United Kingdom: Issued updates to the AEOI Registration Guidance

On 18 January 2019, Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs ("HMRC") issued updates to the Automatic Exchange of Information (AEOI) registration guidance. This guidance provides financial institutions with the steps for creating an account to access the AEOI service and additional information required to complete the registration of the Financial Institution.

The additional requirement is to furnish a contact telephone number at the time of completing the registration.

Additionally the list of Reportable Jurisdictions was updated for the 2018 reporting period at <https://www.gov.uk/hmrc-internal-manuals/international-exchange-of-information/ieim402340> and <https://www.gov.uk/hmrc-internal-manuals/international-exchange-of-information/ieim400090>.
