“Deduction of tax from payment made to agent, etc.

107D. (1) Where a company, in this section referred to as the payer, is liable to make payments in monetary form to an agent, a dealer or a distributor at any time in a basis year for a year of assessment arising from sales, transactions or schemes carried out by that agent, dealer or distributor, the payer shall upon paying or crediting such payments deduct therefrom tax at the rate of two per cent of the payments on account of tax which is or may be payable by that agent, dealer or distributor for any year of assessment and, whether or not that tax is so deducted, shall within thirty days after paying or crediting such payments render an account and pay the amount of that tax to the Director General:

Provided that the Director General may—

- (a) give notice in writing to the payer requiring the payer to deduct and pay tax at some other rates or to pay or credit the payments without deduction of tax; or
- (b) under special circumstances, allow extension of time for tax deducted to be paid over.

(2) Subsection (1) shall apply if the total sum of payments, whether in monetary form or otherwise, received by that agent, dealer or distributor from the payer in the immediately preceding basis year for a year of assessment arising from sales, transactions or schemes carried out by that agent, dealer or distributor is more than one hundred thousand ringgit.

(3) Where the payer fails to pay any amount due from him under subsection (1), the amount which the payer fails to pay shall be increased by a sum equal to ten per cent of the amount which the payer fails to pay, and that amount and the increased sum shall be a debt due from the payer to the Government and shall be payable forthwith to the Director General.

(4) Pursuant to this section, where any amount is paid to the Director General by the payer or recovered by the Director General from the payer—

- (a) the Director General shall apply the amount paid or recovered under subsection (1) towards payment of the tax payable for any year of assessment by that agent, dealer or distributor to whom the payer was liable to make payments in monetary form to which that amount relates; and
- (b) if the payer has not deducted any amount upon making the payments with respect to which the amount relates, the payer may recover the amount from that agent, dealer or distributor as a debt due to the payer.

(5) Notwithstanding the foregoing subsections, where the amount due from the payer under subsection (1) is increased by a sum under subsection (3), the Director General may in his discretion for any good cause shown remit the whole or any part of that sum and, where the amount remitted has been paid, the Director General shall repay the same.

(6) In this section, “agent”, “dealer” or “distributor” means any individual resident who is authorized by a company to act as its agent, dealer or distributor, and who receives payments, whether in monetary form or otherwise, from the company arising from sales, transactions or schemes carried out by him as its agent, dealer or distributor.”.

New section 109DA

21. The principal Act is amended by inserting after section 109D the following section:

“Deduction of tax on distribution of income of unit trust to unit holder other than individual

109DA. (1) This section shall only apply to income of a unit trust that is a retail money market fund exempt under paragraph 35A of Schedule 6 in respect of income distributed to a unit holder other than an individual.

(2) Where a unit trust, in this section referred to as the payer, distributes income which is derived from Malaysia to a unit holder, the payer shall upon distributing the income, deduct therefrom tax at the rate applicable to such income and shall within one month after distributing such income, render an account and pay the amount of that tax to the Director General:

Provided that the Director General may under special circumstances allow extension of time for tax deducted to be paid over.

(3) Where the payer fails to pay any amount due from him under subsection (2), that amount which the payer fails to pay shall be increased by a sum equal to ten per cent of that amount, and the amount which the payer fails to pay and the increased sum shall be a debt due from the payer to the Government and shall be payable forthwith to the Director General.

(4) Pursuant to this section, where any amount is paid to the Director General by the payer or recovered by the Director General from the payer—

(a) in relation to a resident unit holder, the Director General shall, in the manner provided by section 110, apply that amount towards payment of the tax charged on the unit holder to whom the payer distributes income to which that amount relates; and

(b) if the payer has not deducted that amount in distributing the income under subsection (2) with respect to which that amount relates, the payer may recover that amount from that unit holder as a debt due to the payer.

(5) Notwithstanding the foregoing subsections, where the amount due from the payer under subsection (2) is increased by a sum under subsection (3), the Director General may in his discretion for any good cause shown remit the whole or any part of that sum and, where the amount remitted has been paid, the Director General shall repay the same.

(6) Section 110 shall apply mutatis mutandis to tax deducted under this section other than to tax deducted in respect of a non-resident unit holder.”.

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

This Bill seeks to amend the Income Tax Act 1967 (“Act 53”), the Real Property Gains Tax Act 1976 (“Act 169”), the Stamp Act 1949 (“Act 378”), the Petroleum (Income Tax) Act 1967 (“Act 543”), the Labuan Business Activity Tax Act 1990 (“Act 445”), the Promotion of Investments Act 1986 (“Act 327”), the Finance Act 2012 (“Act 742”) and the Finance Act 2018 (“Act 812”).

AMENDMENTS TO THE INCOME TAX ACT 1967

Chapter II of this Bill seeks to amend the Income Tax Act 1967.

2. Clause 4 seeks to amend subsection 5(1A) of Act 53 to provide that any amount or income received by a non-resident person which is subject to deduction of tax under new section 109DA of Act 53 is disregarded for the purpose of ascertaining his chargeable income. Currently, only the amount or income which is subject to deduction of tax under section 109C, 109D, 109E or 109G of Act 53 is disregarded for the purpose of ascertaining the chargeable income.

This amendment comes into operation on 1 January 2022.

3. Clause 5 seeks to amend subsection 6(1) of Act 53.

Paragraph 5(b) seeks to introduce new paragraph 6(1)(o) into Act 53 to provide that the income of a unit holder other than an individual which consists of interest distributed or credited by a unit trust that is a retail money market fund referred to in subsection 61(1A) of Act 53 is subject to the tax rate as specified under Part XIX of Schedule 1 to Act 53.

This amendment comes into operation on 1 January 2022.

Paragraph 5(b) also seeks to introduce new paragraph 6(1)(p) into Act 53 to provide that the gross income of a person who is a resident which is received in Malaysia from outside Malaysia from 1 January 2022 until 30 June 2022 is subject to the tax rate as specified under Part XX of Schedule 1 to Act 53.

This amendment comes into operation from 1 January 2022 until 30 June 2022.

4. Clause 6 seeks to amend paragraph 6D(3)(c) of Act 53 to extend the period of commencement of operation for a company or a limited liability partnership from 31 December 2021 to 31 December 2022 for the company or limited liability partnership to be eligible for the tax rebate.

This amendment comes into operation on 1 January 2022.

5. Clause 7 seeks to introduce new paragraph 39(1)(s) into Act 53.

The proposed new paragraph 39(1)(s) of Act 53 seeks to provide that deduction shall not be allowed on expenditure relating to any payment in monetary form made to an agent, a dealer or a distributor which is subject to withholding tax under the proposed new section 107D of Act 53 if the withholding tax is not deducted and paid in accordance with that section.

This amendment has effect for the year of assessment 2022 and subsequent years of assessment.

6. Clause 8 seeks to amend subsection 44(5F) of Act 53 to extend the period from seven to ten consecutive years for any amount of losses ascertained under subsection 44(4) or (5) of Act 53 for a year of assessment as a deduction for the purposes of section 43 of Act 53.

This amendment is deemed to have effect for the year of assessment 2019 and subsequent years of assessment.

7. Clause 9 seeks to amend subsection 46(1) of Act 53.

Paragraph 9(a) seeks to amend subparagraph 46(1)(f)(iii) of Act 53 to increase the limit of personal deduction for payment of any course taken for the purpose of upskilling or self-enhancement from one thousand ringgit to two thousand ringgit.

This amendment has effect for the years of assessment 2022 and 2023.

Paragraph 9(b) seeks to substitute paragraph 46(1)(h) of Act 53.

The proposed new subparagraphs 46(1)(h)(i) and (ii) of Act 53 seeks to provide for personal deduction for expenditure for a complete medical examination and expenditure for Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19) detection test including COVID-19 self-detection test expended by an individual on himself, his spouse or child.

This amendment has effect for the year of assessment 2021 and subsequent years of assessment.

The proposed new subparagraph 46(1)(h)(iii) of Act 53 seeks to provide for personal deduction for expenditure for mental health examination or consultation expended by an individual on himself, his spouse or child.

This amendment has effect for the year of assessment 2022 and subsequent years of assessment.

Paragraph 9(c) seeks to amend subparagraph 46(1)(n) of Act 53 to increase the limit for personal deduction from two hundred and fifty ringgit to three hundred and fifty ringgit and to extend the scope of the existing personal deduction to contributions made or suffered by an individual to the Social Security Organisation in accordance with the Employment Insurance System Act 2017 [Act 800].

This amendment has effect for the year of assessment 2022 and subsequent years of assessment.

Paragraph 9(d) seeks to amend paragraph (c) of the proviso to paragraph 46(1)(r) of Act 53 to extend the period from the year of assessment 2021 to the year of assessment 2023 for relief regarding the payment of child care fees to a child care centre registered with the Director General of Social Welfare under the Child Care Centre Act 1984 [Act 308] or a kindergarten registered under the Education Act 1996 [Act 550] for a child aged six years and below.

This amendment has effect for the years of assessment 2022 and 2023.

Paragraph 9(e) seeks to substitute paragraph 46(1)(s) of Act 53.

The proposed new subparagraphs 46(1)(s)(i) and (ii) of Act 53 seeks to extend the period until 31 December 2022 in relation to personal deduction for the payment of accommodation at premises registered with the Commissioner of Tourism under the Tourism Industry Act 1992 [Act 482] and entrance fee to a tourist attraction.
