

State and Local Tax Extensions in response to COVID-19

Current as of April 28, 2020 5:00 pm eastern

NOTE: This table provides a summary of published guidance on extensions of time to file various state tax returns in light of the novel coronavirus COVID-19. Please note that there will likely be additional developments that are released after this publication date or otherwise not captured here. This document does not express KPMG's opinion on the likelihood of whether late-filing or other penalties may be waived.

Jurisdiction	Tax Type	State Guidance on Extended Filing or Payment Dates
Alabama	Property Tax	The Commissioner of Revenue issued an order providing that motor vehicle registrations and motor vehicle property tax payments due in March 2020 have been automatically extended through April 15, 2020. The extensions includes vehicles acquired needing to be registered within 20 days, if purchased between March 17 and April 15, 2020. Penalties associated with vehicle registrations and renewals and vehicle property taxes will not be charged until April 16, 2020. https://revenue.alabama.gov/2020/03/order-of-the-commissioner-of-revenue/
Alabama	Indirect Tax	The Commissioner of the Department of Revenue issued an order providing a waiver of late penalties for small businesses with monthly retail sales during the previous calendar year averaging $62,500 or less and that are unable to pay sales and use tax for the periods of February, March, and April 2020. Late payment penalties will be waived through June 1, 2020. On March 19, the Commissioner of Revenue issued an order announcing that businesses registered with the Department under NAICS code 72 (establishments providing lodging and/or preparing meals, snacks, and beverages for immediate consumption) are granted a waiver of late payment penalties for their February, March and April 2020 state sales tax liabilities through June 1, 2020. On March 20, 2020, the Commissioner also issued an order providing state transient occupancy (lodging) taxpayers with a waiver of late payment penalties for their state lodging tax liabilities for the February, March and April 2020 liabilities through June 1, 2020. https://revenue.alabama.gov/coronavirus-covid-19-outbreak-updates/
Alabama	Income Tax	The Alabama Department of Revenue announced that the state income tax filing due date is extended from April 15, 2020, to July 15, 2020. Taxpayers can also defer state income tax payments, including 2020 estimated payments, due on or after April 1, 2020 and before July 15, 2020 to July 15, 2020 without penalties and interest, regardless of the amount owed. This deferment applies to all taxpayers, including individuals, trusts and estates, corporations and other non-corporate tax filers. Other taxes included in the deadline extension are corporate income tax, the Financial Institution Excise Tax (FIET), and the Business Privilege Tax (BPT). Any pass-through entity required to file a 2019 composite income tax return and remit payments by March 15, 2020 on behalf of its non-resident members has an extension to July 15, 2020.
Alaska	Income Tax	Under Senate Bill 241, the due date for tax returns and payments for all tax types, other than Oil and Gas Production Taxes, is July 15, 2020. This extension will apply to returns (includes amended and information returns), reports, and payments due between March 31, 2020 and July 14, 2020. Because the tax deadlines are extended, penalty or interest will be not be Arizona	Income Tax	In a General Tax Notice, the Department of Revenue announced that it was moving the deadline for filing 2019 calendar year state income tax returns and paying taxes due with the returns from April 15 to July 15, 2020. The extension applies to individual, corporate and fiduciary returns, and taxpayers will not be assessed a late filing or payment penalty if returns and payments are submitted by July 15. The deadlines for estimated payments remains the same. Taxpayers requiring an extension beyond July 15 should file a state extension request unless they have previously received a federal extension—in which case, no state request is necessary.

Arkansas	Personal Income Tax	The deadline for filing and paying individual income taxes has been extended to July 15, 2020. In addition to personal income tax returns, Subchapter S, Fiduciary and Estate, Partnership Income Tax and Composite return due dates and payments are also extended. This extension does not apply to 2020 estimated Individual Income Tax payments due on April 15 or June 15. https://www.dfa.arkansas.gov/news/details/covid-19-dfa-frequently-asked-questions
California	Income Tax	The FTB has announced extensions of time to file and pay for calendar year taxpayers and fiscal year taxpayers. For calendar year filers with returns or payments due in March or April, the COVID-19 due date to file and pay is July 15, 2020. For fiscal year filers with filing or payment due dates between March 15, 2020 and July 15, 2020, the COVID-19 due date is July 15, 2020. New COVID-19 estimated payment due dates are July 15, 2020. Per the FTB, taxpayers claiming the special COVID-19 relief should write the name of the state of emergency (for example, COVID-19) in black ink at the top of the tax return to alert FTB of the special extension period. If taxpayers are e-filing, they should follow the software instructions to enter disaster information. https://www.ftb.ca.gov/about-ftb/newsroom/covid-19/help-with-covid-19.html
California	Indirect Tax	In accordance with an executive order of Governor Newsom, the CDTFA announced on March 31, 2020 an extension for all returns and payments that are due on or before July 31, 2020. The extension applies to all taxes and fees administered by the CDTFA and is available to businesses filing a return for less than $1 million in tax. For qualifying taxpayers, first quarter 2020 sales tax returns (and any payment accompanying the return) are now due on July 31, 2020. Taxpayers are not required to file a request for extension or a request for relief from penalty or interest, and this automatic extension will remain in effect through the reporting of taxes and fees due on or before July 31, 2020. The governor's order also provides taxpayers with an additional 60 days to file refund claims with the CDTFA. Taxpayers seeking an appeal of a CDTFA tax determination will have an additional 60 days to file the request with the Office of Tax Appeals.
California	Indirect Tax	On April 2, 2020, the CDTFA announced small business taxpayers (those with less than $5 million in taxable annual sales) can enter into a 12-month, interest-free, payment plan for up to $50,000 of sales and use tax liability. Qualifying sales and use taxpayers with deferred liabilities up to $50,000 will pay their tax due in 12 equal monthly installments. No interest or penalties will be assessed against the liability. Payment plan requests can be made through the CDTFA's online services system in the coming months.
California	Property Tax	Property Tax – On April 4, 2020, the state Association of Counties and Association of County Treasurers and Tax Collectors released a statement stating that California counties would use their existing authority to cancel penalties and other charges for property owners that are unable to pay their property taxes that are due on April 10 as a result of circumstances caused by COVID-19 on a case-by-case basis. Property owners that can pay or have not been affected, including international corporations and out-of-state landlords, still need to pay on time to avoid penalties.

California	Payroll Tax	Employers experiencing a hardship as a result of COVID-19 may request up to a 60-day extension of time from the Employment Development Department (EDD) to file their state payroll reports and/or deposit state payroll taxes without penalty or interest. A written request for extension must be received within 60 days from the original delinquent date of the payment or return. https://www.edd.ca.gov/payroll_taxes/emergency_and_disaster_assistance_for_employers.htm
California: City of San Francisco	Various	The Treasurer and Tax Collector's office of the City of San Francisco announced that quarterly estimated tax payments of the Gross Receipts Tax, Payroll Expense Tax, Commercial Rents Tax, and Homelessness Gross Receipts Tax that would otherwise be due on April 30, 2020, are waived for taxpayers or combined groups that had combined San Francisco gross receipts in calendar year 2019 of $10,000,000 or less. These quarterly estimated tax liabilities must instead be paid along with annual tax payments for tax year 2020, which will generally be due by March 1, 2021. In addition, the March 31, 2020 due date for license fees collected on behalf of the Department of Public Health, Fire Department, Police Department, Entertainment Commission and the Office of Cannabis will be extended to June 30, 2020. https://sftreasurer.org/covid-19-response-deferral-business-taxes-and-license-fees
Colorado	Income Tax	Gov. Polis has requested that the Department of Revenue extend certain state income tax payment deadlines to July 15, 2020, giving taxpayers the option to make income tax payments for tax years ending in 2019 and 2020 that would normally be due between April 15, 2020 and July 15, 2020, by July 15, 2020. All income tax returns that were required to be filed by April 15, 2020 are granted a six-month extension, and are due on or before October 15, 2020. In addition, the deadline for estimated payments has also been extended for the 2020 tax year. The penalties for estimated payments are also waived until July 15, 2020. This extension and these waivers do not apply to payments due pursuant to a notice of deficiency, notice of final determination, demand for payment, installment agreement, closing agreement, or other agreement or requirement to pay.
Colorado	Sales Tax	Colorado retailers that are required to file a sales tax return and remit tax on April 20, 2020 may extend their filing and remittance deadline to May 20, 2020 without any assessment of penalty or interest on the return or the amount owed, provide that the return and full amount due are made by May 20, 2020. This is a one-time extension of the April 20, 2020 filing and applies for state and state-administered sales taxes. The extension does not apply to self-collecting home-rule taxing jurisdictions. A retailer that does not file the return and remit full payment on or before April 20, 2020 will not be able to retain the allowed vendor/service fee. https://www.colorado.gov/pacific/tax/sales-tax-deadlines
Colorado	Property Tax	On April 2, 2020 the Governor of Colorado issued an order suspending 2020 filing deadlines for business personal property, taxable natural resource property, and taxable oil and gas property. The filing deadlines have been extended from April 15, 2020 to June 15, 2020.
Connecticut	Income Tax	The deadline for filing certain tax returns and tax payments due between March 15, 2020 and July 15, 2020 is extended until July 15, 2020. The affected tax types include: individual income, trusts and estates, pass-through entity, corporation, estate, gift, and unrelated business income. The extension of time to pay extends to estimated payments. A chart details all the extended returns and payment.
Connecticut	Indirect	The Department of Revenue Services announced on March 30 that taxpayers with $150,000 or less in Sales Tax or Room Occupancy tax liabilities may request are eligible for a 30-day extension of the time period allowed to file and pay their March and April obligations. A taxpayer filing both sales tax and room occupancy tax returns will determine eligibility for the relief separately. The return and payment due March 31 is now due April 30 and the April 30 return and payment is due May 31, 2020.
Connecticut	Property Tax	Governor Lamont of Connecticut issued an executive order requiring each municipality to offer either or both of two newly established programs to assist eligible property taxpayers. The legislative body of each municipality shall determine the program or programs in which it will participate and notify the state Office of Management and Budget by April 25 of its choice. One program offers a 90-day deferment of property tax payments, and the other offers a low interest rate (3 percent APR) program for delinquent property tax payments. Escrowed tax payments must still be made timely. Details of the programs are provided in the order

Delaware	Income	Personal income, corporate tentative, and fiduciary income tax returns are now due July 15, 2020. Estimated personal income tax payments that are due on April 30, 2020 are extended to July 15, 2020. https://revenuefiles.delaware.gov/2020/TIM2020-01_COVID-19_filing_extension.pdf
Delaware	Unclaimed Property	On February 20th, the Delaware Secretary of State mailed letters to over 100 companies perceived as non-compliant with Delaware's unclaimed property law to "invite" them to enroll in the state's voluntary disclosure agreement (VDA) program. Per Delaware law, companies that do not enroll in the VDA program within 60 days of the mailing date of the letter will eligible for an audit examination by the state. However, recognizing the challenges many companies are facing in light of the COVID-19 pandemic, including difficulties with receipt and distribution of hard copy mail throughout organizations that are largely shuttered due to state orders, on April 2nd, Delaware issued an alert relevant to recipients of the February 20th letters, indicating the 60-day response deadline will be extended from April 20th to May 22nd. https://vda.delaware.gov/alert/
DC	Indirect Tax	Pursuant to a recently enacted ordinance, the Office of Tax Revenue on March 20 issued Tax Notice 2020-02 indicating that it will automatically waive interest and penalties for failure to timely pay sales and use tax due for periods ending on February 29, and March 31, 2020. These liabilities must be paid in full by July 20. Failure to do so will result in the assessment of penalties and interest accruing from the original due date. Taxpayers are still required to file the requisite returns. Hotels and motels eligible for a deferral of the first of tax year 2020 property tax installment are not eligible for the sales tax relief. https://otr.cfo.dc.gov/node/1468186
DC	Income Tax	The deadline for taxpayers to file and pay their 2019 District of Columbia individual and fiduciary income tax returns (D-40, D-41, and D-40B), partnership tax returns (D-65), and franchise tax returns (D-20, D-30) is extended to July 15, 2020. This extension applies to all D-20, D-30, D-40, D-41, D-40B, and D-65 tax filers, and includes combined return filers. The deadlines to file Forms D-20ES, D-30ES, D-40ES and D-41ES and to make estimated tax payments remains unchanged. The first quarter payments are due April 15, 2020, and the second quarter payments are due June 15, 2020. https://otr.cfo.dc.gov/release/otr-tax-notice-2020-03-covid-19-emergency-income-and-franchise-tax-extension
DC	Property Tax	On March 18, the Office of Tax and Revenue issued Tax Notice 2020-01 announcing that a hotel, motel, or similar establishment (as defined) may pay its first half of tax year 2020 real property tax installment through June 20, 2020, and such payment will be consider timely to the extent it brings the liability current. Penalty and interest for prior periods is unaffected, and a taxpayer may not designate a payment as applicable to a particular period. Qualifying taxpayers are not eligible for the sales tax relief announced in Tax Notice 2020-02. https://otr.cfo.dc.gov/sites/default/files/dc/sites/otr/publication/attachments/OTR%20Notice-Hotels%20and%20Motels%20FINAL.pdf
Florida	Property Tax	An Executive Order of Emergency Waiver/Deviation # 20-52-DOR-01 applies to all 67 Florida counties. Property tax is normally due by March 31 in the year following the year the taxes are assessed. The Department waives the due date so that payments remitted by April 15, 2020, for the 2019 tax year will be considered timely paid. Property tax returns for railroad, railroad terminal, private car and freight line and equipment company property are normally due by April 1. Returns will be timely filed if filed by April 15, 2020.
Florida	Income Tax	The Florida Department of Revenue has issued an emergency order extending certain corporate income/franchise tax returns and payments. For corporations with a fiscal year ending December 31, 2019, the May 1, 2020 due date for returns is extended to August 3, 2020 and the May 1, 2020 due date for payments is extended until June 1, 2020. The due date for submitting a request for an extension of time to file the return and make any tentative payment is extended to June 1, 2020. The announcement also extends the return and payment due dates for corporations with a fiscal year ending January 31, 2020 and February 29, 2020.

Georgia	Income Tax	The Georgia Department of Revenue is automatically extending the filing and payment deadlines for 2019 income tax returns to July 15, 2020. For fiscal year filers, if the state income tax return for the fiscal year ending during 2019 is due on or after April 15, 2020 and before July 15, 2020, the due date is likewise postponed to July 15, 2020, regardless of whether that is the original due date or the due date on extension. State income tax estimated payments due on or after April 15, 2020 and before July 15, 2020 are also extended to July 15, 2020. The extension applies to the net worth tax that is included on certain income tax returns and the initial net worth tax return.
Hawaii	Income Tax	The Department has determined that any person with a 2019 State individual or corporate income tax filing requirement or payment due from April 20, 2020 to June 20, 2020, is affected by the COVID-19 pandemic. For all Affected Taxpayers, the due date for filing 2019 State income tax returns due from April 20, 2020 to June 20, 2020 is postponed to July 20, 2020. For all Affected Taxpayers, the due date for making 2019 State income tax payments due from April 20, 2020 to June 20, 2020 is postponed to July 20, 2020. The relief applies solely to returns and payments for an Affected Taxpayer's 2019 taxable year due from April 20, 2020 to June 20, 2020. The relief provided in this Announcement does not include estimated income tax payments for the 2020 taxable year. https://tax.hawaii.gov/wp-content/uploads/2020/03/2019-only-Tax-ANN-2020-01-COVID19-Relief-2020-03-23.pdf
Idaho	Income	Governor Little has extended the 2019 Idaho income tax filing and payment deadlines from April 15, 2020, to June 15, 2020. The extension applies to all taxpayers – including individuals, businesses, and entities – regardless of the amount owed. Penalty and interest won't apply if taxpayers file their return and pay the income tax they owe by June 15, 2020. Per a FAQ , the income tax payment extension to June 15 covers income tax estimated payments that are normally due April 15, including for fiscal year filers. https://tax.idaho.gov/n-feed.cfm?idd=4313
Illinois	Indirect Tax	The Department of Revenue has released an Informational Bulletin announcing that eating and drinking establishments that had a total sales tax liability in calendar year 2019 of less than $75,000 will not be charged penalties or interest on late payments of sales tax that are due for the February, March and April 2020 reporting periods. The taxes due during this period will be paid in four monthly installments as outlined in the Bulletin beginning on May 20, 2020. Taxpayers need not request relief, but they must file the required returns. https://www2.illinois.gov/rev/research/publications/bulletins/Documents/2020/FY2020-23.pdf
Illinois	Income Tax	The 2019 income tax filing and payment deadlines for all taxpayers who file and pay their Illinois income taxes on April 15, 2020, are automatically extended until July 15, 2020. This relief applies to all individual returns, trusts, and corporations. This does not impact the first and second installments of estimated payments for 2020 taxes that are due April 15 and June 15, 2020. https://www2.illinois.gov/rev/research/publications/bulletins/Documents/2020/FY2020-24.pdf
Illinois: City of Chicago	Various	On April 15, 2020 the Department of Finance announced that the City is extending until June 1 the due dates for February, March, and April tax payments for the following City taxes: Bottled Water tax, Checkout Bag tax, Amusement tax, Hotel Accommodation tax, Restaurant tax, Ground Transportation tax, and Parking tax. In addition, the City announced that no additional interest will accrue from March 17, 2020 through June 1, 2020 on late tax payments for the periods July 2019 through January 2020 for these taxes. Instructions for making the deferral are included at the above link.

Indiana	Property Tax	On April 15, Indiana Governor Holcomb issued an executive order specifying that while local property taxes and certain special assessments and fees remain due on May 11, each county is to waive penalties that would be applied to late payments for a period of 60 days. The waiver applies to conservancy district assessments, ditch and drain assessments, solid waste fees and storm water assessment fees and other fees and taxes imposed by a local government, and paid along with the May 11 installment of property taxes. The April 15 order was a supplemental to an order of March 19 providing a similar waiver of penalties for late payment of property taxes due on May 11. The first order applied to local general property taxes, except those escrowed by a financial institution on behalf of the taxpayer.
Iowa	Income	For Iowa residents and taxpayers doing business in Iowa, the Department of Revenue will extend through July 31, 2020 filings for various types of returns (e.g., individual income, corporate income, composite, fiduciary, S-Corporation, franchise tax, partnership, and moneys and credits tax reports) due on or after March 19, 2020 and before July 31, 2020. The Department will also extend until July 31, 2020 the time to pay taxes due associated with those returns. This extension of time to pay taxes due does not apply to estimated tax payments. For taxpayers that remit income tax withholding on a semi-monthly basis, the deposit due date for the period ending March 15, 2020 is extended from March 25, 2020 to April 10, 2020. No late-filing or underpayment penalties shall be due for qualifying taxpayers who comply with the extended filing and payment deadlines. https://tax.iowa.gov/iowa-issues-order-related-estimated-tax-payments
Iowa	Sales and use tax and withholding	The Department of Revenue has announced a tax deferral program for businesses of all sizes affected by COVID-19. For any sales and/or withholding tax filing due during the period beginning March 20, 2020, through the close of business on April 30, 2020, the tax deferral provides an additional 60 days from the original due date to file and remit the tax owed. Penalty associated with sales and/or withholding tax filings due during the period beginning March 20, 2020, through close of business on April 30, 2020, will be waived. Interest is waived for 60 days from the date the tax return was originally due. If a payment has not been made within those 60 days, interest will begin to accrue on the outstanding balance due on the first day of the calendar month after the 60th day. The deferral is NOT AUTOMATIC. Businesses must submit an applications describing the economic injury sustained because of the COVID-19 disaster and be approved by the Department before the deferral is granted.
Iowa	Property	On April 2, 2020, the Governor of Iowa issued an additional order suspending penalties and interest related to late property tax payments for the duration of the proclamation and any future extension of this suspension. [See Sec. 59 of the Order.]
Kansas	Various	The Kansas Director of Taxation has extended the deadline for filing the 2019 tax returns for Individual Income Tax, Fiduciary Income Tax, Corporate Income Tax and Privilege Tax to July 15, 2020. The payment due date has also been extended to July 15, 2020. The deadline for filing the 2019 tax returns for Fiduciary Income Tax, Corporate Income Tax and Privilege Tax returns of fiscal filers with due dates between April 15, 2020 and July 15, 2020, is extended July 15, 2020. In a subsequent announcement, the Department announced that penalties and interest imposed on individual and corporate income taxes and privilege tax estimated payments due April 15, 2020 will be waived if the payments are made on or before July 15, 2020.

New Hampshire	Various	The due date for filing Business Tax or Interest and Dividends Tax returns for 2019 remains unchanged. Under current law, taxpayers who have paid their tax in full by the return due date are entitled to an automatic 7-month extension of the time to file the New Hampshire Business Tax or Interest & Dividends Tax return. To provide relief to taxpayers required to file returns on April 15, 2020 who are unable to accurately calculate their tax year 2019 liability for purposes of qualifying for the automatic 7- month extension due to the current COVID-19 pandemic, the DRA will not assess any applicable interest or penalties against taxpayers who file their returns and pay any remaining balance due within the automatic 7-month extension, if by April 15, 2020 they have paid an amount no less than their total tax year 2018 tax liability. The DRA will offer relief from applicable interest and penalties for certain qualifying Business Tax and Interest & Dividends Tax taxpayers impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic who are unable to pay an amount due on April 15, 2020, provided that payment of any remaining unpaid balance is made by June 15, 2020. This relief is available for any Business Tax or Interest & Dividends Tax return or extension payment due on April 15, 2020 as well as any Business Tax or Interest & Dividends Tax quarterly estimated tax payment due on April 15, 2020. Interest and penalties will accrue without any relief on such payments that are not satisfied as of June 16, 2020. A taxpayer shall qualify for this additional payment relief as follows: (1) Business Tax taxpayers whose tax year 2018 total tax liability was $50,000 or less. (2) Interest & Dividends Tax taxpayers whose tax year 2018 total tax liability was $10,000 or less. https://www.revenue.nh.gov/tirs/documents/2020-001.pdf

Virginia	Indirect Tax	On April 24, Governor Northam signed HB 29 which waives Interest for the late payment on any sales tax payment originally due March 20, 2020 for which a waiver of a late filing penalty was granted by the Department of Taxation, provided that such payment is submitted to the Department by April 20, 2020. See also Tax Bulletin 20-5
Virginia	Income Tax	On April 27, 2020, the Department of Taxation issued Tax Bulletin 20-5 announcing that any income tax payments due during the period of April 1, 2020 to June 1, 2020 may be deferred until June 1, 2020 without the assessment of any late filing penalty or interest. The extension applies to individual, corporate and fiduciary income taxes as well as any estimated income tax payments due during this period. The Department is not extending time to file returns. While the interest waiver and the payment extension do apply to the amount of income tax paid with a composite return, this relief does not apply to nonresident withholding tax.
Washington	B&O Tax Indirect Tax	Businesses that are unable to file their monthly, quarterly, or annual returns may be eligible for relief. The Quarter 1 2020 return is extended to June 30, 2020 and the annual 2019 return is now due on June 15, 2020. Monthly filers may request an extension for paying tax returns by ending a secure email in your My DOR account or by calling Revenue's customer service at 360-705-6705, Monday through Friday 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. The Department currently has the authority to waive interest through April 17, 2020. https://www.governor.wa.gov/issues/issues/covid-19-resources/covid-19-resources-businesses-and-workers?utm_medium=email&utm_source=govdelivery
Washington: City of Seattle	B&O Tax	Effective immediately, the department of Finance and Administrative Services (FAS) will defer business and occupation (B&O) tax collections for eligible business owners, allowing small business owners increased flexibility during a period of financial duress caused by the COVID-19 outbreak. Eligible businesses include those that have annual taxable income of $5 million or less and currently pay City taxes on a quarterly basis. These businesses will have until late 2020 to pay their B&O under this plan. The City estimates that 20,000 businesses could be eligible for this, based on B&O reporting. https://durkan.seattle.gov/2020/03/following-outreach-to-small-business-owners-mayor-durkan-announces-initial-recovery-package-to-ease-financial-impacts-of-covid-19-outbreak/
West Virginia	Income Tax	The deadline for filing 2019 annual income tax returns for individuals, fiduciaries, trusts, or estates and corporations has been extended from April 15, 2020 to July 15, 2020. This relief also extends to estimated tax payments for tax year 2020 that are due between April 15, 2020 and June 15, 2020 for individuals, fiduciaries, trusts or estates, corporations, and pass-thru entities. Fiscal-year filers with 2019 returns due on April 15, 2020, whether that is the original due date or the due date on extension, will be allowed an extension to file and pay to July 15, 2020. https://tax.wv.gov/Documents/AdministrativeNotices/2020/AdministrativeNotice.2020-16.pdf
West Virginia	Property Tax	Governor Jim Justice announced in a press conference that he will be waiving all interest and penalties on property tax filings until Friday, May 1, 2020. https://tax.wv.gov/Documents/Publications/Covid19Response/ExecutiveOrder.13-20.Covid19Response.pdf
Wisconsin	Indirect Tax	Taxpayers may request a one-month extension to file an excise tax return (motor fuel, alcohol and tobacco) and/or a sales and use tax return. Request an extension before the unextended due date of the return through My Tax Account or by emailing

		DORExciseTaxpayerAssistance@wisconsin.gov. The email request must include the taxpayer's name, address, identification number, and the reporting period for which the extension is requested. There is not an extension of time to pay excise taxes to the department. Interest will be imposed during the one-month extension period at a rate of one percent. https://www.revenue.wi.gov/Pages/TaxPro/2020/TaxDeadlinesExtendedCOVID.pdf
Wisconsin	Income Tax	The Department of Revenue will follow the federal extensions of time to file and pay 2019 income taxes to July 15, 2020 for various types of returns including individual income, fiduciary income, partnership, composite, corporate income, exempt corporation, exempt trusts, and tax option (S) corporations. There will be no interest or penalties imposed for the period of April 15, 2020 to July 15, 2020. The due date for any estimated tax payments and partnership withholding payments due between April 15, 2020 and July 15, 2020 is likewise extended to July 15, 2020. https://www.revenue.wi.gov/Pages/TaxPro/2020/TaxDeadlinesExtendedCOVID.pdf
Wisconsin	Indirect	The Department of Revenue on March 27 issued a release indicating that small businesses can immediately request an extension to file the sales tax return due March 31 on April 30 and to extend the April 30 return to June 1, 2020. According to email correspondence with the Department, it is using the definition of "small business" in state law which defines a small business as "a business entity, including its affiliates, which is independently owned and operated and not dominant in its field, and which employs 25 or fewer full-time employees or which has gross annual sales of less than $5,000,000." The extension applies only to return filing; interest will begin to accrue on the original due date at 12% annually unless the legislature changes the current law. The extension request may be emailed to DORRegistration@wisconsin.gov . In addition, the Department has reduced the interest rate for unpaid balances on sales and use tax returns due March 31 and April 30, 2020. Requests to reduce the rate on any billings for those two months should be sent to DORTOBReturnAdjustment@wisconsin.gov . The Department also issued guidance on changes in various compliance, audit and enforcement procedures.
