

TaxNewsFlash

United States

No. 2020-727
November 30, 2020

KPMG report: IRS partnership enforcement ramps up

There are indications that in 2021, the IRS could enhance the audits of partnerships.

Historically, the IRS showed mixed success with its partnership audit program. Both the Government Accountability Office and the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration have challenged the IRS to do a better job auditing partnerships, especially large partnerships. For years, the IRS has committed to do just that, and in 2021, the IRS may finally deliver on its commitment.

Read a November 2020 report* [PDF 188 KB] prepared KPMG LLP tax professionals

*This article originally appeared in a BNA Bloomberg publication and is reproduced with permission.

The information contained in TaxNewsFlash is not intended to be "written advice concerning one or more Federal tax matters" subject to the requirements of section 10.37(a)(2) of Treasury Department Circular 230, as the content of this document is issued for general informational purposes only, is intended to enhance the reader's knowledge on the matters addressed therein, and is not intended to be applied to any specific reader's particular set of facts. Although we endeavor to provide accurate and timely information, there can be no guarantee that such information is accurate as of the date it is received or that it will continue to be accurate in the future. Applicability of the information to specific situations should be determined through consultation with your tax adviser.

KPMG International is a Swiss cooperative that serves as a coordinating entity for a network of independent member firms. KPMG International provides no audit or other client services. Such services are provided solely by member firms in their respective geographic areas. KPMG International and its member firms are legally distinct and separate entities. They are not and nothing contained herein shall be construed to place these entities in the relationship of parents, subsidiaries, agents, partners, or joint venturers. No member firm has any authority (actual, apparent, implied or otherwise) to obligate or bind KPMG International or any member firm in any manner whatsoever.

Direct comments, including requests for subscriptions, to Washington National Tax. For more information, contact KPMG's Federal Tax Legislative and Regulatory Services Group at + 1 202.533.4366, 1801 K Street NW, Washington, DC 20006-1301.

To unsubscribe from TaxNewsFlash-United States, reply to Washington National Tax.

Privacy | Legal