|--------------|--------------|---|
| Alabama | Property Tax | The Commissioner of Revenue issued an order providing that motor vehicle registrations and motor vehicle property tax payments due in March 2020 have been automatically extended through April 15, 2020. The extensions includes vehicles acquired needing to be registered within 20 days, if purchased between March 17 and April 15, 2020. Penalties associated with vehicle registrations and renewals and vehicle property taxes will not be charged until April 16, 2020. https://revenue.alabama.gov/2020/03/order-of-the-commissioner-of-revenue/ |
| Alabama | Indirect Tax | The Commissioner of the Department of Revenue issued an order providing a waiver of late penalties for small businesses with monthly retail sales during the previous calendar year averaging $62,500 or less and that are unable to pay sales and use tax for the periods of February, March, and April 2020. Late payment penalties will be waived through June 1, 2020. On March 19, the Commissioner of Revenue issued an order announcing that businesses registered with the Department under NAICS code 72 (establishments providing lodging and/or preparing meals, snacks, and beverages for immediate consumption) are granted a waiver of late payment penalties for their February, March and April 2020 state sales tax liabilities through June 1, 2020. On March 20, 2020, the Commissioner also issued an order providing state transient occupancy (lodging) taxpayers with a waiver of late payment penalties for their state lodging tax liabilities for the February, March and April 2020 liabilities through June 1, 2020. https://revenue.alabama.gov/coronavirus-covid-19-outbreak-updates/ |
| Alabama | Income Tax | The Alabama Department of Revenue announced that the state income tax filing due date is extended from April 15, 2020, to July 15, 2020. Taxpayers can also defer state income tax payments due on April 15, 2020, to July 15, 2020, without penalties and interest, regardless of the amount owed. This deferment applies to all taxpayers, including individuals, trusts and estates, corporations and other non-corporate tax filers. The state income tax filing due date is also extended from April 15, 2020, to July 15, 2020. Other taxes included in the deadline extension are corporate income tax, the Financial Institution Excise Tax (FIET), and the Business Privilege Tax (BPT). Any pass-through entity required to file a 2019 composite income tax return and remit payments by March 15, 2020 on behalf of its non-resident members has an extension to July 15, 2020. |
| Alaska | Income Tax | In anticipation of the signing of SB 241, the Department of Revenue announced that it is extending the due date for tax returns and payments due on March 31, 2020 to July 15, 2020. This extension applies to all taxes, except Oil and Gas Production taxes, and applies to both return filing and payment. If signed, SB 241 would extend the filing and payment date for all |

Penalty or interest will not be assessed if returns and payments are received for the affected periods on or before July 15, 2020. The extension applies to all returns, including information reports and amended returns. Annual license renewal deadlines for Alcoholic Beverages, Fisheries, Mining, Motor Fuel, and Tobacco tax programs are not extended under this Act; however, any associated license fees can be paid on or before July 15, 2020 without penalty or interest. http://tax.alaska.gov/programs/documentviewer/viewer.aspx?159n |
| Arizona | Income Tax | On March 20, 2020, the Department of Revenue announced that it was moving the deadline for filing and paying state income tax returns from April 15 to July 15, 2020. The extension applies to individual, corporate and fiduciary returns, and taxpayers will not be assessed a late filing or payment penalty if returns and payments are submitted by July 15. Taxpayers requiring an extension beyond July 15 should file a state extension request unless they have previously received a federal extension—in which case, no state request is necessary. https://azdor.gov/news-events-notice/news/ador-extends-income-tax-deadline-july-15-2020 |
| Arkansas | Personal Income Tax | The deadline for filing and paying individual income taxes has been extended to July 15, 2020. In addition to personal income tax returns, Subchapter S, Fiduciary and Estate, Partnership Income Tax and Composite return due dates and payments are also extended. This extension does not apply to 2020 estimated Individual Income Tax payments due on April 15 or June 15. https://www.dfa.arkansas.gov/news/details/covid-19-dfa-frequently-asked-questions |
| California | Income Tax | The FTB has announced extensions of time to file and pay for calendar year taxpayers and fiscal year taxpayers. For calendar year filers with returns or payments due in March or April, the COVID-19 due date to file and pay is July 15, 2020. For fiscal year filers with filing or payment due dates between March 15, 2020 and July 15, 2020, the COVID-19 due date is July 15, 2020. New COVID-19 estimated payment due dates are July 15, 2020. Per the FTB, taxpayers claiming the special COVID-19 relief should write the name of the state of emergency (for example, COVID-19) in black ink at the top of the tax return to alert FTB of the special extension period. If taxpayers are e-filing, they should follow the software instructions to enter disaster information. https://www.ftb.ca.gov/about-ftb/newsroom/covid-19/help-with-covid-19.html |
| California | Indirect Tax | In accordance with an executive order of Governor Newsom, the CDTFA announced on March 31, 2020 an extension for all returns and payments that are due on or before July 31, 2020. The extension applies to all taxes and fees administered by the CDTFA and is available to businesses filing a return for less than $1 million in tax. For qualifying taxpayers, first quarter 2020 sales tax returns (and any payment accompanying the return) are now due on July 31, 2020. Taxpayers are not required to file a request for extension or a request for relief from penalty or interest, and this automatic extension will remain in effect through the reporting of taxes and fees due on or before July 31, 2020. The governor's order also provides taxpayers with an additional 60 days to file refund claims with the CDTFA. Taxpayers seeking an appeal of a CDTFA tax determination will have an additional 60 days to file the request with the Office of Tax Appeals. |
| California | Indirect Tax | On April 2, 2020, the CDTFA announced small business taxpayers (those with less than $5 million in taxable annual sales) can enter into a 12-month, interest-free, payment plan for up to $50,000 of sales and use tax liability. Qualifying sales and use taxpayers with deferred liabilities up to $50,000 will pay their tax due in 12 equal monthly installments. No interest or penalties will be assessed against the liability. Payment plan requests can be made through the CDTFA's online services system in the coming months. |

| Massachusetts | Indirect Tax | On March 19, 2020, the Department of Revenue issued an emergency regulation extending the sales tax filing and payment date for taxpayers whose total liability for the 12-months ending February 29, 2020 is less than $150,000. The regulation provides that for affected taxpayers, the return and payment date for the period beginning March 20, 2020 and ending May 31, 2020, inclusive, shall be suspended, and the returns and payments will be due on June 20, 2020. Another emergency regulation makes the same adjustments to the filing and payment of the room occupancy excise tax; it is limited to the same category of taxpayers and does not apply to intermediaries. https://www.mass.gov/regulations/830-CMR-62c162-sales-and-use-tax-returns-and-payments; https://www.mass.gov/regulations/830-CMR-64g11-massachusetts-room-occupancy-excise On March 19, 2020, the Department of Revenue issued Technical Information Release 20-2 announcing that it will provide relief from late filing and late payment penalties for periods between March 30, 2020 through May 31, 2020 for taxpayers with meals tax return and payment obligations that were not eligible for the relief provided in an emergency regulation providing relief to such taxpayers with less than $150,000 in liability in 2019. The relief applies only to penalties; interest will continue to accrue from the original due date. All returns and payments for the affected periods will be due June 20, 2020. The penalty waiver is also applicable for the same periods for all operators and intermediaries with room occupancy excise return and payment obligations. https://www.mass.gov/technical-information-release/tir-20-2-late-file-and-late-pay-penalty-relief-for-certain-business |
| Massachusetts | Income Tax | In TIR 20-4, the Department announced that returns and payments for the 2019 calendar year otherwise due on April 15, 2020 (including estimated payments due April 15 and June 15) are now due July 15, 2020. The July 15, 2020 due date applies to personal income tax, estate and trust income tax, and income tax due with a partnership composite return. It also applies to an April, 2020 tax installment owed by a personal income taxpayer with respect to deemed repatriated income. In addition, the Commissioner will waive late-file and late-pay penalties for corporate excise (including financial institution and insurance premiums excise) returns and payments due on April 15, 2020, when those returns and payments are filed and made by July 15, 2020. By law, interest will still accrue on any amounts not paid by April 15, 2020. The waiver of penalties likewise applies to S corporations and non-profits that file on a fiscal-year basis and have tax returns and payments due April 15, 2020. |
| Michigan | Indirect Tax | On March 17, 2020 the Department of Treasury announced that it will be waiving penalties and interest for the late payment of tax or the late filing of a sales and use tax return due March 20, 2020. | Wisconsin | Indirect | The Department of Revenue on March 27 issued a release indicating that small businesses can immediately request an extension to file the sales tax return due March 31 on April 30 and to extend the April 30 return to June 1, 2020. According to email correspondence with the DoR, it is using the definition of "small business" in state law which defines a small business as "a business entity, including its affiliates, which is independently owned and operated and not dominant in its field, and which employs 25 or fewer full-time employees or which has gross annual sales of less than $5,000,000." The extension applies only to return filing; interest will begin to accrue on the original due date at 12% annually unless the legislature changes the current law. The extension request may be emailed to DORRegistration@wisconsin.gov . In addition, the DoR has reduced the interest rate for unpaid balances on sales and use tax returns due March 31 and April 30, 2020. Requests to reduce the rate on any billings for those two months should be sent to DORTOBReturnAdjustment@wisconsin.gov . The DoR also issued guidance on changes in various compliance, audit and enforcement procedures. |
