Legislative update: House passes revised version of IRS administration bill

The U.S. House of Representatives today passed “by voice vote” a revised version of an IRS administration bill—H.R. 3151, the “Taxpayer First Act.”

In April 2019, the House passed an earlier version of an IRS administration bill, H.R. 1957. That bill included a “free file” measure for income tax returns. Read TaxNewsFlash

The version of the bill passed by the House today is similar to the bill passed in April 2019 but does not include the “free file” provision.

The Joint Committee on Taxation today released a revenue estimate relating to H.R. 3151: JCX-24-19
