Uruguay: Updated CRS Submission Details

On 04 April 2024, the Direccion General Impositiva (DGI) issued updates for Financial Institutions (FIs) regarding the submission of Common Reporting Standards (CRS) reports. The production environment required for the submission of CRS reports is available beginning 1 April 2024. CRS reports, along with corrections, must be sent between 1 April 2024 and 30 June 2024. Reporting FIs will have an additional period of 30 calendar days, beginning 1 July 2024, to send any corrections made to the data submitted. The DGI notes that the simulation environment will be available simultaneously with the production environment for the submission of CRS reports.

The DGI also released technical guidance which includes instructions to authenticate and operate in the Automatic Exchange of Financial Information (AEOI) portal.
