The Global Goals for Sustainable Development: 2015-2030

What does it mean for businesses?

The Global Goals are an opportunity for businesses to grow and profit by collaborating with others to create a world which is more prosperous, inclusive, sustainable and resilient

“The SDGs provide all businesses with a new lens through which to translate the world’s needs and ambitions into business solutions. These solutions will enable companies to better manage their risks, anticipate consumer demand, build positions in growth markets, secure access to needed resources, and strengthen their supply chains, while moving the world towards a sustainable and inclusive development path” International Chamber of Commerce, July 2017

Global imperative

- The impacts of extreme poverty such as hunger, disease, unemployment and conflict are becoming ever more apparent
- Weak governance, lack of infrastructure and rising inequalities are limiting economic and social development
- Natural resource depletion and environmental degradation are contributing to water, food and energy crises

Why is this happening now?

- There is growing consensus from government, private sector and civil society actors that it is in our collective interest to collaborate to improve the state of our world
- 193 member States of the United Nations met in September 2015 to adopt 17 new Global Goals and 169 targets for the sustainable development of humanity and our planet over the fifteen year period to 2030

Why these Global Goals may be relevant for your organization

- Achieving the Global Goals would open up $12 trillion of market opportunities and create 380 million jobs by 2030, across the four key systems (food and agriculture, cities, energy and materials, and health and well-being) examined by the Business and Sustainable Development Commission
- The integration of relevant Goals into business strategies and sharing of knowledge, expertise, technology and financial resources to progress ‘the global partnership’ to meet the Global Goals, may require a strategy review
- Goals are wide ranging including ending poverty and hunger, ensuring sustainable consumption and production, and promoting peaceful and inclusive societies which may result in organizations reviewing their procurement and people policies
- The World Benchmarking Alliance is developing free, publicly available benchmarks to measure and compare performance of companies on the Sustainable Development Goals, to inform stakeholders’ investment and other economic decisions

Potential opportunities for growth

- New and expanding multi-stakeholder partnerships offer opportunities for innovation and growth
- Companies acting responsibly and driving inclusive sustainable development can enhance their reputation with customers, clients, investors and other stakeholders
- More enabling environments open up new markets

Potential impact for business in getting it wrong

- Competitive disadvantage as companies driving sustainable development gain first access to new markets and opportunities
- Lack of security of access to natural resources including land, water and energy
- Brand and reputational damage could lose support from customers, clients, investors and governments

Boardroom Questions

- 1 How can we strengthen our value creation strategy so that by applying a 'shared value' lens we identify the business opportunity in addressing economic, social and environmental challenges (thereby increasing our contribution to the Global Goals)?
- 2 Have we considered whether our procurement and employment strategies are aligned to the Global Goals?
- 3 How are we managing our company's exposure to water, energy, food, climate and social risks?
- 4 Have we issued a statement on human rights and developed a strategy to 'do no harm' and also proactively uphold human rights across our sphere of influence?
- 5 What opportunity do the emerging middle classes in high growth markets represent for our business?
- 6 How will progress towards the Global Goals affect market opportunities and the competitor landscape?
- 7 How can we innovate to reach customers/clients on low incomes in our home country and/or overseas?
- 8 How do we collaborate with other organizations in our industry to develop and adopt good practice principles and standards to drive positive change?
- 9 How are we fostering a culture of innovation and collaboration to seize new multi-stakeholder partnership opportunities?
- 10 Does our workforce have the diversity, skills and attributes to innovate and succeed in our changing world?
- 11 Do we have the right systems and processes in place to more effectively tell our value creation story?

What actions can the Board consider?

-  Protect and enhance our organization's reputation by acting responsibly in pursuit of inclusive, sustainable prosperity
-  Review, and where necessary improve, systems to measure, manage and report the company's contribution to growing inclusive, sustainable prosperity – through integrated or supplementary reporting
-  Conduct a thorough refresh of our stakeholder, risk and value creation analyses to ensure our strategy reflects the changing social, environmental and policy landscape
-  Ensure we have the values, resource, knowledge and capability to implement the actions above
-  Assess opportunities to collaborate with other businesses, governments, civil society, the United Nations, development banks and academia in order to drive innovation and shared value
