the transactions and cash flows of the FO to the entity and the dependability of FO on the entity for servicing its debts.
- Transactions that are not denominated in the entity's functional currency are foreign currency transactions. They are translated at actual rates or appropriate averages, exchange differences arising on translation are generally recognised in the statement of profit and loss.
- The financial statements of foreign operations are translated as follows:
 - Assets and liabilities are translated at the closing rate,
 - Income and expenses are translated at the exchange rates or appropriate averages, and
 - Equity components are translated at the exchange rates at the date of the relevant transactions.
- Exchange differences arising on the translation of the financial statements of a foreign operation are recognized in Other Comprehensive Income (OCI) and accumulated in a separate component of equity. The amount attributable to any Non-Controlling Interests (NCI) is allocated to, and recognised as part of NCI.
- The entity may present its financial statements in a currency other than its functional currency (presentation currency). The entity that translates its financial statements into a presentation currency other than its functional currency uses the same method as for translating the financial statements of a foreign operation.
- If the functional currency of a foreign operation is the currency of a hyperinflationary economy, then its financial statements are first adjusted to reflect the purchasing power at the current reporting date and then translated into a presentation currency using the exchange rate at the current reporting date. If the presentation currency is not the currency of a hyperinflationary economy, then comparative amounts are not restated.
- If the entity disposes of its entire interest in a foreign operation, or loses control over a foreign subsidiary or retains neither joint control nor significant influence over an associate or joint arrangement as a result of a partial disposal, then the cumulative exchange differences recognised in OCI are reclassified to the statement of profit and loss.
- A partial disposal of a foreign subsidiary without the loss of control leads to a proportionate reclassification of the cumulative exchange differences in OCI to NCI.
- A partial disposal of a joint arrangement or an associate with retention of either joint control or significant influence results in a proportionate reclassification of the cumulative exchange differences recognised in OCI to profit or loss.
- The entity may present supplementary financial information in a currency other than its presentation currency if certain disclosures are made.

3. Additional considerations

Some of the key requirements from the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act)

- There are no specific requirements in the 2013 Act relating to foreign currency transactions.

Significant carve-outs from IFRS

- Ind AS 21 read along with Ind AS 101 provides companies with an option to continue the policy adopted for accounting for exchange differences arising from translation of long-term foreign currency monetary items recognised in the financial statements for the period ending immediately before the beginning of the first Ind AS financial reporting period as per the previous GAAP.
- When there is a change in functional currency of either the reporting currency or a significant foreign operation, IAS 21, The Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates, requires disclosure of that fact and the reason for the change in functional currency. Ind AS 21 requires an additional disclosure of the date of change in functional currency.

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

- Scope exception: There is no scope exception for exchange differences arising from foreign currency borrowings which may be regarded as an adjustment to interest costs as per ICDS VI, Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates. However, as per Ind AS there is an exception for exchange differences arising from foreign currency borrowings to the extent considered as an adjustment to interest costs.
- Functional and presentation currency: ICDS uses the terms foreign currency (currency other than the reporting currency of a person) and reporting currency (Indian currency except for foreign operations where it shall mean currency of the country where the operations are carried out), whereas Ind AS mandates the determination and use of functional and presentation currency for the purpose of calculating the effects of foreign exchange.
- Conversion at period end for non-monetary foreign currency items: Non-monetary items, exchange differences arising on conversion thereof at the last day of the previous year, whereas in Ind AS, non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency shall be translated using the exchange rate at the date of the transaction, and those that are measured at fair value in a foreign currency shall be translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value was measured. In addition, exchange differences arising shall not be recognised as income or expense in that year as per ICDS. Further, a non-monetary item being inventory which is carried at net realisable value denominated in a foreign currency should be reported using the exchange rate that existed when such value was determined.
- Exchange difference on settlement of monetary items: Exchange differences in respect of monetary items, exchange differences arising on the settlement thereof or on conversion thereof at last day of the previous year shall be recognised as income or as expense in that previous year whereas in Ind AS shall be recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they arise.
- Translation of foreign operation: Financial statements of foreign operations shall be translated using the principles and procedures specified for foreign currency transactions considering as if the transaction of the foreign operation had been those of the entity itself.

- Forward exchange contracts: These are in scope of ICDS but are out of the scope of Ind AS 21 and are treated as per Ind AS 109. However, derivatives which are not in the scope of ICDS VI would be governed by provisions of ICDS I (Refer FAQ on ICDS).
- Change in functional currency: Not covered under ICDS, however the entity should apply the translation procedures applicable to the new functional currency prospectively from the date of the change and the reason for the change in functional currency and the date of change in functional currency shall be disclosed.
- Recognition of opening FCTR balance: Revised ICDS removes the requirement to classify a foreign operation into an integral or non-integral operation. Therefore, Foreign Currency Translation Reserve (FCTR) balance as on 1 April 2016 pertaining to exchange differences on monetary items for non-integral operations, should be recognized in the Previous Year 2016-17 to the extent not recognised in the income computation in the past (Refer FAQ on ICDS).

Some of the clarifications provided by the Ind AS Technical Facilitation Group (ITFG) and Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) issued by ICAI

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
Bulletin 3 (Issue 3)	Functional currency The ITFG clarified that functional currency should be identified at the entity level, considering the economic environment in which the entity operates, and not at the level of a business or a division.	21.8, 21.9 to 21.14 (Q 16)
Bulletin 7 (Issue 2)	Determination of presentation currency for Consolidated Financial Statement (CFS) Entities within a group may have different functional currencies. The ITFG clarified that Ind AS permits an entity to use a presentation currency for reporting its financial statements that is different from its functional currency. Therefore, an entity may present its stand-alone and CFS in any currency by applying the translation procedures from functional to presentation currency for itself and its group entities.	21.38 (Q 18)
Bulletin 20 (Issue 1)	Disclosure of foreign exchange differences separately from other fair value changes In a scenario discussed at ITFG, an entity, P Ltd. holds an investment in debentures ¹ denominated in a foreign currency. These debentures are measured at fair value through profit or loss in accordance with Ind AS 109, and the functional currency of P Ltd. is INR. ITFG considered the issue whether the foreign exchange difference is required to be presented separately from other fair value changes in the statement of profit and loss. Ind AS 109 does not contain any requirement for separation of change in fair value of a foreign-currency denominated financial asset measured at FVTPL into the two constituent parts (i.e. change in fair value expressed in terms of foreign currency and change in exchange rate).	21.52 (Q 33)

¹ This investment is not designated as a hedging instrument in a cash flow hedge of an exposure to changes in foreign currency rates. Accordingly, ITFG was of the view that it would not be covered within the exceptions to the general principle enunciated in Ind AS 109 but would be measured at fair value through profit or loss.

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
	Ind AS 109 does not contain any requirement for separation of change in fair value of a foreign-currency denominated financial asset measured at FVTPL into the two constituent parts (i.e. change in fair value expressed in terms of foreign currency and change in exchange rate). In the given case, ITFG clarified that P Ltd is not required to present change in fair value of the investment in debentures on account of change in relevant foreign exchange rate separately from other changes in the fair value of the investment.

Glossary

Closing rate is the spot exchange rate at the end of the reporting period.

Exchange difference is the difference resulting from translating a given number of units of one currency into another currency at different exchange rates.

Exchange rate is the ratio of exchange for two currencies.

Foreign currency is a currency other than the functional currency of the entity.

Foreign operation is an entity that is a subsidiary, associate, joint arrangement or branch of a reporting entity, the activities of which are based or conducted in a country or currency other than those of the reporting entity.

Functional currency is the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates.

A group is a parent and all its subsidiaries.

Monetary items are units of currency held and assets and liabilities to be received or paid in a fixed or determinable number of units of currency.

Net investment in a foreign operation is the amount of the reporting entity's interest in the net assets of that operation.

Presentation currency is the currency in which the financial statements are presented.

Spot exchange rate is the exchange rate for immediate delivery.

Ind AS-23 Borrowing Costs

1. Executive summary

- Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 23, Borrowing Costs is applied in the accounting for borrowing costs. Borrowing costs are interest and other costs that an entity incurs in connection with the borrowing of funds. These include:

- Interest expense calculated using the effective interest method as described in Ind AS 109, Financial Instruments
- Interest in respect of lease liabilities recognised in accordance with Ind AS 116, *Leases*¹ and
- Exchange differences arising from foreign currency borrowings to the extent that they are regarded as an adjustment to interest costs.

- The standard requires that borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of a 'qualifying asset' are included in the cost of the asset when it is probable that they will result in future economic benefits to the entity and the costs can be measured reliably.

- Borrowing costs are reduced by interest income from the temporary investment of borrowings.

- Capitalisation begins when an entity meets all of the following conditions:

- Expenditure for the asset is being incurred
- Borrowing costs are being incurred and
- Activities that are necessary to prepare the asset for its intended use or sale have commenced.

- Capitalisation ceases when the activities necessary to prepare the asset for its intended use or sale are substantially complete.

New development

- On 30 March 2019, MCA notified an amendment on annual improvements to Ind AS. The amendment to Ind AS 23 clarifies that while computing the capitalisation rate for funds borrowed generally, an entity should exclude borrowing costs applicable to borrowings made specifically for obtaining a qualifying asset, only until the asset is ready for its intended use or sale. Borrowing costs related to specific borrowings that remain outstanding after the related qualifying asset is ready for intended use or for sale would subsequently be considered as part of the general borrowing costs of the entity.

- Effective date and transition: The above amendment is applicable for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 April 2019². As a transition provision, the amendment would be applicable to borrowing costs incurred on or after the beginning of the annual reporting period in which the entity first applies the amendment.

¹ The Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Amendment Rules, 2019 notified Ind AS 116, Leases, which is applicable to annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 April 2019. As a consequence of this notification, this standard has been amended.

² The amendment has been incorporated in the checklists.

7	If the entity has difficulty in identifying borrowing costs that are eligible for capitalisation, has management exercised judgement appropriately, based on the accounting policies developed by the entity?	23.11	_____
8	To the extent that the entity borrows funds specifically for the purpose of obtaining a qualifying asset, has the entity determined the amount of borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation as the actual borrowing costs incurred on that borrowing during the period less any investment income on the temporary investment of those borrowings.?	23.12	_____
9	a) Where the funds are borrowed generally, and used for the purpose of obtaining a qualifying asset, has the entity computed and used a capitalisation rate to determine the borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation? (Note: Capitalisation rate should be the weighted average of the borrowing costs applicable to all borrowings of the entity that are outstanding during the period.)	23.14	_____
	b) While computing eligible general borrowing costs, has the entity excluded from the abovementioned computation borrowing costs applicable to borrowings made specifically for the purpose of obtaining a qualifying asset until substantially all the activities necessary to prepare that asset for its intended use or sale are complete? ⁴	23.14	_____
10	Has the entity ensured that the amount of borrowing cost capitalised during the period does not exceed the amount of borrowing cost incurred during that period?	23.14	_____
11	For consolidated financial statements, has the management exercised judgement in using the group borrowing rate only where it is appropriate to do so, based on the accounting policies adopted by the entity (e.g. subsidiary is largely financed by intra-group borrowings)? (Note: Entity specific rates should be used in other cases.)	23.15	_____
12	a) Has the entity evaluated if the carrying amount or the expected ultimate cost of the qualifying assets exceeds its recoverable amount or net realisable value? b) If yes, has the entity written down or written off the carrying amount in accordance with the requirements of other Ind AS? (Note: In certain circumstances, the amount of the write-down or write-off may be written back in accordance with other Ind AS.)	23.16	_____

⁴ The Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Second Amendment Rules, 2019 incorporated an amendment to paragraph 14 of the standard. This amendment is applicable to annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 April 2019. As a transition provision, the amendments would be applicable to borrowing costs incurred on or after the beginning of the annual reporting period in which the entity first applies this amendment.

	i. When it carries out substantial technical and administrative work, and		_____
	ii. When a temporary delay is a necessary part of the process of getting an asset ready for its intended use or sale?		_____
Cessation of capitalisation
15	a) Has the entity ceased the capitalisation of borrowing costs when substantially all the activities necessary to prepare the qualifying asset for its intended use or sale are complete?	23.22	_____
	b) In situations where the construction of a qualifying asset is completed in parts, has the entity ensured that it ceased capitalisation of borrowing costs when it completed substantially all the activities necessary to prepare that part for its intended use or sale and not waited for the full asset to be ready for its intended use ?	23.24	_____
Hyperinflationary economies
16	If the entity applies Ind AS 29, Financial Reporting in Hyperinflationary Economies , has it recognised as an expense, the part of borrowing costs that compensates for inflation during the same period in accordance with paragraph 21 of Ind AS 29?	23.9	_____
Disclosure
17	a) Has the entity disclosed the amount of borrowing costs capitalised during the period?	23.26	_____
	b) Has the entity disclosed the capitalisation rate used to determine the amount of borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation?	23.26	_____

3. Additional considerations

Some of the key requirements from the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act)

- There are no specific requirements in the 2013 Act relating to this standard.

Significant carve-in from IFRS

- IAS 23, Borrowing Costs, does not provide guidance as to how the adjustment on account of foreign exchange difference is to be determined.
- However, paragraph 6 (e) of Ind AS 23, provides guidance on treatment of exchange difference as borrowings cost as given below:
 - The amount of exchange loss, restricted to the extent the exchange loss does not exceed the difference between the cost of borrowing in functional currency and cost of borrowing in a foreign currency is treated as borrowing cost, and
 - Where there was an unrealised exchange loss which was treated as a borrowing cost in an earlier period as mentioned in point (a) above and subsequently there is a realised or unrealised gain in respect of the settlement or translation of the same borrowing, the gain should also be recognised as an adjustment to the borrowing cost to the extent of loss previously recognised as borrowing cost.

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

ICDS IX, Borrowing costs

- Definition of borrowing costs: ICDS IX, Borrowing Costs defines borrowing costs as the interest and other costs incurred by a person in connection with the borrowing of funds and includes commitment charges on borrowings, amortised amount of discounts or premiums relating to borrowings, amortised amount of ancillary costs incurred for arrangement of borrowings and finance charges in respect of assets acquired under finance leases or under other similar arrangements. It has been clarified that the borrowing cost definition is an inclusive definition and accordingly, the definition would include bill discounting charges and other similar charges (Refer Q21 of FAQ on ICDS).
- Eligible borrowing costs: Exchange differences arising from foreign currency borrowings to the extent they are regarded as adjustments to interest cost are considered as borrowing costs under Ind AS 23. However, these do not qualify as borrowing costs under ICDS and accordingly are not eligible for capitalisation in the cost of a qualifying asset.
- Certain borrowing costs could be disallowed under Section 14A, 43B, 40(a)(i), 40(a)(ia), 40A(2)(b), etc. of the Income Tax Act, 1961 (IT Act). It has been clarified that the borrowing costs to be considered for capitalisation under ICDS IX should exclude those borrowing costs which are disallowed under specific provisions of the IT Act. Capitalisation should apply to that portion of the borrowing cost which is otherwise allowable as deduction under the IT Act (Refer Q20 of FAQ on ICDS).
- Qualifying asset: ICDS defines a qualifying asset as an asset that necessarily requires a period of 12 months or more for its acquisition, construction or production. However, unlike ICDS, Ind AS 23 defines a qualifying asset as an asset that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready and does not have a bright line of 12 months or more.

- Cost of specific borrowings: For the purpose of capitalisation of borrowing costs, income from temporary investment of specific borrowings is not reduced from the amount of borrowing costs incurred. Rather, this is treated as income. This treatment differs from the treatment as per Ind AS 23 which requires deduction of such income arising out of temporary investment from the borrowing cost.
- Capitalisation of borrowing costs: ICDS has prescribed a new formula for capitalisation of general borrowing cost which involves allocating the total general borrowing cost incurred in the ratio of average cost of qualifying assets on the first day and last day of the previous year to the average cost of total assets on the first and last day of the previous year (other than those assets directly funded out of specific borrowings). The general borrowing cost computed in accordance with the given method should be allocated on asset-by-asset basis for the purpose of capitalisation (Refer Q22 of FAQ on ICDS).
- Commencement of capitalisation: In case of specific borrowings, capitalisation of borrowing cost commences from the date of borrowing of funds. In case of general borrowings, capitalisation commences from the date on which funds were utilised. The above treatment differs from Ind AS 23 which requires fulfilment of set of conditions for commencement of capitalisation of borrowing cost.
- Suspension of capitalisation of borrowing costs: Under Ind AS 23, capitalisation of borrowing costs shall be suspended during extended periods in which active development is interrupted/suspended. ICDS does not prescribe such suspension and the borrowing costs shall continue to be capitalised till the asset is put to use.
- Cessation of capitalisation: Under Ind AS 23, capitalisation of borrowing costs should cease when substantially all the activities necessary to prepare the qualifying asset for its intended use or sale are complete. However, under ICDS, capitalisation shall cease when such asset (other than inventories) is first put to use.

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref. (Q ref)
Bulletin 19 (Issue 4)	Application of capitalisation rate for assets acquired under business combination In a scenario ABC Ltd. has Capital Work in Progress (CWIP) of INR100,000 which met the definition of a 'qualifying asset' and was capitalised using capitalisation rate for general borrowings. PQR Ltd., an unrelated independent entity acquired ABC Ltd. for cash consideration. ITFG considered and clarified the accounting treatment of borrowing costs in the following two situations: Scenario I: ABC Ltd. is merged into PQR Ltd. ITFG clarified that where ABC Ltd. is merged into PQR Ltd. and merger meets the definition of a 'business combination' as per Ind AS 103, Business Combinations, the CWIP would appear as an asset in the separate and consequently, in the consolidated financial statements of PQR Ltd. At the time of merger, PQR Ltd. needs to make a fresh and independent assessment as to whether the CWIP meets the definition of a qualifying asset from its perspective. In the given case, PQR Ltd. made an independent assessment and asserted that the CWIP still meets the definition of a qualifying asset and attributed an amount of INR120,000 as consideration towards purchase of the CWIP as part of purchase price. The value of CWIP and timing of incurrance of the aforesaid expenditure should be determined from the perspective of PQR Ltd. and not from the perspective of ABC Ltd. Consequently in separate and consolidated financial statements of PQR Ltd., INR120,000 would represents the expenditure incurred by PQR Ltd. on the CWIP and for purposes of applying the requirements of Ind AS 23 relating to capitalisation of borrowing costs. Scenario II: ABC Ltd. is not merged into PQR Ltd. Where PQR Ltd. acquires 100 per cent shares and consequently control of ABC Ltd. which continues to remain in existence, PQR Ltd.'s consolidated financial statements would include the CWIP as an asset but not its separate financial statements. ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
	In the issue under consideration, the group has incurred an expenditure of INR120,000 to acquire the CWIP from a party outside the group. For the purpose of applying the requirements of Ind AS 23 relating to capitalisation of borrowing costs at the group level, determine that the CWIP meets the definition of 'qualifying asset' from the group's perspective and the amount of expenditure on the CWIP would be considered to be INR120,000. While the separate financial statements of PQR Ltd. would include the investment in ABC Ltd. rather than individual assets and liabilities of ABC Ltd. As investment is a financial asset, borrowing costs cannot be capitalised as part of carrying amount as per the requirements of Ind AS 23 which specifically provides that financial assets are not qualifying assets. (For further clarification, please refer Ind AS 103 checklist)
Bulletin 13 (Issue 1)	Capitalisation of Dividend Distribution Tax (DDT) as borrowing costs The ITFG clarified that if preference shares are classified as liability in accordance with Ind AS 32, Financial Instruments: Presentation, and resulting dividend treated as interest, DDT on such dividend would be in the nature of a borrowing cost eligible for capitalisation, subject to the requirements of Ind AS 23. DDT is in the nature of an incremental cost incurred in relation to obtaining funds for qualifying assets and should be capitalised with interest. Additionally, if the requirements of Ind AS 23 for capitalisation are met, then such DDT would form part of the Effective Interest Rate (EIR) to compute the interest expense to be capitalised to the cost of the qualifying asset.	23.6 (Q 4)

In this regard, ITFG also noted that a company applying paragraph 46A is required to apply the said paragraph (and not AS 16, Borrowing Costs) to those exchange differences relating to long-term foreign currency monetary items also that otherwise qualify as being in the nature of adjustments to interest cost within the meaning of paragraph 4(e) of AS 16. The ITFG has clarified that a company which wishes to avail of the exemption provided by paragraph D13AA of Ind AS 101 is not permitted to apply paragraph 6 (e) of Ind AS 23 to that part of exchange differences on such long-term foreign currency monetary items.	23.6 (Q 4(c))

Borrowing costs are interest and other costs that an entity incurs in connection with the borrowing of funds.

Borrowing cost includes:

- a) Interest expense calculated using the effective interest method as described in Ind AS 109
- b) Interest in respect of lease liabilities recognised in accordance with Ind AS 116² and
- c) Exchange differences arising from foreign currency borrowings to the extent that they are regarded as an adjustment to interest costs.

Qualifying asset is an asset that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale.

Capitalisation rate is the weighted average of the borrowing costs applicable to the borrowings of the entity that are outstanding during the period, other than borrowings made specifically for the purpose of obtaining a qualifying asset.

Ind AS-24 Related Party Disclosures

1. Executive summary

- The objective of Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 24, Related Party Disclosures is to ensure that the entity's financial statements contain the disclosures necessary to draw attention to the possibility that its financial position and profit or loss may have been affected by the existence of related parties and by transactions and outstanding balances, including commitments, with such parties.
- Related party relationships include those involving control (direct or indirect), joint control or significant influence.
- Key management personnel and their close family members are also parties related to the entity.
- There are no special recognition or measurement requirements for related party transactions.
- The disclosure of related party relationships between a parent and its subsidiaries is required, even if there have been no transactions between them.
- No disclosure is required in consolidated financial statements of intra-group transactions eliminated in preparing those statements.
- Comprehensive disclosures of related party transactions are required for each category of related party relationship.
- Key management personnel compensation is disclosed in total and is analysed by component.
- In certain instances, government-related entities are allowed to provide less detailed disclosures on related party transactions.

3. Additional considerations

Some of the key requirements from the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act)

- The 2013 Act also defines the term 'related party' and 'relative'. However, for the purpose of disclosure in the financial statements, companies are required to follow the definition provided in Ind AS 24 in accordance with Rule 4A under the 2013 Act.
- The 2013 Act and the Rules thereunder require prior approval of shareholders through an ordinary resolution for certain related party transactions that are neither in the ordinary course of business nor on an arm's length basis. Approval is required for the following types of transactions, in excess of the limits specified in the table below:

Transaction	Limits
Sale, purchase or supply of goods (directly or through an agent)	10 per cent or more of turnover or INR1 billion, whichever is lower
Buying, selling or disposing off property of any kind (directly or through an agent)	10 per cent or more of net worth or INR1 billion, whichever is lower
Leasing of property	10 per cent or more of net worth, 10 per cent or more of turnover or INR1 billion, whichever is lower
Availing or rendering of any service (directly or through an agent)	10 per cent or more of turnover or INR500 million, whichever is lower
Appointment to any office or place of profit in the company, subsidiary of associate	Remuneration exceeding INR0.25 million per month
Underwriting the subscription of any securities or derivatives of the company	Remuneration exceeding one per cent of net worth.

Exemptions to private companies

- For private companies, that are small companies, instead of disclosing remuneration of directors and Key Management Personnel (KMP) in their annual return, they are required to disclose the aggregate remuneration drawn by directors.
- Private companies are exempt from considering body corporates which are their holding company, subsidiaries, associates, fellow subsidiaries, investing companies or venturers as related parties under Section 188 of the 2013 Act. Accordingly, private companies entering into transactions with such companies are not required to obtain the Board of Directors' or shareholders' approval for such transactions.

Significant carve-outs from IFRS

- Disclosures which conflict with confidentiality requirements of statute and regulations are not required to be made since accounting standards cannot override legal/regulatory requirements.
- In Ind AS 24, the definition of 'close members of the family of a person' has been amended to include brother, sister, father and mother in the category of family members who may be expected to influence or be influenced.

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

- No specific requirement has been prescribed under the ICDS relating to this standard.

Some of the key requirements of the Securities Exchange Board of India (SEBI)(Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (Listing Regulations)

- Regulation 23 of the Listing Regulations require listed entities to seek prior approval of the audit committee for all Related Party Transactions (RPTs). Audit committees may grant an omnibus approval for a period up to one year if specified conditions are met. Additionally, all material RPTs are required to be approved by the shareholders through an ordinary resolution, with related parties abstaining from voting on such resolutions.
- Additionally, with effect from 1 July 2019, clause (1A) of above Regulation 23 clarifies that a transaction involving payments made to a related party with respect to brand usage or royalty shall be considered material if the transaction(s) to be entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year, exceed five percent of the annual consolidated turnover of the listed entity as per the last audited financial statements of the listed entity.
- Further, on 22 January 2020, SEBI has issued a report of the Working Group constituted to review the provisions relating to related party transactions. The recommendations suggest changes to current regulatory framework by amending certain provisions of the Listing Regulations on seven below themes:
 - Definition of related party
 - Related Party transactions (RPTs)
 - Approval mechanism of RPTs
 - Materiality thresholds with respect to prior approval for RPTs
 - Process followed by the audit committee
 - Disclosure of information to shareholders for consideration of RPTs.
 - Strengthening the monitoring and enforcement of regulatory norm.

(For further details on the report of the working group, please refer to the article on 'SEBI reviews norms relating to related party transactions' published in KPMG in India's Accounting and Auditing Updates (February 2020 edition))

Bulletin 11 (Issue 9)	Disclosure of sitting fees paid to independent and non-executive directors Ind AS 24 defines KMP as persons who have the direct or indirect authority and responsibility for planning, directing and controlling the activities of the entity, and include all directors of an entity. In view of this, ITFG reiterated that independent and non-executive directors are also covered under the definition of KMP under Ind AS. It clarified that in accordance with paragraphs 7 and 9 of Ind AS 19, Employee Benefits, sitting fees paid to directors would fall under the definition of 'short-term employee benefits' and are required to be disclosed as a part of the KMP's compensation.	24.9, 24.17 (Q 3e(iii), Q 9e)

Bulletin 13 (Issue 2)	Accounting for financial guarantees The ITFG provided clarification on disclosures required to be provided by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A company that has received a financial guarantee from its director, and • A company that has provided a financial guarantee to a bank in respect of a loan obtained by its parent. For further discussion on these topics, please refer clarifications in Ind AS 109 checklist.	24.18, Ind AS 109 (Q 11)
Bulletin 16 (Issue 1)
Bulletin 17 (Issue 6)	Disclosures related to related party transactions The ITFG clarified that where a public utility company (S Ltd.) provides goods/services (such as supplying electricity) to its parent (P Ltd.), there is a dual relationship between S Ltd. and P Ltd. - as a supplier and consumer and as subsidiary and holding company. The subsidiary and holding company relationship is covered within the related party relationships to which the disclosure requirements of Ind AS 24 would apply. Therefore, the supply of electricity by S Ltd. to P Ltd. is a related party transaction that attracts the disclosure requirements contained in Ind AS 24. This would be notwithstanding the fact that P Ltd. is charged the electricity tariffs determined by an independent rate-setting authority (i.e. the terms of supply to P Ltd. are at par with those applicable to other consumers). This is because Ind AS 24 does not exempt an entity from disclosing related party transactions merely because they have been carried out at an arm's length basis.	24.9a, 24.11 (Q 3(a), (Q 4))
Bulletin 22 (Issue 7)	Presentation and accounting treatment of waiver of interest on the loan taken An entity A has an outstanding loan as at the year end 2018-19 in its Ind AS financial statements. The outstanding loan (repayable on demand and not related to qualifying assets) was taken from one of its directors during the year 2015-16. In previous years, the interest was charged and paid to the directors. However, in respect of interest on the loan for the year, 2018-19, a waiver was obtained from the director without amendment of the loan agreement. ITFG noted that A is contractually obligated to pay interest on the loan obtained from the director but the same has been waived off in the current year.	24.18, Ind AS 1 (Q 11(a))

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
	ITFG clarified that in order to achieve fair presentation, appropriate accounting treatment would be to recognise contractual obligation for payment of interest as well as the waiver thereof. Thus, A would be required to account for the following items: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Recognise interest as an item of expense• Waiver of interest as an item of income. Further, the same would also require to be disclosed as related party transactions. (It was assumed that the director is not a shareholder and is not compensated through remuneration for the interest waived).

Glossary

A related party is a person or entity that is related to the entity that is preparing its financial statements (in this standard referred to as the 'reporting entity').

- a) A person or a close member of that person's family is related to a reporting entity if that person:
 - i. Has control or joint control of the reporting entity,
 - ii. Has significant influence over the reporting entity, or
 - iii. Is a member of the key management personnel of the reporting entity or of a parent of the reporting entity.
- b) An entity is related to a reporting entity if any of the following conditions applies:
 - i. The entity and the reporting entity are members of the same group (which means that each parent, subsidiary and fellow subsidiary is related to the others),
 - ii. One entity is an associate or joint venture of the other entity (or an associate or joint venture of a member of a group of which the other entity is a member),
 - iii. Both entities are joint ventures of the same third party,
 - iv. One entity is a joint venture of a third entity and the other entity is an associate of the third entity,
 - v. The entity is a post-employment benefit plan for the benefit of employees of either the reporting entity or an entity related to the reporting entity. If the reporting entity is itself such a plan, the sponsoring employers are also related to the reporting entity,
 - vi. The entity is controlled or jointly controlled by a person identified in (a),
 - vii. A person identified in (a)(i) has significant influence over the entity or is a member of the key management personnel of the entity (or of a parent of the entity), or
 - viii. The entity, or any member of a group of which it is a part, provides key management personnel services to the reporting entity or to the parent of the reporting entity.

A related party transaction is a transfer of resources, services or obligations between a reporting entity and a related party, regardless of whether a price is charged.

Close members of the family of a person are those family members who may be expected to influence, or be influenced by, that person in their dealings with the entity including:

- a) That person's children, spouse or domestic partner, brother, sister, father and mother,
- b) Children of that person's spouse or domestic partner, and
- c) Dependents of that person or that person's spouse or domestic partner.

Compensation includes all employee benefits (as defined in Ind AS 19, Employee Benefits) including employee benefits to which Ind AS 102, Share-based Payment, applies. Employee benefits are all forms of consideration paid, payable or provided by the entity, or on behalf of the entity, in exchange for services rendered to the entity. It also includes such consideration paid on behalf of a parent of the entity in respect of the entity. Compensation includes:

- a) Short-term employee benefits, such as wages, salaries and social security contributions, paid annual leave and paid sick leave, profit-sharing and bonuses (if payable within twelve months of the end of the period) and non-monetary benefits (such as medical care, housing, cars and free or subsidised goods or services) for current employees,
- b) Post-employment benefits such as pensions, other retirement benefits, post-employment life insurance and post-employment medical care,
- c) Other long-term employee benefits, including long-service leave or sabbatical leave, jubilee or other long-service benefits, long-term disability benefits and, if they are not payable wholly within twelve months after the end of the period, profit-sharing, bonuses and deferred compensation,
- d) Termination benefits, and
- e) Share-based payments.

Key management personnel are those persons having authority and responsibility for planning, directing and controlling the activities of the entity, directly or indirectly, including any director (whether executive or otherwise) of that entity.

Government refers to government, government agencies and similar bodies whether local, national or international.

A government-related entity is an entity that is controlled, jointly controlled or significantly influenced by a government.

Ind AS-27 Separate Financial Statements

1. Executive summary

- Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 27, Separate Financial Statements provides guidance on accounting and disclosure requirements for investments in subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates when the entity elects, or is required by law, to present separate financial statements.
- Separate financial statements are those presented by:
 - A parent (i.e. an investor with control of a subsidiary), or
 - An investor with joint control of, or significant influence over, an investee in addition to financial statements in which investments in associates or joint ventures are accounted for using the equity method.
- A parent, an investor in an associate, or a venturer in a joint venture that is not required to prepare consolidated or individual financial statements is permitted, but not required, to present Separate Financial Statements (SFS). Alternatively, SFS may be prepared in addition to consolidated or individual financial statements.

A description of the method used to account for the investments listed under (ii)? 		_____

3. Additional considerations

Some of the key requirements from the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act)

- The exemption available to companies not to prepare consolidated financial statements in this standard and instead prepare separate financial statements is subject to requirements of the applicable laws.
- The 2013 Act mandates consolidation except in certain circumstances which are similar to the conditions under Ind AS 110. Accordingly a company would be able to avail of the exemption from preparation of consolidated financial statements only in specific situations.
- This exemption is not available to the partially-owned companies or wholly-owned subsidiaries of foreign companies in India.

Significant carve-outs from IFRS

- From the accounting period beginning 1 January 2016, IAS 27, Separate Financial Statements permits an entity to apply equity method to account for investment in subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates in their separate financial statements. Such option has not been retained under Ind AS 27 as it is not a basis of measurement such as cost and fair value but is a manner of consolidation and therefore, would conceptually lead to inconsistent accounting.

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

- No specific requirement has been prescribed under ICDS relating to this standard.

Some of the clarifications provided by the Ind AS Technical Facilitation Group (ITFG)

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
	Clarifications with respect to application of the deemed cost exemption
Bulletin 3 (Issue 12)	Deemed cost of an investment in a subsidiary Please refer clarification on deemed cost of an investment in a subsidiary in the separate financial statements of an entity, provided in Ind AS 101 checklist.	27.10, Ind AS 101 (Q 1)
Bulletin 5 (Issue 8)	Accounting for share in profit of LLP considered as a joint venture A company with joint control over a Limited Liability Partnership (LLP), which is assessed as a joint venture, should account for its investment in the joint venture in its separate financial statements as per paragraph 10 of Ind AS 27, i.e. either at cost or in accordance with Ind AS 109. In this context, ITFG clarified that the amount of profit share from such LLP should not be adjusted in the carrying amount of the investment in the LLP in the entity's separate financial statements. Rather, it should be recognised as income in the statement of profit and loss as and when the right to receive the profit share is established.	27.10 (Q 1)

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
Bulletin 7 (Issue 8)	Investment in debentures of a subsidiary company The ITFG clarified that a parent entity which has invested in the debentures of its subsidiary, should measure this investment in accordance with either Ind AS 27 or Ind AS 109, based on the classification of the debentures as an equity or liability instrument by the subsidiary. If the debentures meet the definition of an equity instrument of the subsidiary, as per Ind AS 32, Financial Instruments: Presentation , then these would be considered to be a part of the parent's investment in the subsidiary and accounted for under Ind AS 27. However, if they meet the definition of a financial liability of the subsidiary, the parent entity would classify the debentures as a financial asset and account for them under Ind AS 109.	27.10 (Q 1)
Bulletin 11 (Issue 4)	Measurement of investments in subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates at the end of the first Ind AS financial reporting period Please refer clarification on measurement of investments in subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates at the end of the first Ind AS financial reporting period provided in Ind AS 101.	27.10, Ind AS 101 (Q 1)
Bulletin 16 (Issue 1)	Accounting for financial guarantee by issuer and beneficiary For further clarification on accounting for financial guarantees by issuer and beneficiary in their separate financial statements, please refer clarification provided in Ind AS 109.	27.10, Ind AS 109 (Q 1)
Bulletin 20 (Issue 4)	Demerger of business divisions between unrelated companies within the same group The ITFG considered a situation where a company (X Ltd.) had invested in two operating companies (A Ltd. and B Ltd.), such that both the companies were its associates, but were not under common control within the meaning of Ind AS. X Ltd. carries its investments in associates at cost in its separate financial statements. As part of a proposed transaction, A Ltd. would demerge an identified business undertaking (representing one or more business divisions), which would vest in B Ltd. As a result, A Ltd. would continue to survive as a separate legal entity with some of its other business divisions. The consideration for the demerger would be determined on the basis of the fair value of the underlying business, and would be issued in the form of fresh shares of B Ltd. to all shareholders of A Ltd. (including to X Ltd.). The query related to the accounting treatment of a demerger in the separate financial statements of X Ltd., which measures investments in associates at cost. The ITFG noted that the two principal issues to be determined in the present case were: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What amount should be derecognised (to give accounting effect of the potential reduction in value of shares held in A Ltd. due to transfer of its business division), and • What amount should be recognised (to give effect to the accounting treatment for the receipt of additional shares of B Ltd. pursuant to the demerger)? 	27.10 (Q 1)

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
	Amount to be derecognised Prior to demerger, X Ltd.'s investment in the shares of A Ltd. represented its interest in both the demerged business undertaking as well as other businesses, whereas post demerger, it was represented only by its interest in businesses retained by A Ltd. Although X Ltd. did not pay any explicit consideration for the shares allotted to it in B Ltd. as part of the demerger scheme, there is an implicit cost associated with them to the extent of reduction of its interest in A Ltd. Currently Ind AS does not deal specifically with this kind of issue, i.e., how the amount to be derecognised should be determined. Thus, reference should be made to Ind AS 8, Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors. Ind AS 8, inter alia, states that in the absence of an Ind AS that specifically applies to a transaction, event or condition, judgement should be applied in developing and applying an accounting policy that provides relevant and reliable information to the users of the financial statements. While applying such judgement, entities should consider the requirements in Ind AS dealing with similar and related issues and guidelines prescribed in Conceptual Framework¹. In view of the above, ITFG drew analogy from: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Paragraph 2(b) of Ind AS 103, Business Combinations which states that the Ind AS 103 does not apply to the acquisition of an asset or a group of assets that does not constitute a business. In such cases, the cost of the assets purchased should be allocated to the individual identifiable assets and liabilities on the basis of their relative fair values at the date of purchase. • Principles of Ind AS 115, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, which require use of standalone selling prices to allocate the transaction price to each performance obligation identified in a customer contract. In accordance with the above, the carrying amount of X Ltd.'s investment in A Ltd. would be split between the demerged business undertaking and business retained by A Ltd. on the basis of the relative fair values of the two. On demerger, the portion of carrying amount allocated to the demerged business would be derecognised. Amount to be recognised In the current case, X Ltd. has adopted an accounting policy of recognising investment in associates at 'cost'. Since Ind AS 27 does not define cost, the cost of additional shares in B Ltd. may be represented either by their fair value or by the (allocated) carrying amount of the investment in A Ltd., which is derecognised by X Ltd. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Cost represented by fair value: Where the additional shares in B Ltd. represent a new or different investment acquired in exchange for a part of investment in A Ltd., they would be measured initially at their fair value, with consequent recognition of gain or loss on derecognition of part of investment in A Ltd.

¹ The Conceptual Framework for Financial Reporting sets out the fundamental concepts for financial reporting that guide the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) in developing IFRS Standards. It helps to ensure that the Standards are conceptually consistent and that similar transactions are treated the same way, so as to provide useful information for investors, lenders and other creditors

	However, in order to determine whether these additional shares in B Ltd. represent a new or different investment acquired in exchange for a part of investment in A Ltd., analogy may be drawn to Ind AS 16, Property, Plant and Equipment and Ind AS 38, Intangible Assets, with regard to determination of cost of property, plant and equipment or of intangible assets acquired in exchange for a non-monetary asset. As per this, the additional shares in B Ltd. may represent a new or a different investment acquired, in exchange for a part of investment in A Ltd., if the demerger results in a more than insignificant² change in: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – The risks and rewards associated with the business undertaking transferred from A Ltd. to B Ltd. or those associated with the other businesses carried on by B Ltd. or A Ltd. and/or – In the extent of X Ltd.’s exposure to the aforesaid risk and rewards. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Cost representing the continuance of the pre-existing investment: In the present case, there is no ‘exchange’ of investments. X Ltd. continues to hold the same number and proportion of equity shares in A Ltd. after the demerger as it did before the demerger. Accordingly, in the given facts of the case, it would be an appropriate view to take that the ‘cost’ of the additional shares is represented by the amount derecognised by X Ltd. in respect of its investment in A Ltd. while accounting for the demerger.

² An entity needs to apply its judgement to determine whether a transaction is significant.

Glossary

Consolidated financial statements are the financial statements of a group in which the assets, liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows of the parent and its subsidiaries are presented as those of a single economic entity.

Separate financial statements are those presented by a parent (i.e. an investor with control of a subsidiary) or an investor with joint control of or significant influence over, an investee, in which the investments are accounted for at cost or in accordance with Ind AS 109, Financial Instruments.

An associate is an entity over which the investor has significant influence.

Control of an investee: An investor controls an investee when the investor is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee.

Decision maker: An entity with decision-making rights that is either a principal or an agent for other parties.

Group: A parent and its subsidiaries.

Investment entity: An entity that:

- a) Obtains funds from one or more investors for the purpose of providing those investor(s) with investment management services,
- b) Commits to its investor(s) that its business purpose is to invest funds solely for returns from capital appreciation, investment income, or both, and
- c) Measures and evaluates the performance of substantially all of its investments on a fair value basis.

Joint control: The contractually agreed sharing of control of an arrangement, which exists only when decisions about the relevant activities require the unanimous consent of the parties sharing control.

Joint venture: A joint arrangement whereby the parties that have joint control of the arrangement have rights to the net assets of the arrangement.

Joint venturer: A party to a joint venture that has joint control of that joint venture.

Parent: An entity that controls one or more entities.

Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee but is not control or joint control of those policies.

Subsidiary: An entity that is controlled by another entity.

Ind AS-28 Investments in Associates and Joint Ventures

1. Executive summary

- Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 28, Investments in Associates and Joint Ventures is applied by all entities that are investors with joint control of, or significant influence, over an investee.
 - The definition of an associate is based on significant influence, which is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the entity.
 - There is a rebuttable presumption of significant influence if an entity holds 20 percent or more of the voting rights of another entity.
 - Potential voting rights that are currently exercisable are considered in assessing significant influence.
 - Generally, associates and joint ventures are accounted for using the equity method in the consolidated financial statements.
 - Entities that are, or that hold investments in associates or joint ventures indirectly through venture capital organisations, mutual funds, unit trusts and similar entities, may elect to account for investments in associates and joint ventures at Fair Value Through Profit or Loss (FVTPL) in accordance with Ind AS 109, Financial Instruments. This election is required to be made on an investment-by-investment basis, at initial recognition of the associate or joint venture.
 - Equity accounting is not applied to an investee that is acquired with a view to its subsequent disposal if the criteria are met for classification as held for sale.
 - The entity's financial statements shall be prepared using uniform accounting policies for like transactions and events in similar circumstances unless, in case of an associate, it is impracticable to do so.
 - The investee's reporting date cannot differ from that of the investor by more than three months, and should be consistent from period to period. Adjustments are made for the effects of significant events and transactions between the two dates.
 - If an equity accounted investee incurs losses, then the carrying amount of the investor's interest is reduced but not to below zero.
- Further losses are recognised as a liability by the investor only to the extent that the investor has an obligation to fund the losses or has made payments on behalf of the investee.
- Unrealised profits and losses on transactions with associates are eliminated to the extent of the investor's interest in the investee.
 - On the loss of significant influence or joint control, the fair value of any retained investments is taken into account in calculating the gain or loss on the transaction that is recognised in profit or loss. Amounts recognised in other comprehensive income are reclassified to profit or loss or transferred within equity as required by other Ind ASs.
 - A joint arrangement is an arrangement over which two or more parties have joint control. There are two types of joint arrangement: a joint operation and a joint venture.
 - In joint venture, the parties to the arrangement have rights to the net assets of the arrangement.
 - A joint venturer accounts for its interest in a joint venture in the same way as an investment in an associate - i.e. generally using the equity method.
 - A party to a joint venture that does not have joint control accounts for its interest as a financial instrument, or under the equity method, if significant influence exists.
- New developments
- On 30 March 2019 MCA notified an amendment to Ind AS 28. The amendment will affect companies that finance their investee associates or joint ventures with preference shares or with loans for which repayment is not expected in the foreseeable future (referred to as Long-Term Interests (LTI)). This is common in the extractive and real estate sectors.
 - LTI are in the scope of both - Ind AS 109 (with respect to their classification, measurement and impairment) and Ind AS 28 (with respect to recognising the entity's share of profit or loss of its investee associates or joint ventures). The amendment explains a three-step annual process:

- Apply Ind AS 109 independently (ignoring any prior year's Ind AS 28 loss absorption)
 - True-up past allocations. This is because the Ind AS 109 carrying value may have changed. This may involve recognizing more prior years' losses, reversing these losses or re-allocating them between different LTI instruments, and
 - Book current year equity share. Any current year Ind AS 28 losses are allocated to the extent the LTI allows. Any current year Ind AS 28 profits reverse unrecognised/recognised prior years' losses.
- Effective date: The amendments are applicable retrospectively in accordance with Ind AS 8, Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors, for annual reporting periods from 1 April 2019¹.
 - The notification also prescribes certain transition options.

¹ The amendment arising out of the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Second Amendment Rules, 2019 has been incorporated in the checklists.

Applicability
1	This standard is applicable in accounting for investments in associates and joint ventures, and sets out the requirements for the application of the equity method when accounting for investments in associates and joint ventures.	28.3
	If the entity has significant influence over an investee, has the investee been classified as an associate?		_____
	a) In arriving at the above conclusion, have the following been considered:	28.6	_____
	i. Voting power of the entity,		_____
	(Note: If the entity holds (directly or indirectly), 20 per cent or more of the voting power of the investee, it is presumed that it has significant influence unless it can be clearly demonstrated that this is not the case.)
	ii. Representation on the board of directors or equivalent governing body,		_____
	iii. Participation in policy-making processes, including participation in decisions about dividends or other distributions,		_____
	iv. Material transactions between the entity and its investee,		_____
	v. Interchange of managerial personnel, or		_____
	vi. Provision of essential technical information?		_____
	b) Are there potential voting rights that are currently exercisable or convertible, e.g. share warrants, share call options, convertible debt or equity instruments, held by the entity or other entities, that have the potential, if exercised or converted, to give the entity additional voting power or reduce voting power? If yes, have these been considered in determining whether the entity has significant influence over an investee? (Refer ITFG bulletin 3 issue 5 clarification)	28.7	_____
2	If the entity is a party to a joint arrangement, in which the parties that have joint control have rights to the net assets of the arrangement, has this joint arrangement been classified as a joint venture?	28.3	_____
3	Is the investment initially recognised at cost?	28.10	_____
4	Has the carrying amount of investment been increased or decreased to recognise the investor's share of profit/loss after the date of acquisition?	28.10	_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
5	Has the entity reduced the carrying amount of investment to the extent of the distribution received from the associate or joint venture?	28.10	_____
6	If there are any potential voting rights and other derivative instruments that currently give the entity access to returns, is the proportionate share allocated to the entity after considering the potential rights?	28.13	_____
7	a) Has the entity applied Ind AS 109 to the financial instruments to which the equity method is not applied? ¹ (Note: Financial instruments include long-term interests that in substance, form part of the entity's net investment in an associate or joint venture. An entity applies Ind AS 109 independently to such long-term interests before it applies Q 25 and Q 27-29 (the loss absorption requirements).)	28.14A	_____
	b) In applying Ind AS 109, has the entity not taken into account any adjustments to the carrying amount of long-term interests that arise from applying this standard? ¹ (Note: Ind AS 109 does not apply to interests in associates and joint ventures that are accounted for using the equity method. When instruments containing potential voting rights in substance currently give access to the returns associated with an ownership interest in an associate or a joint venture, the instruments are not subject to Ind AS 109. In all other cases, instruments containing potential voting rights in an associate or a joint venture are accounted for in accordance with Ind AS 109.)	28.14A 28.14	_____
8	Are all investments in an associate or a joint venture accounted using the equity method unless they qualify for any of the following exemptions:	28.16
	a) The entity is a parent that is exempt from preparing consolidated financial statement as per paragraph 4(a) of Ind AS 110, or if all of the following apply:	28.17
	i. The entity is a wholly-owned subsidiary, or is a partially-owned subsidiary of another entity and its other owners, including those not otherwise entitled to vote, have been informed about, and do not object to, the entity not applying the equity method,		_____
	ii. The entity's debt or equity instruments are not traded in a public market,		_____
	iii. The entity did not file, nor is it in the process of filing, its financial statements with a securities commission or other regulatory organisation, for the purpose of issuing any class of instruments in a public market, and		_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	iv. The ultimate or any intermediate parent of the entity produces consolidated financial statements available for public use that comply with Ind AS in which subsidiaries are consolidated or are measured at FVTPL in accordance with Ind AS 110,		_____
	b) If investments are held by or through the entity that is a venture capital organisation, or a mutual fund, unit trust and similar entities?	28.18	_____
	(Note: For investments mentioned in Q 8(b) above, entities may elect to measure such investments at FVTPL in accordance with Ind AS 109. Such an election should be made separately for each associate or joint venture at initial recognition of the associate or joint venture.)		_____
9	Are the investments or any retained interest in the investments that is not classified as held-for-sale, been classified as a non-current asset?	28.15	_____
10	If the investment or a portion of investment in associate or joint venture is classified as held for sale, are those investments/ proportionate investment value measured as per Ind AS 105, Non-current Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations ?	28.20	_____
11	If there are any investments or a portion of an investment, in an associate or a joint venture previously classified as held for sale that no longer meets the criteria to be so classified, have these been accounted using equity method retrospectively as from the date of its classification as held for sale?	28.21	_____
12	If any of the investments have ceased to be associates or joint ventures, has the entity discontinued the use of the equity method from the date when its investment ceases to be an associate or a joint venture as follows:	28.22	_____
	a) If the investment becomes a subsidiary, has the entity accounted for its investment in accordance with Ind AS 103, Business Combinations , and Ind AS 110,		_____
	b) If the retained interest in the former associate or joint venture is a financial asset:		_____
	i. Has the retained interest been valued at fair value as per Ind AS 109, and		_____
	ii. Has the entity recognised in profit or loss the difference between:		_____
	• The fair value of any retained interest and any proceeds from disposing of a part interest in the associate or joint venture,		_____
	• The carrying amount of the investment at the date the equity method was discontinued,		_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	c) If the entity discontinues the use of the equity method, has it accounted for all the amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in relation to that investment on the same basis as would have been required if the investee had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities?		_____
	Application of equity method
13	Has the entity considered the aggregate of holdings by the entity and its subsidiary in associates and joint ventures? (Note: The holdings of the group's other associates or joint ventures is ignored by the entity for the above purpose.)	28.27	_____
14	If the associate or joint venture has subsidiaries, associates or joint ventures, when applying the equity method, are the profit or loss, other comprehensive income and net assets taken into account those that are recognised in the associate's or joint venture's financial statements (including the associate's or joint venture's share of the profit or loss, other comprehensive income and net assets of its associates and joint ventures)? (Note: Adjustments may be necessary to give effect to uniform accounting policies.)	28.27	_____
15	Has the entity eliminated the gain/loss resulting from upstream/downstream transactions between the entity and its associate or joint venture to the extent of its share in the associate or joint venture?	28.28	_____
16	a) When downstream transactions provide evidence of a reduction in the net realisable value of the assets to be sold or contributed, or of an impairment loss of those assets, have such losses been recognised in full by the entity? b) When upstream transactions provide evidence of a reduction in the net realisable value of the assets to be purchased or of an impairment loss of those assets, has the investor recognised its share in those losses?	28.29	_____
17	a) Has the contribution of a non-monetary asset to an associate or joint venture in exchange for an equity interest in the associate or joint venture been accounted for in accordance with Q 15, except when the contribution lacks commercial substance? (Note: The term commercial substance has been described in Ind AS 16, Property, Plant and Equipment.) b) If the contribution mentioned in Q 17(a) above, lacks commercial substance, has the gain or loss been regarded as unrealised, and not recognised unless the entity also applies Q 18 ?	28.30	_____

	c) Have the unrealised gains and losses mentioned in Q 17(b), been eliminated against the investment accounted for using the equity method and not been presented as deferred gains or losses in the entity's consolidated balance sheet or in the entity's balance sheet in which investments are accounted for using the equity method?		_____
18	If in addition to receiving an equity interest in an associate or joint venture, an entity receives monetary or non-monetary assets, has the entity recognised in full in profit or loss, the portion of the gain or loss on the non-monetary contribution relating to the monetary or non-monetary assets received?	28.31	_____
19	Has the entity accounted for goodwill/capital reserve arising out of difference between the cost of the investment and the entity's share of the net fair value of the investee's identifiable assets and liabilities? (Refer ITFG bulletin 17 issue 5 clarification)	28.32	_____
20	a) Has the entity included the above goodwill, if any, in the carrying amount of the investment? b) If the entity's share of the net fair value of the investee's identifiable assets and liabilities is in excess of the cost of the investment, has the same been recognised directly in equity as capital reserve?	28.32	_____ _____
21	Has the entity considered the most recent available financial statements of the associate or joint venture?	28.33	_____
22	In case where the financial statements of an associate or joint venture are prepared as of a date different from that used by the entity: a) Have the necessary adjustments been made for the effects of significant transactions or events that occur between that date and the date of the entity's financial statements? (The difference in this case should not exceed three months), b) Is the difference between the end of the reporting period of the associate or joint venture and that of the entity not more than three months, and c) Is the length of the reporting periods and any difference between the ends of the reporting periods the same from period to period?	28.34	_____ _____ _____ _____
23	a) Have uniform accounting policies been used by the entity and its associate/joint venture for like transactions and events in similar circumstances unless, permitted in Q23(c)? (Refer ITFG 20 issue 5 clarification) b) If an associate or joint venture uses accounting policies other than those of the entity for like transactions and events in similar circumstances, have adjustments been	28.36 28.36	_____ _____

	made to make these accounting policies, conform to those of the entity when applying the equity method, unless permitted by Q 23(c) below? (Refer ITFG bulletin 20 issue 5 clarification)		_____
	c) Has the entity (not being an investment entity itself) when applying the equity method, elected to retain the fair value measurement applied by its investment entity associate or joint venture to their subsidiaries? (Note: Such election is made separately for each investment entity associate or joint venture, at the later of the date on which i. The investment entity associate or joint venture is initially recognised, ii. The associate or joint venture becomes an investment entity, and iii. The investment entity associate or joint venture first becomes a parent.)	28.36A	_____
24	If an associate or a joint venture has outstanding cumulative preference shares that are held by parties other than the entity and are classified as equity, then has the entity computed its share of profit or loss after adjusting for the dividends on such shares, whether or not the dividends have been declared?	28.37	_____
25	Has the entity discontinued recognising its share of further losses when its share of losses (of an associate or a joint venture) equals or exceeds its interest in the associate or joint venture? (Note: The interest in an associate or a joint venture is the carrying amount of the investment in the associate or joint venture determined using the equity method together with any long-term interests that, in substance, form part of the entity's net investment in the associate or joint venture. Losses recognised using the equity method in excess of the entity's investment in ordinary shares are applied to the other components of the entity's interest in an associate or a joint venture in the reverse order of their seniority (i.e. priority in liquidation).)	28.38 28.38	_____
26	Has the entity limited the loss to be recognised to the extent of its interest in the associate or joint venture unless it has incurred legal or constructive obligations or made payments on behalf of the associate or joint venture?	28.39	_____
Impairment losses
27	Has the net investment in an associate or joint venture impaired and impairment losses have been recognised when both the following conditions occur:	28.41A	_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
		28.41A
	a) There is an objective evidence of impairment as a result of one or more events that occurred after the initial recognition of the net investment (i.e. a loss event) and		_____
	b) The loss event has an impact on the estimated cash flows from the net investment that can be reliably estimated?		_____
	(Note: Objective evidence that the net investment is impaired includes observable data that comes to the attention of the entity about the following loss events:	28.41A
	a) A significant financial difficulty of the associate or joint venture
	b) A breach of contract, such as a default or delinquency in payments by the associate or joint venture
	c) The entity, for economic or legal reasons relating to its associate's or joint venture's financial difficulty, granting to the associate or joint venture a concession that the entity would not otherwise consider
	d) It becoming probable that the associate or joint venture will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation or
	e) The disappearance of an active market for the net investment because of financial difficulties of the associate or joint venture.)
28	a) Has the entity tested the entire carrying amount of the investment for impairment in accordance with Ind AS 36, Impairment of Assets? (Refer Ind AS 36 checklist) (Refer Q 27)	28.42	_____
	b) In determining the value in use of the net investment, has the entity estimated the following:
	i) Its share of the present value of the estimated future cash flows expected to be generated by the associate or joint venture, including the cash flows from the operations of the associate or joint venture and the proceeds from the ultimate disposal of the investment or		_____
	ii. The present value of the estimated future cash flows expected to arise from dividends to be received from the investment and from its ultimate disposal?		_____
	(Note: Using appropriate assumptions, both methods give the same result.)	28.42
29	Has the recoverable amount of an investment in an associate or joint venture assessed for each associate or joint venture?		_____
	(Note: The recoverable amount of an investment in an associate or a joint venture shall be assessed for each associate or joint venture, unless it does not generate cash inflows from continuing use that are largely independent of those from other assets of the entity.)	28.43

3. Additional considerations

Some of the key requirements from the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act)

- The 2013 Act permits the use of equity method of accounting.
- The 2013 Act defines significant influence as 'control of at least 20 per cent of the total voting power or control of or participation in business decisions under an agreement'. This is different from the definition of significant influence under Ind AS 28. Accordingly, for the purpose of preparing financial statements, entities are required to identify significant influence in accordance with Ind AS 28
- Under the 2013 Act, definition of an associate company includes 'joint venture company'. While the definition of joint venture is in accordance with Ind AS 28, it doesn't define 'joint control' and 'joint arrangement', which are associated with the definition of joint venture.

Significant carve-outs from IFRS

- IAS 28, Investments in Associates and Joint Ventures requires use of uniform accounting policies in the financial statements of an associate or a joint venture for consolidation purposes. Ind AS requires similar use of uniform accounting policies, unless impracticable. Such an impracticability exemption is not available under IFRS.
- IAS 28 requires any excess of the investor's share of net assets in an associate or a joint venture over the acquisition cost to be recognised as a gain in the profit and loss account. Ind AS requires such gain to be recognised as a capital reserve.

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

- No specific requirement has been prescribed under ICDS relating to this standard.

Some of the clarifications provided by the Ind AS Technical Facilitation Group (ITFG)

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
Bulletin 3 (Issue 5)	Consider potential voting rights while assessing whether an investment meets the criteria of an associate In a certain situation, an entity (A Ltd.) invested 26 per cent in another entity (B Ltd.) and accounted it as an associate for statutory reporting requirements under previous GAAP. Another entity (C Ltd.) owned share warrants that were convertible into equity shares of B Ltd. and had potential, if exercised, to give additional voting power to C Ltd. over the financial and operating policies of B Ltd. The ITFG clarified that the definitions given in Ind AS would be applied both for the purpose of preparing financial statements and determining the relationship with another entity. Therefore, the potential voting rights owned by C Ltd. would be considered to determine whether B Ltd. meets the criteria as an associate of C Ltd. Additionally, A Ltd. would also need to evaluate if B Ltd. meets the criteria for recognition as an associate in accordance with the principles of Ind AS.	28.7 (Q 1b)

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
Bulletin 17 (Issue 5)	Equity accounting in the CFS of investor in case of loss of control An entity (B Ltd.), a subsidiary of another entity (A Ltd. or the parent), owned an investment property that was measured at cost in accordance with Ind AS 40, Investment Property. A Ltd. sold a portion of its equity shareholding in B Ltd., and consequently B Ltd. became a joint venture between A Ltd. and another entity Z Ltd. In accordance with the requirements of Ind AS 28, on application of the equity method in the Consolidated Financial Statements (CFS) of A Ltd., the identifiable assets and liabilities of the investee (i.e. B Ltd.) would be fair valued and appropriate adjustments would be made to its (i.e. A Ltd.'s) share of investee's profit or loss, such as those for depreciation/amortisation based on aforesaid fair values of identifiable assets and liabilities at an acquisition date. Ind AS 40, on the other hand, does not allow an investment property to be measured at fair value. The ITFG considered two accounting issues as following: a) Whether there is any contradiction between Ind AS 40 and Ind AS 28 From the perspective of an investor who acquires, a controlling interest (or joint control or significant influence) in an entity, Ind AS requires the investor to identify whether it has made a bargain purchase gain or whether the consideration includes an element of payment for goodwill. This would be appropriately determined only with reference to the fair values of the identifiable assets and liabilities of the investee as at the acquisition date and not with reference to their book values as at that date. Accordingly, the relevant standard (e.g. Ind AS 28 in the case of a joint venture or an associate) requires determination of fair values of identifiable assets and liabilities of the investee for this purpose. This does not per se indicate a contradiction between Ind AS 28 (or Ind AS 110, Consolidated Financial Statements in case of acquisition of a controlling interest) on the one hand and the standards that require a cost based measurement in the balance sheet of the investee on the other. Therefore, ITFG has clarified that there does not seem to be any contradiction between Ind AS 40 and Ind AS 28. a) Whether the adjustments arising out of fair valuation of investment property as required under Ind AS 28 should be made in the CFS of the investor In accordance with Ind AS 110, if a parent loses control of a subsidiary, it recognises any investment retained in the former subsidiary at its fair value when control is lost. Such fair value is regarded as the cost on initial recognition of an investment in a joint venture (or an associate). Further, on acquisition of the investment (or on gaining such interest), any difference between the cost of the investment and the entity's share of the net fair value of the investee's identifiable assets and liabilities would be recognised as goodwill or directly in equity as capital reserve.	28.32 (Q 19)

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
	Appropriate adjustments to the entity's share of the associate's or joint venture's profit or loss after acquisition are made in order to account, for example, for depreciation of the depreciable assets based on their fair values at the acquisition date. Similarly, appropriate adjustments to the entity's share of the associate's or joint venture's profit or loss after acquisition are made for impairment losses such as for goodwill or property, plant and equipment. The fair value of identifiable assets and liabilities are considered to be the cost of the assets and liabilities for the investor to the extent of its share in the investee. Accordingly, appropriate adjustments arising out of fair valuation of assets/liabilities impacting profit or loss would be made in the CFS of the investor.
	Different accounting periods and policies
Bulletin 20 (Issue 5)	Different policies and estimates adopted by an associate and an investor Ind AS 28 is to be applied by all the entities where investors have joint control of or significant influence over, an investee. The standard prescribes the requirements for the application of the equity method when accounting for investments in associates and joint ventures.	28.35, 28.36 (Q 23(a)) Q. 23(b))
	In a given case, an Entity L has an overseas associate Entity M. Subsequently, Entity M undertakes two business combinations, one of these being under common control business combination. Entity M prepares its annual financial statements by following its local GAAP and laws. The local GAAP and laws followed by Entity M has difference in certain accounting policies/estimates as compared to Ind ASs used by Entity L. The differences are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Both business combinations effected by Entity M are accounted for as per pooling of interest method as ordered by the local corporate regulator. • Fixed assets of Entity M are depreciated using the straight-line method to comply with local taxation and corporate laws while Entity L uses method that reflects the pattern of consumption of the asset. • Fixed assets are depreciated over useful life prescribed by local laws rather than over useful life as per factors prescribed in Ind AS 16. An issue arose as to how should the difference of accounting policies/estimates of Entity M will be dealt while applying equity method by Entity L. As per Ind AS 28, the equity method requires entities to prepare its financial statements using uniform accounting policies for like transactions and events in similar circumstances unless in case of an associate, it is impracticable to do so. If different accounting policies are being used for like transactions and events in similar circumstances, adjustments shall be made to make the associate's or joint venture's accounting policies conform to those of the entity (investor) for applying the equity method. In this case, ITFG clarified that considering the requirements of Ind AS 28, the associate's financial statements would need to be redrawn on the basis of Ind ASs, except to the extent the exception relating to impracticability applies.

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
	Further, the redrawn financial statements would be special-purpose financial statements and do not replace general purpose financial statements prepared in accordance with local laws. Also, the preparation of special-purpose financial statements are for the limited purpose of application of equity method by the investor and would not tantamount to breach or non-compliance of the local laws applicable to the associate. Additionally, ITFG clarified following treatment in applying the equity method for the specific issue raised: Business combinations The business combinations should be accounted for as per the principles of Ind AS 103, i.e. a transaction that meets the definition of a common control business combination from the perspective of the associate should be accounted for as per the pooling of interests method and other business combination transactions should be accounted for as per the acquisition method. Depreciation method(s) As per the requirements of Ind AS 16 the depreciation method to be applied in respect of an item of PPE should reflect the expected pattern of consumption of the future economic benefits embodied in the asset. Thus, under Ind AS 16, depreciation method is a matter of an accounting estimate, and not an accounting policy. While preparing financial statements of the associate as per Ind ASs, the requirements of Ind AS 16 need to be considered in determining an appropriate depreciation method for each item of PPE (or significant part) even though the resultant method may be different from the method applied by the associate in preparing and presenting its financial statements as per applicable local laws. Useful lives Ind AS 16 contains detailed guidance regarding the factors to be considered in determining the useful life of an item of PPE (or significant part). While preparing financial statements of the associate as per Ind ASs the requirements of Ind AS 16 need to be considered in relation to determination of the useful life of each item of PPE.

Glossary

An associate is an entity over which the investor has significant influence.

Consolidated financial statements are the financial statements of a group in which assets, liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows of the parent and its subsidiaries are presented as those of a single economic entity.

The equity method is a method of accounting whereby the investment is initially recognised at cost and adjusted thereafter for the post-acquisition change in the investor's share of the investee's net assets. The investor's profit or loss includes its share of the investee's profit or loss and the investor's other comprehensive income includes its share of the investee's other comprehensive income.

A joint arrangement is an arrangement of which two or more parties have joint control.

Joint control is the contractually agreed sharing of control of an arrangement, which exists only when decisions about the relevant activities require the unanimous consent of the parties sharing control.

A joint venture is a joint arrangement whereby the parties that have joint control of the arrangement have rights to the net assets of the arrangement.

A joint venturer is a party to a joint venture that has joint control of that joint venture.

Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee but is not control or joint control of those policies.

Ind AS-29 Financial Reporting in Hyperinflationary Economies

1. Executive summary

- Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 29, Financial Reporting in Hyperinflationary Economies shall be applied to the financial statements, including the consolidated financial statements, of any entity whose functional currency is the currency of a hyperinflationary economy.
- When the entity's functional currency is hyperinflationary, its financial statements are restated to express all items in terms of the measuring unit current at the end of the reporting period.
- The standard prescribes the following steps in restating the financial statements:
 - Step 1: Restate the balance sheet at the beginning of the reporting period by applying the change in the price index during the current period to all items.
 - Step 2: Restate the balance sheet at the end of the reporting period by adjusting non-monetary items to current purchasing power terms.
 - Step 3: Restate the statement of profit and loss (including other comprehensive income).
 - Step 4: Calculate the gain or loss on the net monetary position.
- If the entity's functional currency ceases to be hyperinflationary, then the amounts reported in the latest financial statements restated for hyperinflation are used as the basis for the carrying amounts in subsequent financial statements.
- If the entity presents financial statements restated for hyperinflation, then it is generally not appropriate to present additional supplementary financial information prepared on a historical cost basis

2. Checklist

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
Applicability
1	If the functional currency of the entity is the currency of a hyperinflationary economy, has the entity applied the requirements of this standard in its financial statements, including consolidated financial statements?	29.1	_____
2	Has the entity applied the requirements of this standard if any of the characteristics of the economic environment of a country indicate hyperinflation, which include but are not limited to the following: a) The general population prefers to keep its wealth in non-monetary assets or in a relatively stable foreign currency. Amounts of local currency held are immediately invested to maintain purchasing power, b) The general population regards monetary amounts not in terms of the local currency but in terms of a relatively stable foreign currency. Prices may be quoted in that currency, c) Sales and purchase on credit take place at prices that compensate for expected loss of purchasing power during the credit period, even if the period is short, d) Interest, wages and prices linked to a price index, or e) Cumulative inflation rate over three years approaching or exceeds 100 percent?	29.3	_____ _____ _____ _____ _____
Financial statements
3	a) Irrespective of whether the financial statements of the entity are based on a historical cost or current cost approach, have they been stated in terms of the measuring unit current at the end of the reporting period? b) Have the corresponding figures for the previous period required by Ind AS 1, Presentation of Financial Statements , and any information in respect of earlier periods also been stated in terms of the measuring unit current at the end of the reporting period? (Note: For the purpose of presenting comparative amounts in a different presentation currency, paragraphs 42 (b) and 43 of Ind AS 21, The Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates , apply.)	29.8	_____ _____ _____
4	Has the gain or loss on the net monetary position been included in profit and loss and separately disclosed?	29.9	_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
5	Has the entity applied procedures and judgement in determining whether the restatement of financial statements is necessary?	29.10	_____
Historical cost financial statements – Balance sheet
6	Have general price index rates been applied by the entity to restate the balance sheet amounts which were not already expressed in terms of the measuring unit current at the end of the reporting period?	29.11	_____
7	Whether monetary items (such as money held and items to be received or paid in money) are expressed in terms of the monetary unit current at the end of the reporting period? (Note: Monetary items are not restated.)	29.12	_____
8	Has the entity adjusted assets and liabilities linked by agreements to changes in prices (such as index linked bonds and loans) in accordance with the agreement to ascertain the amount outstanding at the end of the reporting period? (Note: These items are carried at this adjusted amount in the restated balance sheet.)	29.13	_____
9	Have non-monetary items other than those that are carried at amounts current (such as net realisable value or fair value) at the reporting period been restated?	29.14	_____
10	Where this is the first period of application of the standard, has an independent professional valuation been used as a basis for restatement of items whose historical cost are not available? (Note: Detailed records of the acquisition dates of items of property, plant and equipment may not be available or capable of estimation in rare circumstances.)	29.16	_____
11	Has the entity used any estimate for restating the non-monetary assets at the end of the reporting period on account of non-availability of general price index? (Note: For example, a general price index may not be available for the periods for which the restatement of property, plant and equipment is required by this standard.)	29.17	_____
12	If the entity has ascertained that there has been a revaluation of property, plant and equipment, have the carrying amounts been restated from the date of the revaluation?	29.18	_____
13	a) Has the entity identified and ascertained whether restated amount of a non-monetary item exceed the recoverable amount?		_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	b) If yes, has the restated amount of such a non-monetary item been reduced in accordance with appropriate Ind AS?	29.19	_____
14	If the entity is an investee which is accounted for under the equity method and wants to report in the currency of a hyperinflationary economy, has the balance sheet and the statement of profit and loss of such an investee been restated in accordance with this standard?	29.20	_____
15	If the entity has recognised the impact of inflation in borrowing cost, has the entity recognised this part of the borrowing cost as an expense in the period in which the costs are incurred? (Note: It is not appropriate both to restate the capital expenditure financed by borrowing and to capitalise that part of the borrowing costs that compensates for the inflation during the same period.)	29.21	_____
16	If the entity has acquired any assets under an arrangement that permits it to defer payment without incurring an explicit interest charge and where it is impracticable to impute the amount of interest, has it restated such assets from the date of payment and not from the date of purchase?	29.22	_____
	First-time application
17	If the standard is adopted for the first-time, has the entity complied with the following:	29.24
	a) At the beginning of the first period of application of this standard, are the components of owners' equity (except retained earnings) and any revaluation surplus restated by applying a general price index from the dates the components were contributed or otherwise arose,		_____
	b) Has elimination of revaluation surplus arising from the previous periods been carried out,		_____
	c) Have restated retained earnings been derived from all other amounts in the restated balance sheet,		_____
	d) At the end of the first period and in subsequent periods, have all components of owners' equity been restated by applying a general price index from the beginning of the period or the date of contribution, and	29.25	_____
	e) Have the movements for the period in owners' equity been disclosed in accordance with Ind AS 1?	29.25	_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
Historical cost financial statements – statement of profit and loss
18	Have all items in the statement of profit and loss been expressed in terms of measuring unit current at the end of the reporting period? (Note: All amounts need to be restated by applying the change in the general price index from the dates when the items of income and expenses were initially recorded in the financial statements.)	29.26	_____
19	Has the gain or loss on the net monetary position been included in the statement of profit and loss? (Note: Other income and expense items, such as interest income and expense, and foreign exchange differences related to invested or borrowed funds, are also associated with the net monetary position. Although such items are separately disclosed, it may be helpful if they are presented together with the gain or loss on net monetary position in the statement of profit and loss.)	29.27 29.28	_____
Current cost financial statements
20	Has the entity restated other items in the balance sheet in accordance with Q 6 to 17? (Note: Items stated at current cost are not restated because they are already expressed in terms of the measuring unit current at the end of the reporting period.)	29.29	_____
21	Has the entity restated all amounts into the measuring unit current at the end of the reporting period by applying the general price index? (Note: For example: Cost of sales and depreciation are recorded at current costs at the time of consumption, sales and other expenses are recorded at their money amounts when they occurred.)	29.30	_____
22	Has the entity accounted for the gains or loss on the net monetary position as per Q 19?	29.31	_____
23	If there are differences due to restatement of financial statements as per this standard and the carrying amount of individual assets and liabilities in the balance sheet and their tax base, has the entity accounted for the differences as per Ind AS 12, Income Taxes ?	29.32	_____

24	Have all items in the statement of cash flows been expressed in terms of the measuring unit current at the end of the reporting period by the entity?	29.33	_____
25	Are the corresponding figures including information that are disclosed for the previous reporting period presented in terms of the measuring unit current at the end of the reporting period?	29.34	_____
26	Have paragraph 42 (b) and 43 of Ind AS 21 been applied if comparative amounts are presented in a currency other than presentation currency?	29.34	_____
Components to be restated
27	Has the entity ascertained the components that are required to be restated based on its accuracy in reflecting the current purchasing power?	29.35	_____
28	If the parent company has a subsidiary that does not operate in a hyperinflationary economy, has Ind AS 21 been applied for restatement of the subsidiary's financial statements?	29.35	_____
29	Where the financial statements with different ends of the reporting periods are consolidated, have all items, whether non-monetary or monetary, been restated into the measuring unit current at the date of the consolidated financial statements?	29.36	_____
30	Have all entities that report in the currency of the same economy used the same general price index which reflects changes in general purchasing power?	29.37	_____
Economy ceasing to be hyperinflationary
31	a) Has the entity discontinued the preparation and presentation of the financial statements as per this standard subsequent to the economy in which entity operates ceasing to be hyperinflationary?	29.38	_____
	b) If yes, whether the entity has treated the amounts expressed in the measuring unit current at the end of the previous reporting period as the basis for the carrying amounts in its subsequent financial statements?	29.38	_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
Disclosures
32	Has the entity disclosed the following:	29.39
	a) The fact that the financial statements and the corresponding figures for previous periods have been restated for the changes in the general purchasing power of the functional currency and, as a result, are stated in terms of the measuring unit current at the end of the reporting period,	29.39 (a)	_____
	b) Whether the financial statements are based on a historical cost approach or a current cost approach,	29.39 (b)	_____
	c) The identity and level of the price index at the end of the reporting period and the movement in the index during the current and the previous reporting period, and	29.39 (c)	_____
	d) Duration of the hyperinflationary situation existing in the economy?	29.39 (d)	_____
	(Note: Disclosures required by this standard are needed to make clear the basis of dealing with the effects of inflation in the financial statements and providing other information necessary to understand the basis of the resulting amounts in the financial statements.)	29.40

3. Additional considerations

Some of the key requirements from the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act)

- There are no specific requirements in the 2013 Act relating to this standard.

Significant carve-outs from IFRS

- Ind AS 29 requires additional disclosure in the financial statements regarding the duration of the hyper inflationary situation existing in the economy as compared to IAS 29, Financial Reporting in Hyperinflationary Economies.
- There are no other differences between Ind AS 29 and IAS 29.

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

- There is no specific requirement on this topic either in the Income tax Act, 1961 or the ICDS. Accordingly the impact of such changes may require unwinding.

Some of the clarifications provided by the Ind AS Technical Facilitation Group (ITFG)

- No specific clarifications have been provided by ITFG relating to this standard.

Ind AS-32 Financial Instruments: Presentation

1. Executive summary

- Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 32, Financial Instruments: Presentation, establishes the principles for the presentation of financial instruments as liabilities or equity and for offsetting financial assets and financial liabilities.
- It applies to the classification of financial instruments from the perspective of the issuer, into financial assets, financial liabilities and equity instruments, the classification of related interest, dividend, losses and gains and the circumstances in which financial assets and financial liabilities should be offset.
- The principles in this standard complement the principles for recognising and measuring financial assets and financial liabilities in Ind AS 109, Financial Instruments, and for disclosing information about them in Ind AS 107, Financial Instruments: Disclosures.
- Financial instruments are contracts that give rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity. On initial recognition, financial instruments are classified as a financial liability or equity instrument in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangement, (and not its legal form), and the definitions of financial liabilities and an equity instrument. If a financial instrument has both equity and liability components (compound financial instrument), then they are classified separately based on the contractual terms at issuance. (Refer ITFG bulletin 15 issue 3 clarification)
- Puttable instruments and instruments that impose an obligation on the entity to deliver a pro rata share of net assets only on liquidation, are classified as equity instruments only if they are subordinate to all other classes of instruments, and meet all additional criteria specified in the standard.
- Rights, options or warrants issued by the entity to acquire a fixed number of its own equity instruments for a fixed amount of cash are classified as equity, if the entity offers such rights, options, or warrants on a pro rata basis to all existing holders of the same class of its equity instruments. (Refer ITFG bulletin 17 issue 10 clarification)
- An equity conversion option embedded in a convertible bond denominated in foreign currency to acquire a fixed number of the entity's own equity instruments is an equity instrument if the exercise price is fixed in any currency. (Refer ITFG bulletin 17 issue 11 clarification)
- Dividends on financial instruments classified as financial liabilities are recognised as an interest expense in the statement of profit or loss. Hence if preference shares meet the definition of a financial liability, the dividend is treated as an interest expense. Dividends and other distributions to the holders of equity instruments are recognised directly in equity.
- Gains and losses on transactions in an entity's own equity instruments are recognised directly in equity. Incremental costs that are directly attributable to equity transactions such as issuing or buying back own equity instruments or distributing dividends are recognised directly in equity.
- A financial asset and financial liability can only be offset if the entity currently has a legally enforceable right to set off the recognised amounts and intends to either settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

	b) The effect of substantially restricting or fixing the residual return to the instrumental holders?		_____
10	If a puttable instrument or an instrument that imposes an obligation to deliver a pro rata share of net assets only on liquidation ceases to have all the features described in Q 6 to 9 on a certain date, or meets these conditions on a certain date, has it been reclassified from equity to financial liability or financial liability to equity, respectively, as applicable? Has the entity accounted for the reclassification as follows:	32.16E
	a) Has the entity measured the financial liability at the instrument's fair value at the date of the reclassification from equity to financial liability and recognised in equity any difference between the carrying value of the equity instrument and the fair value of the financial liability at the date of the reclassification, and	32.16F	_____

	Financial liabilities
11	If the entity has issued financial instruments that meet any of the following criteria, have these been classified as financial liabilities:	32.17
	a) Instruments that impose a contractual obligation to make distributions to the holder in which the entity has to deliver cash or another financial asset to another party,		_____
	(Note: For example, a loan from a bank or redeemable preference shares with a mandatory distribution feature.)
	b) Financial instruments that take the legal form of equity but are liabilities in substance and others that may combine features associated with equity instruments and features associated with financial liabilities,	32.18	_____
	(Note: For example:
	i. Preference shares that provide for mandatory redemption by the entity for a fixed or determinable amount at a fixed or determinable date; or give the holder the right to require redemption at or after a particular date for a fixed or determinable amount, or

c)	Financial instruments that do not explicitly establish a contractual obligation to deliver cash or another financial asset but may establish an obligation indirectly through its terms and conditions, or	32.20	<hr/>
	(Note: For example, a preference share where the entity is required to pay dividends if it makes a distribution on another instrument that has mandatory payments and hence the preference share is also classified as a liability.)
i.	Financial instruments that give rise to a contractual right or obligation to receive or deliver a number of the entity's own shares or other equity instruments that varies so that the fair value of the entity's own equity instruments to be received or delivered equals the amount of the contractual right or obligation, or	32.21	<hr/>
ii.	A contractual right or obligation for a fixed amount or an amount that fluctuates in part or in full in response to changes in a variable other than the market price of the entity's own equity instruments?		<hr/>
	(Note: For example, a preference share issued by the entity that is convertible by the holder into a variable number of the entity's ordinary shares based on their valuation at the time of conversion.)
12	Has the entity recognised a financial liability for the present value of the redemption amount for a contract that contains an obligation for an entity to purchase its own equity instruments for cash or any other financial instrument?	32.23	<hr/>
	(Note: For example, a put option issued by the entity that contains an obligation for the entity to repurchase its own shares at a fixed price, when exercised by the holder.)
13	If the entity has a contract that will be settled by the entity delivering or receiving a fixed number of its own equity instruments in exchange for a variable amount of cash or another financial asset, has the same been recorded as a financial asset or liability as applicable?	32.24	<hr/>
Contingent settlement provisions
14	If the entity is required to deliver cash or another financial asset, or otherwise settle a financial instrument in such a way that it would be a financial liability, in the event of the occurrence or non-occurrence of uncertain future events that are beyond the control of both the issuer and holder of the instrument, has the entity classified such a financial instrument as a financial liability, unless:	32.25
a)	The part of the contingent settlement provision that could require settlement in cash or another financial asset (or otherwise in such a way that it would be a financial liability) is not genuine,		<hr/>

Settlement options
15	If the entity has issued a derivative financial instrument that gives one party a choice over how the same is settled (e.g. net in cash or by exchanging shares for cash), has the same been recognised as a financial asset or a financial liability unless all of the settlement alternatives would result in it being an equity instrument?	32.26	<hr/>
16	If the entity has a contract to buy or sell a non-financial item in exchange for the entity's own equity instruments (refer Q 2), have such contracts been considered as financial assets or financial liability and not equity instruments?	32.27	<hr/>
Compound financial statements
17	If the entity has issued a non-derivative financial instrument that has both a liability and an equity component: (Refer bulletins- (ITFG 13 issue 10), (ITFG 15, issue 1 and issue 2) and (ITFG 17 issue 9) clarifications)	32.28

20	On conversion of a compound convertible instrument (into equity instruments) at maturity, has the entity: a) Derecognised the liability component and recognised it as equity, b) Retained the original equity component as equity (although it may be transferred from one line item within equity to another), and c) Ensured that no gain or loss is recognised on conversion at maturity?	32.AG32	_____ _____ _____
	(Note: The accounting treatment in Q 20 above relates to a situation where an instrument converts from a financial liability to an equity instrument based on its contractual terms. The accounting treatment for extinguishment of a liability fully or partially by issuing equity instruments to the creditor, based on a renegotiation of the terms of the liability, also known as a 'debt for equity swap' is provided in Appendix D of Ind AS 109.)
21	When the entity has extinguished a compound convertible instrument before maturity through an early redemption or repurchase in which the original conversion privileges are unchanged, has the entity: a) Allocated the consideration paid and any transaction costs for the repurchase or redemption to the liability and equity components of the instrument at the date of the transaction based on a method consistent with that used in the original allocation of the proceeds received on issuance of the instrument to the separate components, b) Recognised any resulting gain or loss on the liability component in profit or loss, and c) Recognised any resulting gain or loss on the equity component in equity?	32.AG33	_____ _____ _____

24	a) Has the entity allocated transaction costs relating to the issue of a compound financial instrument to the liability and equity components of the instrument in proportion to the allocation of proceeds?	32.38	_____
	b) Has the entity accounted for transaction costs as a deduction from equity to the extent they are incremental costs directly attributable to the equity transaction that otherwise would have been avoided?	32.37	_____
	c) Has the entity disclosed separately in accordance with Ind AS 1, the amount of transaction costs accounted for as a deduction from equity in the period?	32.39	_____
25	Have the income taxes relating to distribution to holders of an equity instrument and to transaction costs of an equity transaction been accounted in accordance with Ind AS 12, Income Taxes ?	32.35A	_____
26	Have the gains and losses associated with redemptions or refinancing of financial liabilities been recognised in profit or loss and the redemptions and refinancing of equity instruments recognised as changes in equity?	32.36	_____
27	Has the entity presented dividends classified as an expense in the profit or loss either with interest on liabilities or as a separate item?	32.40	_____
28	Have the gains or losses relating to changes in the carrying amount of the financial liability been separately presented as income or expense in profit or loss even when they relate to an instrument that includes a right to the residual interest in the assets of the entity in exchange for cash or another financial asset?	32.41	_____

Offsetting a financial asset and a financial liability
29	Has the entity offset any recognised financial assets and financial liabilities and presented a net amount in the balance sheet only when:	32.42
	a) The entity currently has a legally enforceable right to set off the recognised amounts, and		_____
	b) Intends to either settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously?		_____
	For example:
	i. The entity has the right to receive or pay a single amount and intends to do the same for the financial assets and liabilities together,	32.43	_____
	ii. The entity has a special legal right to apply an amount due from a debtor or a third party against the amount due to a creditor provided that there is an agreement between all the parties involved that clearly establishes the debtor's right to set off?	32.45	_____
	(Note: In these examples the entity can offset a financial asset and a financial liability and the presentation of the asset and liability on a net basis reflects more appropriately the amounts and timing of the expected future cash flows as well as the risks to which the cash flows are exposed.)
30	When accounting for a transfer of a financial asset that does not qualify for derecognition, has the entity ensured that the transferred asset and the associated liability are not offset and are presented separately in the financial statements?	32.44	_____
31	If the entity has a right to set-off, but does not intend to settle net or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously, has the effect of the right on the entity's credit risk exposure been disclosed in accordance with paragraph 36 of Ind AS 107?	32.47	_____
32	Has the entity ensured that a financial asset and a financial liability are not offset in the following circumstances:	32.49
	a) Several different financial instruments have been used to emulate the features of a single financial instrument,		_____
	b) The financial assets and financial liabilities arise from financial instruments having the same primary risk exposure but involve different counterparties,		_____
	c) Financial or other assets are pledged as collateral for non-recourse financial liabilities,		_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	d) Financial assets have been set aside in trust by a debtor for the purpose of discharging an obligation without those assets having been accepted by the creditor in settlement of the obligation, or		_____
	e) Obligations incurred as a result of events giving rise to losses are expected to be recovered from a third party by virtue of a claim made under an insurance contract?		_____
	(Note: If any of the above situations arise, it would be inappropriate to offset a financial liability with a financial asset.)
33	If the entity has entered into a 'master netting arrangement' with another counterparty, and the related financial assets and financial liabilities are not offset, has the effect of this arrangement on the entity's exposure to credit risk been disclosed in accordance with Ind AS 107?	32.50	_____

3. Additional considerations

Some of the key requirements from the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act)

- Schedule III of the 2013 Act, in its 'General Instructions for preparation of balance sheet', provides the following guidance which is consistent with the requirements of the standard:
 - Share application money pending allotment shall be classified into equity or liability in accordance with relevant Ind AS. Share application money to the extent not refundable shall be shown under the head 'Equity' and share application money to the extent refundable shall be separately shown under 'Other financial liabilities',
 - Preference shares including premium received on issue, shall be classified and presented as 'Equity' or 'Liability' in accordance with the requirements of the relevant Ind AS, and
 - Compound financial instruments such as convertible debentures, where split into equity and liability components, as per the requirements of the relevant Ind AS, shall be classified and presented under the relevant heads in 'Equity' and 'Liabilities'.

Significant carve-outs from IFRS

- With regard to an equity conversion option that is embedded in a foreign currency convertible bond, IFRS requires the same to be recognised as a financial liability at inception as the conversion price is fixed in foreign currency and not the entity's functional currency. Hence, it does not involve the exchange of a fixed amount of cash as it is subject to exchange fluctuations, and therefore, IFRS does not permit classification as equity. However, under Ind AS, there is a specific exception in the definition of a financial liability based on which exchange of a fixed number of shares in any currency will enable the financial instrument to be classified as equity.

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

- No specific requirements has been prescribed under the ICDS relating to this standard.

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
Bulletin 7 (Issue 6)	Accrual of dividend on a financial instrument classified as a liability Ind AS 10, Events after the reporting period states that when entities declare dividends to holders of equity instruments after the reporting period, then they should not recognize a liability for those dividends at the end of the reporting period. However, dividend/interest on financial instruments classified as liabilities, accrues at the end of the reporting period, irrespective of when it is paid or declared. Accordingly, entities are required to accrue dividend on such financial liabilities, even if the dividend has been declared after the reporting date. ITFG clarified that if the liability is classified and subsequently measured at amortized cost, the dividend would have to be accrued as part of interest expense based on the effective interest method.	32.35, Ind AS 10 (Q.23a and b)

Bulletin 20 (Issue 3)	A loss-making entity (P) issued cumulative preference shares prior to transition to Ind AS. Other facts are as below: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • It did not pay dividend to its preference shareholders • The accumulated arrears of cumulative preference dividend were disclosed as 'contingent liability' in the notes to the financial statements • On transition to Ind AS, the preference shares were classified as financial liability in accordance with the principles of Ind AS 32. The issue under consideration was the accounting for the accumulated arrears of preference dividend post transition to Ind AS. The ITFG clarified that preference shares that are classified in entirety as financial liability are accounted for under Ind AS 109 in the same manner as a redeemable debenture or a typical loan. This implies, inter alia, that the dividends on preference shares are accrued in the same manner as interest on debentures or loans. In the given situation, the preference shares would be classified as financial liability in their entirety (the covenant of their terms of issue relating to dividends would represent a contractual obligation of P to pay such dividends). Accordingly, these dividends would be accrued in the same manner as interest on debentures or loans. At the date of transition, the amortised cost of the shares (which includes unpaid dividend) would be computed retrospectively from the date of their issue using the Effective Interest Rate (EIR) method (Ind AS 101, does not provide any mandatory exception or optional exemptions for such financial instrument). While computing the amortised cost of the preference shares using the EIR method, the dividends that have accrued but not paid would be reflected in the carrying amount of the liability. In accordance with Ind AS 101, the difference between the amortised cost and the carrying amount of the preference shares as per the previous GAAP would be adjusted directly in retained earnings (or, if appropriate, another category of equity) as at the date of transition. Further, dividend for periods after the date of transition would be accrued in each period, in the same manner as interest, and if unpaid would get reflected in the amortised cost as at the end of the period.	32.15, 32.AG25,32.AG26, Ind AS 109 (Q 4)

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Compulsorily convertible debentures (convertible into fixed number of shares): The instrument has a mandatory coupon payable at a fixed interest rate, which represents its financial liability component. Its equity component comprises the principal component of the debentures that is convertible into a fixed number of equity shares. • Foreign Currency Convertible Bonds (FCCB) (convertible into fixed number of shares): The liability component comprises a contractual obligation of the issuer to deliver cash to the holder (principal and interest), and the equity component comprises the holder’s equity conversion option embedded in the FCCB to acquire a fixed number of entity’s own equity instruments. Although the FCCB is denominated in a foreign currency, the conversion option would meet the definition of an equity instrument based on the guidance in paragraph 11(b) of Ind AS 32. • Compulsorily Redeemable Non-Cumulative Preference Shares (RNCPS): The liability component represents the issuer’s obligation to redeem the preference shares in cash, and the equity component represents the discretionary dividend portion of the preference shares. • Puttable optionally convertible preference shares with discretionary dividend and an embedded call option: In case of optionally convertible preference shares with discretionary non-cumulative dividend, issued at par in the functional currency, and whose terms of issue were: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – The holder of the preference shares had an option to convert them into fixed number of equity shares at maturity – If not converted, preference shares would be redeemed at par – Throughout the period of issue, the holder had an option to put the preference shares back to the issuer at its par amount. The ITFG noted that in the given case, the issuer had a contractual obligation to pay the par amount to the preference share holder at any point in time, hence, the liability component had a demand feature attached. Thus, while measuring the fair value of the liability component, reference to Ind AS 113, Fair Value Measurement would be required to be made. As per Ind AS 113, the fair value of a financial liability with a demand feature (e.g. a demand deposit) is not less than the amount payable on demand, discounted from the first date that the amount could be required to be paid. 	The term 'fixed amount of cash' referred to an amount of cash fixed in the functional currency of the reporting entity. Since an amount fixed in a foreign currency has the potential to vary in terms of functional currency of the reporting entity due to exchange rate fluctuations, it does not represent a 'fixed amount of cash'. However, as an exception, Ind AS 32 regards an equity conversion option embedded in a convertible bond denominated in a foreign currency to acquire a fixed number of the entity's own equity instruments to be an equity instrument if the exercise price was fixed in any currency (i.e. functional or foreign currency). Ind AS 32 made the aforementioned exception only in the case of an equity conversion option embedded in a convertible bond denominated in a foreign currency, even though it explicitly recognised at several other places that other instruments could also contain equity conversion options. Given this position, it does not seem that the above exception could be extended by analogy to equity conversion options embedded in other types of financial instruments denominated in a foreign currency such as preference shares.

Glossary

A financial instrument is any contract that gives rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity.

A financial asset is any asset that is:

- a) Cash,
- b) An equity instrument of another entity,
- c) A contractual right:
 - i. To receive cash or another financial asset from another entity, or
 - ii. To exchange financial assets or financial liabilities with another entity under conditions that are potentially favorable to the entity, or
- d) A contract that will or may be settled in the entity's own equity instruments and is:
 - i. A non-derivative for which the entity is or may be obliged to receive a variable number of the entity's own equity instruments, or
 - ii. A derivative that will or may be settled other than by the exchange of a fixed amount of cash or another financial asset for a fixed number of the entity's own equity instruments. For this purpose the entity's own equity instruments do not include puttable financial instruments classified as equity instruments in accordance with paragraphs 16A and 16B, instruments that impose on the entity an obligation to deliver to another party a pro rata share of the net assets of the entity only on liquidation and are classified as equity instruments in accordance with paragraphs 16C and 16D, or instruments that are contracts for the future receipt or delivery of the entity's own equity instruments.

A financial liability is any liability that is:

- a) A contractual obligation :
 - i. To deliver cash or another financial asset to another entity, or
 - ii. To exchange financial assets or financial liabilities with another entity under conditions that are potentially unfavorable to the entity, or
- b) A contract that will or may be settled in the entity's own equity instruments and is:
 - i. A non-derivative for which the entity is or may be obliged to deliver a variable number of the entity's own equity instruments, or
 - ii. A derivative that will or may be settled other than by the exchange of a fixed amount of cash or another financial asset for a fixed number of the entity's own equity instruments. For this purpose, rights, options or warrants to acquire a fixed number of the entity's own equity instruments for a fixed amount of any currency are equity instruments if the entity offers the rights, options or warrants pro rata to all of its existing owners of the same class of its own non-derivative equity instruments. Apart from the aforesaid, the equity conversion option embedded in a convertible bond denominated in foreign currency to acquire a fixed number of the entity's own equity instruments is an equity instrument if the exercise price is fixed in any currency. Also, for these purposes the entity's own equity instruments do not include puttable financial instruments that are classified as equity instruments in accordance with paragraphs 16A and 16B, instruments that impose on the entity an obligation to deliver to another party a pro rata share of the net assets of the entity only on liquidation and are classified as equity instruments in accordance with paragraphs 16C and 16D, or instruments that are contracts for the future receipt or delivery of the entity's own equity instruments. As an exception, an instrument that meets the definition of a financial liability is classified as an equity instrument if it has all the features and meets the conditions in paragraphs 16A and 16B or paragraphs 16C and 16D.

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of an entity after deducting all of its liabilities.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

A puttable instrument is a financial instrument that gives the holder the right to put the instrument back to the issuer for cash or another financial asset or is automatically put back to the issuer on the occurrence of an uncertain future event or the death or retirement of the instrument holder.

Ind AS-33 Earnings Per Share

1. Executive summary

- Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 33, Earnings per Share is applicable to companies that have issued ordinary shares.
- When the entity presents both consolidated financial statements and separate financial statements prepared in accordance with Ind AS 110, Consolidated Financial Statements and Ind AS 27, Separate Financial Statements respectively, the disclosures required by this standard shall be presented both in the consolidated financial statements and separate financial statements. In consolidated financial statements such disclosures shall be based on consolidated information and in separate financial statements such disclosures shall be based on information given in separate financial statements.
- When any item of income or expense which is otherwise required to be recognised in profit and loss in accordance with Ind AS is debited or credited to securities premium account/other reserves, the amount in respect thereof shall be deducted from profit or loss from continuing operations for the purpose of calculating basic Earnings per Share (EPS).
- Basic EPS is calculated by dividing the earnings attributable to holders of ordinary equity of the parent by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the period.
- Diluted EPS is calculated by adjusting profit or loss attributable to ordinary equity holders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding for the effects of all dilutive potential ordinary shares.
- Potential ordinary shares are considered dilutive only if they decrease EPS or increase loss per share from continuing operations. In determining whether potential ordinary shares are dilutive, each issue or series of potential ordinary shares is considered separately.
- Contingently issuable ordinary shares are included in basic EPS only from the date when all the necessary conditions are satisfied (i.e. the events have occurred). If the conditions are not satisfied, the number of contingently issuable shares included in the diluted EPS is based on the number of shares that would be issuable if the end of the reporting period were the end of the contingency period. Restatement is not permitted if the conditions are not met when the contingency period expires.
- Outstanding ordinary shares that are subject to recall are not treated as outstanding and are excluded from the calculation of basic EPS until the date the shares are no longer subject to recall.
- If a contract may be settled in either cash or shares at the entity's option, then it is presumed that it will be settled in ordinary shares and the resulting potential ordinary shares are used to calculate diluted EPS.
- If a contract may be settled in either cash or shares at the holder's option then the more dilutive of cash and share settlement is used to calculate diluted EPS.
- For diluted EPS, diluted potential ordinary shares are determined independently for each period presented.
- If the number of ordinary shares outstanding, changes without a corresponding change in resources, then the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during all period presented is adjusted retrospectively for both basic and diluted EPS.
- Basic and diluted EPS for profit or loss from continuing operations and profit or loss for the period for each class of ordinary shares that has a different right to share in profit for the period, should be presented in the statement of profit and loss with equal prominence for all the periods presented.
- Information on basic and diluted EPS is required to be disclosed for discontinued operations either in the statement of profit and loss or in the notes for entities that report discontinued operations.
- Adjusted basic and diluted EPS based on alternative earnings measures may be disclosed and explained in the notes to the financial statements.
- If an entity discloses, in addition to basic and diluted earnings per share, amounts per share using a reported component of the statement of profit and loss other than one required by this standard, such amounts shall be calculated using the weighted average number of ordinary shares determined in accordance with this standard.

If a component of the statement of profit and loss is used that is not reported as a line item in the statement of profit and loss, a reconciliation shall be provided between the component used and a line item that is reported in the statement of profit and loss.)	33.73	<hr/>

3. Additional considerations

Some of the key requirements from the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act)

- There are no specific requirements in the 2013 Act relating to this standard.

Significant carve-outs from IFRS

Ind AS 33 does not provide any carve-outs from the requirements of IAS 33, Earnings per Share. However, there are some instances where additional disclosure is required or additional guidance has been provided in Ind AS 33, as described below:

- IAS 33 provides that when the entity presents both consolidated financial statements and separate financial statements, it may give EPS related information in consolidated financial statements only, whereas Ind AS 33 requires EPS related information to be disclosed both in consolidated and separate financial statements.
- Where any item of income or expense, which is otherwise required to be recognised in profit or loss in accordance with Ind AS, is debited or credited to securities premium account/other reserves, the amount in respect thereof should be deducted from profit or loss from continuing operations for the purpose of calculating basic earnings per share.
- The discount or premium on issue of preference shares is amortised to retained earnings using the effective interest method and treated as a preference dividend for the purposes of calculating EPS (irrespective of whether such discount or premium is debited or credited to securities premium account in view of requirements of any law).
- Paragraph 15 of Ind AS 33 states in case any discount or premium which would ordinarily go through profit and loss account as per Ind AS requirements but pursuant to Companies Act, 2013, it is adjusted through securities premium, such amount would be adjusted in the profit/loss for computing EPS. There is no corresponding requirement in IAS 33.

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

- No specific requirements have been prescribed under the ICDS relating to this standard.

Some of the clarifications provided by the Ind AS Technical Facilitation Group (ITFG)

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
Bulletin 10 (Issue 5)	Exemption under paragraph D13AA of Ind AS 101 An entity may avail the option to continue capitalisation of foreign exchange gains or losses on long-term foreign currency monetary items recognised prior to the first Ind AS financial reporting period in accordance with paragraph 46/46A of AS 11, The Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates, and accumulate such changes in the Foreign Currency Monetary Item Translation Difference Account (FCMITDA). The ITFG clarified that accumulation of exchange differences arising from long-term foreign currency monetary items in FCMITDA is permitted under the optional exemption available under paragraph 13 of Ind AS 101, First-time Adoption of Indian Accounting Standards. Therefore, such amounts are not required to be reduced from/added to profit or loss from continuing operations for the purpose of computing basic EPS.	33.12 (Q 2)
Bulletin 11 (Issue 3)	Calculation of EPS by a partly owned subsidiary company Paragraph 9 of Ind AS 33 states that an entity shall calculate BEPS for profit or loss attributable to ordinary equity holders of the parent entity. The ITFG clarified that the requirements of paragraph 9 of Ind AS 33 have been provided with respect to the calculation of EPS in the consolidated financial statements of an entity. Accordingly, a partly owned subsidiary should calculate and present its BEPS as below: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In its separate financial statements: 'Parent entity' would imply the legal entity of which separate financial statements are being prepared, accordingly, BEPS will be computed on the profit or loss attributable to all equity shareholders. • In consolidated financial statements: BEPS will be computed on profit or loss attributable to the parent entity, which will be computed by adjusting the profit or loss attributable to the non-controlling interests. 	33.9 (Q1(a))

Glossary

Antidilution is an increase in earnings per share or a reduction in loss per share resulting from the assumption that convertible instruments are converted, that options or warrants are exercised, or that ordinary shares are issued upon the satisfaction of specified conditions.

A contingent share agreement is an agreement to issue shares that is dependent on the satisfaction of specified conditions.

Contingently issuable ordinary shares are ordinary shares issuable for little or no cash or other consideration upon the satisfaction of specified conditions in a contingent share agreement.

Dilution is a reduction in earnings per share or an increase in loss per share resulting from the assumption that convertible instruments are converted, that options or warrants are exercised, or that ordinary shares are issued upon the satisfaction of specified conditions.

Options, warrants and their equivalents are financial instruments that give the holder the right to purchase ordinary shares.

An ordinary share is an equity instrument that is subordinate to all other classes of equity instruments.

A potential ordinary share is a financial instrument or other contract that may entitle its holder to ordinary shares.

Put options on ordinary shares are contracts that give the holder the right to sell ordinary shares at a specified price for a given period.

Ind AS-34 Interim Financial Reporting

1. Executive summary

- Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 34, Interim Financial Reporting is applicable if the entity is required to or elects to publish an interim financial report in accordance with Ind ASs. The standard does not mandate which entities would be required to publish interim financial reports, how frequently, or how soon after the end of an interim period.
- While unaudited financial results prepared and presented under Regulation 33 of the Securities Exchange Board of India (SEBI) (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (Listing Regulations) with stock exchanges are not an 'Interim Financial Report' as defined in this standard, the recognition and measurement guidance in this standard should be complied with while following the disclosure requirements prescribed by SEBI.
- Interim financial statements contain either a complete or a condensed set of financial statements for a period shorter than an annual reporting period.
- The following, as a minimum, are presented in condensed interim financial statements:
 - A condensed balance sheet,
 - A condensed statement of profit and loss,
 - A condensed statement of changes in equity,
 - A condensed statement of cash flows, and
 - Select explanatory notes.
- If the entity publishes a set of condensed financial statements in its interim financial report, those condensed statements shall include, at a minimum, each of the headings and subtotals that were included in its most recent annual financial statements and the selected explanatory notes as required by this standard. Additional line items or notes shall be included if their omission would make the condensed interim financial statements misleading.
- Items are generally recognised and measured as if the interim period were a discrete period. As an exception, income tax expense for an interim period is based on an estimated average annual effective income tax rate.
- In the statement that presents the components of profit or loss for an interim period, the entity shall present basic and diluted earnings per share for that period when the entity is within the scope of Ind AS 33, Earnings per Share.
- Generally, the accounting policies applied in the interim financial statements are those that will be applied in the next annual financial statements.
- The interim financial report should provide an explanation of events and transactions that are significant to an understanding of the changes in financial position and performance of the entity since the end of the last annual reporting period by disclosing the update on the relevant information presented in the most recent annual financial report in relation to such events and transactions. Since a user of the entity's interim financial report will have access to the most recent annual financial report of that entity, the notes to the interim financial report need not provide relatively insignificant updates to the information that was reported in the notes in the most recent annual financial report. Two examples of significant events include:
 - The write-down of inventories to net realisable value and the reversal of such a write-down, or
 - The reversal of any provisions for the costs of restructuring.
- The recognition and measurement guidance in this standard applies also to complete financial statements for an interim period, and such statements would include all of the disclosures required by this standard.

New development

- In December 2019, the Accounting Standards Board (ASB) of the ICAI has issued an Exposure Draft (ED) of amendment to Conceptual Framework for Financial Reporting under Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS). Further the above ED proposes amendments to nine Ind AS including Ind AS 34¹.

¹ The proposal is currently only an ED.

3. Additional considerations

Some of the key requirements from the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act)

- There are no specific requirements arising out of the 2013 Act in the context of this standard.

Significant carve-outs from IFRS

- IAS 34, Interim Financial Reporting gives an option either to follow single statement approach or to follow two statement approaches. However, Ind AS 34 allows only a single statement approach on the lines of Ind AS 1 which also allows only single statement approach.

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

- No specific requirements have been prescribed under the ICDS relating to this standard.

Key requirements of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (Listing Regulations)

- Regulations 33 and 52 of the Listing Regulations require listed entities to prepare and present interim financial reports i.e. quarterly, half yearly or annually, audited or unaudited, as the case may be, to the stock exchanges.
- Clause 3(g) of the Regulation 33 requires that the listed entity should also submit (as part of its standalone and consolidated financial results for the half year) by way of a note, statement of cash flows for the half year.
- On 9 May 2018, Regulation 33(8) was amended to provide that the statutory auditor of a listed entity should undertake a limited review of the audit of all the entities/companies whose accounts are to be consolidated with the listed entity as per AS 21, Consolidated Financial Statements, in accordance with the guidelines issued by the SEBI on this matter.
- A SEBI's circular dated 29 March 2019, prescribed the procedure and formats for limited review report and audit report of the listed entity and its components. The revised procedures are applicable from 1 April 2019.
- The circular requires principal auditors to include the key matters in the audit and review instructions to be considered by the component auditors.
(For further information on the above, refer KPMG in India's First Notes released on 9 April 2019 related to SEBI issued procedure and formats for limited review and audit reports.)
- Consequent to the above, on 19 July 2019, SEBI modified the formats for audit reports to align with SA 700 (Revised), Forming an Opinion and Reporting on Financial Statements and has also modified the formats for limited review reports with respect to certain updates. The revised formats became effective from the quarter ending September 2019.
- If the entity is required to prepare and present financial reports under the Listing Regulations, such requirements do not specifically mandate full compliance with Ind AS 34². The provisions relating to recognition and measurement as per this standard would be applicable as far as compliance with Ind AS 34 is concerned. In addition, the specific requirements of the statute/regulation will have to be followed.

²As per Ind AS 34 the unaudited financial results prepared under the Listing Regulations is not an interim financial report, as defined in this standard.

- Listed entities are required to provide their unaudited/audited, quarterly/half yearly financial results as the case may, as per the formats of the balance sheet and statement of profit and loss, prescribed in Schedule III to the 2013 Act.

Some of the clarifications provided by the Ind AS Technical Facilitation Group (ITFG)

- No specific clarifications have been provided by ITFG relating to this standard.

Glossary

Interim period is a financial reporting period shorter than a full financial year.

Interim financial report means a financial report containing either a complete set of financial statements (as described in Ind AS 1 or a set of condensed financial statements (as described in this Standard) for an interim period.

Material or Materiality

Ind AS 1 and Ind AS 8 define an item as material if its omission or misstatement could influence the economic decisions of users of the financial statements. Ind AS 1 requires separate disclosure of material items, including (for example) discontinued operations, and Ind AS 8 requires disclosure of changes in accounting estimates, errors, and changes in accounting policies. The two Standards do not contain quantified guidance as to materiality.

Materiality is relevant to the presentation and disclosure of items in the interim financial statements and should be assessed based on information related to the interim period and not to the full annual reporting period. The overriding goal is to ensure that an interim financial report includes all information that is relevant to understanding an entity's financial position and performance during the interim period.

Ind AS-36 Impairment of Assets

1. Executive summary

- Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 36, Impairment of Assets prescribes the procedures that the entity should apply to ensure that its non-financial assets are carried at no more than their recoverable amount. A non-financial asset is carried at more than its recoverable amount if its carrying amount exceeds the amount to be recovered through use or sale of the asset. If this is the case, the asset is described as impaired and Ind AS 36 requires the entity to recognise an impairment loss.
- The impairment standard covers a variety of non-financial assets, including:
 - Property, plant and equipment,
 - Intangible assets and goodwill, and
 - Investments in subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures.
- Whenever possible, an impairment test is performed for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash flows that are largely independent. Otherwise, assets are tested for impairment in Cash-Generating Units (CGUs). Goodwill is always tested for impairment at the level of a CGU or a group of CGUs.
- A CGU is the smallest group of assets that generates cash inflows from continuing use that are largely independent of the cash inflows of other assets or groups thereof.
- Goodwill is allocated to CGUs or groups of CGUs that are expected to benefit from the synergies of the business combination from which it arose. The allocation is based on the level at which goodwill is monitored internally, restricted by the size of the entity's operating segments before aggregation.
- Impairment testing is required when there is an indication of impairment.
- Annual impairment testing is required for goodwill and intangible assets that either are not yet available for use or have an indefinite useful life. This impairment test may be performed at any time during the year, provided that it is performed at the same time each year.
- An impairment loss is recognised if an asset's or CGU's carrying amount exceeds the greater of its fair value less costs to sell and value in use.
- Estimates of future cash flows used in the value in use calculation are specific to the entity, and need not be the same as those of market participants. The discount rate used in the value in use calculation reflects the market's assessment of the risks specific to the asset or CGU, as well as the time value of money.
- An impairment loss for a CGU is allocated first to any goodwill and then pro rata to other assets in the CGU that are in the scope of the standard.
- An impairment loss is generally recognised in the statement of profit and loss, except where required to be recognised in reserves by this standard.
- Reversals of impairment are recognised, other than for impairments of goodwill.
- A reversal of an impairment loss is generally recognised in the statement of profit and loss, except to the extent it is a reversal of an impairment loss previously recognised in reserves.

Identifying an asset that may be impaired
(Note: References to 'an asset' in Ind AS 36 apply equally to an individual asset or a CGU, except where a specific reference is made to CGUs.)
3	Has the entity assessed at the end of each reporting period, whether there is any indication that an asset may be impaired, and if such an indication exists, estimated the recoverable amount of such asset?	36.9	_____
4	Irrespective of whether there is any indication of impairment, has the entity tested the assets falling under any of the following categories for impairment on an annual basis:	36.10	_____
	a) Intangible asset with an indefinite useful life, by comparing its carrying amount with its recoverable amount (refer Q 14),		_____
	b) Intangible asset not yet available for use by comparing its carrying amount with its recoverable amount (refer Q 8 to 13), and		_____
	c) Goodwill acquired in a business combination (refer Q 50 to 61)?		_____
5	In case the asset falls under category (a) and (b) of Q 4 above, has the entity ensured that it has:	36.10	_____
	a) Performed the impairment test for such asset at same time every year, although different intangible assets may be tested for impairment at different times, and		_____
	b) Tested the intangible asset for impairment before the end of the current annual period if such intangible asset was initially recognised during the current period?		_____
Indicators of impairment
6	Has the entity considered, as a minimum, the following indications, to determine whether there is any indication that an asset may be impaired:	36.12	_____
(Note: This is not exhaustive in nature and an entity may also identify other indicators that may require it to determine asset's recoverable amount.) External sources of information
	a) The asset's value has declined significantly during the period, more than would be expected due to passage of time or normal use,		_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	b) Significant changes with an adverse effect on the entity have taken place during the period, or will take place in the near future, in the technological, market, economic or legal environment in which the entity operates or in the market to which an asset is dedicated,		_____
	c) Market interest rates or other market rates of return on investments have increased during the period, and those increases are likely to affect the discount rate used in calculating an asset's value in use and decrease the asset's recoverable amount materially,		_____
	d) The carrying amount of the net assets of the entity is more than its market capitalization,		_____
	Internal sources of information
	e) Evidence is available of obsolescence or physical damage of an asset,		_____
	f) Significant changes with an adverse effect on the entity have taken place during the period, or are expected to take place in the near future, in the extent to which, or manner in which, an asset is used or is expected to be used including assets becoming idle, plans to discontinue or restructure the operation to which an asset belongs, plans to dispose of an asset before the previously expected date, reassessing the useful life of an asset as finite rather than indefinite,		_____
	g) Evidence is available from internal reporting that indicates that the economic performance of an asset is, or will be, worse than expected,		_____
	Dividend from a subsidiary, joint venture or associate
	h) For an investment in a subsidiary, joint venture or associate, the entity recognises a dividend from the investment and evidence is available that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. The carrying amount of the investment in the separate financial statements of the entity exceeds the carrying amounts of the investee's net assets, including associated goodwill in the consolidated financial statements, or ii. The dividend exceeds the total comprehensive income of the subsidiary, associate or joint venture in the period the dividend is declared? 		_____
7	Has the entity reviewed and adjusted the remaining useful life, the depreciation method or the residual value of the asset, if there is an indication that an asset may be impaired, even if no impairment loss is recognised for the asset?	36.17	_____

Measuring recoverable amount
8	When required in accordance with Q 4 and Q 5, has the entity measured the recoverable amount of assets as the higher of an asset's fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use?	36.18	_____
9	If it is not possible to determine the fair value less costs of disposal of an asset because there is no basis for making a reliable estimate of the price at which an orderly transaction to sell the asset would take place between market participants at the measurement date under current market conditions, has the entity used the asset's value in use as its recoverable amount?	36.20	_____
(Note:
a) It may be possible to measure fair value less costs of disposal, even if there is not a quoted price in an active market for an identical asset, and
b) It is not always necessary to determine both an asset's fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use. If either of these amounts exceeds the asset's carrying amount, the asset is not impaired and it is not necessary to estimate the other amount.)
10	If there is no reason to believe that an asset's value in use materially exceeds its fair value less costs of disposal, has the entity opted to use the asset's fair value less costs of disposal as its recoverable amount?	36.21	_____
11	Has the entity assessed the asset for impairment, if the recoverable amount of the asset does not exceed the carrying amount of the asset?	36.19	_____
12	Has the recoverable amount been determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets?	36.22	_____
13	If the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets, has the recoverable amount been determined for the CGU to which the asset belongs, unless the asset's fair value less costs of disposal is higher than its carrying amount, or the asset's value in use can be estimated to be close to its fair value less costs of disposal?	36.22	_____

19	Has the entity assessed the reasonableness of the assumptions on which its current cash flow projections are based by examining the causes of differences between the past cash flow projections and actual cash flows?	36.34
20	Are the assumptions on which its current cash flow projections are based consistent with past actual outcomes, provided the effects of subsequent events or circumstances that did not exist when those actual cash flows were generated make this appropriate?	36.34
21	Are management’s estimates of future cash flows based on the most recent budgets/forecasts for a maximum of five years, unless management is confident that projections based on a longer period are reliable and it can demonstrate its ability to forecast cash flows accurately over that longer period?	36.35
22	Has the entity included the following while estimating future cash flows:	36.39
	a) Projections of cash inflows from the continuing use of the asset,
	b) Projections of cash outflows that are necessarily incurred to generate the cash inflows from continuing use of the asset (including cash outflows to prepare the asset for use) and can be directly attributed, or allocated on a reasonable and consistent basis, to the asset, and
	c) Net cash flows, if any, to be received (or paid) for the disposal of the asset at the end of its useful life (refer Q 27(a) for determination of net cash flows in this case)?

	iii. When the carrying amount of an asset does not yet include all cash outflows to be incurred before it is ready for use or sale, an estimate of any further cash outflows that are expected to be incurred before the asset is ready for use or sale are required to be made, and	36.42
	iv. To avoid double-counting, estimates of future cash flows do not include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Cash inflows from assets that generate cash inflows that are largely independent of the cash inflows from the asset under review (for example, financial assets such as receivables), and • Cash outflows that relate to obligations that have been recognised as liabilities (for example, payables, pensions or provisions.) 	36.43
23	Have the future cash flows been estimated for the asset in its current condition and exclude any cash flows from a future restructuring (unless the entity is committed to the restructuring) or cash flows from improving or enhancing the asset's performance?	36.44
24	Has the entity ensured that the estimates of future cash flows do not include the estimated future cash inflows that are expected to arise from the increase in economic benefits associated with the cash outflow until an entity incurs cash outflows that improve or enhance the asset's performance?	36.48
25	a) While estimating future cash flows, has the entity ensured that cash flows include future cash outflows necessary to maintain the level of economic benefits expected to arise from the asset in its current condition?	36.49
	b) Has the entity ensured that the replacement of assets with shorter lives is considered to be part of the day-to-day servicing of the unit when estimating the future cash flows associated with the unit, if the CGU for which future cash flows are being estimated consists of assets with different estimated useful lives, all of which are essential to the ongoing operation of the unit?
	c) Where impairment testing is being done for a single asset comprising of components with different estimated useful lives, has the entity ensured that replacement of components with shorter lives is considered to be part of the day-to-day servicing of the asset when estimating the future cash flows to be generated by the asset?

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
26	Has the entity appropriately excluded cash inflows or outflows from financing activities and income tax receipts and payments at the time of estimation of future cash flows?	36.50	_____
27	a) Has the entity estimated the net cash flows to be received (or paid) for the disposal of an asset at the end of its useful life as the amount that it expects to obtain from the disposal of the asset in an arm's length transaction between knowledgeable, willing parties, after deducting the estimated costs of disposal?	36.52	_____
	b) While determining the estimate of net cash flows to be received (or paid) for the disposal of an asset at the end of its useful life, has the entity ensured the following:	36.53	_____
	i. The prices used are the prices prevailing at the date of the estimate for similar assets that have reached the end of their useful life and have operated under conditions similar to those in which the asset will be used, and		_____
	ii. Adjustments have been made to those prices for the effect of future price increases or decreases due to inflation or other specific reasons. However, if estimates of future cash flows from continuing use and the discount rate exclude the effect of general inflation, has the entity ensured that the effect of inflation has been excluded from the estimate of net cash flows on disposal?		_____
28	a) Has the entity ensured that the future cash flows are estimated in the currency in which they will be generated and then discounted using a discount rate that is applicable for that currency?	36.54	_____
	b) Has the entity ensured that the present value has been translated using the spot exchange rate prevailing at the date of the value in use calculation?		_____
	Discount rate
29	Is the discount rate a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of:	36.55	_____
	a) The time value of money, and		_____
	b) The risks specific to the asset for which the future cash flow estimates have not been adjusted?		_____
30	a) When an asset specific rate is not available in the market has the entity used surrogates such as its weighted average cost of capital determined using the capital asset pricing model, the entity's incremental borrowing rate or other market borrowing rate?	36.57	_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	b) In these circumstances, has this rate been adjusted:	36.A18
	i. To reflect the way that the market would assess the specific risks associated with the asset's estimated cash flows, and		_____
	ii. To exclude risks that are not relevant to the asset's estimated cash flows or for which the estimated cash flows have been adjusted?		_____
	c) Have risks such as country risk, currency risk and price risk been appropriately considered?	36.A18	_____
	d) Where the value in use is sensitive to a difference in risks for different periods or to the term structure of interest rates, whether separate discount rates for different future periods have been considered?	36.A21	_____
31	Do the estimate of future cash flows and the discount rate reflect consistent assumptions about price increases attributable to general inflation? (Note: Therefore, if the discount rate includes the effect of price increases attributable to general inflation, future cash flows are estimated in nominal terms. 32	Do the estimated future cash flows reflect assumptions that are consistent with the way the discount rate is determined? (Note: For example, since the discount rate is determined on a pre-tax basis, future cash flows are also estimated on a pre-tax basis.)	36.51	_____
Recognition and measurement of impairment of loss for individual assets
33	Has the entity recognised immediately, an impairment loss in the statement of profit or loss unless the asset is carried at revalued amount in accordance with another Ind AS, if the recoverable amount of the asset is lesser than its carrying amount?	36.59	_____
34	Has the entity adjusted the impairment loss on a revalued asset in other comprehensive income to the extent that the impairment loss does not exceed the revaluation surplus for that same asset?	36.61	_____
35	Where the amount estimated for an impairment loss is greater than the carrying amount of the asset to which it relates, has the entity recognised a liability, if, and only if, that is required by another accounting standard?	36.62	_____

36	Has the depreciation charge for future periods after recognition of impairment loss been adjusted to allocate the asset's revised carrying amount, less residual value (if any) on a systematic basis over its remaining useful life?	36.63	_____
37	On recognition of an impairment loss, have the deferred tax assets or liabilities been determined in accordance with Ind AS 12 by comparing the revised carrying amount of the asset with its tax base?	36.64	_____
Recognising and measuring an impairment loss for CGUs and goodwill
38	If it is not possible to determine the recoverable amount of an individual asset, has the entity determined the recoverable amount of the CGU to which the asset belongs?	36.66	_____
	(Note: Recoverable amount of an individual asset cannot be determined if:	36.67
	a) The asset's value in use cannot be estimated to be close to its fair value less costs of disposal (for example, when the future cash flows from continuing use of the asset cannot be estimated to be negligible), and
	b) The asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets.
	In such cases, value in use and therefore, recoverable amount, can be determined only for the asset's CGU)
39	If recoverable amount cannot be determined for an individual asset, an entity identifies the lowest aggregation of assets that generate largely independent cash inflows. In identifying the CGU, has the entity:	36.68
	a) Identified the smallest group of assets that includes such individual asset, and generates cash inflows that are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets or groups of assets, and		_____
	b) Identified the CGU consistently from period to period for the same assets or types of assets, unless a change can be justified?	36.72	_____
40	While identifying whether cash inflows from an asset (or a group of assets), are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets (or group of assets), has the entity considered factors such as how management monitors the entity's operations (such as by product lines, businesses, individual locations, districts or regional areas) or how management makes decisions about continuing or disposing of the entity's assets and operations?	36.69	_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
41	If there is an active market for the output produced by an asset or group of assets, has that asset or group of assets been identified as a CGU, even if some or all of the output is used internally?	36.70	_____
42	If the cash inflows generated by any asset or CGU are affected by internal transfer pricing, has the entity used the management's best estimate of future price(s) that could be achieved in arm's length transactions in estimating the future cash inflows used to determine the asset/CGU's value in use and the future cash outflows used to determine the value in use of any other assets or CGUs that are affected by the internal transfer pricing?	36.70	_____
43	Has the entity made a separate disclosure (refer Q 84) about a CGU, if an impairment loss is recognised or reversed for the CGU and if the entity determines that an asset belonging to that CGU is different from that in the previous periods or the types of assets aggregated for the asset's CGU have changed?	36.73	_____
Recoverable amount and carrying amount of a CGU
44	Has the recoverable amount of a CGU been determined to be the higher of the CGU's fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use?	36.74	_____
45	Has the carrying amount of a CGU been determined on a basis consistent with the way the recoverable amount of the CGU is determined?	36.75	_____
46	Does the carrying amount of the CGU:	36.76	_____
	a) Include the carrying amount of only those assets that can be attributed directly, or allocated on a reasonable and consistent basis, to the CGU and will generate the future cash inflows used in determining the CGU's value in use, and		_____
	b) Exclude the carrying amount of any recognised liability, unless the recoverable amount of the CGU cannot be determined without consideration of this liability?		_____
47	a) While grouping the assets for recoverability assessments, has the entity included all the assets that generate or are used to generate the relevant stream of cash inflows (Otherwise the CGU may appear to be fully recoverable when in fact an impairment loss has occurred)?	36.77	_____
	b) If the entity has assets that contribute to the estimated future cash flows of a CGU but such assets cannot be allocated to the CGU on a reasonable and consistent basis, has the entity followed the procedures given in Q 50 to 64 below?		_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
52	If the initial allocation of goodwill acquired in a business combination cannot be completed before the end of the annual period in which the business combination is effected, has it been completed before the end of the first annual period beginning after the acquisition date?	36.84	_____
53	In accordance with Ind AS 103, Business Combinations , if the initial accounting for a business combination can be determined only provisionally by the end of the period in which the combination is effected, has the acquirer:	36.85	_____
	a) Accounted for the combination using those provisional values,		_____
	b) Recognised any adjustments to those provisional values as a result of completing the initial accounting within the measurement period, which will not exceed twelve months from the acquisition date, and		_____
	c) Disclosed the information required by Q 87?		_____
	(Note: If Q 53 is applicable, it might also not be possible to complete the initial allocation of the goodwill recognised in the combination before the end of the annual period in which the combination is affected. In this case, has the entity disclosed the amount of the unallocated goodwill together with the reasons why that amount remains unallocated (refer Q 87.))	36.85 36.133	_____
54	If goodwill has been allocated to a CGU and the entity has disposed of an operation within that CGU, has the entity:	36.86	_____
	a) Included the goodwill (associated with the operation which has been disposed of) in the carrying amount of the operation when determining the gain or loss on disposal of that operation, and		_____
	b) Measured the goodwill associated with operation which has been disposed of on the basis of the relative values of the operation disposed of and the portion of the CGU retained, unless the entity can demonstrate that some other method better reflects the goodwill associated with the disposed operation?		_____
55	If the entity has reorganised its reporting structure in a way that changes the composition of one or more CGUs to which goodwill has been allocated, has the entity reallocated the goodwill using a relative value approach similar to that used when an entity disposes of an operation within a CGU unless the entity can demonstrate that some other method better reflects the goodwill associated with the reorganised units?	36.87	_____

Testing CGUs with goodwill for impairment
56	When goodwill relating to a CGU has not been allocated to that unit, has the unit been tested for impairment, whenever there is an indication that the unit may be impaired, by comparing its carrying amount (excluding goodwill) with its recoverable amount, and any impairment loss been recognised in accordance with Q 65? (Note: Goodwill does not generate cash flows independently of other assets or groups of assets and often contributes to the cash flows of multiple CGUs. Goodwill sometimes cannot be allocated on a non-arbitrary basis to individual CGUs but only to groups of CGUs.)	36.88	_____
57	If a CGU described in Q 56 includes in its carrying amount an intangible asset that has an indefinite useful life or is not yet available for use and that asset can be tested for impairment only as part of the CGU, has the entity tested the unit for impairment on an annual basis?	36.89	_____
58	Have the CGUs of the entity to which goodwill has been allocated, been: a) Tested for impairment on an annual basis, and b) Tested for impairment whenever there is an indication that the unit may be impaired, by comparing the carrying amount of the unit, including the goodwill, with the recoverable amount of the unit? (Note: If the carrying amount of the unit exceeds the recoverable amount of the unit, the unit and the goodwill allocated to the unit is impaired and impairment loss should be recognised in accordance with Q 65.)	36.90	_____ _____ _____

63	If a portion of the carrying amount of a corporate asset can be allocated on a reasonable and consistent basis to a CGU that is being tested for impairment, has the entity included such portion of the carrying amount of the corporate asset in the carrying amount of the unit when comparing with its recoverable amount, and recognised any impairment loss in accordance with Q 65?	36.102	_____
64	If corporate assets cannot be allocated on a reasonable and consistent basis to the CGU, has the entity: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Compared the carrying amount of the unit, excluding the corporate asset, with its recoverable amount and recognised any impairment loss in accordance with Q 65, b) Identified the smallest group of CGUs that includes the CGU under review and to which a portion of the carrying amount of the corporate asset can be allocated on a reasonable and consistent basis, and c) Compared the carrying amount of that group of CGUs, including the portion of the carrying amount of the corporate asset allocated to that group of units, with the recoverable amount of the group of units, and recognised any impairment loss in accordance with Q 65? 	36.102	_____ _____ _____
Impairment loss for a CGU
65	Has the entity recognised an impairment loss for a CGU (or the smallest group of CGUs to which goodwill or a corporate asset has been allocated) if, and only if the recoverable amount of the unit (or group of units) is less than the carrying amount of the unit (or group of units), and allocated such an impairment loss to reduce the carrying amount of the assets of the unit (or group of units) in the following order: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) First, to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill allocated to the unit (or group of units), and b) Then, to other assets of the unit (or group of units) pro-rata on the basis of the carrying amount of each asset in the unit (or group of units)? 	36.104	_____ _____
66	a) In allocation of an impairment loss in accordance with Q 65, has the entity ensured that it has not reduced the carrying amount of an asset below the highest of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. Its fair value less costs of disposal (if measurable), ii. Its value in use (if determinable), and 	36.105	_____ _____

	iii. Zero? (Note: In view of the restriction stated above, it is possible that the amount of the impairment loss that would otherwise have been allocated to the asset would need to be allocated pro rata to the other assets of the unit.)
	b) Has the entity then recognised a liability for any remaining amount of an impairment loss for a CGU if, and only if, that is required by another Ind AS?	36.108
67	a) In case, it is not practicable to estimate the recoverable amount for each of the individual assets of a CGU, has the entity made an arbitrary allocation of impairment loss between the assets of that unit other than goodwill based on the presumption that all assets of a cash-generating unit work together?	36.106
	b) If the entity cannot determine the recoverable amount of an individual asset, has the entity:	36.107
	i. Recognised an impairment loss for the asset if its carrying amount is greater than the higher of its fair value less costs of disposal and the results of the allocation procedures described in Q 65 and Q 66, and
	ii. Recognised no impairment loss for the asset if the related CGU is not impaired. (This applies even if the asset's fair value less costs of disposal is less than its carrying amount)?
	Reversing an impairment loss
68	If the entity has assessed at the end of the reporting period that there is an indication that an impairment loss recognised in prior periods for an asset (or CGU) other than goodwill may no longer exist or may have decreased, has the entity estimated the recoverable amount of that asset (or CGU)?	36.110
69	In assessing, whether there is any indication that an impairment loss recognised in prior period for an asset other than goodwill (or CGU) may no longer exist or may have decreased, has the entity taken into consideration as a minimum, the following indications:	36.111
	External sources of information
	a) Observable indications that the asset's (or CGU's) value has increased significantly during the period,

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	b) Significant changes with a favourable effect on the entity have taken place during the period, or will take place in the near future, in the technological, market, economic or legal environment in which the entity operates or in the market to which an asset (or CGU) is dedicated,		_____
	c) Market interest rates or other market rates of return on investments have decreased during the period which are likely to affect the discount rate used in calculating an asset's (or CGU's) value in use and increase its recoverable amount materially,		_____
	Internal sources of information
	d) Significant changes with a favourable effect on the entity have taken place during the period, or are expected to take place in the near future, in the extent to which, or manner in which, the asset (or CGU) is used or is expected to be used including costs incurred during the period to improve or enhance its performance or restructure the operation to which it belongs, and		_____
	e) Evidence is available from internal reporting that indicates that the economic performance of the asset (or CGU) is, or will be, better than expected?		_____
70	If there is an indication that an impairment loss recognised for an asset other than goodwill (or CGU) may no longer exist or may have decreased, has the entity reviewed and adjusted the remaining useful life, the depreciation method or the residual value of the asset in accordance with the Ind AS applicable to the asset even if no impairment loss is reversed for the asset?	36.113	_____
71	Has an impairment loss recognised in prior periods for an asset other than goodwill (or a CGU) been reversed if, and only if, there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the asset's (or CGU's) recoverable amount since the last impairment loss was recognised and has the carrying amount of the asset been increased to its recoverable amount (except as described in Q 74)?	36.114	_____
72	Reversal of an impairment loss reflects an increase in the estimated service potential of an asset (or CGU), either from use or from sale, since the date when an entity last recognised an impairment loss for that asset (or CGU). In this case, has the entity identified the change in estimates that causes the increase in estimated service potential and disclosed these in accordance with Q 84?	36.115	_____
	(Note: Examples of changes in estimates include:
	a) A change in the basis for recoverable amount,		_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	b) If the recoverable amount was based on value in use, a change in the amount or timing of estimated future cash flows or in the discount rate, or c) If the recoverable amount was based on fair value less costs of disposal, a change in estimate of the components of fair value less costs of disposal)
73	Has the entity ensured that an impairment loss is not reversed in cases where an asset's value in use becomes greater than the asset's carrying amount simply because the present value of future cash inflows increases as they become closer due to passage of time (unwinding of the discount)?	36.116	_____
Reversing an impairment loss for an individual asset
74	Where impairment loss has been reversed, has the entity ensured that the increased carrying amount of the asset other than goodwill, attributable to the reversal of the impairment loss, does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined (net of amortisation or depreciation) had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior years?	36.117	_____
75	If there has been an increase in the carrying amount of an asset other than goodwill above the carrying amount that would have been determined (net of amortisation or depreciation) had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior years, such an increase is considered as a revaluation. Has the entity elected to account for such a revaluation, and if yes, has the entity applied the relevant Ind AS applicable to the asset?	36.118	_____
76	Has the reversal of an impairment loss for an asset other than goodwill been:	36.119	_____
	a) Recognised in the statement of profit and loss unless the asset is carried at a revalued amount in accordance with another Ind AS, and		_____
	b) Treated as a revaluation increase, if it is a reversal of an impairment loss of a revalued asset, and recognised in other comprehensive income as an increase in the revaluation surplus?	36.120	_____
	(Note: To the extent that an impairment loss on the same revalued asset was previously recognised in profit or loss, a reversal of that impairment loss is also recognised in profit or loss.)		_____
77	After recognition of reversal of an impairment loss, has the entity ensured that the depreciation to be charged in future periods has been adjusted in a manner to allocate the asset's revised carrying amount, less its residual value (if any) on a systematic basis over its remaining useful life?	36.121	_____

Reversing an impairment loss for a CGU
78	Has the entity ensured that the reversal of the impairment loss for a CGU has been allocated to the assets of the unit except for goodwill, on a pro rata basis with the carrying amounts of those assets, and these increases in carrying amounts treated as reversals of impairment losses for individual assets and recognised in accordance with Q 76?	36.122
79	While allocating a reversal of an impairment loss for a CGU, has the entity ensured that the carrying amount of the asset has not been increased above the lower of (a) its recoverable amount (if determinable); and (b) carrying amount that would have been determined (net of amortisation or depreciation) had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior periods? (Note: The amount of reversal of the impairment loss that would otherwise have been allocated to the asset shall be allocated pro rata to the other assets of the unit, except for goodwill.)	36.123
80	Has the entity ensured that an impairment loss recognised for goodwill has not been reversed in a subsequent period? (Note: This is on the presumption that any increase in the recoverable amount of goodwill in periods following the recognition of an impairment loss for that goodwill is likely to be an increase in internally generated goodwill, rather than a reversal of the impairment loss recognised for the acquired goodwill. 3. Additional considerations

- There is no specific requirement arising out of the 2013 Act in the context of this standard.

Significant carve-outs from IFRS

- Ind AS 36 has been modified by deleting a reference to fair value measurement of investment property, as Ind AS 40, Investment Property requires cost model approach to be followed.

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

- The ICDS relating to provisions, contingencies and liabilities specifically excludes depreciation, impairment and doubtful assets.
- Further under Income-tax Act, 1961 such provisions will be disallowed as the same represent merely a book provision.

Some of the clarifications provided by the Ind AS Technical Facilitation Group (ITFG)

- No specific clarifications have been provided by ITFG relating to this standard.

Glossary

Carrying amount is the amount at which an asset is recognised after deducting any accumulated depreciation (amortisation) and accumulated impairment losses thereon.

A cash-generating unit is the smallest identifiable group of assets that generates cash inflows that are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets or groups of assets.

Corporate assets are assets other than goodwill that contribute to the future cash flows of both the cash-generating unit under review and other cash-generating units.

Costs of disposal are incremental costs directly attributable to the disposal of an asset or cash-generating unit, excluding finance costs and income tax expense.

Depreciable amount is the cost of an asset, or other amount substituted for cost in the financial statements, less its residual value.

Depreciation/Amortisation is the systematic allocation of the depreciable amount of an asset over its useful life.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. (See Ind AS 113)

An impairment loss is the amount by which the carrying amount of an asset or a cash-generating unit exceeds its recoverable amount.

The recoverable amount of an asset or a cash-generating unit is the higher of its fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use.

Useful life is either:

- a) The period of time over which an asset is expected to be used by the entity; or
- b) The number of production or similar units expected to be obtained from the asset by the entity.

Value in use is the present value of the future cash flows expected to be derived from an asset or cash-generating unit.

Ind AS-37 Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets

1. Executive summary

- Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 37, Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets is applied in accounting for provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets, except for those resulting from executory contracts (except where the contract is onerous) and those covered by other standards.
- A provision is a liability of uncertain timing or amount that arises from a past event that is expected to result in an outflow of the entity's resources.
- A contingent liability is a present obligations with uncertainties about either the probability of outflow of resources or the amount of the outflows, and possible obligations whose existence is uncertain.
- A contingent asset is a possible asset whose existence is uncertain.
- A provision is recognised for a legal or constructive obligation, if there is a probable outflow of resources and the amount can be estimated reliably. Probable in this context means more likely than not.
- A constructive obligation arises when the entity's actions create valid expectations of third parties that it will accept and discharge certain responsibilities.
- A provision is not recognised for future operating losses.
- A provision for restructuring costs is not recognised until there is a formal plan and details of the restructuring have been communicated to those affected by the plan.
- Provisions are not recognised for repairs or maintenance of own assets or for self-insurance before an obligation is incurred.
- A provision is recognised for a contract that is onerous.
- Contingent liabilities are recognised only if they are present obligations assumed in a business combination-i.e. there is uncertainty about the outflows but not about the existence of an obligation. Otherwise, contingent liabilities are disclosed in the notes to the financial statements.
- Contingent assets are not recognised in the balance sheet. If an inflow of economic benefits is probable, then details are disclosed in the notes to the financial statements.
- A provision is measured at the 'best estimate' of the expenditure to be incurred.
- Provisions are discounted if the effect of discounting is material.
- A reimbursement right is recognised as a separate asset when recovery is virtually certain, capped at the amount of the related provision.

New development

- In December 2019, the Accounting Standards Board (ASB) of the ICAI has issued an Exposure Draft (ED) of amendment to Conceptual Framework for Financial Reporting under Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS). Further, the above ED proposes amendments to nine Ind AS including Ind AS 37¹.

¹The proposal is currently only an ED.

2. Checklist

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
Applicability
	This standard shall be applied in accounting for provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets, except for those resulting from executory contracts (except where the contract is onerous) and those covered by other standards.	37.1
Scope
1	Has the entity excluded the following items from the scope of this standard and applied the relevant Ind AS, if any, instead:	37.2
	a) Financial instruments (including guarantees) that are within the scope of Ind AS 109, Financial Instruments ,		_____
	b) Executory contracts, unless they are onerous,		_____
	c) Specific type of provision, contingent liability or contingent asset for the following items, that are covered by other Ind AS:	37.5
	i. Income taxes (Ind AS 12, Income Taxes),		_____
	ii. Revenue from contracts with customers (Ind AS 115, Revenue from Contracts with Customers),		_____
	(Note: This excludes contracts with customers that are or have become onerous.)		_____
	iii. Leases (Ind AS 116, Leases ²),		_____
	(Note: However, this excludes any lease that becomes onerous before the commencement date of the lease as defined in Ind AS 116. It also excludes short-term leases and leases for which the underlying asset is of low value accounted for in accordance with Ind AS 116 and that have become onerous.)		_____
	iv. Employee benefits (Ind AS 19, Employee Benefits),		_____
	v. Insurance contracts (Ind AS 104, Insurance Contracts), and		_____
	vi. Contingent consideration of an acquirer in a business combination (see Ind AS 103, Business Combinations)?		_____

² The Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Amendment Rules, 2019 notified Ind AS 116 for an annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 April 2019. As a consequence of this notification, Ind AS 17, Leases has been superseded. The checklist incorporates the amendments due to Ind AS 116.

2	Has the entity applied this standard while making a provision for restructuring (including discontinued operations)? (Also refer Q 41(a))	37.9	_____
	(Note: When a restructuring meets the definition of a discontinued operation, additional disclosures may be required by Ind AS 105, Non-current Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations.)
	Recognition
3	Has the entity recognised a provision only when it satisfies the following conditions:	37.14
	a) The entity has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event (refer Q 4 and 5),		_____
	b) It is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation (refer Q 6), and		_____
	c) A reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation? (Refer ITFG bulletin 8 issue 1 clarification)		_____
	Present obligation
4	In cases, where it is not clear whether there is a present obligation, has the entity taken into account all available evidence, including additional evidence provided by events after the reporting period, and on this basis:	37.15
	a) Recognised a provision (where other recognition criteria are met), if it is more likely than not that a present obligation exists at the end of the reporting period, or	37.16a	_____
	b) Disclosed a contingent liability, if it is more likely that no present obligation exists at the end of the reporting period and the possibility of outflow of resources embodying economic benefit is not remote?	37.16b	_____
5	Has the entity recognised a provision only when there is a present obligation arising from a past event, existing independently of the entity's future actions, i.e.	37.17 37.19
	a) Where the settlement of the obligation can be enforced by law, or		_____
	b) In the case of a constructive obligation, where the event (which may be an action of the entity) creates valid expectations in other parties that the entity will discharge the obligation?		_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
Probable outflow of resources embodying economic benefits
6	a) Has the entity considered an outflow of resources or other event to be probable if the event is more likely than not to occur, i.e. the probability that the event will occur is greater than the probability that it will not?	37.23
	b) In case there are a number of similar obligations (e.g. product warranties), has the entity determined the probability that an outflow will be required in settlement by considering the class of obligations as a whole?	37.24
Contingent liability
7	Has the entity ensured that it has not recognised a contingent liability and has appropriately disclosed (refer Q 34) a contingent liability when:	37.27
	a) A present obligation exists and it is possible, but not remote that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation, or the amount of obligation cannot be measured with sufficient reliability, or	37.28
	b) The entity is jointly and severally liable for an obligation, and is required to treat the part of the obligation that is expected to be met by other parties as a contingent liability?	37.29
8	Has the entity assessed previously disclosed contingent liabilities continually to determine whether an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits has become probable, and recognised a provision in the financial statements if the change in probability has occurred in the current period?	37.30
Contingent asset
9	a) Has the entity not recognised contingent assets and appropriately disclosed (refer Q 37) them only when the inflow of economic benefits is probable?	37.34
	b) Has the entity recognised contingent asset only when expected inflow of economic benefits is virtually certain?	37.35
(Note: Contingent assets are assessed continually to ensure that developments are appropriately reflected in the financial statements. If it has become virtually certain that an inflow of economic benefits will arise, the asset and related income are recognised in the financial statements of the period in which the change occurs. Similarly if the inflow of economic benefits has become probable, the contingent asset is disclosed in the financial statements.)

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
Measurement
Best estimate
10	Does the amount recognised as a provision represent the best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period? (Note: Determination of the best estimate may involve exercise of judgement, supplemented by experience of similar transactions and opinions from independent experts. The evidence considered included any additional evidence provided by events after the reporting period.)	37.36
11	Where the provision being measured involves a large population of items, has the obligation been estimated by weighting all possible outcomes by their associated probabilities (i.e. expected value)?	37.39
12	Has the entity measured the provision before tax and have the tax consequences of the provision, and changes in it, been recognised in accordance with Ind AS 12?	37.41
Risks and Uncertainties
13	Has the entity taken into account all risks and uncertainties that inevitably surround events and circumstances in reaching the best estimate of a provision?	37.42
Present value
14	Has the entity determined the amount of a provision as the present value of the expenditures expected to be required to settle the obligation, if the effect of the time value of money on the provision is material?	37.45
15	Is the discount rate (or rates) used by the entity a pre-tax rate (or rates) that reflect(s) current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability? (Note: The discount rate(s) shall not reflect risks for which future cash flow estimates have been adjusted.)	37.47
Future events
16	Has the entity ensured that future events that may affect the amount required to settle an obligation are reflected in the amount of a provision where there is sufficient objective evidence that they will occur? (Refer Q 35(g-h)) (Note: For example, an entity may believe that the cost of cleaning up a site at the end of its life will be reduced by future changes in technology.)	37.48 37.49

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	The effect of possible new legislation is taken into consideration in measuring an existing obligation when sufficient objective evidence exists that the legislation is virtually certain to be enacted.)	37.50
	Expected disposal of assets
17	Has the entity ignored any gains from the expected disposal of assets while measuring a provision?	37.51
	Reimbursement
18	If the entity expects some of the expenditure required to settle provision, to be reimbursed by another party, has the entity ensured that:	37.53
	a) The reimbursement has been recognised only when it is virtually certain to be received upon settlement of the provision by the entity,
	b) The reimbursement has been treated as a separate asset and provision is recognised for the full amount of liability,
	c) The amount recognised for reimbursement is less than or equal to the provision, and
	d) The expenses related to the provision are presented net of reimbursement in the statement of profit and loss?	37.54
	Changes in provision
19	Has the entity reviewed the provision at the end of each reporting period and adjusted to reflect the current best estimate?	37.59
20	Has the entity reversed the provision when it is no longer probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation?	37.59
21	When a provision has been discounted, has the entity increased the carrying amount of the provision in each period to reflect the passage of time and recognised the increase as borrowing cost?	37.60
	Use of provisions
22	Has the entity used the provision only for expenditures for which it was originally recognised?	37.61
	(Note: Only expenditures that relate to the original provision	37.62

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	are set against it. Setting expenditures against a provision that was originally recognised for another purpose would conceal the impact of two different events.)	37.62
	Future operating losses
23	Has the entity ensured that it does not recognise provisions for future operating losses?	37.63
	Onerous contracts
24	Has the entity recognised and measured the present obligation under the contract as a provision, if the entity has a contract that is onerous, i.e. in which the unavoidable costs of meeting the obligations under the contract exceed the economic benefits expected to be received under it?	37.66
	Restructuring
25	Has the entity recognised the provision for restructuring costs, only when the general recognition criteria for provisions (refer Q 3) are satisfied?	37.71
26	Has a constructive obligation to restructure (other than through sale of line of business) been considered to arise only based on the entity having:	37.72
	a) A detailed formal plan for the restructuring identifying at least:
	i. The business or part of a business concerned,
	ii. The principal locations affected,
	iii. The location, function, and approximate number of employees who will be compensated for terminating their services, iv. The expenditures that will be undertaken, and
	v. When the plan will be implemented,
	b) Raised a valid expectation in those affected that it will carry out the restructuring by starting to implement that plan or announcing its main features to those affected by it?
27	If a management or board decision to restructure (other than through sale of a line of business) is taken before the end of the reporting period, has the entity recognised a constructive obligation only when the entity has, before the end of the reporting period:	37.75
	a) Started to implement the restructuring plan, or

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	b) Announced the main features of the restructuring plan to those affected by it in a sufficiently specific manner to raise a valid expectation in them that the entity will carry out the restructuring?		_____
	(Note: If an entity starts to implement a restructuring plan, or announces its main features to those affected, only after the reporting period, it is required to disclose this plan under Ind AS 10, Events after the Reporting Period, provided the restructuring is material and non-disclosure could influence the economic decisions that users make on the basis of the financial statements.)	37.75
28	Has the entity recognised a provision for the future sale of an operation only when it is committed to the sale, i.e. there is a binding sale agreement?	37.78	_____
29	Has the entity ensured that the restructuring provision includes only the direct expenditures arising from the restructuring, which are those that are both:	37.80	_____
	a) Necessarily entailed by the restructuring, and		_____
	b) Not associated with the ongoing activities of the entity?		_____
30	Has the entity ensured that the following cost have been excluded from the restructuring provision:	37.81	_____
	a) Retraining or relocating continuing staff,		_____
	b) Marketing, or		_____
	c) Investment in new systems and distribution networks?		_____
31	Has the entity ensured that identifiable future operating losses up to the date of a restructuring are not included in measuring a restructuring provision, unless they relate to an onerous contract?	37.82	_____
32	Has the entity ensured that the gains on the expected disposal of assets are not taken into account in measuring a restructuring provision, even if the sale of assets is envisaged as part of the restructuring?	37.83	_____
	Rights to interests arising from decommissioning, restoration and environmental rehabilitation funds

45	Has the entity disclosed a brief description of the nature of the contingent assets at the end of the reporting period, and, where practicable, an estimate of their financial effect, measured using the principles set out for provisions, where an inflow of economic benefits is probable?	37.89	_____
46	Has the entity stated the fact, where any of the information required in Q 35 to 40 and Q 45 is not disclosed because it is not practicable to do so?	37.91	_____
47	Where disclosure of some or all of the information required in Q 35 to 40 and Q 45 is expected to prejudice seriously the position of the entity in a dispute with other parties on the subject matter of the provision, contingent liability or contingent asset, then has the entity disclosed the general nature of the dispute, together with the fact that, and the reason why the information has not been disclosed?	37.92	_____

3. Additional considerations

Some of the key requirements from the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act)

- There are no specific requirements in the 2013 Act relating to this standard

Significant carve-outs from IFRS

- No significant carve outs from IFRS have been provided in this standard.

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

- ICDS does not apply to executory contracts including onerous contract. Ind AS 37 shall be applicable in accounting for provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets except those resulting from executory contracts, except contracts which are onerous.
- ICDS allows recognition of provision only if it is reasonably certain and not recognised when it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle an obligation.
- Measurement of contingent assets: ICDS permits the recognition of contingent assets when the inflow of economic benefits is reasonably certain. Whereas Ind AS 37 does not permit the recognition of contingent asset since this may result in the recognition of income that may never be realised. When the realisation of income is virtually certain then the related asset is not a contingent asset.
- Employee benefit provisions: Provisions such as provident fund, gratuity, medical benefits etc. that are specifically covered under AS 15, Employee Benefits would continue to be governed by specific provisions of the Income Tax Act, 1961 and not by ICDS X. (Refer Q24 of FAQ on ICDS).
- Transitional provisions: On transition to ICDS, all provisions, assets and related incomes will be recognised on or after 1 April 2016 in accordance with ICDS, and provisions, assets and related income, as the case may be, already recognised on or before 31 March 2016, will be reduced therefrom. Transitional provisions are intended to ensure that there is neither 'double taxation' of income due to application of ICDS nor escape of any income due to application of ICDS from a particular date. (Refer Q23 of FAQ on ICDS).

Some of the clarifications provided by the Ind AS Technical Facilitation Group (ITFG)

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
Bulletin 8 (Issue 1)	Clarifications with respect to provision for unspent Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) expenditure under Ind AS ITFG noted that the 2013 Act does not require entities to recognise a provision for the shortfall in the amount expected to be spent on CSR activities. Accordingly, such provision may not be required in the financial statements. However, if an entity has already undertaken certain CSR activity for which an obligation has been created, for example, by entering into a contractual obligation, or a constructive obligation has arisen during the year, then in accordance with Ind AS 37, a provision for the amount of such CSR obligation, should be recognised in the financial statements.	37.14 (Q 3)

Glossary

A provision is a liability of uncertain timing or amount.

A liability is a present obligation of the entity arising from past events, the settlement of which is expected to result in an outflow from the entity of resources embodying economic benefits.

An obligating event is an event that creates a legal or constructive obligation that results in an entity having no realistic alternative to settling that obligation.

A legal obligation is an obligation that derives from:

- a) A contract (through its explicit or implicit terms),
- b) Legislation, or
- c) Other operation of law.

A constructive obligation is an obligation that derives from an entity's actions where:

- a) By an established pattern of past practice, published policies or a sufficiently specific current statement, the entity has indicated to other parties that it will accept certain responsibilities, and
- b) As a result, the entity has created a valid expectation on the part of those other parties that it will discharge those responsibilities.

A contingent liability is:

- a) A possible obligation that arises from past events and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the entity, or
- b) A present obligation that arises from past events but is not recognised because:
 - i. It is not probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation, or
 - ii. The amount of the obligation cannot be measured with sufficient reliability.

A contingent asset is a possible asset that arises from past events and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the entity.

An onerous contract is a contract in which the unavoidable costs of meeting the obligations under the contract exceed the economic benefits expected to be received under it.

A restructuring is a programme that is planned and controlled by management, and materially changes either:

- a) The scope of a business undertaken by an entity, or
- b) The manner in which that business is conducted.

Ind AS-38 Intangible Assets

1. Executive summary

- Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 38, Intangible Assets, prescribes the accounting treatment for intangible assets that are not dealt with specifically in another standard. It requires the entity to recognise an intangible asset if, and only if, specified criteria are met. The standard also specifies how to measure the carrying amount of intangible assets and requires specific disclosures about intangible assets.
- This standard shall be applied in accounting for intangible assets, except:
 - Intangible assets that are within the scope of another standard,
 - Financial assets, as defined in Ind AS 32, Financial Instruments: Presentation,
 - The recognition and measurement of exploration and evaluation assets, and
 - Expenditure on the development and extraction of minerals, oil, natural gas and similar non-regenerative resources.
- An intangible asset is identifiable if it either:
 - Is separable, i.e. is capable of being separated or divided from the entity and sold, transferred, licensed, rented or exchanged, either individually or together with a related contract, identifiable asset or liability, regardless of whether the entity intends to do so, or
 - Arises from contractual or other legal rights, regardless of whether those rights are transferable or separable from the entity or from other rights and obligations.
- An intangible asset shall be recognised if, and only if:
 - It is probable that the expected future economic benefits that are attributable to the asset will flow to the entity, and
 - The cost of the asset can be measured reliably.
- An entity shall assess the probability of expected future economic benefits using reasonable and supportable assumptions that represent management's best estimate of the set of economic conditions that will exist over the useful life of the asset.
- An intangible asset shall be measured initially at cost.
- Internally generated brands, mastheads, publishing titles, customer lists and items similar in substance shall not be recognised as intangible assets.
- An entity shall assess whether the useful life of an intangible asset is finite or indefinite and, if finite, the length of, or number of production or similar units constituting, that useful life. An intangible asset shall be regarded by the entity as having an indefinite useful life when, based on an analysis of all of the relevant factors, there is no foreseeable limit to the period over which the asset is expected to generate net cash inflows for the entity.
- The useful life of an intangible asset that arises from contractual or other legal rights shall not exceed the period of the contractual or other legal rights, but may be shorter depending on the period over which the entity expects to use the asset.
- The depreciable amount of an intangible asset with a finite useful life shall be allocated on a systematic basis over its useful life. Amortisation shall begin when the asset is available for use, i.e. when it is in the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management. Amortisation shall cease at the earlier of the date that the asset is classified as held for sale in accordance with Ind AS 105, Non-current Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations and the date that the asset is derecognised.
- The residual value of an intangible asset with a finite useful life shall be assumed to be zero unless:
 - There is a commitment by a third party to purchase the asset at the end of its useful life, or
 - There is an active market for the asset and:
 - Residual value can be determined by reference to that market, and
 - It is probable that such a market will exist at the end of the asset's useful life.

- The amortisation period and the amortisation method for an intangible asset with a finite useful life shall be reviewed at least at each financial year-end.
- An intangible asset with an indefinite useful life shall not be amortised. The useful life of an intangible asset that is not being amortised shall be reviewed each period to determine whether events and circumstances continue to support an indefinite useful life assessment for that asset.
- An intangible asset shall be derecognised:
 - On disposal, or
 - When no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal.
- New development
- In December 2019, the Accounting Standards Board (ASB) of the ICAI has issued an Exposure Draft (ED) of amendment to Conceptual Framework for Financial Reporting under Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS). Further the above ED proposes amendments to nine Ind AS including Ind AS 38¹.

¹ The proposal is currently only an ED.

Scope
1	Has the entity excluded the following items from the scope of this standard and applied the relevant Ind AS instead:	38.3
	a) Intangible assets held for sale in the ordinary course of business (see Ind AS 2, Inventories),		_____
	b) Deferred tax assets (see Ind AS 12, Income Taxes),		_____
	c) Leases of intangible assets accounted for in accordance with Ind AS 116, Leases ² ,		_____
	d) Assets arising from employee benefits (see Ind AS 19, Employee Benefits),		_____
	e) Financial assets, as defined in Ind AS 32,		_____
	f) Goodwill acquired in a business combination (see Ind AS 103, Business Combinations),		_____
	g) Deferred acquisition costs, and intangible assets, arising from an insurer's contractual rights under insurance contracts within the scope of Ind AS 104, Insurance Contracts ,		_____
	h) Non-current intangible assets classified as held for sale (or included in a disposal group that is classified as held for sale) in accordance with Ind AS 105,		_____
	i) Assets arising from contracts with customers, that are recognised in accordance with Ind AS 115, Revenue from Contracts with Customers ,		_____
	j) The recognition and measurement of exploration and evaluation assets (see Ind AS 106, Exploration for and Evaluation of Mineral Resources),		_____
	k) Expenditure on the development and extraction of minerals, oil, natural gas and similar non-regenerative resources, and		_____
	l) Intangible assets that are within the scope of another standard?		_____
2	If the entity has an asset that has both tangible as well as intangible elements (e.g. computer software for a computer controlled machine tool), has the entity exercised judgement based on the accounting policies formulated and adopted by management, and:	38.4
	a) Treated the asset as a tangible asset under Ind AS 16, Property Plant and Equipment , if the intangible element is an integral part of the tangible asset, or		_____

² The Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Amendment Rules, 2019 notified Ind AS 116, Leases, applicable to annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 April 2019. As a consequence of this notification, Ind AS 17, Leases has been superseded. Accordingly, checklist has been amended.

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	b) Classified the intangible element separately as an intangible asset under Ind AS 38 if it is not an integral part of the related tangible asset?		_____
3	Has the entity (in case where it is a lessee) included rights under licensing agreements for items such as motion picture films, video recordings, plays, manuscripts, patents and copyrights in the scope of Ind AS 38? (Note: Such above rights held by a lessee are excluded from the scope of Ind AS 116.)	38.6	_____
4	Has the entity treated an asset as an intangible asset under this standard only when the following conditions have been satisfied: (Refer ITFG bulletin 22 issue 3 clarification) a) Identifiability (refer Q 6), b) Control over a resource (refer Q 7), and c) Existence of future economic benefits (refer Q 8)?	38.10	_____ _____ _____
5	Has the entity recognised expenditure to acquire it or generate it internally as an expense if the conditions mentioned in Q 4 are not satisfied? (Also refer Q 26 and 27)	38.10	_____
Identifiability
6	Has the entity included an asset within the scope of this standard only if an asset is either: a) Separable, i.e. is capable of being separated or divided from the entity and sold, transferred, licensed, rented or exchanged, either individually or together with a related contract, identifiable asset or liability, regardless of whether the entity intends to do so, or b) Arises from contractual or other legal rights, regardless of whether those rights are transferable or separable from the entity or from other rights and obligations?	38.12	_____ _____
Control
7	Has the entity included an asset within the scope of this standard only if it controls the asset in terms of the power to control the economic benefits flowing from the underlying resource and to restrict the access of others to those benefits?	38.13 38.14 38.15 38.16	_____
(Note: For example:
	a) The entity has legal rights that are enforceable in the court of law or legal duty,

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	b) The entity is able to control the future economic benefits in other way.)
	Existence of future economic benefits
8	Has the entity included an asset within the scope of this standard only if there are future economic benefits resulting from the use of an intangible asset by the entity? (Note: For example: a) The use of intellectual property in a production process may reduce future production costs rather than increase future revenues. b) Revenue from the sale of products or services, cost savings, or other benefits.)	38.17	_____
	Recognition
9	Has the entity recognised an intangible asset only if the following criteria are met: a) It is probable that the expected future economic benefits that are attributable to the asset will flow to the entity, and b) The cost of the asset can be measured reliably?	38.21	_____ _____
10	Has the entity assessed the probability of expected future economic benefits using reasonable and supportable assumptions that represent management's best estimate of the set of economic conditions that will exist over the useful life of the asset? (Note: The entity uses judgement to assess the degree of certainty attached to the flow of future economic benefits that are attributable to the use of the asset on the basis of the evidence available at the time of initial recognition, giving greater weight to external evidence.)	38.22 38.23	_____ _____
	Measurement
11	Has the entity measured an intangible asset initially at cost?	38.24	_____
	Separate acquisition – Measurement
12	For separately acquired intangible assets, has the entity included the following in cost: a) Purchase price including import duties and non-refundable purchase taxes, after deducting trade discounts and rebates, and b) Any directly attributable cost for preparing the asset for its intended use?	38.27	_____ _____ _____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
	(Note: Examples of directly attributable costs are :
	a) Employee Benefits arising directly from bringing the asset to its working condition (Ind AS 19),	38.28
	b) Professional fees arising directly from bringing the asset to its working condition,
	c) Cost of testing whether the asset is functioning properly.)
13	For separately acquired intangible assets, has the entity excluded the following from the cost of an intangible asset:	38.29, 38.30 38.32
	a) Cost of introducing new product or service (including costs of advertising and promotional activities),		_____
	b) Cost of conducting the business in a new location or with the new class of customers (including cost of staff training),		_____
	c) Administration and other general overheads,		_____
	d) Cost incurred after the asset is capable of operating in the manner intended by the management,		_____
	e) Initial operating losses such as those incurred while demand for the asset's output builds up, and		_____
	f) Interest expense incurred where the payment for the intangible asset is deferred beyond the normal credit terms unless it is capitalised in accordance with Ind AS 23, Borrowing Costs ?		_____
14	Has the entity recognised the income and related expenses of incidental operations in profit or loss and included them in their respective classifications of income and expense?	38.31	_____
	Intangible asset acquired as part of a business combination - Measurement
15	If an intangible asset has been acquired under a business combination and for the estimates used to measure an intangible asset's fair value, there is a range of possible outcomes with different probabilities, has the entity considered such uncertainty in the measurement of the asset's fair value?	38.35 38.33	_____
	(Note: The probability and reliable measurement criterion for recognition of an intangible asset are always considered to be satisfied for intangible assets acquired in business combinations.
	If an intangible asset acquired in a business combination is separable or arises from contractual or other legal rights, sufficient information exists to measure reliably the fair value of the asset.)

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
16	If the entity has acquired any intangible asset that might be separable, but only together with a related contract, identifiable asset or liability, has the entity recognised the intangible asset separately from goodwill, but together with the related item?	38.36	_____
17	Has the entity (acquirer) recognised a group of complementary intangible assets as a single asset, only if the individual assets have similar useful lives? (Note: For example: The terms 'brand' and 'brand name' are often used as synonyms for trademarks and other marks. However, the former are general marketing terms that are typically used to refer to a group of complimentary assets such as a trademark (or service mark) and its related trade name, formulas, recipes and technological expertise.)	38.37	_____ _____
Acquisition by way of a government grant - Measurement
18	If the entity has acquired an intangible asset free of charge, or for nominal consideration, by way of a government grant, has the entity accounted for the transaction either by: a) Recognising both the intangible asset and the grant initially at fair value, or b) Recognising the asset initially at a nominal amount (the other treatment permitted by Ind AS 20, Accounting for Government Grants and Disclosure of Government Assistance) plus any expenditure that is directly attributable to preparing the asset for its intended use?	38.44	_____ _____
Exchanges of assets – Measurement
19	a) If the entity has acquired one or more intangible assets by way of exchange for a non-monetary asset(s) or a combination of monetary and non-monetary assets, has the entity measured the cost of such intangible asset at fair value? b) If the exchange transaction lacks commercial substance or the fair value of neither the asset received nor the asset given up is reliably measurable, has the entity measured the cost of such intangible asset acquired at the carrying amount of the asset given up?	38.45 38.46	_____ _____
20	If the entity is able to reliably measure the fair value of either the asset received or the asset given up, has the entity used the fair value of the asset given up to measure cost unless the fair value of the asset received is more clearly evident?	38.47	_____ _____
Internally generated goodwill
21	Has the entity ensured that internally generated goodwill is not recognised as an asset?	38.48	_____

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
Internally generated intangible assets in research phase
22	If the entity has an internal project in a research phase, is the expenditure on research phase of the project recognised as an expense by the entity when it is incurred?	38.51 38.52 38.54	_____ _____ _____
	(Note: Entity to ensure that no intangible asset is recognised in the research phase.)
Internally generated intangible assets in development phase
23	If the entity has an internally generated intangible asset in a development phase, is the expenditure on development phase of a project recognised as an intangible asset in the balance sheet only if the entity demonstrates all of the following:	38.57	_____ _____ _____
	a) The technical feasibility of completing the intangible asset so that it will be available for use or sale,		_____ _____
	b) Its intention to complete the intangible asset and use or sell it,		_____ _____
	c) Its ability to use or sell the intangible asset,		_____ _____
	d) How the intangible asset will generate probable future economic benefits. Among other things, the entity can demonstrate the existence of a market for the output of the intangible asset or the intangible asset itself or, if it is to be used internally, the usefulness intangible asset,		_____ _____
	e) The availability of adequate technical, financial and other resources to complete the development and to use or sell the intangible asset, and		_____ _____
	f) Its ability to measure reliably the expenditure attributable to the intangible asset during its development?		_____ _____
24	Has the entity included all directly attributable costs in determining the cost of internally generated intangible assets?	38.65 38.66	_____ _____
	(Note: Examples of such costs are:
	a) Costs of materials and services used or consumed in generating the intangible asset,		_____
	b) Costs of employee benefits (as defined in Ind AS 19) arising from the generation of the intangible asset,		_____
	c) Fees to register a legal right, and		_____

	Review of amortisation period and amortisation method
57	a) Has the entity reviewed at least at each financial year-end, the amortisation period and the amortisation method for an intangible asset of a finite useful life?	38.104	_____
	b) Has the entity ensured that the amortisation period is changed, if the expected useful life of the asset is different from previous estimates, or there has been a change in the expected pattern of consumption of future economic benefits embodied in the asset?		_____
	c) Has the entity ensured that changes are accounted for as changes in accounting estimates in accordance with Ind AS 8?		_____
	Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives
58	Has the entity ensured that it does not amortise an intangible asset with an indefinite useful life and instead tests such an intangible asset for impairment by comparing its recoverable amount with its carrying amount in accordance with Ind AS 36, Impairment of Assets :	38.107 38.108
	a) Annually, and		_____
	b) Whenever there is an indication that the intangible asset may be impaired?		_____

3. Additional considerations

Some of the key requirements from the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act)

- Schedule II of the 2013 Act permits revenue-based amortisation of intangible assets relating to toll roads created under the 'Build, Operate and Transfer (BOT)' or 'Build, Own, Operate and Transfer (BOOT)' or any other form of public-private partnership route in case of road projects, which is not permitted by Ind AS 38. Schedule II was amended in November 2016 to clarify that the relevant provisions of Ind AS 38 would apply to companies that follow Ind AS. These companies would therefore be unable to apply the revenue-based amortisation method to toll road related intangible assets, except as permitted in Ind AS 101. Ind AS 101 permits companies to continue applying a revenue-based method of amortisation for intangible assets relating to toll roads that were previously recognised in the financial statements for the period ending immediately before the beginning of the first Ind AS financial reporting period.

Therefore, companies that follow Ind AS would be unable to apply a revenue-based amortisation method to intangible assets relating to toll roads that are recognised after the beginning of the first year of adoption of Ind AS.

Significant carve-outs from IFRS

- Paragraph 7AA has been inserted to scope out the entity that opts to amortise the intangible assets arising from service concession arrangements in respect of toll roads recognised in the financial statements for the period ending immediately before the beginning of the first Ind AS reporting period as per the exception given in paragraph D22 of Appendix D to Ind AS 101. This should be read with Schedule II of the 2013 Act.

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

- No specific requirement has been prescribed under ICDS relating to this standard.

	Clarifications with respect to service concession arrangements including toll roads
Bulletin 3 (Issue 13)	Paragraph 7AA of Ind AS 38 read with paragraph D22 of Ind AS 101, specifically permits revenue based amortisation of intangible assets arising from service concession arrangements only in respect of toll roads recognised in the financial statements for the period ending immediately before the beginning of the first Ind AS reporting period.	38.7AA (Q 25)

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
	This method of amortisation is not permitted for intangible assets related to toll roads that are recognised subsequently. However, Schedule II to the 2013 Act permits revenue-based amortisation for such intangible assets without reference to any financial year, which seems inconsistent with the guidance in Ind AS 101. The ITFG clarified that in harmonisation of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014 and Ind AS 38 and Ind AS 101, principles of Ind AS 38 should be followed for all intangible assets relating to service concession arrangements including toll roads once Ind AS is applicable to an entity. Accordingly, revenue based amortisation is generally not expected to apply to such intangible assets. Subsequently, the amendment to Schedule II in November 2016 clarified that revenue based amortisation would not be permitted under Ind AS for toll road related intangible assets, except as specifically envisaged under Ind AS 101.

Bulletin 22 (Issue 3)	Accounting for mining lease rights as intangible assets after demonstration of technical feasibility and commercial viability of extracting a mineral resource Both Ind AS 16 and Ind AS 116, exclude from their respective scopes the accounting for mining for extraction of lime stone or similar such resources. Though, accounting guidance related to exploration for and evaluation of mineral resources is provided in Ind AS 106 however, this too does not apply after both the following characteristics of extracting a mineral resource are demonstrable: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The technical feasibility and • Commercial viability. In a given case, ABC Ltd. is a cement manufacturer. It has entered into a lease agreement with PQR Ltd. for rights for the extraction of lime stone (i.e. principal raw material for manufacture of cement). The following two issues arose related to extraction of mineral resources (such as lime stone), after the establishment of technical feasibility and commercial viability of extracting the mineral resource: a) Classification of mineral rights as assets The following observations were made: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The rights do not relate to a mine in exploration and evaluation stage but to a mine for which the technical feasibility and commercial viability of extracting the limestone has already been determined 	38.10 (Q.4)

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref (Q ref)
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The payment made (or to be made) by the entity for obtaining the mining lease rights is neither expenditure on 'development' nor on 'extraction' of minerals or other non-regenerative resources. In view of the above, the ITFG concluded that the mining rights under the current scenario would be classified as intangible assets and accordingly be accounted for as per Ind AS 38. b) Amortisation of mineral rights In accordance with the guidance provided by Ind AS 38, the depreciable amount of an intangible asset with a finite useful life is to be allocated on a systematic basis over its useful life. Further, Ind AS 38 requires that the amortisation method used should reflect the pattern in which the asset's future economic benefits are expected to be consumed by the entity. If that pattern cannot be determined reliably, the straight-line method should be used. Ind AS 38 recognises that a variety of amortisation methods could be used to allocate the depreciable amount of an asset on a systematic basis over its useful life. These methods include the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Straight-Line Method (SLM) The diminishing balance method and The Units Of Production (UOP) method. The method used is selected on the basis of the expected pattern of consumption of the expected future economic benefits embodied in the asset and is to be applied consistently from period to period, unless there is a change in the expected pattern of consumption of those future economic benefits. Also, Ind AS 38 recognises that in choosing an appropriate amortisation method, an entity could determine the predominant limiting factor that is inherent in the intangible asset. For example, the contract that sets out the entity's rights over its use of an intangible asset might specify the entity's use of the intangible asset as a predetermined number of years (i.e. time), as a number of units produced or as a fixed total amount of revenue to be generated. Identification of such a predominant limiting factor could serve as the starting point for the identification of the appropriate basis of amortisation, but another basis may be applied if it more closely reflects the expected pattern of consumption of economic benefits. In accordance with the above guidance, ITFG clarified that selection of an appropriate amortisation method for the mining lease requires consideration of the exact facts and circumstances of the case. This assessment would need to be made by the entity itself in the light of its detailed and in-depth knowledge of the facts and circumstances of its particular case.

Glossary

Amortisation is the systematic allocation of the depreciable amount of an intangible asset over its useful life.

An asset is a resource:

- a) Controlled by an entity as a result of past events, and
- b) From which future economic benefits are expected to flow to the entity.

Carrying amount is the amount at which an asset is recognised in the balance sheet after deducting any accumulated amortisation and accumulated impairment losses thereon.

Cost is the amount of cash or cash equivalents paid or the fair value of other consideration given to acquire an asset at the time of its acquisition or construction, or, when applicable, the amount attributed to that asset when initially recognised in accordance with the specific requirements of other Indian Accounting Standards, e.g. Ind AS 102, Share-based Payment.

Depreciable amount is the cost of an asset, or other amount substituted for cost, less its residual value.

Development is the application of research findings or other knowledge to a plan or design for the production of new or substantially improved materials, devices, products, processes, systems or services before the start of commercial production or use.

Entity-specific value is the present value of the cash flows an entity expects to arise from the continuing use of an asset and from its disposal at the end of its useful life or expects to incur when settling a liability.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. (See Ind AS 113, Fair Value Measurement.)

An impairment loss is the amount by which the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount.

An intangible asset is an identifiable non-monetary asset without physical substance.

Monetary assets are money held and assets to be received in fixed or determinable amounts of money.

Research is original and planned investigation undertaken with the prospect of gaining new scientific or technical knowledge and understanding.

The residual value of an intangible asset is the estimated amount that an entity would currently obtain from disposal of the asset, after deducting the estimated costs of disposal, if the asset were already of the age and in the condition expected at the end of its useful life.

Useful life is:

- a) The period over which an asset is expected to be available for use by an entity, or
- b) The number of production or similar units expected to be obtained from the asset by an entity.

Ind AS-40 Investment Property

1. Executive summary

- Investment property is property (land or building) held to earn rentals or for capital appreciation, or both.
- A portion of a dual-use property is classified as investment property only if that portion could be sold or leased out under a finance lease. Otherwise, the entire property is classified as property, plant and equipment unless the portion of the property used for own use is insignificant.
- If a lessor provides ancillary services and those services are a relatively insignificant component of the arrangement as a whole, then the property is classified as investment property.
- An owned investment property is initially recognised at cost. Transaction costs shall be included in the initial measurement.
- After initial recognition, an investment property is measured as follows:
 - In accordance with Ind AS 105, Non-current Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations, where it meets the criteria to be classified as held for sale (or are included in a disposal group that is classified as held for sale)
 - In accordance with Ind AS 116, *Leases*¹ where it is held by a lessee as a Right-Of-Use (ROU) asset and is not held for sale in accordance with Ind AS 105
 - In accordance with requirements of Ind AS 16, Property, Plant and Equipment for cost model in all other cases.
- Subsequent expenditure is capitalised only if it is probable that it will give rise to future economic benefits.
- Transfers to or from investment property are made only if there has been a change in the use of the property.
- The intention to sell an investment property without redevelopment does not justify reclassification from investment property into inventory, the property continues to be classified as investment property until disposal unless it is classified as held-for-sale.
- Disclosure of the fair value of all investment property is required.

New developments

- Reinstating the fair value option
 - On 12 June 2018, the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) issued an Exposure Draft (ED) proposing to provide entities with a choice for measurement of investment property using either the cost or the fair value model (bringing the provisions of Ind AS 40 in line with that of IAS 40, Investment Property). It further proposed to incorporate consequential changes that would be brought by application of Ind AS 116, Leases. The ED proposed to clarify on the following aspects:
 - Choice between cost model and fair value model: The ED proposed to clarify that a change in the accounting policy (from the cost model to the fair value model or vice versa) would be permitted if such change would provide reliable and more relevant information about the company's financial performance, position or cash flows. Further, where entities subsequently choose a fair value model, they would be required to measure all their investment properties/ROU assets at fair value, and measure the gain or loss arising from a change in the fair value in the statement of profit and loss for the period in which it arises.

¹ The Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Amendment Rules, 2019 notified Ind AS 116, Leases applicable to annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 April 2019. As a consequence of this notification, Ind AS 17, Leases has been superseded. Accordingly, the checklist has been amended.

- Transfers and Disposals: The ED also clarified the accounting for transfer of assets from/to investment properties/accounting for replacement of a part of the investment property that were measured using the fair value model.
- Effective date and transition: ICAI proposed to make these amendments applicable from 1 April 2020². Transitional provisions pertaining to these are given below:
 - Entities who had in earlier periods, in a public domain disclosed the fair value of the investment properties which were then measured under the cost model, have an option to adjust the opening balance of retained earnings for the earliest period so presented and restate the comparative information for those periods.
 - In other cases, the opening balance of retained earnings for the period in which the entity first elects to apply the fair value model would be adjusted. However, comparative information would not be restated (this fact should be disclosed).

² Subject to notification by MCA.

3. Additional considerations

Some of the key requirements from the Companies Act, 2013 (2013 Act)

- There are no specific provisions in the 2013 Act relating to this standard.

Significant carve-outs from IFRS

- IAS 40, Investment Property permits both cost model and fair value model (except in some situations) for measurement of investment properties after initial recognition. Ind AS 40 permits only the cost model.
- IFRS permits treatment of property interest held in an operating lease as investment property, if the definition of investment property is otherwise met and fair value model is applied. In such cases, the operating lease would be accounted as if it were a finance lease. Since Ind AS 40 prohibits the use of fair value model, this treatment is prohibited under Ind AS 40.

Some of the key requirements of the Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS)

- No specific requirements have been prescribed under ICDS relating to this standard.

Some of the clarifications provided by the Ind AS Technical Facilitation Group (ITFG)

ITFG Bulletin	Clarification provided	Ind AS ref. (Q ref)
Bulletin 12 (Issue 1)	Application of revaluation model for PPE For further discussion on this clarification, please refer Ind AS 16 checklist.	40.20, 40.30, 40.56, Ind AS 16 (Q 12 a)

Glossary

Carrying amount is the amount at which an asset is recognised in the balance sheet.

Cost is the amount of cash or cash equivalents paid or the fair value of other consideration given to acquire an asset at the time of its acquisition or construction or, where applicable, the amount attributed to that asset when initially recognised in accordance with the specific requirements of other Ind ASs, e.g. Ind AS 102, Share-based Payment.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. (See Ind AS 113, Fair Value Measurement).

Investment property is property (land or a building-or part of a building-or both) held (by the owner or by the lessee as a right-of-use asset) to earn rentals or for capital appreciation or both, rather than for:

- a) Use in the production or supply of goods or services or for administrative purposes, or
- b) Sale in the ordinary course of business.

Owner-occupied property is property held (by the owner or by the lessee as a right-of-use asset) for use in the production or supply of goods or services or for administrative purposes.

Ind AS-41 Agriculture

1. Executive summary

- Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 41, Agriculture shall be applied to account for the following when they relate to agricultural activity:
 - Biological assets,
 - Agricultural produce at the point of harvest, and
 - Conditional and unconditional government grants relating to a biological asset.
- Living animals or plants are in the scope of the standard if they are subject to a process of management of biological transformation.
- Biological assets are measured at Fair Value Less Costs To Sell (FVLCTS) unless it is not possible to measure fair value reliably, in which case they are measured at cost.
- Gains and losses from changes in FVLCTS are recognised in profit or loss.
- Agriculture produce harvested from a biological asset is measured at FVLCTS at the point of harvest. After harvest, Ind AS 2, Inventories generally applies.

2. Checklist

Sr. no.	Particulars	Ind AS / Schedule III* Ref.	Compliance [Yes/No/NA]
Scope
1	Has the entity applied this standard to the following agriculture activity:	41.1
	a) Biological assets,		_____
	b) Agricultural produce at the point of harvest, and		_____
	c) Government grants related to biological asset?		_____
2	Has the entity excluded the following items from the scope of this standard and applied the relevant Ind AS instead:	41.2
	a) Land related to agricultural activity, (refer Ind AS 16 Property, Plant and Equipment and Ind AS 40 Investment Property)		_____
	b) Bearer plants related to agricultural activity, (refer Ind AS 16)		_____
	c) Government grants related to bearer plants, (refer Ind AS 20 Accounting for Government Grants and Disclosure of Government Assistance), and		_____
	d) Intangible assets related to agricultural activity ?(refer Ind AS 38 Intangible Assets)		_____
	e) Right-Of-Use (ROU) assets arising from a lease of land related to agricultural activity (refer Ind AS 116, Leases ¹)?		_____
	(Note: The standard is applicable for produce growing on bearer plants described in Q 2(b).)
Recognition
3	With respect to biological asset and agricultural produce, has the entity recognised such items as an asset only if:	41.10
	a) The entity controls the asset as a result of past events,		_____
	b) It is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the entity, and		_____
	c) The fair value or cost of the asset can be reliably measured?		_____

¹ The Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Amendment Rules, 2019 notified Ind AS 116, Leases for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 April 2019. As a consequence of this notification, Ind AS 17, Leases has been superseded. This checklist has been amended. An entity should apply this amendment when it applies Ind AS 116.

Glossary

Agricultural activity is the management by an entity of the biological transformation and harvest of biological assets for sale or for conversion into agricultural produce or into additional biological assets.

Agricultural produce is the harvested product of the entity's biological assets.

Bearer Plant is a living plant that,

- a) Is used in the production or supply of agricultural produce
- b) Is expected to bear produce for more than one period, and
- c) Has a remote likelihood of being sold as agricultural produce, except for incidental scrap sales.

Biological asset is a living animal or plant.

Biological transformation comprises the processes of growth, degeneration, production, and procreation that cause qualitative or quantitative changes in a biological asset.

Costs to sell are the incremental costs directly attributable to the disposal of an asset, excluding finance costs and income taxes.

A group of biological assets is an aggregation of similar living animals or plants.

Harvest is the detachment of produce from a biological asset or the cessation of a biological asset's life processes.

Carrying amount is the amount at which an asset is recognised in the balance sheet.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

Consumable biological assets are those that are to be harvested as agricultural produce or sold as biological assets.

Bearer biological assets are those other than consumable biological assets.

Mature biological assets are those that have attained harvestable specifications (for consumable biological assets) or are able to sustain regular harvests (for bearer biological assets).
