Despite challenges, the Thai economy continues to expand, with support from public investment and the tourism industry. Currently, the country is undergoing developments that would position it as an investment hub for the region, and is employing strategies to make starting business in Thailand easier and more attractive.

The government launched the Thailand 4.0 strategy to allow the country to overcome several economic challenges by using new growth engines to build economic prosperity, social security and sustainability. Economic and social reforms are taking place to ensure sustainable development and political stability. Moreover, numerous infrastructure developments are in the pipeline to make the country more investment friendly.

As part of Thailand 4.0, the government earmarked the Eastern Economic Corridor (EEC) as a pilot area-based development zone to attract investors. Within the EEC, certain previous restrictions for foreign investors are lifted, including the reduction of certain tax and regulatory requirements. The EEC targets 10 key industries including digital, medical services, logistics and aviation and smart electronics.

We expect continuous growth as Thailand continues to develop and promote investments.

MOVING TO THAILAND 4.0

The government is implementing a number of measures to shift the country from a production-based to a service-based economy, promoting technology, creativity and innovation in the industries under focus. Successful implementation of the Thailand 4.0 policies could support the country’s development as a regional hub.

Due to its abundance of agricultural products, decent infrastructure and road network, combined with investment promotion incentives, Thailand offers attractive investment opportunities.

Regulatory reform

- The 20-year National Strategy acts as a mandatory guide for policy-making with the aim of creating a stable development path over the next two decades
- Targets in the 2012-2016 iteration included a score of at least 5 in the Transparency International Corruption Perceptions Index as well as placing priority on national security and public administration reform

Better intellectual property rights regime

- Enacted amendments to the Trade Secret Act to cover online copyright infringement; and the Copyright Act which substantially reduced the penalties for trade secret disclosure by officers
- Amended the Trademarks Act and introduced a new trademark filing system to enable Thailand to accede to the Madrid Protocol in 2017. The amendments include streamlining the trademark registration process and prohibiting illegal refiling, in order to bring the country’s regulatory regime up to date with technological changes

Sustained growth

- Mainly supported by strong external demand, a growing population and government policies aimed at boosting consumption and investment, including ramping up public spending on infrastructure\(^6\)

Digital economy

- Thailand aims to reform five key industries – automotive, electronics, affluent medical and wellness tourism, agriculture, and biotechnology – as part of its ‘S-Curve’ economic strategy, and is now working on five more including robotics, aviation and logistics, biofuels and biochemicals, digital industry and medical services
- The government has created new digital innovation-based services and digital infrastructure to boost GDP with the goal of becoming an innovation-driven economy by 2036\(^7\)

Low unemployment rate

- Predominantly youthful workforce with basic literacy and numeracy skills
- Has a primary education enrolment rate of 96.6% with positive outlook for basic skills\(^8\)
- Human resource development to serve next-generation industries according to Thailand 4.0 policy. This will include up-skilling labor and recruiting more foreign workers to help develop Thailand’s existing and new industries such as robotics, aviation and logistics, biofuels and biochemical, digital, and medicine\(^9\)

Tax incentives

- Parliament passed an amendment to the Revenue Code permanently reducing the corporate income tax rate to 20%. The initial rate was reduced from 30% to 23% in 2012, and to 20% in 2013, helping to support Thailand to remain competitive in the ASEAN region
- To stimulate the Thai economy, a temporary reduction of VAT from 10% to 7% has been extended
- A similar trend has been seen in respect to personal taxation
- Tax incentives available for:
  - Board of investment incentives
  - International headquarter and international trade center incentives
  - Small Medium Enterprises
  - Accelerated depreciation on newly acquired equipment
- Other factors:
  - No controlled foreign corporation rules
  - Foreign and domestic dividends exemption subject to conditions
  - 60 double tax agreements in place
  - No indirect transfer rules
Trade agreements

- Thailand has signed more than ten trade agreements (including both bilateral and multilateral)

DRIVING GROWTH THROUGH INNOVATION

For Thailand to become an innovation-driven economy by 2036, the Thai government initiated the “Thailand 4.0” policy for sustainable growth. The economy is currently in a good position, with gradual economic improvements supported by a domestic infrastructure spending drive, and the political outlook in the near-term is stable.19

Driven by recovering exports, an improving farm sector and rising private consumption, Thailand’s GDP growth in the first quarter of 2017 was at 3.3%, the fastest in three quarters. Consequently, the forecast for 2017 and 2018 GDP growth is revised up from 3.0% to 3.6% and 3.4%, respectively. This is mainly supported by an improved tourism sector, continued government spending and higher household purchasing power.20

Emerging industries

Food, Agriculture and Bio-Technology21
- Smart farming systems are a key development of agricultural startups
- Technology-driven farming startups will create economic drivers to support the country’s digital ecosystem

Health and Medical Technology22
- Develop biomedical vaccines, Thai herb industry, as well as industry for aging population
- To be the ‘Medical Hub’ of ASEAN by 2025

Robotics and Smart Devices and Mechatronics23
- Transform industries requiring high-skilled labor and service sectors through robotics technology
Digital Industries

- Focus on Internet of Things, digital analytics and cybersecurity
- Apply digital technologies in smart cities in key provinces such as Chiang Mai, Phuket and Nakorn Nayok

Infrastructure and supported industries

- Develop new growth hubs such as EEC which covers Rayong, Chonburi and Chachoengsao provinces
- Offer incentives to support EEC as an important center for trade, investment, regional transportation and a strategic gateway to Asia
