Russia: Updated CRS Reporting Format Guidance and XSD Schema

On 19 November 2020, the Federal Tax Service (FTS) of the Russian Federation issued an updated technical document providing guidance for electronic reporting of financial market information. The updates are related to the foreign Tax Identification Number (TIN) of an individual, name of an individual, country of birth and the owner of a legal entity contract.

Additionally, FTS also issued updated version 5.04 of XSD Schema for data control of the CRS reports sent by the financial market organization.
